TRINITY 6 — NEW YORK UNIVERSITY 6.

The football team met defeat at the hands of the New York University on the latter's field in New York on Saturday by the score of 6 to 0. The game was one of the most stubbornly contested ever seen on Ohio Field and the work of the team won the approval of the Alumni who were present. The New Yorkers were much heavier than our team and secured their victory through their superior strength and not by superior football.

The game commenced at 3.20. Landefeld kicked to the 10-yard line and Craigin ran it back 15 yards. Three short rushes gave N. Y. U. first down. A dash between tackle and end gave them 10 more. No gain on a line buck. Two rushes secured another first down. It required three for the next first down. Our team was playing a hard game and showed up in fine style as after each two or three rushes the opponents were compelled to take time out to regain their wind. The game continued as follows: Twelve rushes gave N. Y. U. first five downs. The team then held and New York kicked, the ball going out of bounds. Landefeld punted 55 yards, the runner being downed before he had advanced a yard. N. Y. U. here put up their best game, and using Reilley, their star tackle who weighs 210 pounds, either to carry the ball or to head the interference, carried the ball slowly towards our goal. The entire team fought for every inch and the New Yorkers found advancing the ball hard work. The longest distance made was four yards. It took them twelve minutes to carry the ball over for a touchdown, from which Coe kicked the goal, Craigin securing the touchdown.

After the next kickoff our team rushed the ball for seven consecutive first downs with Madden, Landefeld and Dougherty doing most of the ground gaining. After an exchange of punts time was called.

In the second half the team started off with a rush. Morgan made ten yards, Lee slipped around right end for 50 more, and then line plunging gave us 25 yards. N. Y. U. here started to use their superior weight and slowly carried the ball from the center of the field to the 10-yard line. Three rushes took the ball to within a foot of our line and then our team gave an exhibition of Trinity pluck. The first rush resulted in a loss of a foot. Then Lee threw Riley for a loss of a yard. The next rush netted another loss and a fumble gave us the ball. A few rushes carried the ball away from our goal and Landefeld kicked 65 yards. N. Y. U. made 15 yards, losing the ball on downs. Trinity in turn lost on downs, but as N. Y. U. could not advance the ball an inch we secured it again, rushing the ball 30 yards. Our line held and N. Y. U. kicked 40 yards, Lee running the ball back 20 yards. Landefeld's kick carried 60 yards and Madden secured the ball on a fumble, but the referee turned it over to our opponents on the ground of interference, although he named no special man as being guilty. Again N. Y. U. was compelled to kick as our line was impenetrable. Landefeld returned it 60 yards, Trinity gaining 25 yards on the exchange. The game ended with the ball in N. Y. U.'s possession on their 35-yard line.

The showing made by the team was a most creditable one. They fought with the old Trinity spirit and dash that cannot but auger well for future contests. The team is playing together better and both offensive and defensive work have improved as a result.

The summary:

The following have been appointed as ushers in the theater for Inauguration Day: Clement, Barbour, Maercklein, Ewing and Stedman.

Seats will be reserved in the theater on the 26th for the families of undergraduates. Mr. Waterman has this matter in charge and application should be made to him.

College Meeting Friday.

A meeting was held in Alumni Hall Friday evening at 7:10 o'clock. Walter S. Shutz, '94, addressed the meeting and gave in full the program of Wednesday's events. He also spoke of the old custom of having three flags on the grandstand during games; the American in the middle, the Trinity banner on the right, and that of the visiting college on the left.

After he had finished Hart, '07, made a very earnest and energetic speech on our college cheering, after which the cheers were practiced.

The college songs were then sung, Gatson, '06, leading.

DEPARTMENT OF ENGLISH.

Subjects for themes for Juniors and Seniors during Christmas term, 1904:

1. The "Oxford Movement" and its effect on religious thought.
2. The true functions of political parties and the limits of party loyalty.
3. Are large corporations likely to prove injurious to our liberties or to our national character?
4. The contest between the French and the Spanish in Florida.
5. Henry W. Longfellow, man and poet.
6. Tendencies of the modern drama — artistic and moral.
7. Senator Hoar.
8. The indeterminate sentence for crimes.

Prize themes for oratorical contest will be selected from those handed in on or before November 15th.

Length of themes, 1,500 words. Students are allowed to make the first theme of double length to count as two.

The librarian will refer students to authorities to be read on subjects chosen.

CHARLES F. JOHNSON.

Trinity College,
October 10, 1904.

Mr. Arthur Priest, organist of Christ Church, was organist at the musical service on Sunday evening.

STEVENS INSTITUTE TO-MORROW.

The Stevens Institute of Technology foot ball team will be our opponents to-morrow and a good game is expected. The improvement shown by our team during the past two weeks makes the undergraduate body confident of winning. The team is in good condition for the game and, while Donnelly's services will be missed, the line will undoubtedly prove as strong as in Saturday's game. It is expected that the largest crowd of the season will witness the game.

Little is known of the strength of our opponents.

Our team will probably line up as follows: Left end, Clement; left tackle, Dougherty; left guard, Marlor; center, Buths; right guard, Lauderburn; right tackle, Landefeld; right end, Rehr; quarter back, Lee; left half back, A. Morgan; right half back, T. Morgan; full back, Madden.

THE INAUGURATION.

Tomorrow will witness the inauguration of Dr. Flavel S. Luther as eleventh president of our college. The preparation for the inauguration and the accompanying events of the day are completed and only fair weather is needed to make the day one of the greatest in Trinity's history.

Nothing that we can say will add either to the pleasure or the greatness of this occasion. (It is only for us now to extend to Dr. Luther our heartiest congratulations and assurance of faith in his ability to make his administration a marked one in the history of our college.

The undergraduate body can do little more than it has done to show its pleasure in the event about to take place, and in their name we today extend to Dr. Luther assurances of their loyalty, interest, and earnest co-operation

BACK NUMBERS.

The Business Manager earnestly requests subscribers who have failed to receive the back numbers of the paper to communicate with him at once. The matter will be immediately attended to. Don't fail to do this as you will later value the complete file. We would call the attention of those who intend to subscribe but are neglecting to do so, to the fact that the greatest value THE TRIPOD has is in the completeness of its news. As a ready reference its files are invaluable. After saying so often that we shall not attempt to furnish back numbers, we feel that no one will have cause to blame us when we announce that we have no more of these. At present we have all the numbers, but only in a limited quantity. The point, therefore, is, — subscribe now.

COMMUNICATION.

To the Editors of

THE TRINITY TRIPOD.

GENTLEMEN: Regarding your recent editorial on our version of the "Song of the Colleges," everyone must agree with the long-standing opinion thus publicly expressed. Also, it seems to me, we should sing of the New England colleges with which we have more relations, rather than with the larger universities.

The appended variation of the verse confines itself to this section of the country and our usual opponents, and comments good-naturedly on a noticeable characteristic of our nearest neighbor. It should cause no ill feeling.

How does it suit the undergraduates?

Sing a song of Colleges,

I'll tell you where to go:

Trinity, where knowledge is;

To Williams go for dough;

Amherst, for her sporty dudes;

Dartmouth for her men;

Yale, for her "gol-darn-luck";

But for farmers, — Wesleyan!

BE LOYAL.

A man is always judged by the colors he wears. If he wears his own colors and is true and loyal to them, to the best of his ability, both he and his colors will command the respect of all men, though they be wearing different colors. On the other hand, if a man goes under some one else's colors, or to put it plainly, goes under false colors, he is despised alike by all.

I should hate to say that many Trinity men are among this latter class, yet the indications point that way. As one goes into many rooms here in college his eye is attracted by college pennants hanging on the wall, pennants of Yale, Harvard, Princeton, Cornell, and many others, but the flag of his own Alma Mater is not there. Is it an accident, or are the occupants of those rooms afraid or shamed to show the emblem of their college? Or don't they love it enough to take the bother to secure one?

Now, as Yale is for Yale men and Harvard is for Harvard men, so Trinity is for Trinity men. We want a whole-souled devotion to Alma Mater, a devotion which compels the heart to look to her, to cling to her, to center all its great affection in her first, last, and forever. Let us show our true colors, let us make the Gold and Blue by far the principal pennant in our rooms. They cost very little. Fifty cents will purchase a good one. A man will be around college in a day or so selling these flags. Let every man who has not one, buy one, if he has to deny himself fifty cents' worth of other things to do it.

The Connecticut Mutual Life Insurance Co.

AN INTERESTING FACT.

On the 1st of March, 1904, THE CONNECTICUT MUTUAL reached a stage in its history very interesting to its management and its members and one which is unique in the history of American Life Insurance.

On that date, but little more than fifty-eight years from its organization, it had received from its members in premiums the sum of $228,376,268, and had returned to them or their beneficiaries $228,724,073, or $347,805 more than it had received from them.

The Connecticut Mutual is the first American Life Insurance Company to return to its members one hundred per cent. of its receipt from them. And it holds besides $65,000,000 of assets, with a surplus of over $4,600,000 to protect over 70,000 policy-holders insured for over $166,000,000.

ALUMNI NOTES.

Invitations are out announcing that Charles Luther Burnham, '98, of New York, will marry Miss Anna Wallace Elliot, Wednesday November 9th.

Edward M. Yeomans, '95, of Andover, Conn., has been nominated for state senator in the Thirty-fifth district, by the Democratic convention at Andover. Mr. Yeomans is an attorney and has a law office in Andover and also one in Hartford. A few days ago Mr. Yeomans addressed a letter to the Republican candidate, challenging him to a joint debate, but the invitation was declined.

Dr. H. L. Cleasby, '98, who took his Ph. D., in classics at Harvard

WE extend to you an invitation to call and inspect our magnificent line of Fall and Winter Goods, which are now on exhibition.

Our handsome assortment of Imported and Domestic Fabrics for this season surpasses everything heretofore shown you in the way of Suitings, Overcoatings, Fancy Vestings, and Trouserings, and among them you will find a great many new and novel effects which were made expressly for us.
