HARTFORD, CONN., TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 7, 1905.

PRICE, FIVE CENTS.

BY A LARGE SCORE.

Trinity Wins from Worcester Tech., 23-0.

Never before, save on one occasion, has any college team made such a large score on Trinity Field as was made in the Trinity-Worcester Polytechnic game last Saturday when Worcester was downed by the "Old Gold and Blue" by the score of 23 to 0.

Many grads were back for the game, which fact added a greater pleasure to the victory. The exhibition was free from all questionable playing and during the entire game no unpleasant disputes arose to mar the spectacle of the contest.

The game began shortly after 3.30 o'clock with Trinity defending the north goal. Worcester kicked off to Landefeld who returned the ball 12 yards. Morgan, Maxson and Xanders netted about 5 yards each and Donnelly made 10 yards through left tackle. Then Xanders eluded the bunch for fully fifteen yards. This advanced the ball close to the line and Landefeld was shoved over for a touchdown after four minutes of play, during which time Trinity had covered about 70 yards of territory. Morgan failed to kick goal. Score, Trinity, 5; Worcester, 0.

Landefeld kicked off to Merrill. The visitors made their distance on a quarterback run and Trinity was penalized for 5 yards for off-side play. "Tech" was held for downs. Then with some hard playing on Trinity's part the ball was gradually worked down the field and Xanders made the second touchdown. Morgan kicked the goal. Score Trinity, 11; Worcester, 0. Landefeld kicked off to Merrill. After a few minutes Trinity came in possession of the ball, having held their opponents for downs. Landefeld punted to Worcester just as time was called for the first half.

In the second half Worcester punted to Hubbard who returned the ball 7 yards. Trinity was held for downs and, in turn, Worcester. Mason made 10 yards. Then Pond made the prettiest hurdle ever seen on Trinity field, going high and clean of the line and falling beyond the scrimmage. In a few seconds Landefeld scored a touchdown and Morgan kicked goal. Score, Trinity, 17; Worcester, 0.

After the kick-off Trinity held "Tech" for downs and Xanders made a 35-yard run for a touchdown. Morgan kicked goal. Score Trinity, 23; Worcester, 0.

Several substitutes were here put in. Morgan kicked off. Again Worcester could not advance against their stronger rivals and Trinity secured the ball. By this time it was so dark the game developed into a punting contest and shortly time was called.

The following is the line-up and summary of the game:

AT WILLIAMS.

President Luther and Prof. Kleene have returned from Williamstown, where on last Thursday and Friday, they represented Trinity at the forty-ninth annual meeting of the Association of Colleges in New England. The Tripod, a few days ago published a list of subjects which were discussed at the meeting. The following questions were discussed at greatest length:

Fraternity houses: are they increasing in numbers? Do they become more and more luxurious and expensive? Are they on the whole advantageous to the college?

The educational value of the small division.

Does the experience of most New England colleges with their requirement for A. B. of from 120 to 230 "term hours," and the constant distribution of the student's time over a variety of subjects, suggest the advisability of concentrating the work for the degree upon a smaller number of subjects.

What is the result of the erection of fraternity chapter houses and how should such houses be controlled?

Is there such a decline in the study of Greek in the secondary schools as to call for protective action on the part of the colleges?

Thursday evening the delegates were given a reception at the home of President Henry Hopkins of Williams, which was greatly enjoyed by all those present.

PROF. MARTIN'S SPEECH.

TO THE RHODE ISLAND ALUMNI.

At Providence, Oct. 30th.

He said in part: * * This Association of which you modestly speak as an "infant" and which tonight holds its second annual meeting is truly a choice and noble brotherhood. As sons of Trinity, I congratulate you the more upon being also citizens of Rhode Island. The fact makes you the more able to understand, appreciate and love your college. It is with a distinct pride that you speak of "Little Rhody," knowing that her greatness is the inverse of her size. * * * I associate in imagination Palestine, Greece, Holland, Belgium, Rhode Island and Trinity College, as sustaining the proposition that historic dignity depends upon the ratio of numbers to achievement. I hold in my hand the record of a single class in Trinity College, that of 1870, that numbered at graduation seventeen men, every man successful, and look at the degree of that success! Four, Backus, Bixby, Dyer and Frank Wallace Whitlock have joined the majority. The thirteen survivors include, in insurance, Brocklesby and Mowe, in law, Bryant, George Lewis Cooke, Kenneth and Stout, in the ministry, Henry Merlin Barbour, George McClellan Fiske, George Brinley Morgan and Harlow Ruggles Whitlock, and in science and in education, Flavel Sweeten Luther.

You, Rhode Islanders, are not pessimists. On a certain historic occasion, I judge in 1636, a rising inflection was heard on the banks of the Seekonk in the words, "What cheer?" The answer, (Was it from Williams's Indian friend, Onsamequin?) was "Hope." On your armorial bearings you have inscribed below, the date 1636, high above the one word, "Hope," and between them the anchor that clings to the eternal rock, even if on the shield it hangs somewhat stiffly like a piece of bric-a-brac on a student's wall. Having at heart the future greatness of Trinity College, I am glad to meet Trinity men who have behind them and about them the history and inspiration of Rhode Island. With this City of Providence and with Brown University, in particular, your college has, I may say in passing, associations that are especially worthy of remembrance. Thomas Church Brownell, our illustrious founder, (God be gracious unto him and give him peace!) and Francis Wayland, from 1827 to 1855 the great president of Brown, were both graduates of Union, the first in 1804, the second in 1813. Wayland was a student under Brownell, when the latter was a professor at Union. They must have been intimate friends with kindred ideas. Brownell and Wayland first opened their minds to the idea of broader curriculum. * * There is the germ of the great scientific and technical departments and schools of today, a germ perhaps got from Brownell, at least, fostered by him.

Here in Providence was born in 1820, a graduate of Trinity in 1841, whose sculptured effigy must appear in the anto-chapel of the great College Church that is in time to rise, a man whose martial song stirred pulses during the Civil War, as did that of Freeman in the Revolution, a brother of Tyrtæus and of Rudyard Kipling,—Henry Howard Brownell, nephew of the Bishop. * * Let me remind you also that Charles Collins Van Zandt, of the class of 1851 in Trinity College, was governor of Rhode Island from 1877 to 1880. But you ask me as to the College of to-day the Rhode Island question, What cheer? I answer not "Hope," but "Certainty, achievement and a greater hope." A remarkable semi-weekly journal. The Trinity Tripod, is now necessary to record the progress of the College from day to day. I trust that you are all subscribers. The price is $2.00 per annum for sixty numbers. The Tripod tells us that there are 160 students in the College, and five hundred coming; of the great new schemes and work of president and of professors; of the addition to the Faculty of men of power and leading; of library, laboratories, buildings, pavements and trolley lines; of enthusiasm in study; of the achievements of noble young athletes, who are gentlemen and heroes, even if the soul vintage of defeat has led some imagine to regard them as carnivores. To be proud of your College you have only to know it, and you will perhaps pardon me, if I say in paedagogic strain that you cannot know it without studying it. There should be a text-book for your assistance, not merely the catalogue, but a little volume of discrimination, grace and charm, with a touch of literature in it, that might give a vivid idea of the College as a living organism. * * * You should combine with your text-book study, the laboratory method of personal visit and observation. The soul of the College is ever the same, it's body changes very much in seven years. The College has a guest room where anyone of you, I am sure, will be always welcome. (To be continued.)

TO ALUMNI.

THE TRIPOD is published for the Alumni even more than for the Undergraduates. With this in mind we are striving to produce a paper which shall be interesting and necessary to Graduates, and also to reach as large a number as possible. We are very largely dependent on the Alumni both for our moral and financial support. If you are not already a subscriber will you kindly give this matter your attention?

"NOW THEN—TRINITY!"

EDITORIAL.

KEEP IT UP.

The Trinity team played the best game Saturday that it has played this season. Worcester was of about the same weight, but not in as good condition and lacked the snap with which it played last year. Trinity played a better game all around and encouraged the sidelines by its lack of fumbling, the well directed attack of the back field, and the energy with which the interference disposed of the ends and tackles.

The credit for this good showing is due, not to the team alone, but to all of the men in college, who have been out this week to play on the scrub. There are men who go out each night who don't play football because they enjoy it, but because they want to help the team. These men should not be forgotten, for they contribute their share to the team's success.

The game towards which the team should direct its energy is that with West Point one week from Saturday. Now that we have not the pleasure of a game with Wesleyan, that is perhaps our biggest game, and the one which we want most to win. If the team improves in the next two weeks as it has during the last, the West Point game should be the best game that Trinity will have played this year.

A REMARKABLE SPEECH.

We are very glad to be able to present to our readers to-day the first installment of Dr. Martin's address to the Rhode Island alumni. It is a speech full of interest to all Trinity men and cannot fail to open the eyes of many alumni and undergraduates to the splendid advantages which Trinity has, in her faculty. We have a corps of educators here which is equalled in few institutions of learning.

Dr. Martin is perhaps the most fully informed member of the faculty and he has a way of presenting his facts which make him a most entertaining speaker. It will certainly be for the welfare of the college for this address of his to have such circulation as the Tripod can give it, and our readers cannot fail to enjoy the reading of it. For our own part, we cannot read the speech without being carried along by the enthusiasm which Dr. Martin has instilled into it and which gave it such a hearty reception on the part of the Rhode Islanders who had the good fortune to hear it delivered.

Three more installments will follow.

WILL FOOTBALL AT HARVARD BE STOPPED?

President Eliot of Harvard has determined that brutality and unnecessary roughness shall cease in football played by Harvard teams, or that football itself shall be eliminated from the athletic curriculum of the university. At the Yale-Harvard game in the stadium next month President Eliot will sit near the side line as a critic of the play. If there is any slugging he will recommend to the corporation that Harvard cease playing intercollegiate football. The corporation could undoubtedly so vote, and football with Harvard left out would receive a stunning if not a knock-out blow.

President Eliot is no warm friend of football as played to-day. His reports have frequently been hostile, but he has yielded to public opinion. In his recent resolve he was backed up by President Roosevelt and influential members of the faculty and corporation.

A week or two ago a "Pan-Hellenic Council" was organized at Rutgers College, composed of the upperclassmen of all the fraternities.

The object of the council is purely social and its meetings will partake of the nature of smokers and "feeds." It is hoped that this will be the means of furthering a friendly spirit among the various fraternities.

The college authorities of Union have abolished chapel rushes.

Last spring Andrew Carnegie offered $15,000 to Juniata College for a library, provided the authorities raise the like amount. The required $15,000 has been exceeded, and Mr. Carnegie has increased his gift to $28,000.

The Connecticut Mutual Life Insurance Company,

HARTFORD, CONN.,

Why should I insure my life?

Because it is a debt you owe to those who are dependent upon your earnings for their support.

You admit that it is your duty to supply their needs from day to day, but forget that it is equally your duty to provide an ever ready and sufficient equivalent for your earning power, which your family stands in constant jeopardy to lose by your premature death.

Guard your family against disaster and yourself against dependency in old age.

When should I insure my life?

Now! The cost will never be less, and tomorrow you may not be able to obtain insurance at any price.

Even if others are not now dependent upon you, take time by the forelock and you will be the better able to meet future responsibilities, and at a smaller premium.

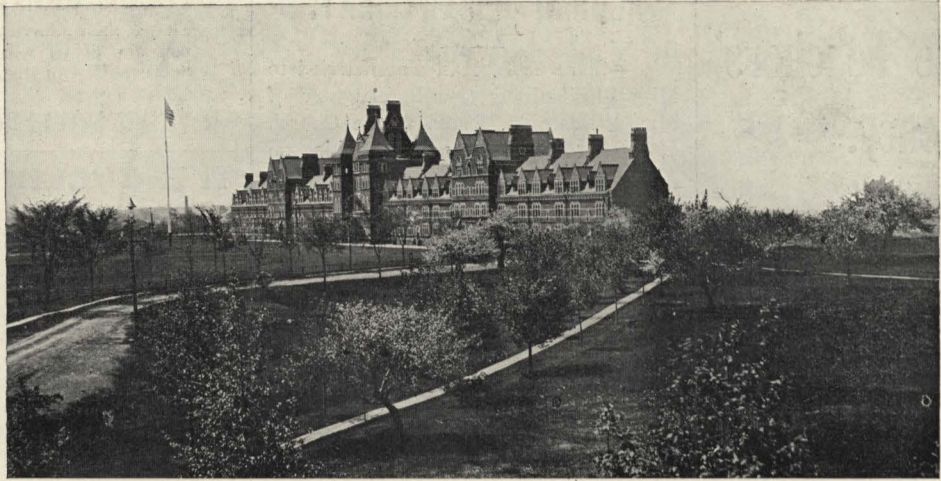

Where shall I insure my life?

In a purely Mutual Company. In a company that earns, declares, and pays annual dividends. In a company that is doing a conservative business.

Such a Company is The Connecticut Mutual Life Insurance Company of Hartford, Conn. It furnishes perfect protection at lowest cost.

For further information, address the Company, or any of its agents. JOHN M. TAYLOR, Pres't. H. H. WHITE, Sec'y.
