Good Baseball Game at Worcester.

The Trinity baseball team defeated the crack Holy Cross team at Worcester Saturday by the score of 7 to 4. The Trinity outfield composed of Madden, Morgan and Badgley, did excellent work, scooping in everything and capturing many a drive that looked good for three bases.

In the seventh inning, Loftus, substitute catcher for the Holy Cross team, made a sensation by driving the sphere over the fence for a home run. This feat had not been done since Powers, the catcher on the Philadelphia American team did it, when catching for Holy Cross. Landefeld also, made a home run for Trinity in the ninth, with two men on bases, but it was not counted, as he did not touch second, though the men on bases scored.

O'Rourke, the Holy Cross star twirler, who pitched last year when Holy Cross beat Yale, was in the box. He was rather wild at first, but when he steadied down, the Trinity hitters had no trouble in meeting his delivery. Bowman pitched a very good game for Trinity.

Trinity went to bat first. Morgan was hit by the Holy Cross pitcher. Landefeld got a base on balls. Dravo was out, Ennis to Flynn. Madden got first on fielder's choice. Clement struck out. Powell hit for two bases, scoring Morgan, Landefeld and Madden. Badgley was out, O'Rourke to Flynn.

Holy Cross scored one run in their half of the inning. Cahill got first on Powell's error and stole second, Spring flied out to Badgley. Flynn hit safe, but was thrown out trying to steal second, Cahill coming home. Hoey flied out to Dravo.

In the second inning Trinity scored two more runs. Burwell struck out. Bowman got a two-base hit. Morgan reached first on an error by Dowd. Landefeld was hit by pitcher. Dravo was out on a bunt, but Bowman and Morgan scored. Landefeld was caught trying to steal home. For Holy Cross Dowd flied out to Badgley. Cashen was out, Landefeld to Clement. Ennis flied out to Madden.

In the third inning Trinity failed to score, although Madden got as far as third, and did not score again until the ninth. In the last half of the third inning Bowman hit Carrigan with a pitched ball. He stole second and was put out attempting to gain third, Powell to Landefeld, on Cahill's hit. Spring made a hit, but Flynn was out on a high foul. Cahill was caught at home. Loftus made his home run in the seventh with no men on bases.

In the ninth Burwell struck out. Bowman and Morgan both got one base hits. Landefeld made a home run, scoring Bowman and Morgan, although he was out for not touching second. Dravo got a hit, but Madden flied out to Cashen.

For Holy Cross Ennis got a hit for one base and scored on a drive of Carrigan's for two bases. O'Rourke flied out to Powell and Spring struck out.

An enthusiastic reception was given to the Trinity team on its return to Hartford. When the train came in, almost the entire student body was at the station. After giving a yell in the depot, the team was bundled into an express wagon, and preceded by a life and drum corps, paraded through the city. The score:

POLITICAL ADDRESS.

Secretary of College Men's Political Association of New York Speaks.

H. B. Nims, A. B., of Williams College, secretary of the College Men's Political association of New York city delivered an address on the objects of the association before about 35 students in the Latin room Saturday night. He told about the great opportunities a college man has for political work in a large city, and he also explained the necessity of college men taking advantage of these opportunities. He urged that, if possible, Trinity undergraduates organize an association for the study of municipal questions.

Freshmen Awarded Decision in Debate with Sophomores.

The freshman-sophomore debate was held last evening in the Latin room before a fair-sized audience from the college body and the faculty, and resulted in a victory for 1908.

The subject of the debate was, "Resolved, that an increase in the power and influence of the American trade union would further the best interests of the country." The sophomores upheld the affirmative while the freshmen successfully maintained the negative.

The sophomore team was made up in the order of their speeches of Cunningham, Fairbrother and Hedrick, with Hart as alternate. The freshman team was composed of Taylor, Maplesden and Berman, with Waterhouse alternate.

The debate was opened at 8:10, by Harriman, '05, president of the Debating Club. Cunningham, the first speaker for the affirmative, outlined the plan of the affirmative, and endeavored to establish his part of the argument, i. e., that the aims of trades unions are calculated to further the country's best interests. Taylor on the negative followed with an outline of the faults of unionism and the present bad tendencies. Fairbrother on the affirmative, showed the present status of the union and the good results attained by unions. Maplesden pointed out that unions tend to encourage limitation of output, and also showed the socialistic tendency of modern unions. Hedrick followed with the point that an increase of power is necessary to further and maintain the present good work of unions. Berman ended the first speeches with the able contention that unions are already strong enough and an increase of power would endanger industrial progress.

The six speeches in rebuttal followed. Again Berman did good work for the negative. The judges rendered their decision in favor of the freshmen without any delay.

After the debate Professor Kleene made an informal criticism of the arguments and the delivery. It was evident that the freshmen had made more preparation and had used more oratory.

VARSITY DEBATING TEAM.

The 'varsity team for the Rutgers debate to be held in Hartford on May 19, will be composed of Harriman, '05, De Mauriac, '07, and Curtiss, '05. The alternate has not yet been chosen. The 'varsity will not meet tonight as planned, but each member will prepare a complete outline for a side to be sent in this week.

President Luther will preach at the Presbyterian church, Hartford this evening.

ALUMNI NOTES.

'94.—Limiting himself to our duties as Christian citizens of the United States, the Rev. Robert L. Paddock, in his lecture before the Washington Churchmen's League, on April 4, declared that he was a "practical idealist." He gave striking instances, evidently drawn from his personal experiences, of corruption and the need of reform in the administration of American municipalities, and he urged his hearers, as Christians and citizens, to rise to their duties and opportunities, and labor for the removal of public abuses and the securing of better conditions for the upbuilding of the masses in character and citizenship. "At this time we need a great army of heroic American patriots, not to die for, but, what is far harder and far more fruitful, to live for their country."

'99.—Two sonnets, written by P. H. Verder, appear in the May and June number of "The Connecticut Magazine."

The "Connecticut Magazine" for May and June is at hand. We note that it contains President Luther's inaugural address in essay form, under the title of "The Work of Education." The editor has prefixed the following note.

"In assigning to Dr. Luther the subject of education, he suggested in the course of the correspondence that his views were possibly best expressed in his inaugural address, and with his authority, the 'Connecticut Magazine' presents it herewith, believing that its great truths should be given wider opportunity for doing good. The essay comes from the ripe experience of a distinguished scholar. As presented in magazine form it is entitled 'The Work of Education,' and is slightly abridged, omitting only the portions in which Dr. Luther referred more especially to the church and college with which he is affiliated."

FRESHMEN WIN.

Beat Meriden High School 5 to 3.

The Trinity Freshmen baseball team defeated the team from Meriden High School Saturday afternoon, by a score of 5 to 3. The game was closely contested, the Freshmen, however, maintaining the lead from start to finish. The hitting was weak, but five hits being made off each pitcher. Errors were numerous on both side, and accounted for most of the runs. Earle, the colored third baseman of the Meriden team, was the star hitter of the day, making three hits out of four times at bat. The following is the score:

EASTER RECESS.

The time is opportune to remind the students who will go away for Easter vacation that many a young man is at this time discussing plans with relatives and friends concerning his entering college this fall. It is the student's duty to see that no opportunity is lost of placing Trinity college in her worthy position before the minds of the interested parties. To the loyal and appreciative undergraduate, no terms of praise are too high to express his gratitude to his college. Help, this vacation, to make Trinity's light shine.

SENIOR CLASS OFFICERS.

The senior class met in the Latin room last Friday afternoon and elected the following additional officers for Class day: Orator, Allen R. Goodale; treasurer, William Bulkeley; presenter, Charles J. Harriman; poet, William P. Stedman; historian, Francis G. Burrows; statistician, Charles M. Rhodes.

On account of the ticket prepared by the inter-fraternity committee, which was appointed to look into the matter and consider the best candidates for the various positions, the elections went off without a hitch and the various recommendations made by the committee were passed quickly. The class voted to wear academic gowns to chapel on Sundays hereafter, and several unimportant matters were decided upon. The committee's suggestion that the president and treasurer compose the committee on committees, ex-officio, was also voted upon and passed.

Saturday afternoon, the following appointments of committees were announced by the committee on committees:

On Dramatics—C. H. Pelton, chairman, W. P. Stedman and R. A. Blakeslee.

On the Senior Ball—C. E. Gostenhofer, chairman, F. C. Meredith and H. C. Boyd.

On Entertainment and General Arrangements—P. T. Welles, chairman, P. T. Kennedy and F. G. Burrows.

A VISIT FROM THE REVEREND MR. McNULTY.

Of the C. S. M. A.

The Rev. Henry A. McNulty, traveling secretary of the C. S. M. A. arrived at the college yesterday afternoon, and last evening met the members of the Missionary Society and discussed the work and plans of the society. Mr. McNulty has just completed a long trip of over two months duration, having visited schools and colleges as far west as Fairbault, Minn. He left for New York this morning.

FRESHMAN BASEBALL SCHEDULE.

Manager Corbett of the 1908 baseball team has practically completed arrangements for four out-of-town games to be played after the Easter vacation. These are with Wesleyan Academy, at Wilbraham, Mass.; Westminster School at Simsbury, and two with the Wesleyan Freshmen at Middletown. From the past success of the freshman team it is to be expected that it will make an excellent showing in these games.

THE EASTER BASEBALL TRIP.

Schedule Includes Nine Games.

The baseball team started today on its Easter trip. This will include nine games, the first one being played tomorrow, and the last one on Saturday, the 29th. The team will probably return to Hartford Sunday, the 30th.

The game tomorrow afternoon will be with Rutgers at New Brunswick, N. J. The next day Trinity will cross bats with Stevens at Hoboken, N. J., and on Saturday she will meet the Lafayette nine at Easton, Pa.

On Monday, the 24th, Trinity will play the University of Pennsylvania in Philadelphia. This game will be attended by a large number of Trinity alumni, who will entertain the team at a smoker to be given at the home of Bishop Mackay Smith, '72, in the evening.

On the day following the nine will play Lehigh at South Bethlehem, Pa., after which they will go to Annapolis, Md., where they will meet the naval cadets.

Thursday, the 27th, Trinity is scheduled to play Manhattan in New York city. At this game will be a large number of undergraduates and alumni of Trinity. On Friday the team will play with Seton Hall College at South Orange, N. J., and on Saturday the closing game of the trip will be played with Fordham at New York.

The Wednesday following, Trinity will play her first college game on the home grounds, Amherst "Aggies" being her opponent on that occasion.

1905 CLASS TREE.

Planted with Appropriate Ceremonies Last Friday.

The senior class Friday afternoon bore their part in perpetrating an old Trinity custom of each class, just before graduation, planting a tree on the campus. The tree, an elm, whose trunk is about four inches in diameter, was planted by the class with appropriate ceremonies.

Professor Charles L. Edwards, who has been the class officer of 1905 since they entered college, gave a short address and the exercises closed after the class had sung "Neath the Elms," and given the class and college cheers.

THE TRACK TEAM.

Interclass Meet Postponed Until After the Easter Recess.

The annual out-of-door interclass track meet for the possession of the Leffingwell cup, which was to have been held yesterday afternoon, has been postponed indefinitely, probably until after the met with Union, which will be held on Trinity field, May 6. As there was a hard, cold wind blowing, Captain Goodale and Manager Gostenhofer decided that since no satisfactory work could be done by the men under such conditions, it would be best to postpone it.

Although the members of the squad will be allowed to spend Easter Sunday at their homes, they have been ordered to report at the gymnasium for practice at 3:30 o'clock on the afternoon of Easter Monday. Practice will continue throughout the rest of the week at 10 o'clock in the morning.

The Connecticut Mutual Life Insurance Co.

AN INTERESTING FACT.

On the 1st of March, 1904, THE CONNECTICUT MUTUAL reached a stage in its history very interesting to its management and its members and one which is unique in the history of American Life Insurance.

On that date, but little more than fifty-eight years from its organization, it had received from its members in premiums the sum of $228,376,268, and had returned to them or their beneficiaries $228,724,073, or $347,805 more than it had received from them.

The Connecticut Mutual is the first American Life Insurance Company to return to its members one hundred per cent. of its receipt from them. And it holds besides $65,000,000 of assets, with a surplus of over $4,600,000 to protect over 70,000 policy-holders insured for over $166,000,000.
