I

The Academic Procession

The Audience is requested to remain seated until the President's Party reaches the platform.

II

Invocation

THE REVEREND ALAN CONDIE TULL, Th.D.

III

Hymn

We gather together to ask the Lord's blessing;
He chastens and hastens his will to make known;
The wicked oppressing now cease from distressing:
Sing praises to his Name; he forgets not his own.

Beside us to guide us, our God with us joining,
Ordaining, maintaining his kingdom divine;
So from the beginning the fight we were winning:
Thou, Lord, wast at our side: all glory be thine!

We all do extol thee, thou leader triumphant,
And pray that thou still our defender wilt be.
Let thy congregation escape tribulation:
Thy Name be ever praised! O Lord, make us free!
Amen.

Presentation of the Book

SECRETARY OF THE FACULTY

This precious book has been touched by each graduating class on Commencement day. It is a symbol of knowledge committed to the care of the Faculty during this past year. On behalf of the Faculty I now present it to you, Mr. President, that you may once again place it in the hands of those who are about to be graduated.

PRESIDENT

I accept this book held in your loyal custody and I gratefully thank all of you for educating these men and women devotedly in the tradition of Trinity College.

Charge to the Graduating Class

PRESIDENT JAMES FAIRFIELD ENGLISH, JR., J.D.

XI

'Neath the Elms

'Neath the elms of our old
Trinity.

'Neath the elms of our dear old
Trinity

Oh it's seldom we'll meet,
In the moonlight so sweet,
'Neath the elms of our old
Trinity.

College days are from care and sorrow free,
And oft will we seek in memory
Those days that are past,
Far too joyous to last,
'Neath the elms of our old
Trinity.

Then we'll sing to our old
Trinity,
To our dear old Alma Mater,
Trinity;
We're together today,
And tomorrow away,
Faraway from our old Trinity.

'Neath the elms of our old
Trinity,
'Neath the elms of our dear old
Trinity,
No more shall we meet,
Our classmates to greet,
'Neath the elms of our old
Trinity.

The Owen Morgan Mace

The mace which precedes the president in academic processions, and is a symbol of his executive powers, was presented to Trinity in 1950 in memory of Owen Morgan, Class of 1906, who served his Alma Mater as a member of the Board of Fellows, as a Trustee, and as treasurer of the College. Historically, maces were first used as weapons in warfare and later became a symbol of the sovereign and his power. One of the first known uses of a mace by an educational institution was at Cambridge University in the thirteenth century. Today a number of colleges use the mace as a symbol of authority and of the power invested in the president by the faculty and trustees. The Morgan Mace is made of ebony, signifying endurance; bronze, meaning power; and gold, symbolizing dignity and glory. It is 44 inches long and weighs 20 pounds. The fluted staff represents the various components of an enduring education. It is bound by a gold ribbon, inscribed with the names of every Trinity president. On the head, or urn, of the mace are six seals of the sources of life and growth of this College: the Great Seal of the United States; the Seal of the State of Connecticut; the Charter Oak; the original seal of the City of Hartford; the Washington Coat of Arms; and the seal of the Episcopal Diocese of Connecticut. Surmounting the Gothic urn is the Trinity College seal crowned by an eagle about to take flight, symbolizing the freedom and power of an educated person.

The Presidential Collar

The collar, which is worn on ceremonial occasions, is the visible symbol of the president's high office and authority. The collar was presented to the College in 1953 by former President G. Keith Funston, Class of 1932, in memory of his grandmother, Maria Briggs Keith. The chain symbolically links modern higher education with the universities of yesteryear. The golden seal of the Trinity President hangs from the collar which is fashioned of 20 replicas of the Trinity Elms and seven silver seals including the six reproduced in the mace, and the Trinity College seal superimposed on a triangle representing the religious foundations of the College crowned by a sun signifying enlightenment. In the lower corners of the triangle are the Book and a pair of student's hands extended to receive it, symbolizing the desire of youth to receive an education.

The Academic Costume

In 1895 a commission of leading American educators established the Inter-collegiate Code on matters pertaining to the academic costume. Of particular interest is the significance of the color of the hood. The color of the lining of the hood is that of the college or university conferring the degree. The edging of the hood and the tassel of the cap indicate the subject to which the degree pertains, in accordance with the following official designation (this Code is applicable only to colleges and universities within the United States):

Agriculture	Maize
Arts, Letters, Humanities	White
Commerce, Accountancy, Business	Drab
Dentistry	Lilac
Economics	Copper
Education	Light Blue
Engineering	Orange
Fine Arts, including Architecture	Brown
Forestry	Russet
Home Economics	Maroon
Journalism	Crimson
Law	Purple
Library Science	Lemon
Medicine	Green
Music	Pink
Nursing	Apricot
Oratory (Speech)	Silver Gray
Pharmacy	Olive Green
Philosophy	Dark Blue
Physical Education	Sage Green
Public Administration, including Foreign Service	Peacock Blue
Public Health	Salmon Pink
Science	Golden Yellow
Social Work	Citron
Theology	Scarlet
Veterinary Science	Gray

Trinity College is one of the few institutions of higher learning in this country which differs from the above list because the colors of Trinity hoods were established prior to formulation of the Code. Following are the colors of the academic hoods symbolizing the honorary degrees conferred by Trinity:

Doctor of Canon Law	Doctor of Laws
Crimson, lined with black	Scarlet, lined with dark blue
Doctor of Divinity	Doctor of Music
Scarlet, lined with black	White, lined with pink
Doctor of Fine Arts	Doctor of Sacred Theology
White, lined with white and a red chevron	Scarlet, lined with blue and a gold chevron
Doctor of Humane Letters	Doctor of Science
Scarlet, lined with purple	Black, lined with light blue
Doctor of Letters	Master of Music
Scarlet, lined with russet brown	Black, lined with pink
Doctor of Humanities
White, lined with dark crimson
