SUMMER SCHOOL

July 5 — August 13

1938

Hartford : Connecticut

FOREWORD

HE word "vacation" unfortunately suggests emptiness. Rest and recuperation are not synonyms with idleness. Our typical summer holidays for schools and colleges of twelve weeks meant in earlier agricultural times an opportunity, quite necessary, for getting the physical power of men and boys out into the fields for long, exhausting hours which rebuilt them for the next academic year. We must rephrase our needs and our plans in these days.

For teachers who need to recharge overused batteries, for scholars who wish to keep mentally alert, for students who desire to fill up gaps in their fields of learning, a six weeks summer course is sensible planning. There are a few days before it for a vacuum vacation and a few weeks after it for physical refreshment. It seems to fit well into the academic round.

So Trinity College offers summer courses, on a hill-top, within heavy stone walls that help to keep out the heat, with a greensward to refresh the eye.

R. B. OGILBY, President.

RINITY COLLEGE offers the following courses for its summer school of 1938. Credit is given for these courses—toward a Bachelor's Degree for all and toward a Master's Degree for some. Although Trinity College does not award the Bachelor's Degree to women, all summer school classes are open to both men and women, and credit can be transferred to other colleges awarding such a degree. No student will be permitted to receive credit in courses totaling more than six semester-hours.

All classes will be held at the indicated hours five days a week July 5 to August 13 in classrooms and laboratories on the campus. These buildings are fairly cool even on hottest days. Information concerning the exact building and room may be obtained at the time of registration.

Early registration is desired. If the blank at the end of this bulletin is sent in by June 11 with a registration fee of one dollar, this fee will be deducted later from the charge for tuition. The registration fee will be retained if paid later than this date. Final registration may be made July 2 and July 5 from 9:00 to 12:00 in the office of the Director of the Summer School.

The Director of the Summer School, Dr. Irwin A. Buell, will be glad to answer any questions concerning credits, admission requirements, et cetera.

HISTORY: THE UNITED STATES AS A WORLD POWER. The development of the United States since 1890, treated primarily from the point of view of its position in the international world. Lectures, readings, and reports.

Time: 9:35 to 10:50. Credit: Three semester hours.

Professor in charge: Edward F. Humphrey, Ph.D.

Fee: $25.00.

ITALIAN: ELEMENTARY ITALIAN. An elementary course of college grade for those who have had little or no Italian. The course is the equivalent of the first half of the regular course in Elementary Italian. Essentials of the grammar and correct pronunciation will be stressed, with some training in reading modern Italian.

Time: 8:20 to 9:35. Credit: Three semester hours.

Professor in charge: Robert P. Waterman, M.A.

MATHEMATICS: TRIGONOMETRY, ANALYTIC GEOMETRY, AND THE CALCULUS. Because of the probable small size of this class, this course will be conducted on the basis of individual instruction, each student working by himself under the guidance of the instructor. This makes it possible for a student to begin with any one of the three subjects, to proceed at his own pace, and to attend one or both periods of instruction depending upon his ambitions and his need for assistance.

Time: 8:20 to 9:35 and 9:35 to 10:50. Credit: Three semester hours for each period.

Professor in charge: H. M. Dadourian, Ph.D.

Fee: $25.00 for each period.

MATHEMATICS: ADVANCED ALGEBRA. Prerequisite: two years of algebra or Mathematics 1 or 1T. Summation of series, probability, theory of equations, and other topics including those required for Parts I and II of the examinations of the Actuarial Society.

Time: 8:20 to 9:35 and 9:45 to 11:00. Credit: Six semester hours.

Professor in charge: Alfred K. Mitchell, Ph.D.

Fee: $50.00.

MUSIC: HARMONY. Harmony and ear-training through altered chords. Special emphasis upon melodic writing in the added parts.

Time: 8:30 to 9:45 and 10:00 to 11:15. Credit: Six semester hours.

Professor in charge: Clarence E. Watters, M.A.

PHYSICS: GENERAL PHYSICS. An elementary course of college grade for those that have had little or no physics.

Time: Lecture 8:20 to 9:20, laboratory 9:20 to 11:20, lecture 11:20 to 12:10. Credit: Equivalent to Physics I of the winter schedule.

Professors in charge: Arthur P. R. Wadlund, Ph.D. and Howard D. Doolittle, Ph.D.

Fee: $55.00.

PSYCHOLOGY: ELEMENTARY GENERAL PSYCHOLOGY. This is a foundation course which must be completed successfully, or its equivalent, by all who would take more advanced courses in psychology with a view of having them counted as credits for a degree. It comprises an outline of the fundamentals of the subject and consists chiefly of an analysis of the normal adult mind and its manifestations but including note of the outstanding characteristics of the child mind.

Time: 9:35 to 10.50. Credit: Three semester hours. Professor in charge: Carl Lewis Altmaier, Ph.D. Fee: $25.00.

EDUCATIONAL PSYCHOLOGY. PSYCHOLOGY OF THE LEARNING PROCESS. This course aims to study the fundamental processes involved in the child's reaction to his environment and his response to the teaching process. It involves the consideration of sensation, perception, and the origin and growth of memory, and the grouping of ideas in a stream of thought; the formation and elimination of habit responses; the significance of motivation and intelligence in learning. The association processes involved in learning will be considered, the economical methods of learning noted, and the more recent results of experimentation on learning illustrated and discussed. This is an advanced course in this field.

Time: 8:20 to 9:35. Credit: Three semester hours.

Professor in charge: Carl J. Altmaier, Ph.D.

Fee: $25.00.

PSYCHOLOGY: ABNORMAL PSYCHOLOGY. An outline of normal and abnormal factors in human development which account for differences in personality; of mental hygiene; of the care and treatment of defectives. This course should be of value to all who need to understand human nature as revealed in self and in others.

If convenient, trips will be made to State Institutions for the direct observation of atypical personalities.

Time: 9:35 to 10:50. Credit: Three semester hours.

Professor in charge: Robert B. W. Hutt, Ph.D.

Fee: $25.00.

SOCIOLOGY A: ELEMENTS OF SOCIOLOGY. A study of the origin and the antiquity of man; his social relations in primitive communities; the evolution of society, classical to modern periods; races of man and problems of race and of nationality; biological, psychological, and cultural factors in social life; social organization; conflicts in society; education as a social problem; social institutions and social problems.

Time: 10:50 to 12:05. Credit: Three semester hours.

Professor in charge: Irwin Alfred Buell, Ph.D.

Fee: $25.00.

The following two summer school courses do not give credit toward a degree at Trinity but correspond to courses given elsewhere for degree credit. Grades will be awarded to members of each class and will be sent by the college to any address that the student specifies. THE COACHING OF BASKETBALL: Lectures and floor demonstrations. Methods of teaching fundamentals of basketball will be stressed as well as an analysis of various types of offensive and defensive systems used by outstanding coaches.

Time: 8:30 to 9:45 and 10:00 to 11:15. July 5, to July 23. Professor in charge: Ray Oosting, M. Ed., Director of

Physical Education and Coach of Basketball.
