Resistance to many forms of illegitimate authority is necessary to bring health to this country and make it a constructive force instead of a terror in the politics of nations.

Dear Resisters,

Here are at least parts of the applications that we have on hand at the moment.

I will be calling you shortly to see if it is possible to have a meeting on August 5th in Boston to talk about grants and any other Resist business. Even if you are sure that you can't come, please look over the grant applications and send along any information or opinions that you have.

Grant Applications

Open - they need too much

1. History of California Women Farmworkers Project (Santa Cruz, CA). would like any amount to help produce slide-tape show on women farmworkers in Cal. history.

no - would support campaigns

2. Campaign to Oppose Bank Loans to South Africa (NYC) -- would like funds for two local groups (California and London) in the campaign to attend a conference in Minneapolis in late July. (Understands that we won't be meeting before the conference.)

Mr. Butler

3. Boston Committee to Break the Blockade (Boston) -- would like $ up to $500 to support informational/educational work asking people to support end of the blockade of Cuba.

no - vague use; prefer to support groups themselves

4. Women's Community Studies (Cambridge/Boston) -- would like $ up to $500 to support cultural event and conference on issue of violence against women. something suspicious about this, too. $ < EDC ?

yes - 200

5. Brigada Orlando Letelier (Washington, DC) -- would like up to $500 to support tour of Chilean muralists/educational work.

rather too much social work

6. National Lawyers Guild (New Hampshire) -- would like any part of $1000 for office needs for NH Veterans' Counseling Project.

sounds sensible

7. Southern Africa (NY) -- magazine would like any part of $500 to support several subscription campaigns.

it'd be for contrib. to the march

8. Law Project of Boulton, etc. (Atlanta) -- would like any amount to support various projects concerning prisoners' rights in Georgia.

Dear Resisters,

Here are two more grant applications. I expect a few to arrive next week.

There will be a quorum for a meeting, which will take place at Louis's at 11 am on Sunday, August 5.

If you don't think you can come to the meeting, please look over the applications and call or write if you would like to contribute your opinion or some information about any of the grant applications.

Best wishes,
