1. Staff report - Barry Wingard announced that this will be his last meeting as a staff member. He is leaving Resist to enter school and work in a hospital, and will hopefully be going to medical school a year from now. Francis Ebanks, who lives in Boston, will be hired for the coming month to work on the mass fundraising mailing.

2. Financial report - September/October was a good month for Resist, with income from pledges topping the $3,000 mark. We should be able to grant $2,300 this time.

3. Report on security kit by Wendy Batson
The second installment of articles for the kit is nearing mailing stage. It should be ready to send out in ten days. Everyone who has paid for the kit will receive this part free, and the complete kit (with 2nd installment) will go out to all new orders. Everyone has the responsibility of seeing that the kit is advertised in newspapers, magazines, on radio, etc. in their areas. A complete list of jobs for this advertising campaign (as well as other responsibilities) is included as a separate sheet in these minutes. PLEASE DO READ AND DO THE THINGS WHICH WERE PROMISED AT THE MEETING.

4. Mass mailing report
Resist is beginning the undertaking of a semi-annual fundraising effort through the solicitation of money from the mailing lists of other movement organizations. Francis Ebanks will be hired to direct the mechanics of the effort, which should take about four weeks. After a discussion about the lack of direction of this mailing's letter, Paul Lauter agreed to make an effort to write the text of this mailing's letter. The STAFF will send Paul copies of recent newsletters to give him reminders of what kinds of things we have been funding most recently. STAFF will also work together with Francis to decide which mailing lists to use, and where to borrow money for the mailing if it becomes necessary to do so. This mailing should be done and mailed by the time of the next Resist meeting.

5. Report on Resist Speakers Bureau
Resist will re-publish a list of steering committee members in the newsletter along with suggested speaking topics. This was done once in the spring, but the fall (now) is a more appropriate time with the reopening of schools. The STAFF will need additional information about for this newsletter item from each Steering Committee member who is willing to be available to speak. PLEASE DO READ THE SECOND ATTACHED SHEET AND FILL OUT THE FORM AND MAIL IT BACK TO THE OFFICE QUICKLY.

6. Discussion about the Newsletter
There is a need for more organization and regularity in the Newsletter. Jennifer Riley is assuming the position of editor of the Newsletter. The newsletter will be published every three weeks. It will be expanded to six pages. All this will happen because of the creation, in Boston, of a new RESIST NEWSLETTER WORKING COMMITTEE. Included will be Jennifer as editor-in-chief, the staff, Shawn Donovan, Hans Koningsberger, Arlene Siegel, Claudette Piper, Barry Wingard, Wayne O'Neill, other area people if they want to. This committee should meet more or less informally as is necessary to get the newsletter out every three weeks, but IT SHOULD MEET WHEN NECESSARY. The committee will assume primary responsibility for the gathering and printing of information for the newsletter. However, others are encouraged to send interesting things to the office for consideration as articles or news items. A new and separate effort in conjunction with this newsletter committee will be made to solicit articles from the projects we are funding or have funded. The idea is to stimulate and circulate inter-project discussion about organizing successes and failure, methods of operation, what to do and not to do. This would be included with newsletter mailings ONLY TO THE OTHER PROJECTS THAT WE FUND, in an effort to encourage more active cooperation in all kinds of activities, from organizing methods to combatting police and government repression. This page will be apart from the newsletter, but will be included as mailing to the projects only.

an additional responsibility for this committee would be to be ready to meet as a RESIST crisis management team. That is, in events such as the Media document crisis, the impending crisis with the subpoena of Noam, they should be able to get together quickly to decide on press relations, the writing of an advertisement for publication immediately, and the immediate raising of funds. Re: Noam's subpoena, PLEASE SEE ATTACHED TASK SHEET.

7. Discussion of subpoenas of Richard Falk and Noam Chomsky

On October 27, Dick Falk and Noam Chomsky will be appearing before the Boston grand jury that is meeting to 'investigate' the Pentagon Papers episode. Falk has already refused to testify, is now going back having been given immunity, and so may be cited for contempt this time, should he refuse to talk again. Noam is appearing to answer a subpoena originally/1st/15/0ct postponed from the 15th of Oct. He is appearing for the first time, has not been granted immunity, and thus is one step 'behind' (?) Falk on the road to contempt. Both of them are raising some new political/legal arguments that will be argued on the 21st, in their absence. So the judge's mind will be fairly well set by the 27th, and events may move rather swiftly after that. At the meeting it was decided that:

1. Staff would meet with NOAM again to talk about what was discussed about his case at the Steering Committee meeting.

2. Resist would try to help NOAM and itself in the following three ways:
   a. by getting together a press statement (to be written by Louis and Wayne - together with Noam and Dick Falk) that could be read
   b. and released on the 27th at the courthouse.
   b. incorporate the resist statement into a petition to be circulated among academics taken from Resist mailing list and Louis' and Wayne's and Noam's and Florence's contacts with a place on the bottom for a statement of support for the right and responsibility of individuals to investigate into the criminal activities of the government. Also, a box for contributions to Resist to be made. Send it out as a mailing to the names we have and can get.
   c. An ad, to be prepared in advance (by Louis, Wayne, Hans, staff and anyone else who wants to help) to be used in the New York Review of Books, incorporating the text of the statement of Resist and the petition, which will list the names of the Resist Steering Committee, as updated with new addresses, etc.

8. Resist v. United States Justice Department, FBI, et. al.,

Resist will explore the cost of bringing suit against the governemtn for invasion of privacy and abridgement of our civil rights for its illegal activity in 1) tapping our telephone without warrant, 2) sifting through our garbage cans, 3) spying on our bank accounts without a warrant
Charles Nesson, of Harvard Law School Faculty, and counsel for Daniel Ellsberg and the Harrisburg defendants, thinking that a very strong case can be brought against the government. Final decision about whether to go on with this will be made after STAFF talks with Nesson and can find out what, if anything, it will cost.

9. Discussion of Tax Resistance and Resist

Staff will solicit an article from Henry Braun about this trial for tax resistance. Resist will cease to pay the phone tax immediately, sending a letter to explain the political nature of the act. Resist will not honor any liens against funds in our bank account for unpaid taxes. Resist will leave it up to employees to decide if they want to have taxes withheld from their paychecks, and will honor their requests.

The next meeting will be on Saturday, November the 13th, at 11 Am at 21 Rockledge Road, Newton Highlands, Massachusetts 02161. This is the address of Doug and McKay.
Everybody fill this out, even if you were at the meeting on October 17.

He is leaving Resist to enter school and work in a hospital, and will hopefully be going to medical school a year from now. Frances Eubanks, who lives in Boston, will be hired for the coming month to work on the mass fundraising mailing.

FINANCIAL REPORT- September/October was a good month for Resist, with income from pledges topping the $3,000 mark. We should be able to grant $2,300 this month.

REPORT ON THE SECURITY KIT by WENDY BATSON

The second installment of the articles for the security kit is nearing mailing stage. It should be ready to send out in ten days. Everyone who has paid for the kit will receive this part free, and the complete kit (with 2nd installment) will go out to all new orders. Everyone has the responsibility of seeing that the kit is advertised in newspapers, magazines, on radio, etc., in their areas. A complete list of jobs for this advertising campaign (as well as other responsibilities) is included as a separate sheet (page 4) in these minutes. PLEASE DO READ THEM AND DO THE THINGS WHICH WERE PROMISED AT THE MEETING.

MASS MAILING REPORT

Resist is beginning the undertaking of a semi-annual fundraising effort through the solicitations of money from the mailing lists of other movement organizations. Frances Eubanks will be hired to direct the mechanics of the effort, which should take about four weeks. After a brief discussion about the vagueness of our last month's proposal for the text of the letter, PAUL LAUTER agreed to make an effort to write the text of this mailing's letter. The STAFF will send Paul copies of recent newsletters to give him some reminders of what kinds of things we have been funding most recently. STAFF will also work together with Frances to decide which mailing lists to use, and where to borrow money for the mailing if it becomes necessary to do so. This mailing should be done and mailed by the time of the meeting next time.

RESIST SPEAKERS BUREAU

RESIST will republish a list of steering committee members in the newsletter along with suggested speaking topics. This was done once last spring, but may be more appropriate now, with the school year just begun. The STAFF will need additional information about people for this newsletter item. PLEASE READ THE ATTACHED SHEET AND FILL IT OUT AND THEN MAIL IT BACK TO US SOON.
DISCUSSION ABOUT THE NEWSLETTER

There is a need for more organization and regularity in the Newsletter. JENNIFER RILEY is assuming the position of editor of the Newsletter. The Newsletter will be published every three weeks. It will be expanded to six pages. All this will happen because of the creation, in Boston, of a new RESIST NEWSLETTER WORKING COMMITTEE. Included will be the STAFF, SHAWN DONOVAN, HANS KONINGSBERGER, ARLENE SIEGEL, CLAUDETTE PIPER, BARRY WINGARD, WAYNE O'NEILL, and any of the Boston area people who can and will want to help. This committee should meet more or less informally, as is necessary to get the newsletter out every three weeks. BUT IT SHOULD MEET WHEN NECESSARY. The committee will assume primary responsibility for the gathering and printing of information for the Newsletter. However, others are encouraged to send interesting things to the office for consideration as articles or news items.

A new and separate effort in conjunction with this newsletter committee will be made to solicit articles from the projects we are funding or have funded. The idea is to stimulate and circulate inter-project discussion about organizing successes and failures, methods of operation, what to do and not to do. This separate sheet of articles would be included with newsletter mailings ONLY WITH THE NEWSLETTERS SENT TO ALL OF THE PROJECTS WHICH RESIST FUNDS OR HAS FUNDED. Thus we will be making an active effort to facilitate cooperation in many areas, from organizing methods to combating police and government repression. This page will be apart from the newsletter, to be sent only to the local projects.

An additional responsibility for this Newsletter Committee will be to be ready to meet as a RESIST crisis management team. That is, in events such as the Media document disclosures, and the subpoenas appearance of NOAM CHOMSKY, they should be able to get together quickly to decide on press relations, the writing of an advertisement for publication immediately, and the immediate raising of funds.

DISCUSSION OF SUBPOENAS OF RICHARD FALK AND NOAM CHOMSKY

On October 27th, Dick Falk and Noam Chomsky will be appearing before a federal grand jury in Boston to answer subpoenas issued in the 'investigation' of the Pentagon Papers disclosures. Falk has already refused to testify one time, has been granted immunity, and is being summoned again to answer questions. Should he again refuse, he may be cited for contempt of court. Noam is appearing for the first time, postponed from his subpoena to appear the 15th of Oct. He is a step 'behind' (?) Falk, then, on the road to contempt. Both of them are raising some new political/legal arguments that will be fairly argued on the 21st. So the judge's mind will be fairly well set by the 27th, and events may move rather swiftly after that. At the meeting it was decided that:

1. STAFF will meet with NOAM again to talk about what was discussed about his case at the Steering Committee meeting.
2. Resist will try to help NOAM and itself in the following three ways:
   a. by getting together a press statement (to be written by Louis and Wayne - together with Noam and Dick Falk) that could be read and released on the 27th at the courthouse.
   b. incorporating the press statement into a petition to be circulated among academics taken from Resist's mailing list and Louis' and Wayne's and Noam's and Florence's contacts. The petition will have a place on the bottom for a statement of support for the right and responsibility of individuals to investigate into the criminal activities of the government. Also, a box for contributions to Resist to be made. Send it out as a mailing to the names from our New England list and to those we can get from Florence and the others.

c. An ad, to be prepared in advance (by Louis, Wayne, Hans, staff, and anyone else who wants to help) to be put in the New York Review of Books, incorporating the text of the statement and the petition, which will list the names of the Resist Steering Committee, updated with addresses, etc.

RESIST v. The Justice Department, FBI, Army Intelligence, etc.

Resist will explore the cost of bringing suit against the government for invasion of privacy and abridgement of civilrights for its illegal activity in 1) tapping our telephone, 2) sifting through our garbage cans, 3) spying on our bank accounts without a warrant. Charles Neason of Harvard Law School Faculty, lawyer for Noam and for Daniel Ellsberg and the Harrisburg defendants, thinks that a very strong case can be brought against the government. Final decision about whether to go on with this will be based on finding out more specifically what the suit would be about, and how much, if anything, it would cost. STAFF will talk with Neason this week.

RESIST AND TAX RESISTANCE

STAFF will solicit an article from Henry Braun about his trial in Philadelphia for war tax resistance. Resist will cease to pay the phone tax immediately, sending a letter to explain the political nature of the act. Resist will not honor any liens against fund in our bank account for unpaid taxes. Resist will leave it up to employees to decide if they want to have taxes withheld from their paychecks, and will honor their decisions.
