HARTFORD, CONN., FRIDAY, APRIL 14, 1905.

PRICE, FIVE CENTS.

Hon. Jas. B. Wakefield, LL.D.

Of the Class of '46. After Graduation Settled in West. Has become prominently associated with history of Minnesota, serving it in many official capacities.

It surely is a deep gratification to Trinity men to hear of the far and wide-spread influence in the line of progress of Trinity's alumni and the character of the influence of Mr. Wakefield, as a pioneer in Minnesota, and as a man active in the affairs of county and state, suggests the extent of the field of our college's influence.

The following account of the Hon. J. B. Wakefield is taken from the "History of Faribault County, Minnesota," and is from the pen of the Hon. J. A. Kiester, for many years Mr. Wakefield's personal friend.

"Is quite proper, that, in connection with an historical sketch of Blue Earth City, there should be given a biographical notice of Mr. Wakefield, one of the first settlers of the county, and one of the original town site proprietors, and a resident of the village from its founding, with the exception of a few short periods when absent on official duty. Mr. Wakefield was born at Winsted, Conn., on the twenty-first day of March, 1828. His father, Dr. Luman Wakefield, was a distinguished physician, of that state. James received his preparatory education at Westfield, Mass., and Jonesville, New York, and, in 1843 entered Trinity College, Hartford, Conn., as a sophomore and graduated in 1846. He read law in Painesville, Ohio, under the direction of Judge E. T. Wilder, his brother-in-law, and was admitted to the bar, at Delphi, Indiana, in 1851, where he engaged in the practice of law for two years. In April, 1854, Mr. Wakefield came to Minnesota and located at Shakopee, where he engaged in the business of the profession, with Judge L. M. Brown. In February, 1856, he, in company with several other persons, came to this county (Faribault) and founded Blue Earth City. Mr. Wakefield was the principal actor in the work of securing the organization of the county, and was the first chairman of the first board of county commissioners, of the county, and was again a member of the board in 1859. He was also the first judge of probate of the county, and also held the office of register of deeds for some time. He was county attorney in 1857, and again in 1860-61, and was twice elected subsequently to that office, but declined to serve further. He was elected in 1857 a member of the House of Representatives in the last Territorial and first State Legislature. In 1861 he was appointed deputy agent at the lower Sioux Indian agency, in Minnesota, but returned to Blue Earth City at the time of the outbreak of the Indians, in August, 1862. In 1863 he was again a member of the lower House of our state Legislature. Mr. Wakefield was married at Blue Earth City, in 1864. He was again, in 1866, a member of the House and was elected speaker of the House during the session of that year. He was state senator, for the district, in 1867, 1868 and 1869, but resigned the office of state senator about the middle of the second term to accept the appointment of receiver of the United States land office, to which office he was appointed by President Grant in 1869. He held this office six years, when he resigned it. In 1875 Mr. Wakefield was elected lieutenant governor of this state, and, in 1877, was again elected, serving in that office two terms, and presided in the state senate at the sessions of 1876, 1877, 1878 and 1879. In the fall of 1882, he was elected representative in Congress, for this district, and was again elected in 1884 for a second term, both of which he served. He was not a candidate for re-election in 1886. In 1886, Trinity College conferred upon him the very honorable degree of Doctor of Laws. Mr. Wakefield has been a republican since the organization of the party, and has for many years taken an active part in the politics of the state. He was chairman of the Minnesota delegation in the national convention in 1868, which nominated General Grant for the presidency, and was a member of the Minnesota delegation in the national convention in 1876, which nominated General Hayes as a republican candidate for the presidency. Mr. Wakefield's name, it will be observed, appears very often in the course of this history, he having been so closely identified with the progress, improvements and important events of the county from the beginning."

CONFIRMATION SERVICE.

Last evening in the presence of a fairly large number of students and visitors, the Rt. Rev. Chauncey B. Brewster, D. D., bishop of Connecticut, administered the rite of confirmation to three students, all members of the freshman class. The three men were William H. Bailey, Herbert G. Chase and Robert W. Stevens.

The service was held in the chapel and the bishop was assisted by President Luther and Rev. Cranston Brenton. At the close of the confirmation service Bishop Brewster gave a brief address. He took as his text Ephesians III:16, "That He would greet you according to the riches of His glory, to be strengthened with might by His spirit in the inner man." He said that the chief thing to live for is character, and that character is made up of strength and love, or large-heartedness.

West Point 7, Trinity 5.

Close Game with Cadets at West Point.

The West Point baseball team defeated the Trinity team Wednesday afternoon on the parade grounds at West Point by a score of 7 to 5.

West Point secured a good lead in the first six innings, Trinity being shut out. In the seventh the Trinity team mastered the curves of the West Point pitcher and scored three runs. In the eighth they were retired with no further score, by a phenomenal double play by Groninger when there was a man on third and only one out. In the ninth they scored two more runs.

The first four innings were pitched by Bowman. This was his first game this year in the box and he was very wild and fielded poorly. In these four innings he allowed four bases on balls and four hits, which resulted in four runs. Badgely pitched the remainder of the game and was very steady. The team fielded better than in the Harvard game, but showed poor judgment in base running.

West Point went to bat first and scored a run in the initial inning. Winston got a base on balls, Rockwell and Gardner bunted safely, Davis struck out, Groninger bunted to Bowman, who fell in trying to get the ball, and Winston scored. Pritchett struck out and Wagner knocked a high fly to Dravo. Trinity was unable to score. Morgan hit a fly out to left field. Landefeld was out, Pritchett to Wagner. Powell got a base on balls, but Madden went out, Groninger to Wagner. In the second inning West Point scored twice. Bonsteel hit a fly just over Burwell's head and took second on a passed ball. Griger and Winston struck out. Rockwell and Gardner each got a base on balls, filling the bases. Davis hit an easy grounder to Powell, who hesitated and threw high to first, letting in two runs. Groninger was out, Burwell to Clement.

West Point scored one run in each the fourth and fifth. In the sixth neither side scored. In the seventh West Point was retired safely, but Trinity secured three runs. Badgely was out, Pritchett to Wagner, Burwell was safe on Gardner's error. Dravo hit safely over third. Bowman hit to the infield forcing out Dravo at second. Morgan hit safely, scoring Burwell. Landefeld hit safe, bringing in Bowman and Morgan. Powell was safe on Gardner's error, but Madden was out on a bunt. The eighth resulted in one more run for West Point, Trinity being retired by a double play with a man on third and only one out.

West Point secured one more run in the ninth and Trinity two. Dravo got a base on balls. Bowman sacrificed. Morgan was safe on Gardner's error and stole second. Landefeld hit 1907—1908 DEBATE.

Under-class Teams to discuss American Trades Unions.

The under-class Debate will be held Monday evening at eight o'clock in the Latin room. The subject to be discussed is "Resolved, that an increase in the power and influence of the American trades-union would further the best interests of the country."

The Sophmores—Hedrick, Fairbrother, and G. Cunningham, with Hart, alternate—will uphold the affirmative. The Freshmen team consists of Berman, Taylor, Mapleden, and Waterhouse, alternate.

The debate will be judged by Prof. W. M. Urban, Mr. W. N. Carlton, and

Mr. E. F. Waterman. Harriman '05 will preside, and the time-keepers will be chosen from the classes concerned. The opening speeches will be limited to eight minutes, and the rebuttals to four, the best man on each side having an extra minute, to allow a good summary.

After the debate, Dr. G. A. Kleene, the club coach and instructor, will give an informal criticism of the debate, and any who are interested are invited to remain.

SENIOR NOMINATING COMMITTEE.

Nominates officers to be voted upon this afternoon.

The committee which the Senior Class voted to have, composed of one man from each fraternity, to discuss and nominate men for the various Class Day offices, met Tuesday evening in 9 Jarvis Hall. The representatives who compose the committee are F. G. Burrows, P. T. Kennedy, H. C. Boyd, C. M. Rhodes, C. E. Gostenhofer and W. B. Roberts.

Men whom the committee considered capable of filling the various positions were nominated for them, each name being carefully considered. The only important change that was made was that this year the Committee on committees, a very important body, will consist of the President and Treasurer of the class, ex-officio. Heretofore, it has been customary to elect a chairman of this committee, who was practically in charge of the Class Day exercises. The change was made, because it was thought that the president of the class should be at the head of everything, and also in order to avoid red tape as far as possible.

The committee will also recommend that beginning with next Sunday the members of the class wear caps and gowns to Sunday chapel service.

A meeting of the class will be held this afternoon to vote on the nominees, all of whom have been approved by the class through the several representatives on the committee.

AN INTERESTING FACT.

On the 1st of March, 1904, THE CONNECTICUT MUTUAL reached a stage in its history very interesting to its management and its members and one which is unique in the history of American Life Insurance.

On that date, but little more than fifty-eight years from its organization, it had received from its members in premiums the sum of $228,376,268, and had returned to them or their beneficiaries $228,724,073, or $347,805 more than it had received from them.

The Connecticut Mutual is the first American Life Insurance Company to return to its members one hundred per cent. of its receipt from them. And it holds besides $65,000,000 of assets, with a surplus of over $4,600,000 to protect over 70,000 policy-holders insured for over $166,000,000.
