SUMMER SCHOOL

June 29 — August 7

Hartford : Connecticut

FOREWORD

THE long summer vacation which has become a tradition in American schools and colleges perhaps had its origin in pioneer days when the entire man power (and child power) of a community was needed in the fields, in order to plant and harvest the supply of food for the winter. Though agriculture has become more specialized and less insistent in its demands upon the general population, the long vacation still exists spent by most young people and some teachers, in physical recreation. It is interesting in this connection to note that it is in the Long Vacation that the students at Oxford and Cambridge do most of their studying.

The fact that teachers in the United States seem increasingly eager to make use of at least a portion of the summer vacation by attendance at summer schools is a healthy sign. Trinity College is glad to make its contribution to this demand by offering in a summer session certain courses that parallel the regular courses given here in term time. Additional courses for the benefit of those non-teachers who desire further education serve to enrich our summer curriculum.

R. B. OGILBY, President.

SUMMER SCHOOL

TRINITY COLLEGE offers the following courses for its summer school of 1936. Credit is given for these courses—toward a Bachelor's Degree for all and toward a Master's Degree for some. Although Trinity College does not award the Bachelor's Degree to women, all summer school classes are open to both men and women, and credit can be transferred to other colleges awarding such a degree. No student will be permitted to receive credit in courses totaling more than six semester hours.

All classes will be held at the indicated hours five days a week June 29 to August 7 in classrooms and laboratories on the campus. These buildings are fairly cool even on hottest days. Information concerning the exact building and room may be obtained at the time of registration.

Early registration is desired. If the blank at the end of this bulletin is sent in by June 12 with a registration fee of one dollar, this fee will be deducted later from the charge for tuition. The registration fee will be retained if paid later than this date. Final registration may be made June 27 and June 29 from 9:00 to 12:00 in Boardman Hall.

The director of the Summer School, Dr. Irwin A. Buell, will be glad to answer any questions concerning credits, admission requirements, et cetera.

SUMMER SCHOOL

ports on special selected incidents. Lectures, text book, readings, and research in state papers.

Time: 9:35 to 10:50. Credit: Three semester hours.

Professor in charge: Edward F. Humphrey, Ph.D.

Fee: $25.00.

MATHEMATICS: TRIGONOMETRY, ANALYTIC GEOMETRY, AND THE CALCULUS. Because of the probable small size of this class, this course will be conducted on the basis of individual instruction, each student working by himself under the guidance of the instructor. This makes it possible for a student to begin with any one of the three subjects, to proceed at his own pace, and to attend one or both periods of instruction depending upon his ambitions and his need for assistance.

Time: 8:20 to 9:35 and 9:35 to 10:50. Credit: Three semester hours for each period.

Professor in charge: H. M. Dadourian, Ph.D.

Fee: $25.00 for each period.

MUSIC: A course in the history and analysis of instrumental music of the last four centuries. The first half of the course is devoted to analysis of forms and styles; the second half, to the development of symphonic forms from Beethoven to the present day. Lecture period, 8:30 to 9:45. Laboratory period for the study of the compositions discussed, 9:45 to 11:15. Assigned readings in biography.

Professor in charge: Clarence Everett Watters, F.A.G.O.

Credit: Six semester hours.

Fee: $50.00.

SUMMER SCHOOL

PHYSICS: GENERAL PHYSICS. An elementary course of college grade for those that have had little or no physics.

Time: Lecture 8:20 to 9:20, laboratory 9:20 to 11:20, lecture 11:20 to 12:10. Credit: Equivalent to Physics I of the winter schedule.

Professor in charge: Arthur P. R. Wadlund, Ph.D.

Fee: $50.00.

PSYCHOLOGY: ELEMENTARY GENERAL PSYCHOLOGY. This is a foundation course which must be completed successfully, or its equivalent, by all who would take more advanced courses in psychology with a view of having them counted as credits for a degree. It comprises an outline of the fundamentals of the subject and consists chiefly of an analysis of the normal adult mind and its manifestations but including note of the outstanding characteristics of the child mind.

Time: 9:35 to 10:50. Credit: Three semester hours.

Professor in charge: Carl Lewis Altmaier, Ph.D.

Fee: $25.00.

EDUCATIONAL PSYCHOLOGY: THE PSYCHOLOGY OF CHILDHOOD AND ADOLESCENCE. A consideration of the physical and mental development of the child from conception to puberty, noting the influences of heredity and environment. An analysis of the various forms of behavior, with an indication of their significance for the educative process.

A presentation of the problems of the adolescent period, considering the rise of new instincts and emotions, the development of self-consciousness and social traits, and indicating the content and method of pedagogical procedure for the children of this period.

Time: 8:20 to 9:35. Credit: Three semester hours.

Professor in charge: Carl L. Altmaier, Ph.D.

Fee: $25.00.

PSYCHOLOGY: EXPERIMENTAL PSYCHOLOGY. This course supplements the work done in the elementary course and may be taken simultaneously or may be elected separately by those who have completed elementary psychology. The work in the course is chiefly confined to the performance of simple experiments which demonstrate various phenomena objectively and acquaint the student with laboratory methods.

It is probable that such a course will be offered rarely and such students as have need of it for credit or desire it because of interest should elect it this summer instead of some other course offered more frequently.

Time: 10:50 to 12:05. Credit: Three semester hours.

Professor in charge: Robert B. W. Hutt, Ph.D.

Fee: $25.00.

PSYCHOLOGY: ABNORMAL PSYCHOLOGY. An outline of normal and abnormal factors in human development which account for differences in personality; of mental hygiene; of the care and treatment of defectives. This course should be of value to all who need to understand human nature as revealed in self and in others.

SUMMER SCHOOL

If convenient, trips will be made to State Institutions for the direct observation of atypical personalities.

Time: 9:35 to 10:50. Credit: Three semester hours.

Professor in charge: Robert B. W. Hutt, Ph.D.

Fee: $25.00.

SOCIOLOGY: ELEMENTS OF SOCIOLOGY. A study of the origin and the antiquity of man; his social relations in primitive communities; the evolution of society, classical to modern periods; races of man and problems of race and of nationality; biological, psychological, and cultural factors in social life; social organization; conflicts in society; education as a social problem; social institutions and social problems.

Time: 9:35 to 10:50 Credit: Three semester hours.

Professor in charge: Irwin Alfred Buell, Ph.D.

Fee: $25.00.
