TRINITY! THE COLLEGE VIEW

Football 8-0

History repeats itself. This is an opinion. Something closer to a truth, however, is this: Good ideas, backed by good people, repeat themselves. This is not to make too much of a game--or is it? Back in '55, a bunch of men had an idea. They said, "We meet every day, run, stretch, run more, and hit one another by choice. If we're going to do this, we may as well be the best that we can be." Trinity football has a long history of winning. In fact, Trinity is one of the first twenty teams in the United States of America to play American football. Quite a tradition.

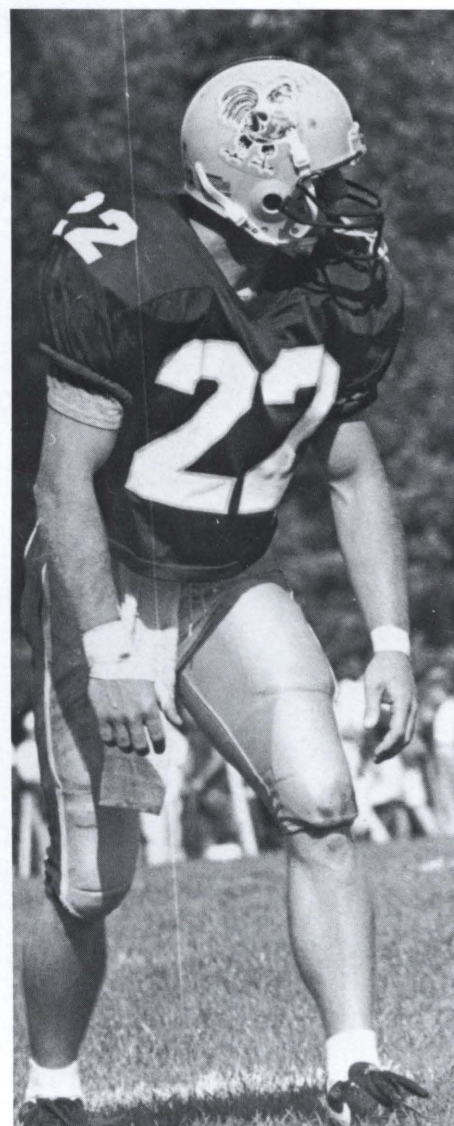

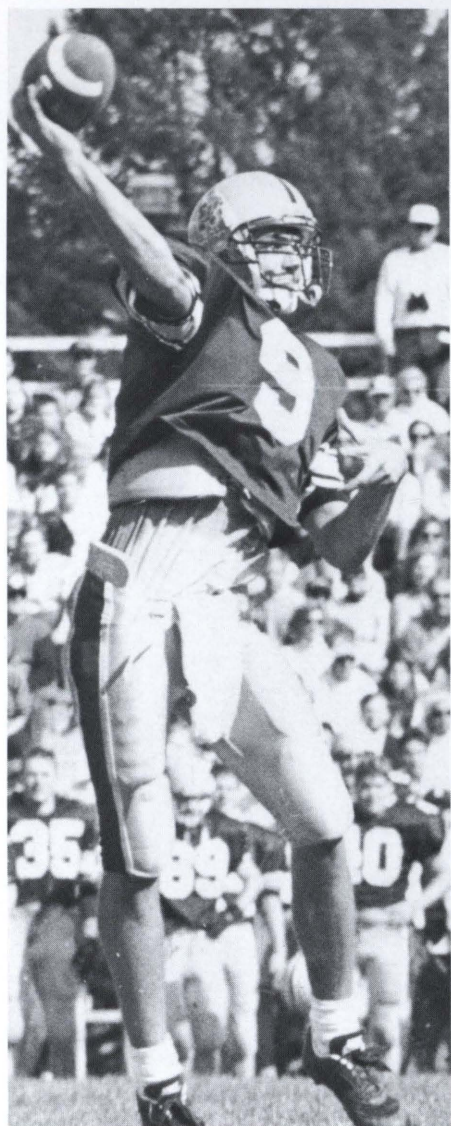

In 1993, something happened that is undefinable. Perfection is a relatively unknown concept.--Is it not? Ask someone who played ball this year. Coach Don Miller, a man who believes in the art of football, had an idea: Multi-Flex victory. Someone that does not play could study the technicalities of the system until they are thoroughly confused. However, the basis of the winning tradition at Trinity is actually quite simple: Heart. Eighty men who choose to work together, to support one another, and to "just give." When the realization of this sense of commitment and timing is understood, Multi-Flex, Trinity's winning tradition, and giving will all still be here. Here's to the future!

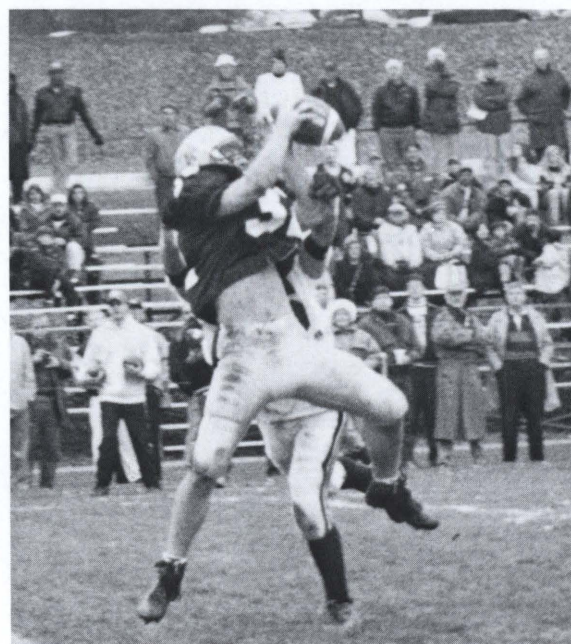

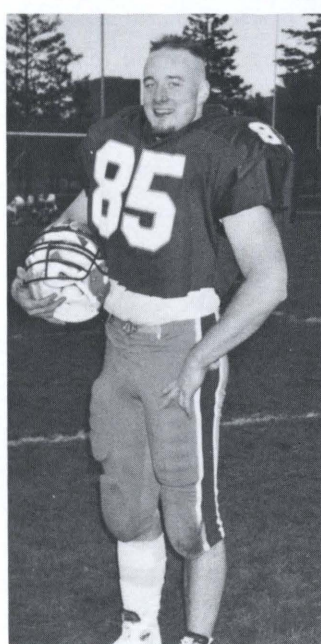

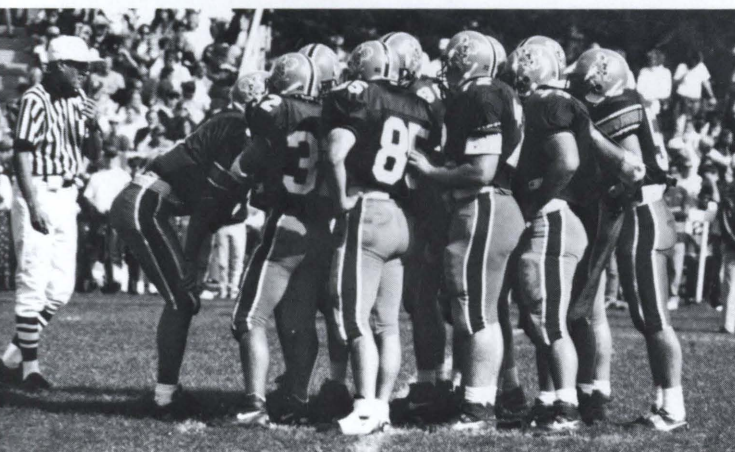

LOOK: 1993 Trinity football: Number seven in the Lambert poll, and number nine in the country. Too bad they cannot play nationally.

Field Hockey

The Trinity College women's field hockey team received its first NCAA tournament bid this year as they were one of 16 Division III teams in the nation selected to participate. Trinity finished the regular season with a 12-2 record, losing only to Williams and Middlebury. This is the first year that teams in the New England Small College Athletic Conference (NESCAC) have been allowed to participate in this tournament. Previously, the teams from the league could go no further than the ECAC tournament, which Trinity won last year and advanced to the finals the previous two seasons.

The team gained their first ever NCAA tournament victories against Plymouth State and William Smith at Northampton, Massachusetts. There was little time to bask in the glory of these wins as the team had to prepare for the Final Four tournament held at Mary Washington College in Fredericksburg, Virginia.

While this was the Trinity field hockey team's first appearance in the NCAA tournament, the team is no stranger to post-season play. For the past three seasons Trinity has advanced to the ECAC Division III Finals, bringing home the championship last season.

The Bantams' offense was led this season by senior Lindsey Davison. In the midfield, Mali Barkman and co-captain Braxton Jones were instrumental in the Trinity transition game. Defensively, co-captain Marcia Gray and goaltender, Alisha Wayman played a key role in the team's success.

The team is close on and off the field forming a unique relationship which shows through in their games. Their success, including being ranked fourth in the country, is closely related to this strong bond.

Women's Tennis

The Women's Tennis Team had a successful season this fall of 1993. Two newcomers, Carrie Birgbauer and Katie Reifenheiser, joined the ranks of the varsity players, Anita Shin (co-captain), Anne Chick, Kristen Scholhamer (co-captain), and Kerrie Okraska. The team completed their dual matches with a 6-4 record, and finished #6 in New England, tying Tufts, which was an accomplishment in itself. This season, the team continued its tradition of strong tennis, proven by the success of each player.

Men's Soccer

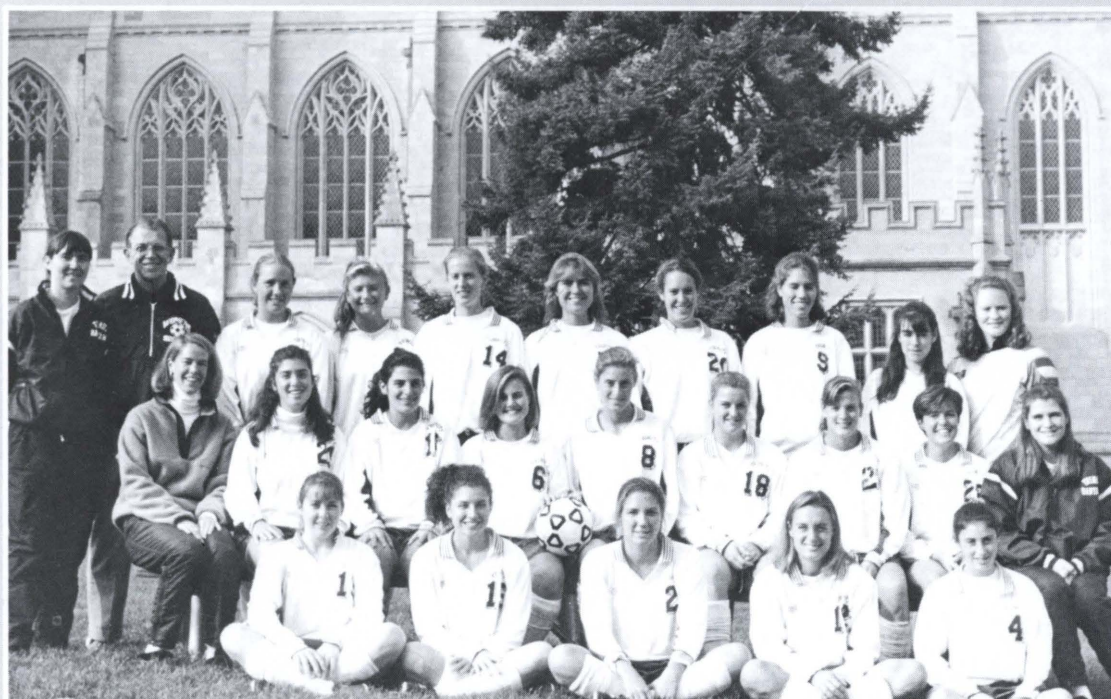

Trinity's offense returned its three leading scorers from last season. Sophomore Greg Cartin, senior co-captain Tim Yates and sophomore Sean McElligott proved that they can score and led the team when the Bantam's had the ball. Patrick Bruno, at the midfield position, contributed to the offense as well. Damian Fox, Matt Warner, Chris Piliero, and Gregg Franco helped to stabilize the midfield and add some offensive touch around the net. Senior captains Armin Afsar-Keshmiri and Stanley Stolarz provided leadership when the ball was in the Trinity end of the pitch. The team focused on coming together as a cohesive group on and off the field.

Volleyball

The 1993 Women's Volleyball team had a season of maturing and preparation for the future. Coaches Mike Hines and Stan Ogradnik support that the team's scores were not indicative of the level of energy and dedication of this young team. Captains Ya Jen Chang and Leslie Remington, and senior player Yvonne VanDerGroen led a team of three freshmen and six sophmores. Although the final record did not indicate a winning season, the high numbers of returning players will leave Trinity's Women's Volleyball a major competitor in the years to come.

Women's Basketball

The women's basketball team was forced to do some major re-building this season as three of last year's starters were lost to graduation. Fortunately for Coach Maureen Pine, she had the cornerstone on which to build in senior co-captain Jennifer Hadfield and junior Barbara Toolan. Hadfield and Toolan continued the scoring trend they started last season. Hadfield reached the 1,000 point mark in her basketball career during a game versus Nichols. In the frontcourt with Hadfield were senior Kate Armstrong and junior Patty Sarmuk. In the backcourt with Toolan was sophomore Kara Ryczek. The Bantams achieved an eleven game winning streak which was broken by Western Connecticut who were ranked first in New England.

Ranked 4th Nationally, Top rated N.E.S.C.A.C. Team

The Trinity Women's squash team finished the 1993-1994 season in impressive fashion, posting an 8-3 record. After losing early season matches to Harvard, Yale and Princeton, the Bantams won their last six matches powering their way to fourth place in the Howe Cup. Junior Kate Whitmore entered the National Championships looking to prove that she was a top player in the country, and ended up finishing in the top ten, while junior Whitney LaMotte also made an impressive showing at the USWISRA singles championship advancing to the semifinals in the consolation round. The Trinity squash program should once again be among the elite in Division I across the nation after placing fourth in both the Howe Cup rankings and USWISRA dual rankings. The Bantams return both Whitmore and sophomore Carolyn Young, who were both named to the USWISRA All-American team. Whitmore made the first team while Young made the second team.

SPRING WEEKEND 94

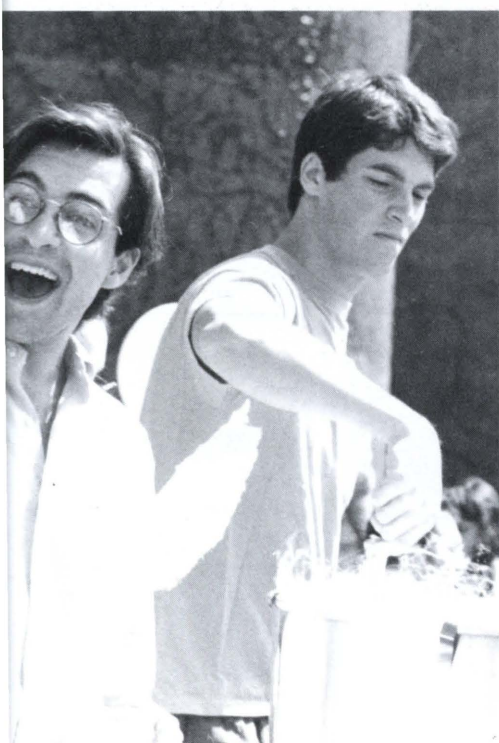

Despite near cancellation of the bands due to weather, the 1994 Spring Weekend will go down as one of the most memorable, and maybe one of the best, ever.

Saturday featured the annual TCAC Fun Fair and several bands around campus.

Steve Marcus, TCAC president, made the decision to hold the Sunday show outside despite weather forecasts of thunderstorms. This was surely the right choice as the sun burst through the clouds during Live's performance and after the Samples' performance of their song "After the Rain."

Men's Lacrosse

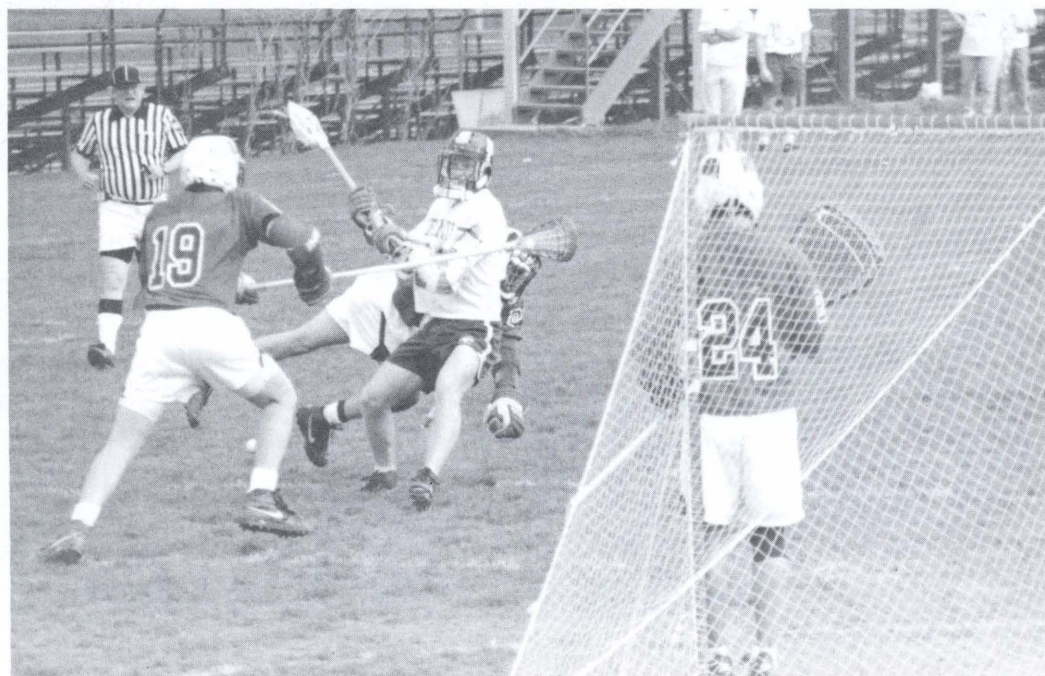

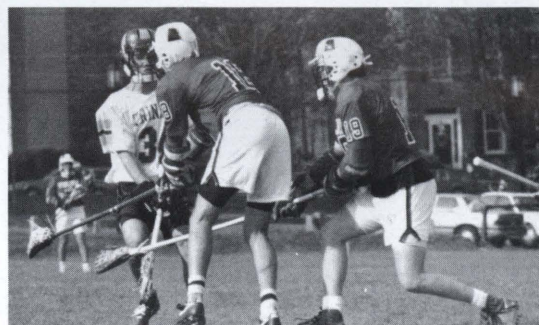

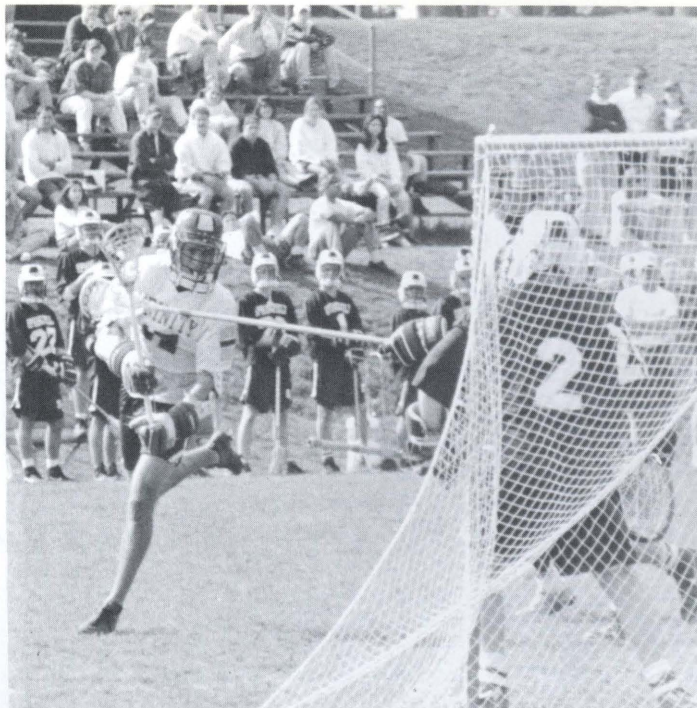

The Trinity College men's lacrosse team rolled to an impressive 9-5 record this past season, and as a result were rewarded with a bid to the ECAC tournament. The Bantams were helped tremendously by their season-opening week-long trip to Colorado, during which they beat both Colorado College and the University of Colorado. Upon returning from the Rockies, Trinity proved that they were a team to be reckoned with, recording wins over Connecticut College, M.I.T., Amherst, Wesleyan, New Haven and Bowdoin. The Bantams were paced by a balanced offensive attack this season, as they saw eight different players score at least 18 points. Leading the way were junior Gus Phelps and sophomore Greg Cartin. Overall the team enjoyed one of the biggest turnarounds in New England.

Women's Lacrosse

The Trinity College women's lacrosse team entered the ECAC Division III championships with an outstanding 10-1 record, with its only loss of the season coming at the hands of Bates, 9-14. Senior Lindsey Davison and junior Robin Leary were able to pace the offense throughout the season. On defense, senior Braxton Jones and junior Sarah Menoyo were quite impressive and did not appear to be afraid to chip in on offense: they combined for 24 points on the season. Sophomore goaltender Sharon Fernandes saved more than 63% of the shots she faced.

In March Trinity's women's lacrosse team was ranked fifth in the nation among Division III teams in a preseason poll published by College Sports magazine. The Bantams advanced to be the top-seeded team at the ECAC tournament hosted by Trinity.

The Cleo Society was originally founded at Trinity in 1878 as a literary society, as a social alternative to the fraternities existing at the time. It is named after Clio, the muse of history and wisdom in Greek mythology. In 1983 the members of the Alpha Chi Chapter of Delta Kappa Epsilon reinstituted the Clio Society in a move to create an organization more amenable to the ideals of equal opportunities for women and men, and the attainment of bonds of friendship within a group. The Clio Society is a literary club, a social club and a public service organization.

Alpha Delta Phi

Alpha Delta Phi was founded as a literary society at Hamilton College in 1832, and now consists of 29 active chapters in the United States and Canada. The Phi Kappa Society at Trinity was the parent organization from which the Phi Kappa Chapter was established here in 1877.

St. Elmo (Delta Phi)

Elmo was founded at Union College in 1823. The Corax Club, which later became the IKA Society at Washington College, is the oldest local fraternity in the nation. In 1917 IKA accepted the St. Elmo national charter while keeping the infrastructure of the IKA intact. The two coexisted at Trinity until 1972 when the fraternity went inactive. In 1982, St. Elmo was reactivated and has regained its position of leadership on campus once again.

Community Outreach

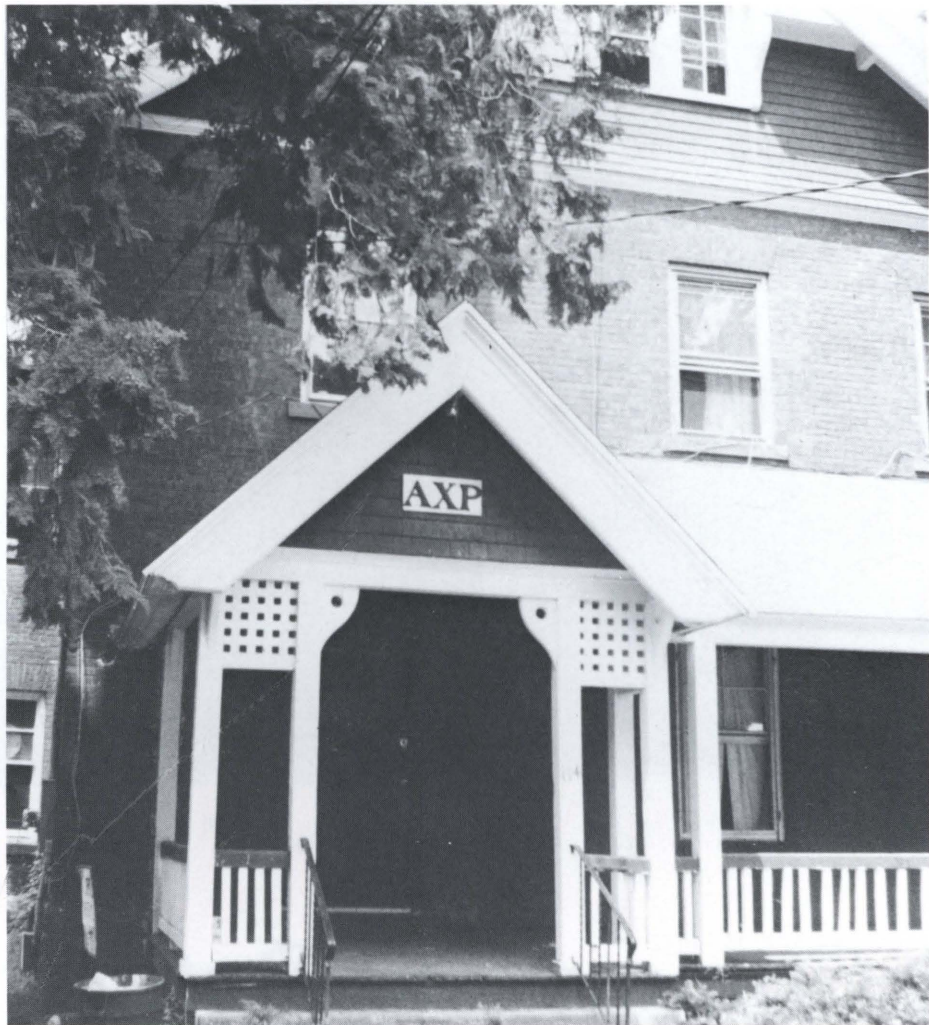

Community Outreach is the largest student organization on campus. The group believes that students have the power to transform their idealism, energy and concern into meaningful partnerships with the men, women and children of Hartford. The purpose of Community Outreach is to provide members of the Trinity community with channels for interaction with agencies and institutions in Hartford in order to address and to learn about community issues and challenges.

St. Anthony Hall is a literary society and was founded at Columbia University in 1847. The Epsilon chapter was established at Trinity in 1850. There are other active chapters at Columbia, Yale, Princeton, Brown, M.I.T., and the Universities of Virginia, Pennsylvania, Mississippi, and North Carolina. The Hall is the oldest of the resident fraternities.

Kappa Kappa Gamma

Kappa Kappa Gamma was established in 1870 at Monmouth College in Illinois, as one of the country's first women's fraternities. The Zeta Theta chapter was installed at Trinity in May 1982, and is the 110th chapter in the United States and Canada.

The Beta Omega chapter was established at Trinity College in February 1981. It is the 122nd chapter in existence.

Tripod

The Trinity Tripod is the official student newspaper of the College, and is published weekly during the academic year. The Tripod attempts to give complete coverage of campus news and is the primary medium for the expression of student opinion and criticism. Contributions from all members of the College community are welcomed by the editorial board, with the intent of fostering a greater sense of understanding among all of Trinity's faculty, students, and staff.

TrinColl Journal

The TrinColl Journal is a recent development at Trinity. This multimedia publication was first started in the spring of 1993. Though only three issues were published in its first semester, the Journal has expanded its services and now provides a new issue once a week over the computer network. In the fall of 1993 the Journal increased its availability to countless people around the world by placing itself on several international networks.

WRTC-FM, located at the frequency of 89.3, is Hartford's first noncommercial radio station. With its new offices on the first floor of High Rise and its transmitter facilities on the top of the Clement Chemistry building, WRTC services not only the College, but the surrounding community as well. Programming is diversified, and WRTC offers an educational experience in broadcasting. The entire station is run and managed by students, and the disc jockeys consist of both students and residents of Hartford.

Chapel Singers

The Trinity College Chapel Singers consists entirely of students, many of whom are a part of the Concert Choir program. The group performs for holiday services and other special events, under the direction of John Rose.

Pipes

The Pipes are a small, coed singing group originally founded in 1938 by four men from St. Anthony's Hall. The group is open, by audition, to any undergraduate at Trinity. The Pipes enjoy singing a wide variety of music from 1940s close harmony to modern pop and rock arrangements, and often use a unique blend of instruments in their arrangements. They have toured extensively, and have released a number of popular recordings.

After Dark

Trinity's first all-male vocal group in fifteen years was founded in the fall of 1981. From its humble beginnings as a four-man group, After Dark has grown in size to ten or more singers. The group's repertoire is as varied as its members, and selections range from traditional barbershop to pop tunes with guitar accompaniment. After Dark travels extensively, and has produced albums such as "Live at Jessee Field," and "Dreams of Krusty and the Four Foot Prodigy."

The Trinitones are Trinity's first and only all female vocal group. It was formed in the fall of 1987 by two sophomore women, and usually has about fifteen members. The Trinitones are a popular group both on and off campus, and frequently travel to New York and Boston to perform. The Trinitones are an a cappella group which sings close harmony ranging from jazzy 1920s music to current popular songs.

Accidentals

The Accidentals are the youngest of the vocal groups at Trinity College. Founded in the spring of 1993, this is an all male a cappella group. The Accidentals typically perform a variety of traditional selections, as well as modern pop. They have enjoyed successful concerts before a number of college audiences, both at Trinity and other schools.

TCBWO

The Trinity Coalition of Black Women Organization (TCBWO) was founded in the early 1970s to address the issues and needs of women at Trinity College. Events sponsored by TCBWO such as lectures, films, and social events heighten social and cultural awareness of TCBWO members as well as the College community.

The Biology Club encourages interaction of students with an interest in biology and faculty of the Biology Department with other biologists from outside the Trinity community. The Biology Club sponsors lectures, field trips, and special events.

TCAC, the Trinity College Activities Council, is the College's programming board, and seeks to provide the College with diverse forms of entertainment. TCAC brings comedians, lecturers, dances, and bands to the campus. Comprised entirely of students, TCAC is responsible for events such as Winter Weekend and the huge Spring Weekend show in which national acts perform at Trinity.

The Elms is a relatively new organization on campus. Founded during the 1992-1993 academic year, the group strives to provide students with an alternative social forum. The members of the Elms come from a wide variety of backgrounds, and the group's diversity serves as an example of their respect of all opinions and views.

Gospel Choir

The Gospel Choir was founded on an inspiration in the fall of 1988. It is a coed singing group which performs both on campus and in various community events throughout the school year. The choir performs a wide variety of traditional and contemporary gospel music.

Jazz Band

The Trinity Jazz Band was founded in 1974 to give interested students an opportunity to perform on their respective instruments. Traditional to contemporary jazz styles are explored. Rehearsals are held weekly to develop big band and small combo ensembles in preparation for various performances throughout the year.

World News from 1993-1994

On a sunny Monday, September 13, 1993, three American presidents gawked in awe, just like everyone else, at a sudden turn toward peace.

All eyes were on two old enemies in their new roles as peacemakers, men who say peace "salaam" in Arabic or "shalom" in Hebrew. Their handshake -- the grasp by Arab Yasser Arafat of the hand of Jew Yitzhak Rabin -- brought a gasp, a shout, and finally applause from several thousand people on the White House lawn.

A few minutes earlier Rabin's Israel and Arafat's Palestine Liberation Organization had signed a peace treaty that once seemed unimaginable. The PLO recognized the right of Israel to live in peace; Israel recognized the PLO as the representative of Palestinians.

Above: Twenty six fires that swept Southern California in the Fall of 1993 left four people dead and caused at least $1 billion in damage.

Wildfires destroyed 1,150 homes, burned across 200,000 acres and injured nearly 200 people in a matter of weeks. Adding to the horror, authorities said that 19 fires were set by arsonists.

At 4:31AM on Monday, January 17, 1994, an earthquake of 6.6 magnitude (Richter scale reading) struck Southern California, claiming 61 lives. Many highways were closed crippling transportation and much of the San Fernando Valley, the area hit hardest by the quake, was left with no water supply. Streets were empty during the nights of the 11PM-7AM curfew. National Guard troops patrolled against looting.

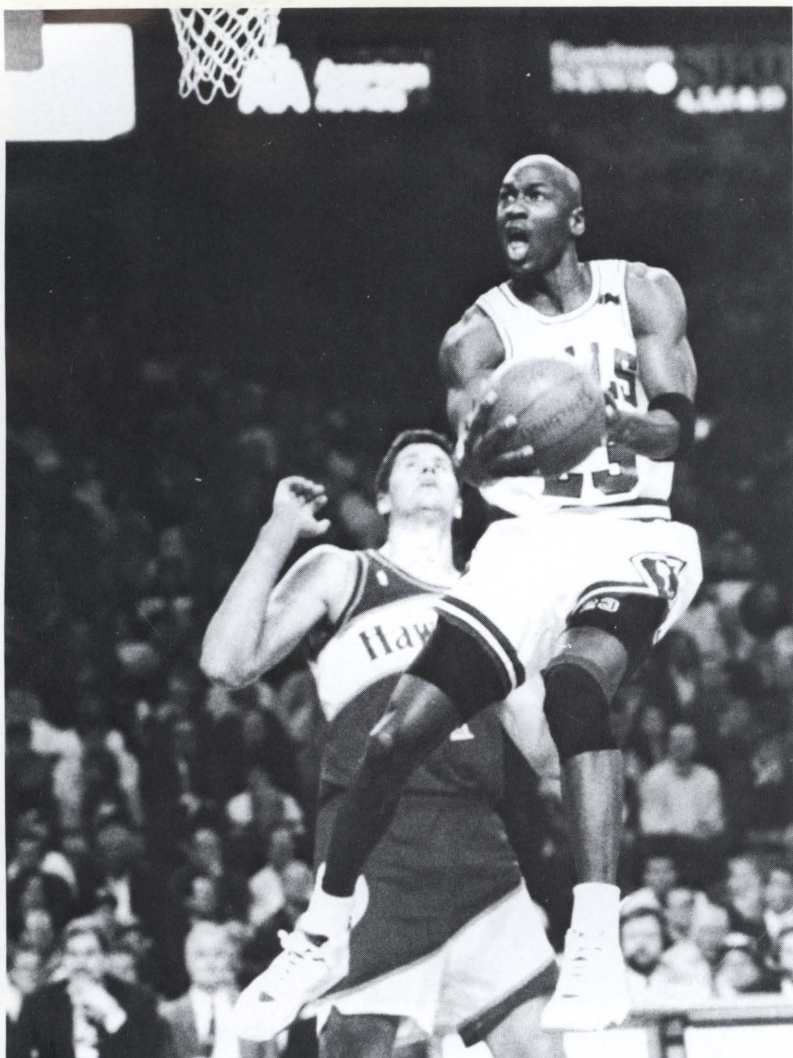

Above: The difficulty of coping with a country that had descended into feudalism was apparent to the UN in Somalia. After ordering an attack on a group of Pakistani peacekeepers, Farah Aidid became the object of a UN manhunt. However, after a battle that left 18 Americans, one Malaysian and 300 Somalis dead, the UN forces halted ground patrols and all but essential military convoys in Mogadishu.

Top: The floods that washed across the midwest may have been the worst in American history, and they captured the concern of people across the nation.

Above: The civil war in what was once Yugoslavia moved through its second year at terrible human cost: as many as 200,000 people were dead, including 10 UN relief workers who had died by October.

Left: Russia, one of the world's great powers, experienced political upheaval in 1993 more typical of a Third World nation. When Pres Boris Yeltsin disbanded the legislature on Sept 21, many of its hard-liners barricade themselves inside the parliament building in Moscow. VP Rutskoi and others tried to wrest power from Yeltsin in an attempted coup. But, following Yeltsin's orders, tanks and troops flushed out the defiant lawmakers, many of them old-line Communists opposed to Yeltsin's attempts to move the nation toward a free market economy. The world was stunned by the sight of fire raging uncontrolled inside the stately parliament building. When the smoke cleared, the rebellion was crushed and its leaders were in jail. A commission was formed to create a new legislative framework, and elections for a parliament were scheduled.

One of the biggest stories of the 1993-1994 basketball season occurred before the first pre-season exhibition game -- Michael Jordan, the world's best basketball player and one of its most famous athletes, announced his retirement. Jordan's retirement came after he had led the Chicago Bulls to three straight NBA

David Letterman, the darling of the late-night television audience, left his niche at NBC and moved over to Broadway and 52nd St. to the newly refurbished Ed Sullivan Theater that CBS renovated for him. He changed networks for a reported $15 million contract. His new show swept away with rave reviews.

It was the year of grunge rock, and a band from Seattle known as Nirvana was among the proudest purveyors of this unadorned, grinding form of rock.

At the 10th Annual MTV Video Music Awards on September 2, 1993, at Universal City, CA, Nirvana's "In Bloom" won the trophy for best alternative video. Showing up to accept such an award might have seemed like a bit of a sellout for an avant garde rock group, but Nirvana showed it still had at least one bad boy. As the band members accepted their award on stage, Kurt Cobain unbuttoned his pants. The camera turned away abruptly.

Left: Nancy Kerrigan, the 22-year-old U.S. figure skater who was among the gold medal favorites at the 1994 Winter Olympics, was attacked after practice on January 6, 1994, by a man who hit her on the right leg with a club or metal bar.

The blow severely bruised her knee and bruised her quadriceps tendon, an injury that could impede her jumping and landing ability.

Within days, an anonymous phone call to authorities pointed to Kerrigan's rival, Tonya Harding, and a few of her entourage. Harding's ex-husband, Jeff Gillooly, her bodyguard, Shawn Eckhardt, and two hired men were arrested.

The U.S. Figure Skating Association formed a panel to investigate the case, the first step in a process that could have, but did not, lead to the removal of Harding from the team.

The show started off as an upstart, but by the time they finished handing out the prime time Emmy Awards on September 29, "Seinfeld" was a member of the sitcom Old Boys Club. The NBC program took home three trophies.

"Seinfeld," which features the comic misadventures of the New York comedian and his friends, was named best comedy series. Michael Richards, who plays the show's self-obsessed Kramer, won as best supporting actor in a comedy. Writer Larry David was honored for an episode entitled "The Contest."

Office of the President

The Trinity community was shocked by Tom Gerety's sudden announcement on Friday, February 11, that he would be leaving Trinity College to assume the presidency of Amherst College in Amherst, Massachusetts. The announcement came as a surprise, as there had been no indication that Gerety, who had been President of the College since the fall of 1989, was planning to move on.

Reactions to Tom Gerety's announcement were revealed in the following week's edition of The Trinity Tripod. Feelings of betrayal came through in numerous articles on Gerety's resignation. Two seniors, Elizabeth Schwartz and Lorna Archdeacon, in a letter to the editor wrote:

Is this a responsible action on President Gerety's part or a selfish attempt at career advancement? . . . In the end, however, we feel that Trinity's supposed loss is not a loss at all but instead the opportunity to gain a

President Borden W. Painter

President who is legitimately concerned with the needs of our college, its students, and the surrounding community. The Trinity Board of Trustees took advantage of this opportunity by naming Rev. Dr. Borden W. Painter Jr. '58 to be Interim President of the College.

This appointment was met with great enthusiasm from students and faculty alike. Painter's long-standing Trinity career began in 1954. Since then he has been a student, faculty member, Chairman of the History Department, and during the 80's served as acting Dean of Faculty for three years.

President Painter has remarked on several occasions that the Class of '94 will remain special to him because of our support for him during this transitional period. The dedication and support President Painter has shown to the Class of 1994 and Trinity will surely make our memories of him especially fond as well.

"We believe that if President Gerety didn't love Trinity - and every indication seems to say that he didn't - then it's a good thing that he's leaving."

In Memoriam

A Poem for a Friend Who Likes My Poetry

She is
The first of us to leave
But that was typical of Jacqueline

Always running running ahead challenging us to keep up with her inspiring us

She is Hard to follow
but easy to keep in sight
A light with hair on fire and eyes bright with hope Always glowing like a flame
a candle in our dark

She is
The artist who creates and recreates life her own and another and ours

She is Someone we will all
be the better for knowing

She is
The one we will all remember each day
beyond the pain
to the hope and to the joy and the celebratory dance that is life

She is
As long as we speak of Jacqueline
She is
I will not speak of her in past tense
She is

Dr. Jan Cohn

*From a Resolution of the Board of Trustees
May 21, 1994*

Jan, we thank you for your seven years of valued service as chief academic officer of the College. You have provided intellectual leadership to the faculty, encouraging both continued excellence in teaching and an unprecedented volume of research and publication. A source of good counsel to three successive presidents, you have demonstrated exemplary qualities of mind and spirit: candor, constancy, breadth of vision, sound judgement, and unselfish devotion to Trinity's well-being. Moreover, even as you have discharged the multitude of duties that fall to the Dean of Faculty, you have somehow found time to teach, to write, and to publish.

We applaud your persistent and unstinting efforts to bring more minority faculty to Trinity, and particularly your initiative in creating the Ann Plato Fellows Program. During your tenure, the curriculum was enriched by the implementation of new General Education requirements and the addition of majors in Neuroscience, Women's Studies and Anthropology, and by the revision of American Studies, in which you played a major role. The Writing Center, dear to all our hearts, was another beneficiary of your care and attention.

As Dean, you have been an enthusiastic and constant supporter of programs to strengthen teaching and to make imaginative use of new technologies in the classroom. Further, you have consistently upheld the highest academic standards, most notably in your tireless work on the Appointment and Promotions Committee. We appreciate the commitment and integrity you brought to the Deanship, and know the College will be richer for your continued service to it as G. Keith Funston Professor of American Literature and American Studies.

I'M
ANNE

The words on the hat say it all. To celebrate your 21st Birthday, many of your family and friends joined you wearing hats that said "I'm With Anne", but you had the only hat that declared who you were. And you wore it with pride and self confidence. Your experiences prior to college helped shape your character. But your four years at Trinity College have given you a sense of direction and independence. Your goals are established and you are pursuing them with a singular purpose. You know who you are, what you can do, and where you want to go. We love you for being "you" and wish you every good fortune as you set out after graduation to make your mark. You'll do well, and you'll be a success.

President Painter, distinguished faculty and staff, honored guests, friends, family, and fellow classmates:

As I sat down to write this speech for the first time, a million memories came flooding to my mind. And then again, as I sat down to write this speech for the thousandth time, yet another million memories came flooding to my mind. I vividly recall the sweltering heat, our first day in the Washington Room as we listened to Dean Winer, meeting my first friend who fortunately has remained my best friend, eating Chinese food at the ungodly hour of 4 in the morning, talking to friends in Saga for hours on end when I know I should have been studying, lying on the Quad on a beautiful Spring day . . . The list goes on and on. Many of you, I'm sure, have shared similar experiences. These, as well as countless others, have shaped who we have become.

I distinctly remember one late night conversation with friends. As we reflected on our time here, a good friend of mine shared a quote with me that I don't think I'll ever forget. John F. Kennedy once said:

Some men see things as they are and ask why.
I dream things that never were and ask why not?

Upon hearing this, I began to realize the incredible opportunity we have been given. On the first day in August of 1990, Trinity opened its doors to us. It gave us freedom to challenge and to question that which we do not understand. Now, four years later, Trinity has given us the ability and knowledge to reach our goals, achieve our dreams, and to never stop questioning. It has helped us become who we are today. I believe it would be impossible for anyone sitting here today to say they are the same person they were when they arrived on campus four short years ago.

Through our four year journey, we have experienced many changes both within the Trinity community and within ourselves. The obvious physical changes: Mather renovations, the changes to Ferris, and of course, Chucky's to Sam's. The less obvious: our inner strength, psychological maturity, and the exposure to different people and cultures. On the playing field, performing community service, or in the classroom, it is difficult not to recognize the numerous accomplishments of our class. Just in the past year, our Field Hockey team went to the NCAA Final Four, men's lightweight novice crew won the nationals, our classmates undertook countless service projects, and our Football team went undefeated, making history. We have managed to leave our mark on Trinity.

As we close one chapter of our lives and embark on yet another, may we always reach our goals, achieve our dreams and never stop questioning. Tomorrow marks the first day of the rest of our lives. No one knows what the future holds for us, but do not be afraid to take chances for we learn from our mistakes. It is important to take with you what you've gained at Trinity and continue to grow. We must find our strengths and weakness for life is an ongoing learning experience.

To the faculty, administration and staff, thank you for your friendship, support and guidance.

To my family and all our families, thank you for your love and understanding and for giving each of us the chance to grow into our own person.

And finally, to the Class of 1994, I'd like to wish you all luck, success and much more happiness. As we continue on our journey, I leave you with these words by Dr. Suess:

Congratulations! Today is your day. You're off to Great Places! You're off and away! You have brains in your head. You have feet in your shoes. You can steer yourself in any direction you choose. You're on your own. And you know what you know. And you are the one who'll decide where to go . . . And will you succeed? YES! You will, indeed! (98 and 3/4 percent guaranteed.) Kids, you'll move mountains! . . . Today is your day. Your mountain is waiting . . . So get on your way.

Thank you Trinity. You'll never be forgotten.
