TRINITY vs. MANHATTAN.

Won by Score of 7 to 3.

Trinity easily defeated Manhattan on Trinity field last Friday by a score of 7 to 3. Our team did not play its best ball, and errors on both sides were conspicuous throughout the game.

Xanders, who pitched for Trinity started the game by striking out Hanrahan. Connelly got his base on balls and stole second. Brennan struck out, but Mahoney got his base on balls and Ancezagala was hit by a pitched ball. Meanwhile Connelly crossed the plate on an error by Xanders. The first half of the inning closed when Mahoney flied out to Connor.

Morgan, the first man up for Trinity, found the ball immediately and made first on Delaney's error. Burwell bunted along the first base line which gave us two men on bases. Powell made a long drive between center and left field which brought Morgan and Burwell home, but unfortunately he was put out sliding for third. Xanders was put out on a ground ball to Maloney. Conner made a base hit and Randall flied out to Ancezagala.

Both sides were held down the next three innings. In the second Boylston received his base on Powell's error and the three men following were struck out by Xanders. For Trinity, Cunningham and Morgan got on bases but failed to score.

Connelly began the third by a hit, but while the next men up each found the ball no one could gain first. In our half Powell and Xanders were put out by the infield and Connor by center field.

Both sides steadied down in the fourth and no one went past second.

Manhattan braced up in the fifth when Connelly made a hit, went to second on a sacrifice by Brennan and came home on Ancezagala's hit. This tied the score, and Trinity was unable to score since Morgan and Powell flied out to right field and Burwell struck out.

Trinity, however, took the initiative in the sixth and put out the first three men at bat. Xanders made good on Hanrahan's error and took second on Connor's hit. Randall made first on a fielder's choice which left every bag covered. Delaney caught Donnelly's liner. Cunningham struck out and Marlor sent a ball over second base which brought Xanders and Connor home and left him on second. Morgan followed suit and sent Randall and Marlor across the plate. This left us four runs in the lead, when Morgan went out at second on Burwell's bunt.

No one scored in the seventh.

In the eighth Ancezagala received his base on balls, stole second and got to third on a passed ball. Burwell caught Mahoney's fly. Xanders caught Boylston's foul near the first base line and struck out McAvoy.

Donnelly was up first for Trinity and got to second on errors. Cunningham and Marlor were put out. Donnelly went to third. Morgan made a hard drive to right field and Donnelly crossed the plate before Mahoney could get it home.

In the first of the ninth Hanrahan brought in one run, but the other three men up were put out by the infield ending the game.

The following was the line-up:

POLITICAL CLUB ELECTIONS.

Mayor Henney to Speak Thursday.

At a meeting of the Political Club held yesterday noon, the following men were elected members:—

The next meeting of the club will be held in Alumni Hall Thursday evening, and will be open to the public. Mayor Henney will speak on "Municipal Government."

COLUMBIA vs. TRINITY.

Trinity plays Columbia to-day. The game should be a good one, for Columbia has been playing excellent ball all the season and Trinity's team is now in good condition. Badgely will pitch for Trinity. His arm is in good shape and with him in the box Trinity should win the game.

NOTES.

The first sign of the approaching close of the college year was given when Prof. Ferguson announced that the History IV class would hold no more recitations.

An Athletic Association meeting will be held at 7:30 to-night in the Latin Room. Officers for next year will be elected and managers and assistant managers for the track and base ball teams will be chosen.

CRITICISM OF "THE MAYOR OF WARWICK."

From the New York "Evening Post."

The following criticism was published in the New York "Evening Post", Saturday, June 2d, on Prof. Hopkins' book, "The Mayor of Warwick":

"Stranger material than professional ball players have served to make mayoralty timber. It takes a most optimistic socialist, however, to find a bond of sympathy between a street car conductor and the daughter of a rich and powerful bishop, strong enough to result in matrimony. The girl, Felicity Wycliffe, has contracted a secret marriage with Tom Emmett, which, however, proved nothing but a meeting and parting at the altar, although the girl thereafter sets herself to the task of cultivating the tastes of her unrecognized husband for high ideals, good looks, gentle manners, and a love for refined society. The street car conductor takes kindly to the interest shown in him, and goes in for politics as a candidate for mayor. Emmett is ambitious. He never has drunk a drop nor smoked tobacco, probably because, as he announces, a politician, like a bartender, can be more successful if he leaves drink alone. The same reason probably inspires him when somebody asks what there is in a conductor's job. 'More than the measly the company offers,' is his reply. He also gives the reader to believe that there is much to be gained in knocking down fares, and incidentally reveals his socialistic tendencies.

"A man's entitled to take something of what would be his by right of things," he argues, 'If things were as they should be in this world. Sometimes a man has to take matters into his own hands and decide what is due him!'

"Probably that is what prompts him to take Lena Harpster, Miss Wycliffe's maid, into his arms, and make such violent love as to give her the ring which was given him by her mistress. He confides to the maid that his real ambition, after all, is to become rich, and that there is something more than politics in the game he is playing. In course of time the athletic conductor is elected mayor, and Mr. Hopkins gives an interesting narrative of a municipal election in a small eastern town. Unfortunately, Miss Wycliffe discovers Emmett's ring on her maid's finger, and is promptly disillusioned. A breezy young western professor, who joins the faculty of the local college and takes up the cause of Emmett in the campaign, promptly falls in love with Miss Wycliffe. The two men are of extreme types, but come to take great interest in each other's work. Mr. Hopkins draws a strong love story and brings his plot to a good climax. The life at a small church college is drawn with very considerable understanding."

An invitation to join Wesleyan in a tennis tournament has been refused by the Tennis Association who deemed it inadvisable.

REVIEW OF SECOND TEAM'S SEASON.

Its Object Accomplished.

The work of the second team has on the whole been fairly good and has in some measure accomplished its principal end, that of giving a consistent practice to the 'varsity, and of preparing substitutes for the 'varsity players. This was manifested on Friday when Clausen, the second team catcher, was able to step into Cunningham's position.

The team has not been a winning team, which is due mainly to the fact that it is hard to find twenty men in a college the size of Trinity, capable of playing consistent ball.

Probably the best work done on the team was that of Claussen, who caught a good game from start to finish.

Clendinen, who played left field, is of 'varsity material and plays a good though rather rash game. His fielding and batting were both good.

MacGuyer played a good game at his position on second base and when it became necessary for him to play third, he did so without lessening his fielding average.

Hinkel played a good game when he was with the second team.

Myers did well in the field and played a fair game on first base; his batting was consistent. Brewster, Buchanan, Chandler and Goodrich played fairly good games in the field.

Morrow was erratic at first, but should show up better next year.

Hyde bettered his record of last year, pitching good, steady ball and often pulling the team out of a hole by his cool head-work.

The games played with their scores were:—

Hartford High 4, Trinity 2d 15
Hotchkiss School 18, Trinity 2d 2
Rockville Vol 10, Trinity Second 5
Amherst Freshmen 8, Trinity 2d 5
Amherst Freshmen 3, Trinity 2d 2

GERMAN CLUB MEETING.

A meeting of the German Club will be held Wednesday at 1:15 in 28 Jarvis Hall. Officers for the coming year will be elected.

The Trinity Tripod

Published Tuesdays and Fridays in each week of the college year by students of Trinity College.

The columns of THE TRIPOD are at all times open to Alumni, Undergraduates and others for the free discussion of matters of interest to Trinity men. To aid in this purpose THE TRIPOD mail box has been placed in the section entrance of Middle Jarvis. All communications, or material of any sort for Tuesday's issue must be in the Tripod box before 10 p.m. on Sunday; for Friday's issue before 10 a.m. on Thursday.

Entered as second class matter Nov. 29, 1904,

TO ALUMNI.

THE TRIPOD is published for the Alumni even more than for the Undergraduates. With this in mind we are striving to produce a paper which shall be interesting and necessary to Graduates, and also to reach as large a number as possible. We are very largely dependent on the Alumni both for our moral and financial support. If you are not already a subscriber will you kindly give this matter your attention?

"NOW THEN—TRINITY"

EDITORIAL.

To-night the annual June meeting of the Athletic Association is to be held in the Latin Room. The managers and assistant managers of the track and base ball teams for next year will be chosen. For manager in each case there is but a single nominee, but in choosing a man to fill the position of assistant manager of any team there is one condition which should be carefully considered. Is he capable of successfully and carefully fulfilling his duties and is he also the man who will best represent Trinity when he has charge of our team at another college?

At this meeting the proposition of the abolition of basketball will also be brought up. Whether this sport is to be absolutely done away with or merely to be voted out of the Athletic Association, or left in its present state, is a matter which, if carefully considered beforehand by the student body, will make it much easier to reach a definite and final action.

These thoughts the "Tripod" wishes to suggest in order that our teams may have the best men as managers and that the right decision may be reached in such an important matter as the question of abolishing a sport.

The Spring Tennis Tournament which was to have been held in competition for a cup has been called off.

"TABLET" BOARD ELECTIONS.

Officers Chosen.

At a meeting of this year's "Tablet" Board held Friday night, the following men were elected:—

Leroy A. Ladd '08, DeWitt Clinton Pond '08, George Edward Ellwell '09.

The new board met Saturday noon and chose Ralph R. Wolfe, Editor-in-Chief; Leroy A. Ladd, Literary Editor, and Frederic J. Corbett, Business Manager.

Nominations for assistant business manager have been made. Leonard J. Dibble '09, and George Edward Dibble '09 are the nominees.

NOTES.

Wednesday afternoon teams representing the Delta Kappa Epsilon and Psi Upsilon Chapters will play ball on the diamond. After this game the teams representing the Phi Gamma Delta and I. K. A. societies will play.

Since the publication of the examination schedule in the "Tripod," the following changes have been made: Physics 4 instead of Physics 5 will be held Wednesday morning, June 13th. On Wednesday afternoon the Freshman Religious Study examination will come while the Junior and Senior Religious Studies examinations are held Thursday afternoon, June 14th. On Monday, June 18th, English I will be held in the morning and English II in the afternoon.

Prof. and Mrs. Ferguson have invited the members of the Senior Class and the friends who are with them, to their house, after Class Day exercises on Monday, June 25th.

For the aid of Freshmen who are preparing for the Religious Studies I examination, Prof. Martin has posted on the official bulletin board a number of points for reading in "Otley's Short History of the Hebrews."

The course covering four years begins the last week in September and continues until June.

A preliminary training in natural science is of great advantage. All the classes are divided into small sections for recitations, laboratory and clinical bedside instruction. Students are admitted to advanced standing after passing the requisite examinations. The successful completion of the first year in any College or University recognized by the Regents of the State of New York as maintaining a satisfactory standing is sufficient to satisfy the requirements for admission which have lately been raised. The annual announcement giving full par-

The Connecticut Mutual Life Insurance Company,

HARTFORD, CONN.,

Why should I insure my life?

Because it is a debt you owe to those who are dependent upon your earnings for their support.

You admit that it is your duty to supply their needs from day to day, but forget that it is equally your duty to provide an ever ready and sufficient equivalent for your earning power, which your family stands in constant jeopardy to lose by your premature death.

Guard your family against disaster and yourself against dependency in old age.

When should I insure my life?

Now! The cost will never be less, and tomorrow you may not be able to obtain insurance at any price.

Even if others are not now dependent upon you, take time by the forelock and you will be the better able to meet future responsibilities, and at a smaller premium.

Where shall I insure my life?

In a purely Mutual Company.
In a company that earns, declares, and pays annual dividends.
In a company that is doing a conservative business.

Such a Company is The Connecticut Mutual Life Insurance Company of Hartford, Conn. It furnishes perfect protection at lowest cost.
