TRINITY COLLEGE, HARTFORD.

TRINITY COLLEGE, HARTFORD, is an academic Society, of which the control is vested in a CORPORATION, known in law by the style or title of The Trustees of Trinity College.

The design of a College in New England, connected with the church of the mother country, and so far as possible modeled after its celebrated Universities, originated with the excellent BERKELEY, Bishop of Cloyne, who, with this view, purchased an estate and resided for some time in Rhode Island. Though he was compelled reluctantly to relinquish his project, it was nevertheless not entirely without fruits. To his example and benefactions may be traced much of that interest in sound learning and Christian education, which led to the first efforts for the establishment of a similar institution in Connecticut.

A Convocation of the Clergy of the Diocese, held in 1792, under SEABURY, first Bishop of Connecticut, took the primary steps towards establishing the Episcopal Academy at Cheshire; and this, though incorporated with limited privileges, was intended as the foundation for a higher institution, so soon as a charter conferring full collegiate powers could be obtained from the State. It was often styled familiarly The Seabury College.

Bishop BROWNELL, who succeeded to the Episcopate in 1819, was enabled very shortly to perfect these designs. The charter of Washington College was granted in 1823 ; and in the following year the institution was opened at Hartford, under the presidency of the Bishop.

In 1845, by permission of the Legislature, the name of the College was changed to the present style, to attest forever the faith of its founders, and their zeal for the perpetual glory and honor of the ONE HOLY AND UNDIVIDED TRINITY.

To this brief History must be added some account of the internal organization and condition of the College.

THE SENATUS ACADEMICUS consists of two houses, known as the CORPORATION and the HOUSE OF CONVOCATION.

THE CORPORATION, on which the other house is wholly dependent, and to which, by law, belongs the supreme control of the College, consists of not more than twenty-four Trustees, resident within the State of Connecticut. The Chancellor and President of the College, being ex officio members ; and the Chancellor being ex officio President of the same. They have authority to fill their own vacancies ; to appoint to offices and professorships ; to direct and manage the funds for the good of the College ; and in general, to exercise the powers of a Collegiate Society, according to the provisions of the charter.

THE HOUSE OF CONVOCATION consists of the Fellows and Professors of Trinity College, with all persons who have received any academic degree whatever in the same, except such as may be lawfully deprived of their privileges.

Its business is such as may from time to time be delegated by the Corporation, from which it derives its existence ; and is, at present, limited to consulting and advising for the good of the College ; nominating the Junior

Fellows, and all candidates for admissions ad eundem; making laws for its own regulation; proposing plans, measures or counsel to the Corporation; and to instituting, endowing and naming, with concurrence of the same, professorships, scholarships, prizes, medals and the like.

The CHANCELLOR is the Bishop of the Diocese of Connecticut, and is also the Visitor of the College.

The PRESIDENT. This officer, as his title imports, is the resident head and Rector of the college, and with the PROCTORS, who are the two Senior Professors, the Executive of all laws for the discipline of under-graduates.

The FELLOWS. There are six Fellows appointed by the Corporation alone; and six Junior Fellows, who must be Masters of Arts, appointed by the Corporation on nomination of Convocation; and these together make the Board of Fellows. To this Board the Corporation commits the superintendence of the strictly academical business of the College; of the course of study and examinations; of the College laws; of collegiate dress, and the like; and also certain powers and privileges in recommending for degrees. Each Fellow and Junior Fellow is elected for three years; but there is no emolument connected with the office, besides a provision for necessary expenses incurred in its discharge. The Fellows, therefore, under existing laws, are not ordinarily resident.

The DEAN OF CONVOCATION presides in that House, and is elected by the same biennially.

The PROFESSORS hold their appointments from the Corporation, and by lectures and otherwise, instruct in their several departments. With the President and Tutors, they also form a board of government and control over the under-graduates.

TUTORS and LECTURERS are appointed from time to time by the Corporation, to assist the Professors in the several departments of instruction. Private Tutors have no recognized character as officers of the College.

SCHOLARSHIPS. These are permanent endowments, held by certain under-graduates according to the terms of their foundation, and paying stipends of different amounts to their incumbents.

HALLS. There are three buildings belonging to the College, which, in 1845, received the names of the first three Bishops of the Diocese. SEABURY HALL, erected in 1825, contains the Chapel, and the Library, Cabinet, and other public chambers. JARVIS HALL, erected in the same year, and BROWNELL HALL, erected in 1845, contain rooms for the officers and students; and a wing of each is the residence of a Professor and his family.

The GROUNDS, on which the Halls are erected, are an area of fourteen acres, laid out with walks, and ornamented with shade trees and shrubbery. The site is elevated, overlooking on one side the city of Hartford, within the limits of which the grounds are partly situated, and on the other the Little River, (a branch of the Connecticut,) which forms their western boundary. This river is suitable for boating and for exercise in swimming.

The LIBRARY AND CABINET. There are about twelve thousand volumes in the Library in Seabury Hall, (in which are also the portraits of several officers and benefactors of the College,) including the valuable libraries of the Professor of Ecclesiastical History, and a member of the Corporation. There are also two libraries belonging to societies of under-graduates, containing an aggregate of six thousand volumes. The cabinet is an extensive collection of minerals and geological specimens. A valuable philosophical apparatus is distributed through the lecture-rooms of the several Professors requiring its aid in their instructions.

TERMS. There are three terms in the year, of from twelve to fourteen weeks each; during which every under-graduate is required to be resident, unless under special dispensation from the President.

EXAMINATIONS. These are held at the end of each Term, in presence of examiners appointed by the Fellows, from their own number, or otherwise; and every under-graduate is required to be present and sustain his prescribed examinations at such times, unless a special examination is allowed for sufficient causes.

VACATIONS. The Christmas vacation is two weeks from the Thursday preceding Christmas day. The Easter vacation, three weeks from the close of Lent term. The Midsummer vacation is eight weeks from Commencement day.

EXHIBITIONS. Junior Exhibition occurs at the close of Lent Term. Exhibitions of the Literary Societies, at such times as are deemed most convenient.

COMMENCEMENT. The last Thursday in July is Commencement day. On the day preceding, the Corporation and House of Convocation assemble, and an address and poem are publicly pronounced before the latter. On this day all applications for admissions ad eundem come before Convocation; and the annual elections of Fellows and Junior Fellows are usually held on this day, or on the morning following. On Commencement day, candidates for degrees perform appointed exercises in public; and all degrees are conferred and announced with prescribed forms.

DEGREES. The Corporation is authorized by its charter to confer degrees in the Arts, and in the faculties of Law, Medicine and Divinity. Nominations for degrees may come from the Fellows and Professors, or from the House of Convocation ; but the candidates are admitted only by vote of the Corporation ; and all degrees are publicly conferred in its name, by the President.

Degrees in the faculties of Divinity and Law are conferred, at present, either in course, honoris causâ, or on admission ad eundem. For the degree of Bachelor of Arts, the candidate must have sustained all his examinations, and paid all fees and charges ; and must be nominated to the Corporation by the Fellows, and the Faculty of Arts. To proceed Master of Arts, a like nomination is requisite at a period of not less than three years after commencing Bachelor. Masters may proceed Bachelors in either of the Faculties, at the end of seven years, upon the certificate of the Board of Fellows, grounded on examination, and the recommendation of the Chancellor, and the President of the College. Bachelors in either of the Faculties may proceed Doctors in the same, at the expiration of three years, on the recommendation of the Chancellor, accompanied with a certificate of examiners, and a satisfactory thesis composed by the candidate. Degrees honoris causâ appertain to the Corporation only.

Applications for Degrees in course, should be made to the President of the College during Lent Term.

to the Hebrews and Epistles of St. John. Debates; Original Declamations; English Composition; and Exercises in writing Greek and Latin.

The instruction given in the preceding course of studies, is designed to be such as will promote habits of patient and accurate investigation. For this purpose, in the study of the ancient languages, particular attention is paid to their grammatical construction, to the composition and derivation of words; and the translations, especially towards the beginning of the course, are required to be as literal as the idiom of our language will permit. As the student advances, more freedom of translation is permitted, though in no case is he allowed to deviate from the exact meaning of his author, which he is required to express with clearness, precision and elegance.

In Mathematics, and in the English Studies generally, the most approved text-books are used, and the student is required to give an accurate analysis of the reasoning of his author. After the recitation is completed, remarks are made by the instructor on the principles recited, and their practical application shown by familiar illustrations. Lectures are also read on subjects connected with the main branches of study.

UNIVERSITY STUDENTS.

For the accommodation of those students who may desire to omit certain of the studies prescribed for a degree, the following provision has been made in the College statutes.

Students who do not propose to attend the whole course, may be permitted to recite with the regular classes, in such studies as, upon examination, they shall be found qualified to pursue. They shall enjoy all the privileges of the regular students, and shall be entitled to a certificate from the President, stating the time they were members of the College, and the studies pursued during the time.

GOVERNMENT AND DISCIPLINE.

The Government is administered by the President and Professors. It is designed to be mild and paternal—appealing to the better feelings of the heart, and aiming to prevent, rather than punish misconduct. Punishments involving public disgrace are resorted to with reluctance. If a student does not conduct himself to the satisfaction of the Faculty, his parent or guardian will be promptly informed of it, and if it is judged necessary, requested to remove him from the Institution. In cases where despatch is important, the delinquent will be privately dismissed.

An accurate daily account of the proficiencies of every student, and also of his delinquencies,—if any occur,—is kept; an abstract of which is transmitted to his parent or guardian at the close of each term.

PUBLIC WORSHIP.

Prayers are attended every morning and evening in the College Chapel, when all the students are required to be present. They are also required to attend public worship on the Lord's day, either in the Chapel, or at such places as their parents or guardians may desire.

EXPENSES.

For tuition, $11 per term; for room rent, from $3 to $4.50 per term; for the use of the Library, $1 per term; for sweeping rooms, ringing the bell, fuel for recitation rooms, and printing, $2 per term; all payable in advance.

Besides the above, there will be occasional assessments for damages, extra printing, or other common expenses.

Students admitted to an advanced standing, unless from other Colleges, are required to pay $10 for each year of such advancement ; and for a shorter time than one year, in proportion.

The students reside in the College, and provide for themselves bed and bedding, furniture for their rooms, fire-wood, candles, stationery and washing. Books and furniture may be sold, when the student has no further use for them, at a moderate reduction from the original cost.

No Commons are established, as it is preferred that the students should board in private families, in the neighborhood of the College. Good board can now be procured for $2.25 per week.

By a regulation of the Trustees, the tuition is remitted to the Beneficiaries of the Church Scholarship Society, and to such other necessitous students as design to enter the ministry. The necessary College expenses of such, exclusive of personal expenses, for clothing, fuel, furniture, &c., are as follows :

Board, from	$60.00 to $80 per year.
Room rent,	10.50	"
Use of Library,	3.00	"
Attendance, Printing, &c.,	6.00	"
Assessment for public damages, &c.,	4.50	"
<hr/>
Total,	$84.00

To prevent extravagant or improper expenditures, it is recommended that all funds designed for the use of students should be placed in the hands of the College Bursar, who superintends their expenses with a parental discretion. The present Bursar is DUNCAN L. STEWART, M. A. Professor of Ancient Languages.
