TRINITY COLLEGE
President's Office

May 26, 1922.

To the Members of the Class of 1926:

GREETING:

You are members of the group of your contemporaries who have been selected to receive at least four years more education than your fellows. At the time that you are entering college, hundreds of other young men of your age are beginning to work for their living. Owing to the self-sacrifice of your parents and the benefactions of previous generations you have been chosen to go on to college, representing the investment of the faith of the community. Our people believe in colleges; the public interest in them is increasing every year. Why? Because democracy craves leadership. Ten years from now you will be expected to be ahead of those high school and preparatory school graduates who have gone to work this summer; twenty and thirty years from now you must take your place as leaders in your community.

You have got four happy years ahead of you—those of you who can successfully pass all the elimination tests. In these days of genial fellowship, do not forget that enthusiasm, zeal and high ideals are not all that is required of you. They will help you to success, but after a man is thirty-five, there is no substitute that will take the place of brains.

R. B. OGILBY,
President.

GREETING:

In presenting this hand-book, the Interfraternity Council extends heartiest greetings and especially welcomes the Freshmen, who have come to Trinity College to secure the advantages of an education. You will in time become members of the vast and noble body of men known as Trinity Men and to help you in this high purpose the Council has edited this book, in order that you may become acquainted with some of the undergraduate features of Trinity life. Trinity has an atmosphere and spirit peculiar to itself; she stands for the highest type of American citizen as a scholar, athlete, and gentleman. In your hands for the next four years is in no small measure the trust of keeping this reputation unsullied; see that you enhance Trinity's fair name.

THE FIRST FEW DAYS OF COLLEGE

College opens on Thursday, September 21, and all entering men are expected to register on or before that date. The registration office is located in Williams Memorial Hall, and members of the faculty will be found there who will be glad to render assistance in the selection of courses and the filling out of cards incidental to registration.

All men coming to Trinity for the first time will find it greatly to their advantage to be on hand at least a day before the actual opening of college, in order that they may, as far as possible, get settled before classes begin.

As just suggested, it will be best to get your rooms at least partially furnished immediately. Second hand furniture is easily procured at very moderate prices from various men around the campus, and from Louis Schuler, the college janitor. Perhaps a word of warning is advisable here; don't buy things that, under ordinary circumstances, you would not accept as a gift.

Every room or suite of rooms has a private electricity meter. In order to have the current turned on it is necessary to make a deposit of $10.00 at the college office. Keys to your room may be had from former occupants or from the janitor, and it is advisable to keep your room locked when you leave it for any length of time during the first few days of the term.

College opens formally with services in the chapel at 5 o'clock Thursday afternoon. The seats in the chapel are arranged longitudinally, and Freshmen occupy the pews next the aisle. Students leave the chapel by classes, and the Freshmen class should wait until all others are out. The three upper classes then form in two lines outside of the Chapel door and the Freshmen must run the gauntlet. This is followed by several rushes between Freshmen and Sophomores, and you get a chance to test your strength for the coming scraps.

During the first two weeks you will in all probability have received invitations from one or another of the fraternities to visit their chapter. Bear in mind that your pledge is irrevocable and your membership in the fraternity with which you identify yourself lasts not only in college but throughout life. Therefore, take your time and make your choice that fraternity whose members are thoroughly congenial to you. (See Interfraternity Council, page 17.)

Classes start Friday morning at 8:50. Directions for the location of buildings and classrooms will be found elsewhere in this book. At noon Friday a meeting of the Freshmen class will be called for the purpose of the election of a class president, vice-president, secretary and treasurer. Any information concerning the coming scraps will be given at that time by the president of your sister class, the Juniors.

On Monday afternoon the Bulletin Board Rush takes place. The Sophomores surround the board and it is "up to" the Freshmen to touch it.

That night the Rope Rush is scheduled. The rope for both classes must be furnished by the Freshmen, also a brass band and the materials for a college smoker, which is held at some appropriate place.

The scrap itself lasts twenty minutes. The two classes separate and at a given signal rush each other, then endeavor to tie up as many of the other class as possible. The class tying up the largest number of opponents is awarded the fight. After the scrap the entire college body, headed by the band, marches downtown, stopping at the President's House and the State Capitol, where "Neath the Elms" is sung. The smoker ends the occasion.

Remember that a class is judged largely at first by the showing it makes in the rushes.

Freshman Caps

As a symbol of being a member of the Freshman Class each freshman is required to wear a Freshman Cap at all times, Sunday excepted. This cap serves as a convenient way of knowing your classmates; see that your classmates have the proper spirit and wear their insignia, too.

THE COLLEGE BUILDINGS

As originally planned Trinity College was to have consisted of a quadrangle which would entirely surround the present campus. Only one side of this quadrangle has been completed, consisting of Jarvis and Seabury Halls and Northam Towers. Jarvis and Seabury were completed in 1878. They are named for the two dormitories which formerly stood on the site of the present State Capitol. In 1882 the first side of the quadrangle was completed with the erection of the middle building, Northam Towers, named for its donor.

Jarvis Hall is the principal dormitory and consists of seven sections containing forty-two suites of rooms and accommodations for approximately one hundred men.

Northam Towers is the second dormitory and accommodates fifty men.

Seabury Hall contains the Greek, History, Economics, English and Modern Language Recitation rooms, the Tripod office, the Public Speaking Room and the College Union. There is also a dormitory with accommodations for twenty-five men.

The St. John Observatory was built in 1883. It stands at the south end of the main building and is equipped with sufficient apparatus for elementary work in astronomy.

Boardman Hall of Natural History is situated on the South Campus, west of the Jarvis laboratories. Its three floors are devoted to the laboratories and classrooms of the departments of Biology, Geology, Mathematics, Civil Engineering, Drawing and Psychology. Large aquaria, the property of the United States Government, and a vivarium are situated in the basement.

Jarvis Hall of Science is situated a short distance south of Boardman Hall. The two main floors are devoted to the study of physics and chemistry, and each contains a lecture room and laboratories for experimental work. In the basement is placed electric apparatus and a room for shop work.

The Gymnasium and Alumni Hall are situated in one building located on the east campus between the college building and the Athletic Field. The building is supplied with modern apparatus on the main floor, a padded running track, locker rooms, shower baths, etc. The gymnasium is under the direction of Dr. H. C. Swan, the medical director of the college. All undergraduates are required to attend gymnasium classes two days in the week.

Alumni Hall is located in the upper floor of the gymnasium building. The examinations at the end of each term are held here as well as the social and official functions of the year.

The Athletic Field is located to the east of the college. It includes a football field, a baseball field and a quarter-mile cinder track with bleachers and grandstands.

The College Commons or Rectory stands at the south end of the college building. Board and meals a la carte or table d'hôte are supplied here under the direction of George Stevens.

The Fraternity Houses are with one exception located on Vernon Street. There are dormitories for the use of upper classmen in several of the houses.

Williams Memorial Hall immediately adjoins Jarvis Hall on the north. This building, which is the gift of the late J. Pierpont Morgan, was completed in 1914. It contains the college library, reading and seminar rooms, the offices of the President, the Treasurer, the Secretary of the Faculty and the Trustee and Faculty rooms.

THE LIBRARY

The Library occupies the second story of Williams Memorial and there is shelf space for 170,000 volumes. At present the library numbers 80,000 volumes and 45,000 pamphlets. The Reading Room of the Library, with seats for one hundred readers, is an excellent place for study, as it is quiet and the very atmosphere is conducive to concentration. The Freshman will find it a good plan to start immediately to cultivate the habit of studying in the Reading Room.

The Library is open during term time from 8.45 A. M. to 12.45 P. M.; and from 1.45 to 4.45 P. M. (except Saturdays, when it closes at 1 P. M.) and from 7.30 to 10 P. M. every evening in the week except Saturday.

Other Library Facilities

There are also available and accessible to the students the six collections of books named below.

The Hartford Public Library is located on the first floor of the Wadsworth Athenaeum. The librarian prepares lists of references on current topics which are of service to the students.

The Watkinson Library of References is on the second floor of the Wadsworth Athenaeum. It is especially rich in works on the Fine Arts, Romance Languages, English Philosophy, and in sets of the transactions and proceedings of foreign scientific and learned societies.

The Library of the Connecticut Historical Society is also in the Wadsworth Athenaeum and offers opportunities for research not only in all subjects relating to Connecticut and New England, but also in many departments of general American History.

The Connecticut State Library comprises a Legislative Reference Department and the Supreme Court Library.

The Hartford Law Library is in the County Building.

The Case Memorial Library is the library of the Hartford Theological Seminary. It is particularly rich in documents relating to church history, and in the literature of modern missions.

Employment

Through the Trinity College Employment Bureau many students obtain jobs in Hartford. For information go to the College Office.

HARTFORD

History—Hartford was originally the site of a Dutch fort, built in 1633. The first permanent settlers came from Eastern Massachusetts under the Rev. Thomas Hooker in 1636. They named the settlement Newtown, but this name was changed to Hartford the following year. The first town meeting was held in the year of settlement and the first church and school were built two years later. In 1639 was framed the constitution of the colony, which embodied the chief features used in framing the national constitution a century and a half later. The growth of the city has been steady and on a solid economic foundation. The present population is more than 100,000.

The City Today—Hartford is on the main line of the New York, New Haven and Hartford from New York to Boston, and is about three hours' ride from each of these cities. It is known as the most beautiful city in New England. The reason lies in the fact that here are situated the State Capitol, the State Library, the Morgan Memorial (the repository of priceless art treasures), Trinity College, the Hartford bridge and a system of parks unsurpassed in the United States, having a total area of about 1400 acres. It is the home of seventeen insurance companies and its factories produce the world's standards in firearms, typewriters, automobiles, rubber tires, automatic machinery, electrical appliances and tools. 157 passenger trains enter and leave the city each day and a passenger and freight steamboat line runs to New York nine months of the year.

RUSHING RULES OF THE INTERFRATERNITY COUNCIL

Accepted by all the Fraternities

1. No man shall be pledged to any fraternity until he shall have been an undergraduate at Trinity College for fourteen days.

2. (a) Each house shall entertain those freshmen with whom it has had correspondence or who have friends in that house before introducing them to other crowds.

(b) The chairman of the rushing of each house shall be responsible for seeing that every freshman is introduced at every other house.

3. (a) At 5 o'clock on the last day of the no-pledging period, new men will gather in Alumni Hall. At that time each fraternity shall issue dinner invitations to those undergraduates it desires to bid.

(b) Each man receiving an invitation must return all bids within an hour after he has obtained his invitation. The acceptance shall be deposited in a box to be placed in some position to be designated by the Interfraternity Council; any other invitations shall be returned at this time. In case a man is not ready to accept a bid he shall return all invitations and is considered to be free to accept the pledge of any fraternity.

(c) No fraternity man shall speak with the new men from the time invitations are issued until he arrives at dinner.

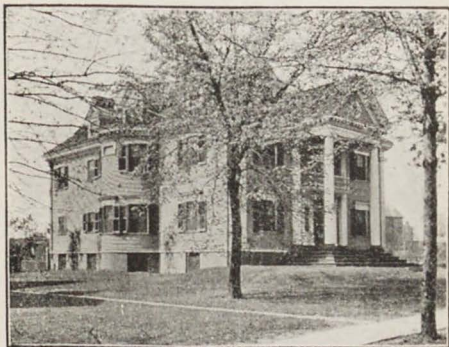

(d) The Interfraternity Council shall be in charge of the distribution of invitations which shall be uniform, and shall be prepared by the Council.

These rules became effective on their adoption. Under these rules will be conducted the rushing and pledging of every new man at Trinity College.

A RESOLUTION to the effect that:

(a) A man breaking his pledge to any Fraternity would be ineligible to accept an invitation to join another Fraternity, until one college term has expired.

And that: (b) it was to the best interests of the college and the freshmen that off campus rushing be discouraged as it was considered detrimental to scholarship, college life, and as it does not present a true opportunity of judging a crowd.

N. B.—These rushing rules are for the purpose of securing the most favorable conditions under which a Fraternity may select material from the Freshman class and to provide an opportunity for the freshmen to learn about the Fraternities, to the satisfaction of both. The Council feels sure that each Fraternity will live up to the spirit of these regulations; no man is in any way bound to consider any agreement as binding if these rules have not been kept.

All new men should register at the college offices upon their arrival in college; no man is eligible to be pledged to a Fraternity until he has been an undergraduate of Trinity College for the period of fourteen days.

FRATERNITIES

There are nine secret societies or "Fraternities" at Trinity, eight of them being chapters of national Fraternities, occupying houses near the college. Their total enrollment is about sixty-five per cent. of the student body. Admission to these Fraternities is by invitation only. When a new man has accepted an invitation to join one of them he is called a "pledge." By common consent the Fraternities do not invite any man to join their number until he has been in college for at least two weeks. (See the article under Interfraternity Rushing Agreement.) The reason for this procedure that membership in a Fraternity is not revocable, but lasts through the college course and into after life, it being, therefore, very important that invitations to membership be carefully considered from all sides, chiefly, perhaps, from the point of view of the congeniality of the present members to the new man's nature and habits.

The Fraternities in order of their establishment at Trinity are as follows:

Fraternity of Delta Psi, Epsilon Chapter, Saint Anthony Hall, 340 Summit Street.

Fraternity of Alpha Delta Phi, Phi Kappa Chapter, 122 Vernon Street.

Fraternity of Delta Kappa Epsilon, Alpha Chi Chapter, 94 Vernon Street.

Fraternity of Psi Upsilon, Beta Beta Chapter, 81 Vernon Street.

THE COLLEGE SENATE

The executive committee of the College Body is the Trinity College Senate. Its personnel is as follows: a president, who shall be elected by the college body from the Senior class; a member of the Junior class elected by that class; a member of the Sophomore class elected by that class; the president of the Athletic Association; the editor-in-chief of the Tripod (who shall act as Secretary of the Senate). One member shall be elected by each Fraternity that isn't represented by one of the above members; one member shall be elected by the Non-Fraternity Body, provided it is not represented by one of the above-named members. One member shall be elected from the Medusa, provided that three of its members are not included among the above-named members.

The College Senate is the recognized channel of communication between the student body and the faculty. The President of the Senate, with a Junior, represents the undergraduates in the Discipline Committee, which meets every Thursday at 4 P. M.

The Senate has final authority in regulating the following undergraduate activities: the underclass rushes, the Freshman-Junior banquet, the St. Patrick's Day Scrap, all interclass athletic contests. The Senate selects a committee from its number, which shall act as a Finance Committee, and shall supervise, direct and control all undergraduate organizations in matters of finance. A budget is submitted to this Committee, and all financial statements are rendered to it. The Senate supervises the spring elections and acts as a nominating committee for them. The Senate shall carry out the plans in regard to the limitation of student activities for the class of 1926, and thereafter. It has the power to act in all matters delegated to it by the College Body.

The organizations which are entitled to have representatives in the Senate shall communicate with the Secretary of the Senate, according to the provisions for the dates of the elections of members provided in the constitution and shall elect an alternate to act as proxy in case the regular member must be absent.

Each member is responsible to report to the organization which he represents the transactions of the Senate; the Secretary publishes the minutes in the Tripod. As chairman of the Committee on Publications and News, the editor-in-chief of the Tripod is censor of the college news; he also acts as secretary at all College meetings.

Regulations Limiting the Number of Student Activities

(Effective for the Class of 1926.)

The following plan was accepted by the Senate and was ratified by the Student Body at a meeting on May 29, 1922.

Men who work down town.

No man shall hold more than one office in Class A and two in Class B at the same time. The Senate is charged with the power to carry out this regulation and commissions Medusa to see that this regulation is observed. In the case of a man who desires to hold offices in more positions allowed by the above rules, he may appeal to the Senate to do so; such permission may be granted by the Senate.

COLLEGE CUSTOMS AND ANNUAL EVENTS

Though endowed with many interesting and curious traditions and customs, Trinity has been rather unfortunate in this regard, because of the removal of the College from the old site now occupied by the State Capitol to the present situation. Traditions, especially, are the result of atmosphere and background. With the change of scene a great many time-honored legends and customs disappeared. Each Trinity man should take it upon himself to aid in the perpetuation of those which are now observed. The Sophomore Dining Club, the Sophomore honorary society, has as its especial province in College activities the oversight of the observance of College tradition. Customs are the real spice of College life, and should ever be fostered.

Running the Gauntlet—After the first Chapel service of the College year the Freshmen are required to run the gauntlet from the Chapel door through the lines of waiting upper classmen. Then two rushes take place between the Freshmen and the Sophomores.

"Bloody Monday"—The first Monday after the opening of the College in the Fall is the occasion of two important under-class scraps. In the afternoon the Bulletin Board Rush is held, during which the Freshmen try to make one of their number touch the bulletin board over the heads of the Sophomores. In the evening the Rope Rush takes place on the campus, after which the entire College body marches downtown to sing "Neath the Elms" on the former site of the College (the State Capitol), and to hold a College smoker afterwards.

Junior Week—This is the great social week in Trinity's calendar. Ordinarily it opens with Fraternity dances and receptions during the afternoon and evening of the Thursday following the Mid-year exams. On the following Saturday there is a basketball game in the afternoon, with a Glee Club concert or a Jesters' play in the evening. The vesper service in the College Chapel is always attended by the students and their guests on the Sunday of Junior Week. On Monday there are Fraternity teas and dinners in the afternoon and early evening, and the Junior Promenade in the evening. Early on Tuesday morning the Fraternities serve breakfast to the dancers, in the Fraternity Houses.

The St. Patrick's Day Scrap—On the 17th of March occurs the great underclass struggle of the year. The night before the Freshmen attempt to placard the town with their class numerals, and in the early morning they come up to the campus and try to raise their banner up one of the elm trees on the campus which is designated as the Freshman tree, and which the Sophomores guard closely.

Senior and Junior Smokers—These smokers which are given during the year at the different Fraternity Houses have for their aim a closer bond of fellowship among the upper classmen. A speaker is usually provided to address the students on some subject of universal interest.

Sophomore Smoker—The Sophomore Class holds its smoker, at which all Trinity men—past, present and future—are welcome, about the middle of May, when the College is looking its Springiest. An Inter-Prep school and Inter-High school track meet is held for the benefit of the sub-Freshmen, and, at the smoker itself, the Sophomores produce the Sophomore Smoker Show.

Senior Promenade—As a fitting close to the social events of the year comes the Senior Promenade. It takes place on the evening of Graduation Day, after the Seniors have received their degrees, and have become Alumni.

HONORARY SOCIETIES

Medusa Head.

The Medusa Head, a Senior Honorary society, is a secret order, membership to which is conferred every June by the graduating members of the order upon a few members of the Junior Class who have done the most for College during their three years. On a stated day in June, called "Tap Day," all the Juniors sit on the college fence, when the old members of Medusa "tap" those who are to form the body for the ensuing year. No more than six men usually constitute the order. Medusa has as its special province in college affairs the oversight of the efficient working of college organizations, and keeping up of college spirit in general.

Sophomore Dining Club.

The Sophomore Dining Club, commonly known as the S. D. C., is an underclass honorary society, whose members, limited to fifteen in number, are elected from among the prominent men of the Sophomore Class. The Club has several banquets during the year, and is intrusted with the oversight of College traditions. Its members in all three classes are entitled to wear a white hat with a yellow band.

Phi Beta Kappa.

The Phi Beta Kappa Fraternity, founded at the College of William and Mary in 1776, is an honorary society, membership in which is conditioned upon high scholastic attainments. The Trinity Chapter, known as the Beta of Connecticut, was chartered by the Yale Chapter, the Alpha of Connecticut, in 1845, and is the eighth in order of foundation.

The Charter stipulates that persons elected to membership shall be men of honor, probity and learning. To satisfy the scholastic requirements, a student must have attained at least the equivalent of Grade A in at least ten courses, and of Grade B in ten additional courses. Election to Phi Beta Kappa has always been regarded as a mark of high distinction and scholarship.

Kappa Beta Phi.

A branch of the Kappa Beta Phi Fraternity was organized at Trinity in 1914. This Fraternity is an honorary society whose membership is qualified for by "bon camaraderie." Invitations for membership are extended during Sophomore or Junior years. Members are entitled to wear a key which is made to resemble the Phi Beta Kappa key.

The President's Card

Each freshman is required to fill out a questionnaire, which is known as the President's card. These are to be had in the Union.

MISCELLANEOUS

College Meetings

Questions of importance to the entire college body are discussed in college meetings which are held from time to time during the college year at the call of the President of the College Senate. The presence of Freshmen at all college and class meetings is imperative. Attendance at the meetings held on the first Monday of each month are compulsory for the entire college body. The President of the Senate presides.

Mails

There are two deliveries of mail at college every day, the first at 8 A. M. and the second at 3 P. M. Collections are made from two boxes on the campus, one situated at the north end of the main building and the second at the entrance to the college drive.

Rooms and Medical Care

Most of the rooms in the college building are arranged so that two students rooming together have a common study and separate bedrooms. All the rooms are heated by steam and have open fireplaces.

All students are required to reside in the college buildings, unless they have permission from the President to room elsewhere.

Students who are ill are at once visited by the Medical Director. In cases of serious illness the patient may be removed to the Hartford Hospital, where adequate provision is made for students of the college.

Religious Services

The President is the Chaplain of the College, and is assisted by the clerical members of the Faculty.

Prayers are said in the College Chapel at half-past eight o'clock in the morning, attendance being compulsory five days a week with an allowance of six extra cuts a term.

On Sundays all students who reside in college attend Morning Prayer (with sermon) in the chapel at half-past ten o'clock. The Holy Communion is celebrated every Sunday at a voluntary service at eight o'clock, except on the first Sunday of the month, when the celebration is immediately after morning prayer. On Saints' Days and Holy days, the celebration is at half-past seven o'clock.

Political Science Club

This club is open to all students who are taking history classes or who are interested in political questions. The program for 1921-22 contained a series of prominent lectures on the history and problems of the Pacific; frequent meetings are held informally at Fraternity House for discussion of assigned topics. Attendance at a scheduled lecture excuses the man taking a history course from an absence, which he may take at pleasure without counting on the regular cuts. Freshmen are expected to attend all such meetings.

The exoteric meaning of these mystic symbols is "Knot in the Devil's Tail." The K. D. T. is the only organization at Trinity which aims to have anything to do with religious or kindred subjects. The result is that a very large and interesting field is left to this very unofficial society, which has no officers, no dues, no stated membership or set meetings, but which gathers at the call of President Ogilby at his house on Sunday evenings to discuss matters of interest, or to meet distinguished visitors to President Ogilby or to the College. If you are interested, therefore, give your name to President Ogilby.

Dramatics

The dramatic club at Trinity College is known as the Jesters. It has, at times in the past, held an enviable reputation, which it is to be hoped, it may possess in the future. Tryouts for the organization are open to all men in college, and those who are selected by the efficient coaches which the Jesters procure to direct their dramatic productions, and hold a speaking part of ten lines or more in a Jesters' play, automatically become members of the club. In the past the plays have been presented for the most part in Alumni Hall, but when an especially good production is achieved, Parson's Theatre is hired for the presentation.

Glee Club

The Trinity Glee Club, which, during the past year, has been quiescent on account of lack of funds, will undoubtedly renew its activity with the beginning of the year 1922-'23, and regain the brilliant reputation which has made Trinity known as a singing college in the past. Ordinarily, trials are held immediately after the opening of college. Any member of the student body is allowed to compete, and the selected group of about twenty-five or thirty men who finally form the Glee Club usually give three or four concerts in neighboring cities, sometimes one or two in New York City, and one in Alumni Hall at the time of the Junior Promenade.

Chapel Choir

The Chapel Choir is ordinarily chosen from the members of the Glee Club by the leader of the Club. At present it is open to competition by any one who desires to try. The Choir sings at all the regular morning Chapel services and at the Sunday service. Membership in the Choir brings a monetary compensation, and also, very often, trips to nearby Preparatory schools at which the President of the College happens to be preaching.

THE UNION

The Trinity College Union was organized in 1914, and reorganized in 1921, after the war. The quarters of the Union occupy the basement of Seabury Hall, where it serves a double purpose. The hall is fitted up with the accessories of a clubroom—billiard and pool tables, cards, papers, magazines, etc. Here the students gather between classes and at odd moments of the day or night.

The store in the Union furnishes books and such other classroom supplies, also such refreshment as the inner man requires. The Union has moreover procured the installation of a cafeteria next to its own quarters, where evening "lunches" may be bought.

Admission to the privileges of the Union is granted to members only. Membership tickets may be obtained in the Union as soon as you enter College in the Fall. The membership charge for one year is two dollars; for four years is five dollars.

The management of the Union is conducted by a chairman, two paid assistants and Sophomores in charge of the Union when the assistants are absent. The Junior assistant is selected after a competition with other Sophomores and automatically becomes senior director after he has served his Junior year. The chairman of the Union is elected by the college body. The chairman, with the two paid assistants and the graduate treasurer, are the Executive Committee of the Union.

THE UNION AND THE COMMUNITY

The confessed purpose of the College Union is to offer opportunities for social recreation—a meeting place for the different units of College activity at a time when all are avowedly "not working." Here, through the mutual interest in bridge, billiards, or the morning paper, the Freshman comes into contact with men of other crowds whom he might not have met for many weeks had he lacked this source of contact, and here everyone makes friends whom they otherwise might never have possessed, had the place of meeting been on the basis of classrooms only.

Here also are held College meetings for the purpose of mutual enjoyment—smokers, sings and lectures; others for the stimulation of interest and the unification of effort in college activities such as athletics.

Thus it comes about that the Union is at the same time both one of the best producers, and at the same time one of the best indicators of that strange feeling called "College Spirit." "College Spirit" shows itself in athletics and other campus organizations, but the thing itself is the product of a unity of interest and enthusiasm which is obtained only by friendly social intercourse. And this is the end which the Union sets out to bring about—to solidify the relations and the interests of the student body by providing means and occasions for recreation and mass-meetings, and for the co-operative selling of eatables and books, thus achieving a spirit which will show itself ultimately in victories on the athletic field, successful glee clubs, firm friendships, and fast college loyalty.

ADVISORS

Freshmen who wish to choose personal advisors from among the members of the College Faculty, may do so by stating their choice on the President's Card. Wherever possible, this choice will be accepted. Those who do not make such choice will be assigned to advisors by a Faculty committee at the end of his Freshman year. Each student will choose a permanent Faculty advisor for the remainder of his college course.

The purpose of Faculty advisors is to promote the friendly feeling between professor and student to the welfare of the undergraduate and the carrying on of the "Personal College Spirit."

THINGS FRESHMEN CAN DO

Every Freshman should associate himself with some extra-curriculum activity, not only for the personal benefit he will derive therefrom, but also because he should place whatever abilities he may possess at the service of his class and college. Undergraduate activities have been made what they are only by the hard work of the classes that have preceded you, and it is your duty to now take up this work. Don't be the kind of man that takes everything out of college and puts nothing in.

Following is a tabulated list of the activities in which you may participate. Further information concerning them will be found elsewhere in this book. Select one, go out for it, and stay out until you make good.

Athletic

Freshmen Football, Varsity Basketball, Baseball, Track, Tennis, Hockey and Managers for Baseball, Basketball and Track.

Non-Athletic

Literary—The Tripod.

Musical—Glee Club, Chapel Choir.

Dramatic—The Jesters.

Forensic—Debating Club, Class Oration.

FRESHMEN, IT IS UP TO YOU!

The position of a Freshman is not an easy one. Every factor in his environment combines to make him think of himself, and yet the measure of the success he may win is gauged by his ability to sink himself in the social units of which he is now a part. Not only does he come fresh from an admiring family, who reluctantly admit that their son is the most wonderful product of the age, but also he has but recently been a leader of his school, tasting to the full the joys of leadership. It is but natural that his first thoughts at college are as to what glory he may win. Yet the greatest honors of the college world are reserved for him who determines from the start that his chief desire is to make himself in every group an inconspicuous servant.

SCHEDULE OF EVENTS FOR FRESHMAN CLASS

Following is a list of events as they are scheduled for each Freshman class to perform. The dispatch and thoroughness with which these duties are completed will go far toward the creation of a favorable impression by the class of 1926.

Christmas Term

Meeting for discussion of plans for "Bloody Monday" scraps. A class assessment of about one dollar will be necessary at this time to defray expenses of the same. September 23.

Election of class football, baseball and track captains. Choice of class colors. September 30.

The union will hold a reception for the Freshmen to give them an opportunity to meet the members of the Faculty, their wives, members of the Alumni and men of the higher classes. October 30.

Election of chairman of Freshman-Junior Banquet Committee. This meeting and its result should be secret. An assessment of about five dollars is necessary. October 30.

Discussion of plans for St. Patrick's Day scrap. Small assessment is necessary. March 12.

For the last two years the instructor in Freshman English has offered a prize for the best oration delivered by one of six members of the class chosen by him. The prize offered heretofore has been a book.
Prize Scholarship

A prize of $600 to the student attaining the highest rank in the Freshman class.

FRESHMAN FOOTBALL

The Freshman Football team is given a separate coach and managing staff, and the Freshman field on which to practice. A schedule of games with nearby Preparatory Schools and other Freshman teams is made, so that when the 'Varsity is away the Freshmen have home games. The call for candidates is immediately after college begins. This is the first sport in which a class may make a showing. Every man who has any ability at all is expected to report for practice. Until a student has been an undergraduate for one term he shall not be allowed to represent the 'Varsity Trinity Team in any contest. This is known as the One-Term Rule.

INTERFRATERNITY ATHLETIC COMPETITIONS

The nine fraternities and the Neutral Body compete each year for a basketball Championship Cup, given by Peter Ogilby. For 1922 the Sigma Nu hold the cup. A baseball intermural cup is competed for by the same units. The Council encourages athletics of all kinds, as it provides an unexcelled method of providing physical fitness to the greatest number of undergraduates, to the great benefit of keen mental activity. The idea of intermural sport is a feature of Trinity; each new man is expected to follow some outdoor sport during the open seasons.

INTER-CLASS SINGING

A cup has been offered to that class which produces the best singing of college and class songs. The tradition of singing is one of Trinity's former proud possessions. 1926 will do well if she starts a time-honored custom.

CLASS TEAMS

Any man who has represented his class in an inter-class football, basketball or baseball game shall be eligible to wear his class numerals.

Any man who has won or tied for first place in the fall Freshmen-Sophomore meet, or who has won first, second or third place in the spring inter-class meet, shall be eligible to wear his class numerals.

TRINITY COLLEGE ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

President—Stanley Miller.

Secretary—Frank S. Jones

Graduate Manager—Owen Morgan.

Membership—A fee of twenty dollars ($20.00) is charged upon the college bill of each undergraduate—$10.00 a term. This entitles the student to attend all games or meets held upon Trinity Field and to a vote in Athletic Association meetings.

Football

Football naturally occupies the greatest interest in the fall. Practice begins about ten days before college opens, on Trinity Field. Promising men from the Freshman squad of last year are expected to report, along with all letter men and members of last year's squad, to prepare for the first game on September 30.

For 1922

Captain.....William G. Brill

Manager.....Conrad Gesner

Coach.....Harold D. Drew

Cross-Country

During the autumn a large squad runs every day in preparation for a Varsity and Freshman cross-country team. Generally a large number report, but it is the men who persevere who are wanted. A good schedule is in preparation for this fall.

Basketball

Immediately after Thanksgiving the season starts. Those Freshmen who have school experience are expected to report for practice to prepare for their eligibility after mid-year. This is Trinity's main winter sport.

Basketball 1922-23

Captain.....Walter Canner

Manager.....A. Dale Mitchell

Coach.....Harold D. Drew

Assistant Managers

T. W. Jones.....William Merchant

Hockey

Last year for the first time in some years the students built a rink. If sufficient care is taken to prepare a place to build a rink which will be water-tight, there is no doubt but that much enjoyment will be derived from hockey. This sport needs little encouragement to again become a favorite winter activity at Trinity.

For 1922-23 President Hockey Association—Samuel Wilcox.

Baseball

The first call for baseball candidates comes early in the spring. The gym is used as a cage until the weather permits outdoor practice. In 1922 the team took a southern trip during the Easter vacation and played through a heavy schedule.

Track

The main track season comes in the spring. During the fall months a cross-country team is organized and one or two dual meets are held.

With the breaking up of winter the track team gets under way. Here is a sport where after four years of coaching almost any man can develop into a point winner. (See Regulation for Insignia). Frequent dual meets are held and entries made in the New England Intercollegiates.

PUBLICATIONS

The Trinity Ivy

The Ivy is the college annual. It is published by the Junior class in the spring of each year. The editor-in-chief and business manager are elected by the class. The board of editors, consisting of one man from each of the fraternities, and the Neutral Body and an art editor at large, is selected by the editor-in-chief.

The Ivy contains a record of all college activities for the past year, many attractive photographs and cuts, besides stories and poems of local interest. It is a memento of your college career that no real Trinity man can afford to be without. The price is three dollars.

The 1922 Ivy Board is as follows:

Editor-in-Chief.....William G. Brill
Business Manager.....Luca Celentano

The Tripod

The Tripod is the college newspaper. It is published weekly throughout the college year and contains news of the college, alumni, and other colleges. The paper is incorporated and is under the control of a board of directors, composed of alumni and the editor-in-chief.

All students are permitted to try out for the paper and credits toward election to the board of editors are awarded for articles written and for work done in the business department. On obtaining a total of 250 credits a student is eligible to election. The ability of the applicants is considered in electing new members to the board.

Freshmen desiring to try out for the Tripod should communicate with the editor of the board.

Board for 1922—See College Directory.

The Student's Handbook

The "Bible" is issued by the Interfraternity Council and is primarily to acquaint Freshmen with the activities of student life and the traditions of Trinity. The "Bible" is made possible by the subscriptions of Fraternities and Neutral Body, the support of the Union and the advertising of Hartford firms. The "Bible" Board hopes that all Trinity students will support those who subscribed to ads.

Tennis Association

A tournament is held each fall under the auspices of the Tennis Association, for the championship of the college in singles and doubles.

In the spring the tennis team plays a number of matches with other colleges, and if there is distinct ability in college a team is sent to the Intercollegiates.

EXCERPTS FROM THE RULES OF THE FACULTY

I. Attendance

1. Attendance upon Morning Prayer in the Chapel upon at least five days in the week and at Sunday Service, is required of all students residing at College or within half a mile of the College. A student may be permitted to attend Sunday Services at another place of worship on presenting a written request to this effect signed by his parent or guardian.

2. In general no excuse from College exercises will be granted except for illness or for absence from town or, under exceptional circumstances, for the purpose of engaging in remunerative employment. In the latter cases application must always be made to the President in advance.

3. No excuse for absence from town in connection with any athletic or other College organization will be granted unless application be made in advance to the Committee on Athletics and College Organizations, and the list of the students permitted by them to be absent be filed at the College Office.

4. A student prevented by illness from attending College exercises must send notice to the College Office, Williams Memorial, not later than 8.50 A. M. on the day of the illness. The telephone and telegraph may be employed for this purpose (College Office, Charter 1020; President's House, Charter 15; Doctor Swan, 4-1925). On his return to duty he must leave written notice of this fact at the College Office. Unless notice is given at the beginning and the end of the illness the absence will not be excused.

5. No excuse for illness will be granted for a period of less than one day.

II. Absences

1. Two absences from the Sunday Service, six absences from Morning Prayer in the Chapel, and a total number of absences from class equal to the number of courses taken (including Physical Training) multiplied by two (except in the case of students on probation), will be allowed each term. These excuses are designed to cover cases of light illness extending only through part of the day, attendance upon friends, business, etc.

2. Such absences may not be taken from any appointed test or examination.

3. Each absence on the day after vacation, recess, or holiday, will be counted as two absences.

4. An unexcused lateness or egress will be counted as half an absence.

5. Latenesses or egress are excused by the Instructor only.

6. If a student exceed the number of absences allowed from Church or Chapel he will be warned, the notice to be posted on the bulletin board.

7. When a student is warned, he will understand that if during the remainder of the term his absences exceed three from Church or ten from Chapel he will be subject to admonition, the warning to affect the Category in which the allowed absences have been exceeded. He will also be subject to admonition if his absences from classes exceed an average of two from each class or if they exceed four in any one class.

8. When a student is subject to admonition, his privilege of allowed absences automatically ceases, and if he have four more unexcused absences of any sort taken after the ones that made him subject to admonition, he will be suspended or dismissed.

9. An Instructor may require any omitted work to be made up at his discretion.

10. A student who does not fall below "B" on any report to the Registrar shall suffer no penalty for exceeding the allowed absences from class during the succeeding half-term. It should be noticed that this does not apply to absences from Church, Chapel or the Classes in Physical Training. In figuring the qualifications for this privilege a man's average in his best five courses is considered. If five courses get him an average of "B," he is eligible.

III. Probation

1. Any matriculated student whose record of work is completed in less than twelve hours a week for any term shall be put on probation for the following term.

2. Any student, for neglect of work, may at any time be put on probation by vote of the Faculty.

3. When a student is placed on probation, notice of this action will be sent to his parent or guardian.

4. A student on probation will not be permitted to act as manager or assistant manager of any College Organization, or to take part in any public musical or dramatic performance or in any public athletic contest; and he may be required to put himself under the direction of a private tutor approved by the Faculty. But nothing in this section shall be construed as to forbid students on probation to engage in inter-class sports of this college as members of the team of that class to which they are officially assigned by the college authorities.

5. In the case of students on probation only six absences from classes will be allowed.

Directions to Reach College

From the station walk East to corner of High and Asylum streets and take a Broad Street car, marked "J." Get off at Vernon street; walk West to College. Zion Street cars run in back of the College, marked "K."

DECALOGUE OF THE FRESHMAN BIBLE

YE freshmen! Ye striplings! Ye summatic demonstrations of vacuous existence! Ye pretentious, vain-glorious know-nothings! Ye numbskulls! Ye fools and pampered babes! Lend us your ears! List to our words that ye may hear wisdom. Take heed of our commandments that ye suffer not castigation.

Unto each we say, obey these sacred precepts, and no harm shall befall ye. Be humble and submissive, and ye shall prosper. Heed ye:—

1. First, it behooves ye ever to be solicitous for our comfort and welfare. If ye be asked for matches, reply not ye have none. If ye be sent on an errand, tarry not by the way. Whatsoever we request ye, question not, but carry out our most holy will. Show neither anger nor resentment; bear all with a heart of contrition.

2. When ye witness us in mutual converse, interrupt ye not our communion, but pass by in silence and reverence.

When ye behold us in terpsichorean revelry, covet not our fair damsels, but keep ye a goodly distance.

3. Venture not forth on the campus without the motley badge of your ignorance; woe to him who wears not the skullcap.

4. Pipes of any variety, knickers of all variety, facial growths of both varieties (decorative or unsightly), and haberdashery of any but somber variety—all these, to you, are forbidden.

5. Greet all! The genesis of true college spirit is a hearty "Hello" and a smile.

6. Attend rallies, attend games, attend meetings; in College ye must participate.

Learn your songs and learn your cheers; in College ye must participate.

Try out for activities; in College ye must participate.

7. Be present at all class gatherings; for remember, that roll call of Freshmen meetings must be submitted to the Sophomore Class.

8. Post not any of your notices on the bulletin board without our sacred authorization.

9. Bear in mind that at College meetings we hear with marked disfavor the puerile opinions of babes and sucklings.

10. And finally: write all these our laws in thy feeble intellects, and post them on the walls of thy study.

To those who shall faithfully follow our sacred injunctions, we say, ye shall pass through purgatory, but ye shall enter the kingdom of Sophomores.

To those who heed not our words, unto them we solemnly deliver this sinister warning: Beware the just and mighty wrath of

THE CLASS OF 1925.

TRINITY SONGS

'Neath the Elms

Words by A. P. Burgwin, '82

I

'Neath the elms of our old Trinity,
'Neath the elms of our dear old Trinity,
Oh, it's seldom we'll meet
In the moonlight so sweet,
'Neath the elms of our old Trinity.

II

On the hills of our old Trinity,
In the halls of our dear old Trinity,
There is right merry cheer,
There are friends, true and dear,
In the halls of our old Trinity.

III

(Fast)

College days are from care and sorrow
free,
And oft we will seek in memory
Those days that are past
Far too joyous to last,
'Neath the elms of our old Trinity.

IV

Then we'll sing to our old Trinity,
To our dear old Alma Mater, Trinity;
We're together today,
And tomorrow away,
Far away from our old Trinity.

V

(Soft)

'Neath the elms of our old Trinity,
'Neath the elms of our dear old Trinity,
No more shall we meet,
Our classmates to greet,
'Neath the elms of our old Trinity.

There's a College on the Hill

There's a college on the hill in dear old
Hartford

You and I both know so well,
Where the merry breezes blow,
Whether rain or shine or snow
There is life and health and freedom in their spell.

For it gets into the blood
And it makes the happy mood
Till for very joy we give the college cheer—
And it arms us for the fight,
Gives us courage, gives us might
When we battle for our Alma Mater dear.

Chorus

Trinity, we'll stand by you forever,
Trinity—our cheer shall ever be,
To the breeze our colors fling,
Let the joyous echoes ring
With Rah, Rah, Rah, for dear old Trinity.

From the oldest living "Grad" to the youngest freshman

Is our spirit just the same,
We are all for dear old "Trin"
Side by side we mean to win
In the fight for life itself or in a game,
With dear Prexy in the lead
We're equipped for any deed
For in his "vo-cab" there's no such word as "fail"—

So let each one do his best
With a will and with a zest,
Here's to Trinity forever, Boy's all Hail.

Chorus

Cheer For Old Trin

Up in fair Hartford where the merry breezes blow
There's a college of renown, you bet, you bet!

And all her rivals who think that she is slow

Haven't recovered yet, not yet!
And when you hear her battle cry
Floating o'er the fields,
Then you'll know the reason why old Trin will never yield.

Refrain

Cheer for old Trin, make a mighty din;
Let it resound thru all the ages,
Warriors bold, with a strength untold,
Fight for the Blue and Gold, Rah! Rah!
Rah!

Trinity Marching Song

Words by Professor Merrill

Music by W. B. Davis—March Time

I

When the sunshine softly falls,
And the scent of earth is new,
Then farewell to college halls,
And cheer for the gold and blue!
(Chorus with solo in first bass)
So march along, good hearts and strong!
And hail the triumph nigh!

The blue and gold, 'till time is old,
Shall e'er float on high;
In joyous song, the strain prolong,
And make glad reply—
With a TRIN! TRIN! TRIN! For we're bound to win!

And we'll shout for victory.

II

Though the north wind shrill without
And the fire blaze warm in field,
Fling away dull books and shout—
For the joys of the open field!

Chorus

A Smart Trinity Man

A smart Trinity man conceived the might plan,
And straightway set the project into motion

He built a laboratory boat, then he set the thing afloat,

Now Trinity's the gem of all the ocean.
Hip! Hip! Hooray! We'll drink to dawn of day,

And each to the other pledge devotion,
Here's a health to you and me, may we ever happy be,

For Trinity's the gem of all the ocean.

College Medley

Words and Music by W. L. Rosenbaum, '14
If you go to Yale, drink her down, drink
her down;

Wow, wow, wow, wow, wow, the same in Princeton town;

Far above Cayuga's waters Cornell's a college
of renown;

Farewell, Wesleyana, Harvard, Amherst,
Williams, Penn and Brown;

But at Trin, Trin, Trin, where they're bound to win

Is the best old college town.

Trinity Fighting Song

J. G. Mitchell, '16

Sing "Trinity"; cheer "Trinity"; think
"Trinity" all the while.

Come, loyal Trinity men;

Do your best, and more—and then

Fair Victory upon us shall smile.

See! The foe weakens now.

To the dust he must bow.

Trail his colors while ours float on high.

Gold and Blue, Gold and Blue,

Standard glorious and true;

We will love, revere, and honor thee for aye.

Chorus

Fight on, fight on for Trinity; to the breeze flaunt the Blue and Gold.

For Trinity will never yield; upholding traditions old.

Let the story be repeated to eternity

Of the glory and fame of old Trin.

Trinity, Trinity, we'll be e'er true to thee.

And we'll fight on, and win, win, WIN!

Play the Game

Play the game, boys, play the game,

Make the victory your aim,

Conquer you must, boys,

Get your spirits all aflame

The Blue and Gold shall wave on high,

So win the game, boys, do or die,

Fight, fight, for victory,

And for TRINITY.
