RUTGERS WON DEBATE

Labor Unions were the Subject of Discussion.

The first annual debate between Trinity and Rutgers was held in Alumni Hall on Friday evening, June 2. Dr. Luther presided and the subject was as follows:

"Resolved, That the workingmen who refuse to join a union act in furtherance of the best interests of the country."

Rutgers upheld the affirmative and was represented by Louis Bevier, '06, Welcome W. Bender, '05, and Simon Blocker, '05.

For Trinity the speakers were Philip E. Curtiss, '06, H. DeWolf de Mauriac, '07, and C. Jarvis Harriman, '05.

The affirmative maintained that unions are a bad thing in three ways, politically, economically and socially. Unions teach the emigrant to oppose what is good. They are always seeking class legislation. The whole spirit of unionism is to create a power within a power, for the union is within and opposed to the government.

On economic grounds the affirmative upheld that the union follows a wrong wage theory and attempted to manage the employer's business. On social grounds it was claimed that the union is an un-American institution. This is shown partly by its secrecy. If the union is such an advantage for all workingmen why is it secret and exclusive?

The Trinity speakers in defending the negative, showed that the conditions of the laboring classes are today not improving, but are even in danger of serious depression. This is because of the great rush of immigration and because of the increasing strength of employers' associations. While the general wealth of the country has vastly increased in the last twenty years, wages are no higher. A stronger union could improve these conditions, and the union is the only way of bringing about such improvement. The union needs a larger membership for this purpose.

Whatever evils of unionism there are, the negative claimed that they would be lessened rather than increased by a larger membership. Larger memberships will cause recognition by the employer and this is the foundation of good feeling, which improves all relations between labor and capital.

The judges were ex-Governor George P. McLean (chairman), Prof. James W. Crook, of Amherst College and Prof. Alfred P. Dennis of Smith College. They awarded the decision to the affirmative.

There was a very good attendance which included practically the entire student body.

The annual outdoor interclass track meet for the Leffingwell cup will be held on Monday, June 12, at 2:30 p. m.

President Luther received word this morning that as a result of the examinations conducted by the Association for Promoting the Interests of Church Schools, Colleges and Seminaries, the following prizes were awarded to Trinity students:

First prize in Latin, seniors and juniors, E. S. Carr, '05.

First prize in Greek, seniors and juniors, E. S. Carr, '05.

First prize in physics, sophomores and freshmen, F. C. Hedrick, '07.

Second prize in English, sophomores and freshmen, F. C. Hedrick, '07.

First prizes are each one hundred dollars, second prizes fifty dollars. In physics Hedrick attained the excellent grade of 98 per cent., the highest mark attained in any of the examinations.

TRINITY FLOATING LABORATORY.

Stockholders Held First Meeting Last Night.

The first meeting of the stockholders of the Trinity College Floating Laboratory was held last night at 8 o'clock at President Luther's house, 115 Vernon street. The stockholders present were:

Dr. Luther, Professor Edwards, Professor Genthe, Dr. C. C. Beach, Mr. Bidwell, Mr. Storrs, Mr. Shiras Morris, '96, H. D. Goodale, '03, Mr. Lauderburn, Barbour, '06, Bowne, '06, Haight, '06, Kenyon, '07, Licht, '07, Butterworth, '08.

On the motion of Professor Edwards, Dr. Luther was elected temporary chairman, and A. D. Haight secretary of the meeting.

Professor Edwards discussed informally his plans for the expedition, its object and advantages. He said that it was proposed to hold the first expedition in the summer of 1906.

Mr. Morris moved that a committee of three be appointed by the chair to draw up a constitution, by-laws, plan of organization, and to nominate a board of trustees. This motion was seconded and carried.

Dr. Luther as temporary chairman appointed the following committee to act in accordance with Mr. Morris' motion: Professor Edwards, Mr. Shiras Morris, and Mr. A. D. Haight.

On Mr. Morris' motion the meeting adjourned subject to call by the committee.

A. D. HAIGHT,
Temporary Secretary.

June 5, 1905.

President Luther preached the Baccalaureate sermon at the Holderness School for Boys, Plymouth, N. H., last Sunday.

TRINITY VS. WILLIAMS

Trinity was defeated at baseball by Williams last Saturday, by the score of 10 to 3. The team as a whole played very good ball, but Bowman had hard luck in the last two innings, when the visitors punished him severely.

Randall, at third, seemed to have gained more self-confidence than he has shown heretofore and put up a very good game.

The feature of the game was the home run of Westervelt in the first inning. This is the first home run knocked on the Trinity field this year.

In the first inning, Burwell fielded McCarty's grounder, but fumbled one from Wadsworth. Nesbitt was out on a fly to Badgley. Westervelt knocked out a home run, scoring Wadsworth. Watson hit safely, and Hogan was passed, but Neild struck out. For Trinity, Morgan flied out to Wadsworth and Landefeld struck out. Powell hit safe, stole second, and came home on Madden's single.

Nesbitt threw Clement's grounder to second, but Wadsworth fumbled it and Madden was safe. Bowman, however, struck out.

Neither side scored again till the eighth inning, when Nesbitt led off for Williams with a two-bagger, which Westervelt duplicated, scoring the former. Watson walked. Hogan fanned, but Neild knocked a two-base hit, scoring Westervelt and Watson, and was himself brought home by a single from Austin. Pierce made a base hit and both he and Austin advanced a base each on a passed ball. Austin came home on McCarty's grounder to Burwell, who fielded it to Landefeld; Landefeld failed to touch his man and was too late to catch McCarty at first. Wadsworth struck out and Nesbitt flied out to Burwell.

For Trinity, Powell made a two-base hit, and Madden brought him home with a base hit. Burwell ran for Madden, and stole second and third. Clement struck out. Bowman scored Burwell by a grounder to Watson, was was out himself. Burwell made a hit, but Badgley's grounder was fielded by Neild.

In the next inning, Westervelt was out on a ground ball to Randall. Watson hit safe and came home on a hit from Hogan. Neild batted a fly to Madden, but Austin brought in Hogan with a single and himself came home on Pierce's base hit. Randall threw Pierce out at second from McCarty's grounder. The score was as follows:

Earned runs, Williams 10, Trinity 3; home run, Westervelt; three-base hit, Powell; two-base hits, Nesbitt, Westervelt, Neild and Powell; bases on balls, off Pierce 2, off Bowman 7; struck out, by Pierce 6, by Bowman 11; passed ball, Landefeld; sacrifice hit, Badgley; stolen bases, McCarty 3, Wadsworth 1, Hogan 1, Pierce 1, Burwell 4; umpire, Mr. Rority.

FRESHMEN LOSE.

The freshman baseball team lost to Gilbert High School on Saturday by a score of 12 to 7. The game had to be called in the sixth inning in order that the freshmen might catch the last train for Hartford. This was rather unfortunate, as they were steading down, were hitting the ball hard and were fast overhauling the lead acquired by their opponents in the opening innings. Bad errors in critical places were the cause of the freshmen's defeat. Also the absence of Hyde and Randall was greatly felt, as it broke up the regular infield and compelled some men to play positions that were strange to them.

The Connecticut Mutual Life Insurance Co.

AN INTERESTING FACT.

On the 1st of March, 1904, THE CONNECTICUT MUTUAL reached a stage in its history very interesting to its management and its members and one which is unique in the history of American Life Insurance.

On that date, but little more than fifty-eight years from its organization, it had received from its members in premiums the sum of $228,376,268, and had returned to them or their beneficiaries $228,724,073, or $347,805 more than it had received from them.

The Connecticut Mutual is the first American Life Insurance Company to return to its members one hundred per cent. of its receipt from them. And it holds besides $65,000,000 of assets, with a surplus of over $4,600,000 to protect over 70,000 policy-holders insured for over $166,000,000.
