

TRUSTEES' MEETING.Changes in Faculty.

To fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Professor C. F. Johnson from the chair of English, Assistant Professor Cranston Brenton was elevated to the full professorship. Professor Brenton has had an exceptionally fine career.

After graduation he entered Berkeley. He accepted the rectorship of a church in New Milford, which he held until September, 1904, when he came to Trinity as an instructor in English. He is well known as an attractive preacher and speaker and is full of enthusiasm and capacity for hard work.

Cecil Fairfield Lavell, M. A., professor of history and economics at Bates College, Lewiston, Me., was elected to the chair of history to take the place of Professor Henry Ferguson, who has resigned. Mr. Lavell was graduated from Queen's College, University of Toronto, in 1894. He has published a volume on Italian cities and has in press a series of nine lectures, entitled, "Imperial England."

To fill the vacancy created by the promotion of Professor Brenton, Dr. Arthur Adams was elected to the assistant professorship of English. Dr. Adams is a graduate of Rutgers, in the class of 1902. He received a Ph.D. at Yale in 1905. He has specialized in English studies. For the past year he has been an instructor in English at the University of Colorado. He will also give instruction in public speaking.

The trustees also authorized the faculty to recommend for the degree of bachelor of arts, men who have completed a satisfactory amount of work in one ancient language. Hitherto both Latin and Greek have been required for an arts degree. In making this change, Trinity adopts the plan now pursued at all the New England colleges, with perhaps a single exception. The degree of bachelor of letters is no longer to be conferred.

At the session, two new trustees were elected, Rev. Henry Ferguson, who resigned from the chair of history, and Edgar F. Waterman '98, treasurer of the college. Mr. Waterman, who has been assistant treasurer of the college, was elected to the office of treasurer, to take the place of C. E. Graves, 1850, deceased.

ALUMNI ASSOCIATION.

The Alumni Association spent most of the morning in eulogising members who have died during the last year. A step was made concerning the floating laboratory which was proposed last year by Prof. Charles L. Edwards of the chair of natural history and biology.

The committee which was appointed at that time to raise funds for this expedition reported that $3,500 had been raised, and while about twice that amount was needed, the committee hoped that as early as next year the experiment could be made.

The following officers were elected: President, Walter S. Schutz '94; vice-president, Lawson Purdy '84; secretary, Edward S. Allen '94; treasurer, C. G. Woodward '98.

Standing Committee, Dr. W. S. Hubbard '88, D. Samuel Hart, George W. Ellis.

Junior fellows, Rev. John T. Huntington '50; Rev. Dr. John J. McCook '63. Senior fellows, E. Kent Hubbard '92; William S. Hubbard '88.

At 1:30 o'clock an informal luncheon was served in the gymnasium to the Alumni, Trustees and friends of the college.

PRESIDENT'S RECEPTION.

From 5 o'clock until 8 President Luther held his annual reception in the president's house, No. 115 Vernon street. The reception was largely attended, both by Alumni and friends of the college in Hartford. The pleasant weather afforded an opportunity for many to turn the reception into a lawn party. Later in the evening the different fraternities held their annual reunions.

PHI BETA KAPPA MEETING.

Beta Chapter of Connecticut, of the honorary society of Phi Beta Kappa, held its annual meeting. The two members of the class of 1907 who had ranked at the top of the class in scholarship for the past three years, Philip Dougherty of Charleston, Ill., and Frederic Cleveland Hedrick of Jacksonville, Fla., received elections. Clarence Griffin Child '86, dean and professor in the graduate department of the University of Pennsylvania, was elected to honorary membership. The officers for the year are as follows:—

President—Rev. John T. Huntington '50, Hartford.

Vice-President—William J. Davies '60, New York.

Secretary—Rev. Samuel Hart '66, Middletown.

Treasurer—George L. Cooke '70, Providence.

THE SENIOR GERMAN HELD FRIDAY EVENING.

The Senior German was held in Alumni Hall on Friday evening. The first half of the evening was a dance and the second a German. H. G. Barbour '06 led with Miss Chittenden. The favors were clever and attractive. Those present were: H. G. Barbour with Miss Chittenden of New Haven; H. Burgwin with Miss Zimmerman, East Orange, N. J.; H. O. Hinkel with Miss Wander; Lauderburn with Miss Van Zile; Maercklein with Miss Winslow; Ferguson with Miss Toy; Licht with Miss Butler; Trumbull with Miss Burgwin; E. C. Roberts with Miss G. CLASS DAY EXERCISES.

At 3 P. M. on Monday began the first of the closing ceremonies in which the graduating class took part. The weather conditions were perfect and the large number of relatives and alumni were enthusiastic. The following copy of the program will give a good idea of the nature of the exercises. The program, however, does not mention one of the most attractive features of the occasion which was the presentation of a 1901 class cup to little Miss Van der Water, who is the class baby. It also omits the awarding of the "Squeezer" to the class of 1908.

THE SENIOR PROMENADE.

The Senior Promenade was held in Alumni Hall on Monday evening, beginning at 9 o'clock. The dancing was enjoyed through forty dances until daylight, by the large number of graduates, and guests who were present.

The gathering was entertained by a rousing cheer by the Class of '96 to '06. The former class is celebrating its decennial anniversary of graduation and a great many of its members were present as well as an unusual number of other Alumni.

The usual good Trinity music was appreciated and great regret was manifested at the close of night. The programs, also, were unusually attractive.

TO ALUMNI.

THE TRIPOD is published for the Alumni even more than for the Undergraduates. With this in mind we are striving to produce a paper which shall be interesting and necessary to Graduates, and also to reach as large a number as possible. We are very largely dependent on the Alumni both for our moral and financial support. If you are not already a subscriber will you kindly give this matter your attention?

"NOW THEN—TRINITY!"

EDITORIAL.

The "Tripod" takes pleasure in announcing the election of W. G. Livingston 1909, and H. C. Chandler 1909, to the board and extends to them a most hearty welcome.

The "Tripod" also wishes to express its appreciation of the services of Karl Reiche '08 given with knowledge that his plans would prevent his making the board.

In this, the closing issue of the year,
the "Tripod" takes the opportunity of thanking, on behalf of the old board and the new, our many friends for their good will and support, and to promise
even better things next year.

The "Tripod" doesn't believe in sad editorials, and, saying nothing of the sadder emotions which arise, we bid
you, Noughty-six, "Go forth and prosper."

1907 "IVY" READY.

We were all glad to see the brilliant
"Ivies" displayed on the Campus on Class Day. We bought one and enjoyed it, being particularly struck by the fact that Curtis '06, and the "Tripod"
share the attention of the witty remarks in the advertising section. However, the "Tripod" feels secure of its position of pre-eminence, for "Ivies" may come and go while the "Tripod" goes on forever—
as long as constitutions last.

Joking aside, however, the board is to be complimented on the great attractiveness of the volume.

in September and continues until June.
A preliminary training in natural science is of great advantage. All the classes are divided into small sections for recitations, laboratory and clinical bedside instruction. Students are admitted to advanced standing after passing the requisite examinations. The successful completion of the first year in any College or University recognized by the Regents of the State of New York as maintaining a satisfactory standing is sufficient to satisfy the requirements for admission which have lately been raised. The annual announcement giving full particulars will be mailed on application.

The Connecticut Mutual Life Insurance Company,

HARTFORD, CONN.,

Why should I insure my life?

Because it is a debt you owe to those who are dependent upon your earnings for their support.

You admit that it is your duty to supply their needs from day to day, but forget that it is equally your duty to provide an ever ready and sufficient equivalent for your earning power, which your family stands in constant jeopardy to lose by your premature death.

Guard your family against disaster and yourself against dependency in old age.

When should I insure my life?

Now! The cost will never be less, and tomorrow you may not be able to obtain insurance at any price.

Even if others are not now dependent upon you, take time by the forelock and you will be the better able to meet future responsibilities, and at a smaller premium.

Where shall I insure my life?

In a purely Mutual Company.
In a company that earns, declares, and pays annual dividends.
In a company that is doing a conservative business.

Such a Company is The Connecticut Mutual Life Insurance Company of Hartford, Conn. It furnishes perfect protection at lowest cost.

For further information, address the Company, or any of its agents.
