LANDEFELD IS CAPTAIN

Landefeld Will Captain The Football Team Next Season.

The men who won their football "T" this season met in the Latin Room on Tuesday morning and elected J. Clinton Landefeld captain of the team for the season of 1905.

CAPTAIN LANDEFELD.

The new captain is a member of the Sophomore Class, having entered from Lehigh University this fall. He was undoubtedly the star member of this year's team and was our most consistent ground gainer. Captain-elect Landefeld is 22 years of age, is 5 feet 11 inches tall, and weighs 180 pounds. He prepared for college at the Bethlehem Preparatory School, where he played on the football and baseball teams during his two years there, and was captain of the former during his last year. He played tackle and half-back on the Lehigh University team. During the past season he played tackle and was used back of the line on the offense, being called back from his position. Landefeld did the punting for the team during the entire season and was probably one of the best punters on the gridiron this season, his punts averaging almost sixty yards. The new captain will be a candidate for the basketball and baseball teams during the present year.

The Junior Prom Committee held its first meeting last night at 6.45. Chairman Hinkel divided the work among the members, as is usual, by the appointment of sub-committees.

GAMES TOMORROW, SATURDAY, NOV. 19.

Harvard vs. Yale at New Haven.
Brown vs. Dartmouth at Boston.
Annapolis vs. Virginia P. I. at Annapolis.
West Point vs. Syracuse at West Point.

Dickinson vs. Ursinus at Carlisle, Pa.
Lafayette vs. Lehigh at Easton, Pa.
New York University vs. Union at New York.
Northwestern vs. Minnesota at Chicago.
Nebraska vs. Bellevue at Lincoln, Neb.

MORE RUNNERS WANTED.

The track squad is rather slow in turning out. In order to have plenty of good material those men who intend to run are asked to come out now and make an early start. Capt. Remsen, with a few men, are taking short runs two or three times a week. He would like to have a squad of twenty. Those who have run this week are: Remsen, '05 (capt.); Rhodes, '05; Curtiss, '06; Barbour, '06; Coggeshall, '07, and Morris, '08.

Regular basketball practice has not yet commenced but here are many candidates at work daily in the gym. Among the men who are likely candidates for the team are Duffy, Rehr, Bowne and Cameron of last year's team, also Landefeld, Powell, Madden, Wamersly, Stevens, H. Pond and Donnelly. No captain has been elected as yet and affairs are at present under the entire charge of Manager W. F. Bulkeley.

HARVARD VS. YALE.

Annual Battle Will be Fought Tomorrow.

The great football contest, which attracts the attention of the whole collegiate world in the East every year, will be played on the Yale Field between Yale and Harvard tomorrow. Supporters of both teams are sure of victory, but perhaps the balance of confidence lies in favor of Yale.

It is reported that Yale will probably try a new offensive play which is greatly favored by her head coach, Mr. Walter Camp. What this play is to be is of course entirely a matter of guesswork to all except the team itself. Much of the interest in the game, therefore, may center upon the quickness and effectiveness with which the Harvard team adapts itself to the proposition when it is put to it.

Though Yale men are confident, it is admitted by them that Harvard has a more varied offense this year and is not in any way inferior to Yale as regards her defense. The line up, as near as can be at present determined, will probably be as follows, Yale playing the same men as she played last week at Princeton:

Harvard.	Position.	Yale.
Montgomery	l. e.	Shevlin
Overson	l. t.	Kineon
Parker	l. g.	Kinney
Parkinson	c.	Roraback
White	r. g.	Tripp
Squires	r. t.	Hogan (capt.)
Randall	r. e.	Neal
Starr	q. b.	Rockwell
Hurley (capt.)	l. h. b.	Hoyt
Sperry	r. h. b.	Owsley
Mills	f. b.	Leavenworth

Both teams indulged in lively practice the early part of the week, over a thousand students in each case coming out daily to encourage their men by cheering, sometimes accompanied by a band. The following shows the record made by the respective teams during the past season:

Yale	22	Wesleyan	0
Yale	42	Trinity	0

FIRST DEBATE OF DEBATING CLUB.

Eleven men were present at the first debate of the Trinity Debating Club last evening. It was held in the History Room, at 7 p. m. The subject discussed was, "Resolved, That the workingman who refuses to join a trade union acts to the detriment of the best interests of his country." This subject was taken partly with a view to ascertaining whether or not it will prove a fair one for an inter-collegiate debate later in the year.

For the affirmative Harriman and Curtiss depicted the various advantages of trade unions, claiming that they are necessary to protect the rights of laborers. They showed that a trade union helps our country's best interests in a way no other organization can, and contended, therefore, that the man who refused to join it when asked was acting contrary to the interests of his country.

De Mauriac and Hedrick, in leading for the negative, did not deny that a trade union was a very beneficial thing in theory. But they claimed that the trade union of today is a danger and powerful force for mischief to our country, and furthermore is far from beneficial to its members who are the people of this country. Therefore, they argued, for many men to join who are asked, would most certainly not be a benefit to the country.

Each of these leaders spoke for five minutes and the subject was then thrown open to the house. Phillips and Berman added to the arguments some very good points, after which each side was allowed a short rebuttal. Professor Kleene, who acts as coach again this year, then commented upon the speeches and upon the question as a subject for debate. This was followed by an informal discussion of the matter, after which the meeting adjourned.

Negotiations are being made for a debate with Williams College. They have not as yet accepted our challenge but it is hoped that a debate with them may take place in the winter or early spring. All undergraduates are cordially invited to attend the meetings of the Debating Club, and all who show their interest by regular attendance will be welcomed as members. The regular debates are held every other Thursday, at seven o'clock. The next meeting will be Thursday evening, December first.

The Junior members of the Sophomore Dining Club were given a banquet last Monday night by the following initiates from the Class of 1907: Bryant, Coburn, F. H. Coggeshall, G. Cunningham, R. Cunningham, Dravo, Ferguson, De Mauriac, E. E. George, Hart, Kenyon, Licht and Smith.

The banquet was held at the Rathskeller of Heublein's, D. Wilmot Gate-son, '06, presiding as toastmaster.

OUR NEW CAPTAIN OF FOOTBALL.

"The Tripod" joins with the College body in congratulating J. Clinton Landefeld on his election to the captaincy of the College football team for the next season. The position is not, as many seem to think, one of glory alone, but of hard work, and the man who assumes such a position must realize this at the outset. It means the planning of a season's work, the holding of men of diverse temperaments and dispositions together in such a way as to make them one solid whole, and the duty of seeing that each man on the squad receives as much personal coaching as his ability warrants. These and similar duties fall upon the captain. We confidently believe that the new captain will fulfill his duties and will give us a strong team. He has a sufficient knowledge of the game (and the ability to impart that knowledge to others,) to take charge personally of the team, and thus give to Trinity what is conceded to be the ideal way of coaching a football team. Whether or not he will do this is a matter for others besides "The Tripod" to decide. Mr. Landefeld has the qualities of a good leader, and "The Tripod" wishes him the greatest possible success in his season.

As announced in a former issue of THE TRIPOD, the name of TRIPOD reporters will be published regularly in its issues. Beginning with the next number this plan will be followed. A student has but to signify his intention of reporting for THE TRIPOD to a member of the Board, and he will be given lines to work upon, and then his connection with the paper depends solely upon his usefulness and ability in performing the work.

In another column of this issue we publish a Trinity song,—new words, to a new and catching tune. Try it, and if you like the song, learn and sing it until it becomes added to our rather small collection of original songs.

UNIT BOOKS.

The editors of "The Tripod" were greatly pleased with certain circulars received a few days ago from the Unit Book Publishing Co., and they feel that they cannot let pass an opportunity to say a few words in praise of this company. The singular name is due to the manner of pricing the books. A Unit is 25 pages, and costs 2 cents. A book containing 400 pages (16 units) will, therefore, sell for 32 cents. A stout paper cover is thrown in for this price. A cloth (flexible) cover, 30 cents extra is charged, and for leather, 50 cents extra. Eight cents must be added for postage on all books.

Mr. Howard Wilford Bell, the president of this company, and the first man to attempt the publishing of books in this manner in America (the system is well known in Europe) feels that most good books—books worth reading—are too high in price for the average American pocketbook. For instance, the one edition of all Lincoln's writings and speeches is sold for $10.00. The Unit book, "The Letters and Addresses of Abraham Lincoln," containing the greater part of Lincoln's speeches, letters, and telegrams, and omitting only such portions as are too technical to be of interest to the general reader, costs 32 cents in paper, 62 cents in cloth and 82 cents in leather.

This one instance suffices to show what the Unit Books mean. Students and all young men, building up their libraries, will welcome them with open arms. We feel that Mr. Bell deserves the praise, and we hope that he will get the co-operation of all true book lovers. The books he is putting out are cheap only in price. They are well bound, printed on good opaque paper of the quality known as "featherweight," and well edited, all containing valuable notes, indexes, etc. The books are to be published at the rate of one a month, and it is Mr. Bell's plan to include eventually in the Unit Library, the permanent books of all literature in the best obtainable English versions. The books are to be uniform in size, type, and binding. We heartily recommend them to readers of "The Tripod."

The following is taken from the "Hartford Courant" of today:

WHY BISHOP NILES WASN'T THERE.

It was a prior engagement that kept Bishop Niles away from the recent cornerstone laying up at Hanover. He is a very loyal New Hampshire man, and nothing that concerns the New Hampshire college is trivial to him. He has a warm regard for President Tucker, and he'd have been glad to meet the Earl of Dartmouth. Forty years ago an Earl of Dartmouth sent Bishop Chase £100 for the Hanover church. More recently the lord bishop of Litchfield, uncle of the present earl, listened with deep interest to what Bishop Chase's successor had to tell him about Dartmouth College, and expressed a hope that he might some day be able to pay it a visit.

Wednesday evening Dr. Niles explained to his diocesan convention why he was not at Hanover to greet the earl and take part in the festal proceedings. We quote from the "Concord Monitor's" report: For the very day of the laying of the corner-stone I had a previous invitation to my own college, Trinity, in Hartford, for the inauguration of Dr. Luther into the presidency. Inasmuch as I am pretty nearly the senior member of the corporation of Trinity College, and as Dr. Luther was my own pupil in his student days, and as I was set down to have the opening service at the hall, it was plain that their my duty lay.

Everything connected with the day in Hartford was of the best, from Judge Hamersley's opening speech as presiding officer, through Dr. Ferguson's greeting from the faculty, and the presidents inaugural address, and the extended and most excellent address of Dr. Hadley, president of Yale University, and Judge Buffington's wit and wisdom combined, and the sensible words of the young man representing the undergraduates, on to the very end of the day. Rarely does one see every person concerned so well pleased as they of Hartford and of Trinity are with the trustees' unanimous election of Professor Luther to the presidency. I did well nigh tremble more than once that day when the word of admonition came to my mind, "Woe unto you when all men shall speak well of you!" But Dr. Luther is no trimmer, to chase after popularity.

Hartford had the first claim on the bishop that day; no possible doubt of that. Dr. Luther would not have felt really and canonically inaugurated without him.

Burrows and Kenyon will have for sale about Dec. 1st a poster Trinity calendar done in five colors. It will contain four posters representing College Life, Track, Baseball and Football. The cover will have the seal of the college embossed upon it and it will be in every way artistic. The price will be $1.00 and they are intended for appropriate Christmas gifts.

The Faculty have announced that Thanksgiving vacation will extend from Wednesday until Monday. At the same time it is announced that, commencing with next year, hereafter, but one day will be given for Thanksgiving vacation.

HAIL TO THEE.

[Air — "A Bit of Blarney."]
Come, rally 'round the standard,
Let every heart beat true.
Cheer, boys, the flag that's flying, —
The Old Gold and Blue.
Ever ring the mighty echoes,
Answering from the skies above;
Then shout with a will
For the College on the hill,
For Trinity — For Trinity.
Hail to thee — the Trinity we love.

As the sprigs of climbing ivy
Cling firmly to her walls,
So we love our Alma Mater
As we chant within her halls.
Let again the softening echoes
Answering from the skies above,
Ring out with a will
For the College on the hill,
For Trinity — For Trinity.
Hail to thee — the Trinity we love.

So move her classes onward;
So swells the valiant throng.
Each strives with noble effort;
Bursts from each the victor's song.
Ever ring the mighty echoes,
Answering from the skies above;
Then cheer with a will
For the College on the hill,
For Trinity — For Trinity.
Hail to thee — the Trinity we love.

AN INTERESTING FACT.

On the 1st of March, 1904, THE CONNECTICUT MUTUAL reached a stage in its history very interesting to its management and its members and one which is unique in the history of American Life Insurance.

On that date, but little more than fifty-eight years from its organization, it had received from its members in premiums the sum of $228,376,268, and had returned to them or their beneficiaries $228,724,073, or $347,805 more than it had received from them.

The Connecticut Mutual is the first American Life Insurance Company to return to its members one hundred per cent. of its receipt from them. And it holds besides $65,000,000 of assets, with a surplus of over $4,600,000 to protect over 70,000 policy-holders insured for over $166,000,000.
