Auburndale, Dec. 30, 1855.

My dear Clemens:

The Library of A. is complete except about 10 or 20 short biographical notes that I can readily attend to, and a selection from my humor which it can get along very well without, or Clark can make up in a day's notice, any time. His work is done, and all done, and you can send him this to let him know that I say so.

P. S. and I will be on hand.

Yours ever
W. D. Howells.
