Invocation

III

Hymn

We gather together to ask the Lord's blessing;
He chastens and hastens his will to make known;
The wicked oppressing now cease from distressing:
Sing praises to his Name; he forgets not his own.

Beside us to guide us, our God with us joining,
Ordaining, maintaining his kingdom divine;
So from the beginning the fight we were winning:
Thou, Lord, wast at our side: all glory be thine!

We all do extol thee, thou leader triumphant,
And pray that thou still our defender wilt be.
Let thy congregation escape tribulation:
Thy Name be ever praised! O Lord, make us free!
Amen.

Hymn

God the Omnipotent! King, who ordainest
Thunder thy clarion, the lightning thy sword;
Show forth thy pity on high where thou reignest:
Give to us peace in our time, O Lord.

God the All-merciful! earth hath forsaken
Thy ways all holy, and slighted thy word;
Bid not thy wrath in its terrors awaken:
Give to us peace in our time, O Lord.

God the All-righteous One! man hath defied thee;
Yet to eternity standeth thy word,
Falsehood and wrong shall not tarry beside thee:
Give to us peace in our time, O Lord.

God the All-provident! earth by thy chastening,
Yet shall to freedom and truth be restored;
Through the thick darkness thy kingdom is hastening:
Thou wilt give peace in thy time, O Lord.
Amen.

XI

Charge to the Graduating Class

PRESIDENT THEODORE DAVIDGE LOCKWOOD

XII

'Neath the Elms

'Neath the elms of our old Trinity,
'Neath the elms of our dear old
Trinity,
Oh it's seldom we'll meet,
In the moonlight so sweet,
'Neath the elms of our old Trinity.

College days are from care and sorrow free,
And oft will we seek in memory
Those days that are past,
Far too joyous to last,
'Neath the elms of our old Trinity.

Then we'll sing to our old Trinity,
To our dear old Alma Mater,
Trinity;
We're together today,
And tomorrow away,
Far away from our old Trinity.

'Neath the elms of our old Trinity,
'Neath the elms of our dear old
Trinity,
No more shall we meet,
Our classmates to greet,
'Neath the elms of our old Trinity.

The Owen Morgan Mace

The mace which precedes the president in academic processions, and is a symbol of his executive powers, was presented to Trinity in 1950 in memory of Owen Morgan, Class of 1906, who served his Alma Mater as a member of the Board of Fellows, as a Trustee, and as treasurer of the College. Historically, maces were first used as weapons in warfare and later became a symbol of the sovereign and his power. One of the first known uses of a mace by an educational institution was at Cambridge University in the thirteenth century. Today a number of colleges use the mace as a symbol of authority and of the power invested in the president by the faculty and trustees. The Morgan Mace is made of ebony, signifying endurance; bronze, meaning power; and gold, symbolizing dignity and glory. It is 44 inches long and weighs 20 pounds. The fluted staff represents the various components of an enduring education. It is bound by a gold ribbon, inscribed with the names of every Trinity president. On the head, or urn, of the mace are six seals of the sources of life and growth of this College: the Great Seal of the United States; the Seal of the State of Connecticut; the Charter Oak; the original seal of the City of Hartford; the Washington Coat of Arms; and the seal of the Episcopal Diocese of Connecticut. Surmounting the Gothic urn is the Trinity College seal crowned by an eagle about to take flight, symbolizing the freedom and power of an educated man.

The Presidential Collar

The collar, which is worn on ceremonial occasions, is the visible symbol of the president's high office and authority. The collar was presented to the College in 1953 by former president G. Keith Funston, Class of 1932, in memory of his grandmother, Maria Briggs Keith. The chain symbolically links modern higher education with the universities of yesteryear. The golden seal of the Trinity President hangs from the collar which is fashioned of 20 replicas of the Trinity Elms and seven silver seals, including the six reproduced in the mace, and the Trinity College seal superimposed on a triangle representing the religious foundations of the college crowned by a sun signifying enlightenment. In the lower corners of the triangle are the Book and a pair of student's hands extended to receive it, symbolizing the desire of youth to receive an education.

The Academic Costume

In 1895 a commission of leading American educators established the Intercollegiate Code on matters pertaining to the academic costume. Of particular interest is the significance of the color of the hood. The color of the lining of the hood is that of the college or university conferring the degree. The edging of the hood and the tassel of the cap indicate the subject to which the degree pertains, in accordance with the following official designation (this Code is applicable only to colleges and universities within the United States) :

Agriculture	Maize
Arts, Letters, Humanities	White
Commerce, Accountancy, Business	Drab
Dentistry	Lilac
Economics	Copper
Education	Light Blue
Engineering	Orange
Fine Arts, including Architecture	Brown
Forestry	Russet
Home Economics	Maroon
Journalism	Crimson
Law	Purple
Library Science	Lemon
Medicine	Green
Music	Pink
Nursing	Apricot
Oratory (Speech)	Silver Gray
Pharmacy	Olive Green
Philosophy	Dark Blue
Physical Education	Sage Green
Public Administration, including Foreign Service	Peacock Blue
Public Health	Salmon Pink
Science	Golden Yellow
Social Work	Citron
Theology	Scarlet
Veterinary Science	Gray

Trinity College is one of the few institutions of higher learning in this country which differs from the above list because the colors of Trinity hoods were established prior to formulation of the Code. Following are the colors of the academic hoods symbolizing the honorary degrees conferred by Trinity :

Doctor of Canon Law Crimson, lined with black	Doctor of Laws Scarlet, lined with dark blue
Doctor of Divinity Scarlet, lined with black	Doctor of Music White, lined with pink
Doctor of Fine Arts White, lined with white and a red chevron	Doctor of Sacred Theology Scarlet, lined with blue and a gold chevron
Doctor of Humane Letters Scarlet, lined with purple	Doctor of Science Black, lined with light blue
Doctor of Letters Scarlet, lined with russet brown	Master of Music Black, lined with pink
Doctor of Humanities White, lined with dark crimson
