TRINITY---WESLEYAN.

SERIES WON BY TRINITY

Each Took One Game Tuesday.

The teams of Wesleyan and Trinity played a double header Decoration day, each team winning one game. The morning game was played on Trinity field at 10:30 and resulted in a victory for Wesleyan, 3 to 2; the afternoon game played on Andrus field, Middletown, resulted in a victory for Trinity, 3 to 0. This, therefore, gives Trinity two victories out of three games played with Wesleyan this year.

Both contests yesterday, as their scores indicate, were close and exciting, and the greatest credit is due to Badgley who pitched both games. His steady, persistent work through the eighteen innings of hard playing, during which he gave but two bases on balls, counted more than anything else for the good work of the Trinity team. Dravo pluckily played the afternoon game, though weak from his serious accident less than two weeks ago, and made the hit that brought in the first run. The whole team, especially in the afternoon game, played almost perfect ball and worked hard every minute.

MORGAN.

Morning Game, Wesleyan 3, Trinity 2.

The weather in the early morning threatened rain, but cleared up about 10 o'clock, and just before the game the sun came out, making ideal baseball weather. The line-up of Trinity was weakened in this game by the absence of Dravo and the men did not play with the confidence that characterized the first Wesleyan game.

Landefeld was placed in the catcher's box, Powell played third and Randall took Powell's regular place at short and played a good game. Wesleyan had rather the best of the game until the sixth inning, when Trinity scored. In the eighth Wesleyan made three runs, winning the game. They were the result of two hits and poor fielding: Burwell batted well, getting two hits out of three times up. Badgley struck out eight men.

In the fifth Wesleyan went out, Hancock to Landefeld, Monroe fanned, Morgan, Burwell to Clement. For Trinity, Madden got a hit, but Randall, who ran for him, was caught off first on a double play of Clement's fly, Clark to Taylor. Bowman was out, Clark to Taylor.

The first scoring was done in the sixth. Wesleyan went out with but three men at bat, Anderson got a hit, but was caught off first on Haley's fly

BADGLEY

The first man at bat was Hancock, who struck out. Monroe was safe on Burwell's error. Morgan knocked a pop fly to Badgley. Anderson got a hit over Burwell's head, but Haley struck out. With Wesleyan in the field, Morgan was out on a high foul fly to Day. Landefeld and Powell flew out to Anderson.

In the next inning Smith flew out to Badgley. Day was hit by pitched ball and stole second. Taylor and Clark struck out. Madden led off for Trinity by flying out to Morgan. Clement flew out to Hancock. Bowman was out, Anderson to Taylor.

In the third, Hancock reached second on an error by Burwell. Monroe was safe on fielder's choice. Morgan struck out. Anderson made first on fielder's choice, but Haley struck out. For Trinity Burwell was out, Clark to Taylor. Randall got a hit over Taylor's head, but was thrown out trying to steal second, and Badgley struck out.

Smith led off for Wesleyan in the fourth with a hit. Day knocked a grounder to Badgley, who threw Smith out at second. Taylor was out to Landefeld, Clark to Powell, Anderson to Taylor.

to Clement, who made the double play unassisted. Smith was out, Clark to Taylor. Burwell led off for Trinity with a two-base hit. Randall was out to Taylor, but Badgley got a two-bagger, scoring Burwell. Morgan was out to Smith. Landefeld was hit by a pitched ball, but Powell was out, Day to Taylor.

Day was the first man up for Wesleyan in the seventh, but was out Burwell to Clement. Taylor went out to Clement unassisted. Clark got a hit over third, but Hancock flew out to Randall. Trinity made another run in this inning. Madden struck out. Clement got a hit over first. Bowman struck out. Burwell got a hit over short, scoring Clement. Randall flew out to Morgan.

Wesleyan made her score in the next inning. Monroe led off with a hit, but was put out at second by Randall on Morgan's grounder. Anderson got a hit over short. Haley reached first on poor judgment by Randall, filling the bases. Smith was out on a high fly to Bowman, but Morgan came home on the throw in. Day knocked a fly over short, which Randall failed to get, allowing Anderson and Haley to score. Taylor was out, Burwell to Clement.

POWELL.

In the last half of the eighth and the ninth there were no hits made, and the men went out in rapid succession. Trinity tried hard to score in the ninth, but could not get on base. Summary:

"Now Then, Trinity."

TRINITY'S BASEBALL SEASON.

Trinity has completed the principal part of her baseball season. Twenty-two games have been played, and but three remain. Of these, two are scheduled with Williams and the other with Amherst.

The season just closing may well be considered the most successful that Trinity has had for years. Out of twenty-two games played we have lost eleven, won ten, and tied one. We have scored 106 runs against opponents, and had eighty-five scored against us.

The remarkable point about this season's successes is that the schedule is the hardest that Trinity has had for years. She has crossed bats, or will have when her season has closed with most of the strongest eastern collegiate nines, and the manner in which the Trinity Bantam has tackled, and at times beaten, opponents many times her size, has caused a stir of surprise and wonder in what Judge Buffington has happily called, the "intercollegiate poultry yard."

To lower the colors of such colleges as the University of Pennsylvania and Holy Cross, and not only to defeat, but to shut out, our old rival, Wesleyan, twice in one season is glory enough for any Trinity team.

We have thought best to give this edition of the "Tripod" entirely to the interests of baseball. We have published herein, pictures of every man on the team, and they deserve all the honor that can be given to them. They have worked hard and faithfully for Trinity, and they have won for her much honor and glory.

We cannot forbear to mention especially two men on the team as worthy of the highest praise. Badgley and Captain Clement.

Badgley yesterday did an act which very few pitchers would have done. After having for nine innings borne the brunt of the morning contest with Wesleyan, and having been beaten because of the errors of the men who should have been his support, he had the courage, and the nerve, and the deep love of college to go into the game again in the afternoon and for nine more innings to pitch against his morning's opponents, and by his superb delivery and perfect control supplemented this time by excellent support in the field, keep the chief rivals of his college from even scoring a run.

To Captain Clement is due in great measure the credit of the team's success. He has proved himself one of the most conscientious captains Trinity has ever had. He has worked hard and faithfully with the team, he has put life and enthusiasm into the men when they have needed it, and he stands today universally loved and respected by every man on the nine.

We can wish Trinity no better fortune than to have, every year, a team made up of men with such true devotion to Alma Mater, and with such willingness to "spend and be spent" in her service. The fruits of their work will be a larger, and a stronger, and a better Trinity.

TRINITY 3, WESLEYAN 0.

In the afternoon, with Dravo in the catcher's box, Landefeld on third and Powell at short, the team started out in a way that was assuring to the large crowd of Trinity supporters that journeyed from Hartford to see the game. Both teams played excellent ball and worked for every put-out. There was a change in Wesleyan's line-up.

Campaigne was in left field and Captain Monroe, who played that position in the morning game, was in the box, where he pitched a good, steady game.

BURWELL.

Morgan started the proceedings by getting first on Taylor's error. Landefeld sacrificed, Monroe to Taylor. Powell flew out to Morgan and Madden was out to Taylor. For Wesleyan Hancock got a hit. Monroe knocked a grounder to Badgley, who threw to Burwell, putting out Hancock and Burwell whipped the ball to Clement, shutting off Monroe. Morgan was out, Burwell to Clement.

In the second Clement struck out. Bowman was out, Haley to Taylor. Burwell hit over second and stole. Dravo struck out. With Trinity in the field Anderson struck out. Halsey got a hit which bounded over Badgley's head. Smith was out Burwell to Clement and Day, Powell to Clement.

Both sides retired in one, two, three order in the third inning, but in the fourth Madden flew out to Campaigne.

AN INTERESTING FACT.

On the 1st of March, 1904, THE CONNECTICUT MUTUAL reached a stage in its history very interesting to its management and its members and one which is unique in the history of American Life Insurance.

On that date, but little more than fifty-eight years from its organization, it had received from its members in premiums the sum of $228,376,268, and had returned to them or their beneficiaries $228,724,073, or $347,805 more than it had received from them.

The Connecticut Mutual is the first American Life Insurance Company to return to its members one hundred per cent. of its receipt from them. And it holds besides $65,000,000 of assets, with a surplus of over $4,600,000 to protect over 70,000 policy-holders insured for over $166,000,000.

Clement was safe on Haley's error and stole second. Bowman was out to Taylor. Burwell to Anderson. Monroe was up for Wesleyan and flew out to Landefeld. Morgan walked, Anderson flew out to Morgan. Haley walked. Smith struck out.

In the fifth Badgley got a hit, but both sides were retired without a score and in the sixth no one reached first.

In the seventh Bowman made a single and reached second on an error. Burwell sacrificed to Taylor. Dravo made a hit over Smith's head, bringing in Bowman, but Badgley was out, Anderson to Taylor.

In Wesleyan's half of the inning, Smith reached first on an error. Anderson and Day were out on two fine catches of Owen Morgan's and Haley was out, Powell to Clement.

Trinity scored two in the eighth. Morgan got a base on balls. Landefeld reached first when Morgan was thrown out at second by Monroe. Powell got a two-base hit and Madden knocked a grounder which brought in Landefeld and Powell, though he was out for interfering with his runner, Randall. Clement struck out.

During the remaining inning and a half but one man reached first and Haley, the last man up, flew out to Powell. Summary:

CROWDS AND CHEERING.

Fine Weather, Large Crowds and Lively Cheering at Both Games—
Dr. Hart Entertains Trinity Supporters.

The day was perfect for both games and large crowds witnessed the two most interesting contests of Trinity's baseball schedule. At the morning game a fair sized representation from Middletown supported the Wesleyan players, and cheered them to victory. The cheering on the part of Trinity was one of the most gratifying particulars of the day's success. At the morning game most enthusiastic support was given the last men who came to bat, and after this nearly every man found his way by one means or another to be present at the afternoon game, determined that Trinity should give a good account of herself.

The crowd in the afternoon at Middletown was larger, as was naturally to be expected of an afternoon game, and especially since Trinity took such a large crowd of supporters. The cheering on both sides was almost incessant, not a man coming to bat without a cheer. When the last Wesleyan player was caught out, Trinity supporters rushed across the field directly to the gymnasium and gathering there cheered the team and each individual player. After this they marched in single file, cheering and singing, downtown, where they formed abreast, and proceeded to the Berkeley Divinity School.

Dr. Hart had previously invited the college to attend an informal reception at his home after the game (not the first of these invitations to the college by Dr. Hart), and more than seventy-five men enjoyed his generous hospitality until it was time for them to take the train for Hartford.

Needless to say, everybody along the road from Middletown to Hartford, by way of Berlin, was made to know the score. On arriving at Hartford, after organized cheering at the station, a large crowd walked up Asylum street to Main street, and gathered on the corner for still another "long Trin." After this the students separated in groups to the different theaters and to the college.
