To the Trustees of Trinity College:

In accordance with Section Three of Article Fifteen of the Statutes of the College, I submit herewith the report of the Librarian for the year ending July 30, 1926.

As in other years, the Library has been kept open fifty-four hours per week, and the usual statistics in regard to attendance are given:

ATTENDANCE ANNUAL SUMMARY

Year	1921-1922	1922-1923	1923-1924	1924-1925	1925-1926
	12,901	12,807	12,270	10,453	12,277

These figures do not indicate any considerable change in the use of the Library by the students, though the increase over last year is gratifying — this in spite of the fact that the college year was somewhat shorter. The increase in the attendance during the Trinity Term is noteworthy, especially considering the large number of students required to withdraw at mid-years.

INCREASE OF THE LIBRARY

During the year, there have been added to the Library 3087 volumes and 2956 pamphlets. Of these 895 volumes were purchased; all the pamphlets and 2192 volumes were presented. Included in the purchases are 150 volumes in unbound periodicals and 11 volumes paid for from the appropriation of the Departments of Civil Engineering and Philosophy. Of the volumes added to the Library, 2194 are bound and 893 unbound. It should be added that most of the volumes entered as unbound periodicals have already been bound or will be bound during the summer.

The generous appropriation from the income of the Morgan Fund has been most helpful. Indeed without it, it would be quite impossible to secure the books indispensable in the work of teaching. Your Librarian earnestly hopes that this appropriation may be continued till our Library Funds are greatly increased.

Some of the more important purchases of the year are: Beilstein's Handbuch der organischen Chemie (Vol. 7); Eugene Labiche, Théâtre, 10 vols.; Theodore Fontane, Gesammelte Werke, 10 vols; Ernst Zahn, Gesammelte Werke, 20 vols; Charles M. Doughty, Wanderings in Arabia, 2 vols.; Guy de Maupassant, Works, 10 vols.; George Borrow, Works, 6 vols.; Joseph Bédier, Histoire de la littérature française, 2 vols.; George P. Krapp, The English Language in America, 2 vols.; E. K. Chamber's Elizabethan Stage, 4 vols.; Clément Marot, Oeuvres, 2 vols.; Outline of Christianity, 3 vols.; International Critical Tables, first vol.; and Amy Lowell, John Keats, 2 vols.

GIFTS

Appendix II gives the names of the donors of the year; to these should be added the names of the donors of current periodicals given at the beginning of Appendix I. We are again indebted to Mrs. Henry Ferguson, to Dr. Isbon T. Beckwith, and to members of the Faculty for their constant remembrance of the Library.

Some of the gifts call for particular mention :

From President and Mrs. Ogilby, we received 509 bound and 40 unbound volumes from the library of Miss Cornelia K. Manley, given in memory of her. An appropriate label has been provided with which to mark them. The gift included many useful and valuable volumes, especially philosophical works, biographies, and literary and musical criticism. Their gift is the most important single gift of the year, and is correspondingly appreciated.

From Mrs. Edward Pearsons Newton, we received 372 volumes from the library of her husband, the late Reverend Edward Pearsons Newton, of the class of 1881. In addition to theological works, the gift included a goodly number of items of a general literary nature. It is largely through such gifts that our Library has been accumulated, and though many duplicates and some obsolete books will be found in any such gift, yet each one brings to us books very much worth while.

From Judge Joseph Buffington, we received some 70 volumes and about 250 pamphlets. He sent also a copy of a very interesting book entitled "The Coinage of Different Countries", containing pictures in the colors of the different metals of the coins of practically all modern nations.

Frederick Peck Wilcox, of the class of 1880, gave us a copy of a beautiful and valuable work entitled "Japan — Described and Illustrated by the Japanese", one of fifty copies. The Library is fortunate to have among its treasures this unique work. It is of great interest for the study of Japanese art and Japanese life and thought.

From His Majesty, the King of Siam, we received 11 unbound volumes of Buddhist Scriptures, a continuation of previous gifts.

From William Gwinn Mather, of the class of 1877, we received a copy of "Increase Mather, the Foremost American Puritan", one of the twenty-five copies especially bound for Mr. Mather. We also received from him Vol. XIII of the Text and Vol. XIII of the Plates of the great work on the North American Indians, the earlier volumes of which also came to us through Mr. Mather's generosity.

From Professor Riggs we received 18 useful books; from Professors Perkins, Kleene, and Costello, a number of useful volumes, and also useful books from Mr. Charles G. Woodward and Mr. Newton C. Brainard, Trustees of the college. From the Reverend W. Northey Jones, of the class of 1888, we received a copy of his History of St. Peter's Church, Perth Amboy, of which he is Rector. From the Reverend Louis C. Washburn, of the class of 1881, we received a copy of his book on Christ Church, Philadelphia, of which venerable parish, he has been Rector many years.

From the family of Thane B. Wright, of the class of 1924, we received 4 volumes in his memory, selected from his library. From Major-General James G. Harbord, LL.D., 1924, we received a copy of his "Leaves from a War Diary"; from Professor Charles Seymour, LL.D., 1922, a copy of the "Intimate Papers of Colonel House," and from Professor David M. Robinson, L.H.D., 1925, a copy of his valuable book on Sappho.

We acknowledge again gratefully the gifts of their publications by the Carnegie Institution, the Carnegie Endowment for International Peace, the Smithsonian Institution, the Government of the United States, and the State of Connecticut. We are again indebted to the State Board of Education for eight bound volumes of town reports.

CATALOGUING

The work of the year in this department, in addition to cataloguing recent accessions, including the large gifts of the year, has been almost entirely reclassifying and recataloguing. We have checked 18 sections of the Union List of Periodicals, involving running through some 100 of the drawers containing our card catalogue. The importance of this cooperative enterprise is so great, that there can be no question as to the propriety of our devoting the time to the work. 1653 volumes not before catalogued have been catalogued and shelved. 1558 volumes have been recatalogued and 1654 reclassified.

The work of the year may be summarized:

Number of books catalogued	1,653
Number of pamphlets catalogued	201
Number of books reclassified	1,654
Number of pamphlets reclassified	11
Number of books recatalogued	1,558
	<hr/>
Total of items handled	5,077

Reviewing the work of the last ten and a half years, we have the following figures:

Number of books catalogued	34,502
Number of pamphlets catalogued	1,835
Number of books recatalogued	28,856
Number of pamphlets recatalogued	1,000
Number of books reclassified	28,988
Number of pamphlets reclassified	997
	<hr/>
Total of items handled	96,178
Total number of new cards added to catalogue	109,454
Total number of cards altered	23,745
	<hr/>
	133,199

BINDING

The appropriation of $500 for binding has as usual been expended largely in binding current periodicals, though each year progress is made in "catching up" with the binding of other material. It is requested that this appropriation be continued.

PUBLICATION

A new edition of the pamphlet published ten years ago entitled a "List of Current Periodicals in the Libraries of Hartford" was issued as the April number of the "Bulletin". The work of preparing this fell to Miss Bailey and Miss Blinn. The old edition had become useless, and the calls for a new issue both from the members of the College Faculty and from others made it proper to bring the list up to date.

FUNDS

Your Librarian would emphasize again the woeful inadequacy of our Library Funds. We need at least $100,000 additional endowment to provide a proper income for the purchase of books and periodicals to enable us to maintain our relative place among New England College libraries. It is hoped that friends of the college will meet this great need at no very distant day.

THE STAFF

Miss Louise M. Bailey as Cataloguer, and Miss Laura A. Blinn, as Assistant, have given faithful and efficient service.

The Student Assistants have been Charles Francis Whiston, Howard Watson Tule, Harold William Gale, Royden Constantine

Berger, Millard Fuller Manning, Harry Halliday Jackson, and George Reginald Turney. Mr. Whiston and Mr. Tule the senior assistants having graduated, Mr. Gale will be first assistant next year.

THE LIBRARY COMMITTEE

President Ogilby and Professor Costello, the resident members of the Library Committee (with the Librarian) have been most interested and helpful. Professor Costello is a "born bibliographer", and his suggestions and advice as to purchases are most helpful. At Commencement time, a meeting of the Committee, with all members present, was held. The problems of the Library were carefully considered and many useful suggestions made. It is hoped that a number of them may be carried out this year.

CONCLUSION

This year has been one of progress. The work of recataloguing is measurably completed, only a few small collections remaining to be dealt with. We have been able to purchase the new books most insistently demanded. Probably the summer will see the new stacks on the top floor so desperately needed put in place. For further progress in building up the collection, additional funds are essential. At present we live a hand-to-mouth sort of existence; no large purchases can be made and no systematic effort to fill gaps or to round out our collection in any field can be made. Still a comparison of the situation now with conditions ten years ago gives us courage to hope that at no very distant day many of these needs will be met.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

ARTHUR ADAMS,
Librarian.

July 1, 1926.
