RUTGERS TO-MORROW.

Brighter Prospects For Team

The first game of the season will be played on the home gridiron on Saturday afternoon, against the Rutgers team. But little is known here concerning the strength of that combination, but by reputation their showing is a formidable one. Rutgers usually makes a creditable record against the heavy Lehigh teams, and those men in college who are in a position to know state that Trinity's initial battle will be as hard and as closely contested as any in the entire season.

The condition of the home eleven, however, is much more satisfactory than it was a week ago. Owing to their careful training, the men are all in excellent form, and should be able to go through the early games without that utter exhaustion which, in general, characterizes the work of light elevens during the first contests of the season. Anyone who contrasts the team this year with the aggregation at the same time last fall, cannot help but feel optimistic. Captain Landefeld has infused into every member of the squad something of his own generalship, something of his own enthusiasm and capacity for hard work.

Two or three new men have appeared for practice. Of these Maxson, a freshman from Texas, will undoubtedly prove a find, weighing 176 pounds, fast on his feet, and with a talent for squirming through the line, he ought to make an ideal halfback. Mason and Maxson should prove as fine a couple of halfbacks as Trinity has had in several years. The combination certainly has an harmonious sound.

Owen Morgan, captain of the eleven last fall, has recovered from the ailment which prevented his appearance at the beginning of the season, and is one more out in a suit. He will probably be placed at fullback, and will undoubtedly be a star in that position. He is a good tackler, a remarkably speedy runner, and is a hard man to bring down. With Maxson, Morgan, and Mason, the backfield should be a stone wall.

The scrimmages this week have all been exceedingly strenuous, and several men have received minor injuries. Butts has obtained a badly perforated upper lip which will place him on the shelf for some time. Marlor, his understudy for center, has broken his nose, an accident which will bar him for an indefinite period. These two injuries are unfortunate as there is no other heavy man for center. Willoughby is being tried there. He is a plucky, steady player but the all-important factor of weight is missing.

IN REGARD TO CLASS SECRETARIES.

Hartford, Conn.

Mr. Harry Huet,
Trinity Tripod.

Dear Sir:—

Will you kindly insert in the next issue the enclosed circular which has been sent to class secretaries so far as known and in classes when unknown, to some member of that class.

The returns indicate class secretaries already heard from, are as follows: '80, F. L. Wilcox; '92, C. A. Johnson; '93, C. C. Barton, Jr.; '94, E. S. Allen; '98, E. F. Waterman.

Thanking you for publishing this, I am

Yours very truly,

Edwin S. Allen.

At a meeting of the Alumni Association, held June 27, 1905, the following committee was appointed to consider the question of improvement and increased efficiency in the work of Class Secretaries. The following were appointed:

E. S. Allen, '94; F. L. Wilcox, '80; F. E. Johnson, '84; W. S. Schutx, '94, and C. G. Woodward, '98

There are well grounded beliefs for the statement, that there is little or no work done by the Class Secretaries; several Secretaries in the past fifteen years apparently not having written a line. In some cases, even the Secretary's name is not known by the other members. This is a deplorable condition, and now is an opportune time to place our Secretaries on a more business-like basis and secure their co-operation. An enthusiastic and loyal body of Alumni is the very life blood of a successful college, and the closer the Alumni keep in touch with Trinity the greater their loyalty and enthusiasm.

How about your class? What work has been done since graduation in regard to keeping men posted on College and Class news? Kindly furnish us with assurances that your Class Secretary is thoroughly in line. We ask for the name of your Secretary; if not known or not obtainable, the committee feel that you should take that office, and we have every confidence in your ability if you will undertake it. If you cannot; frankly tell us, we shall then seek another.

We must have aggressive men the Alumni Association demands it, those who will keep classmates posted at least once a year.

Please remind your classmates of the great work "The Tripod" is doing, and urge strongly that they subscribe. It is a semi-weekly paper, similar to the "Yale News," first issued in Fall of 1904, and will keep all posted on Trinity affairs. For a publication doing such splendid work as "The Tripod," the support is pitifully weak. You are in a position to do what "The Tripod" itself cannot do in a powerful organization.

We shall cause the names of the various Class Secretaries to be published in "The Tripod" as soon as received. Please let us hear from you promptly.

For the Committee,
E. S. ALLEN, Chairman.

"At an alumni smoker last evening President Luther spoke of professionalism in college athletics, and maintained that satisfactory rules cannot be made to abolish professionalism owing to its very broad character. The solution of the problem, he said, must be found in high standards of scholarship."—From the Tripod for June 2, 1905.

President Luther is among the foremost of up-to-date thinkers upon problems relating to college athletics. This will be seen when (with the article above quoted in mind) we look at the chief proposition which is to come before the twentieth annual meeting of the New England Association of Colleges and Preparatory School. This meeting is to be held in Boston on October 13th and 14th and the proposition to be discussed is as follows: That the definition of athletic professionalism, as now written, is a source of demoralization in schools and colleges, and that the evils which this definition is intended to combat can be better met by limiting the number of games between institutions and fixing standards of academic standing and academic age for the participants in such games."

ALUMNI.

The Rev. Theodore M. Peck, '80, has accepted the rectorship of St. John's church, Washington, Conn.

The Rev. Charles A. Hamilton, '82, was leader of the Bible Study class of the Men's Vacation conference at Richfield Springs, N. Y.

Howard Russell White, '02, was ordained to the Diaconate on Trinity Sunday by his pastor, the Bishop of Michigan City.

A NEW SCHOLARSHIP ESTABLISHED.

By Dr. J. Ewing Mears, '58.

A New Scholarship Established.

Among the visitors during the opening days of college was J. Ewing Mears, M. D., of the class of '58. Dr. Mears is thankfully remembered by the undergraduates for his generous contribution toward the Alumni Athletic field. He also donated funds to the library for enlarging the departments of Sanitary Science and Hygiene.

We learn with pleasure that as a result of his visit a new scholarship has been founded in memory of Dr. Mear's mother, which pays $250 annually and will probably be awarded this year.

Freshman Elections.

The freshmen have elected Keith Willoughby manager of their class track team, and Robert Mason manager of the class football team.

The Connecticut Mutual Life Insurance Co.

AN INTERESTING FACT.

On the 1st of March, 1904, THE CONNECTICUT MUTUAL reached a stage in its history very interesting to its management and its members and one which is unique in the history of American Life Insurance.

On that date, but little more than fifty-eight years from its organization, it had received from its members in premiums the sum of $228,376,268, and had returned to them or their beneficiaries $228,724,073, or $347,805 more than it had received from them.

The Connecticut Mutual is the first American Life Insurance Company to return to its members one hundred per cent. of its receipt from them. And it holds besides $65,000,000 of assets, with a surplus of over $4,600,000 to protect over 70,000 policy-holders insured for over $166,000,000.
