CONDITIONS IN CHINA.

The Subject of the Sermon in Chapel Sunday Morning by Rev. Harrington Littell '95.

Rev. Harrington Littell '95, who has been a missionary in China since his graduation from the seminary, preached in Chapel, Sunday morning, and later at St. James' Church, Trinity Church Sunday School in the afternoon, and Christ Church in the evening under the auspices of the Trinity College Missionary Society. Mr. Littell's account of the revolutionary changes in China was extremely interesting. Mr. Littell said that a revolution is now going on in China, of immeasurable importance. The most progressive Chinese are making use of these conditions against the government. The foreign missionaries in China are appealed to help the reformers in politics. In China the heathen come to the missionaries. The new educational system that has been established, to conform with western standards, has made a great demand for teachers. There is a great opportunity and demand for Christian teachers. The danger is in doing the work only half well. The problem of the missionaries is to build up the church until it can be left to the natives. The young graduates who come from the colleges in China are all men of steady purpose and high ideals, and to them in time can be intrusted the future of Christianity in China.

MUSICAL CLUBS' CONCERT AT FORESTVILLE.

Before a Large Audience.

Friday evening the musical clubs went to Forestville, and gave a concert to a large and appreciative audience. The clubs were secured to entertain the members and friends of the Knights of Pythias, and everyone was highly satisfied with the work of both clubs.

The program given Junior Week in Alumni hall was repeated, and the various numbers were well received. The "Choo-Choo Cars" song went especially well, as did the "Huzza" song.

Mr. Butler, the soloist of the Glee club, had the audience with him in his song "Little Orphan Annie" and was obliged to give two encores, "The Pretty Creature," and "An Irish Love Song."

The work of the Mudley Trio was very good, their medley of college and "swipe" songs being one of the hits of the evening.

WILLIAMS' BASE BALL SCHEDULE.

The Williams College base ball schedule for 1906 appears in the "Williams Record" for March 1st. The schedule contains twenty games and three open dates. Williams opens the season with Union on April 21st and closes the season with Wesleyan, June 26th. Trinity plays Williams at Williamstown on June 2d.

A TENNIS TEAM?

Trinity was one of the charter members of an organization known as the New England Intercollegiate Tennis Association, an association comprising nearly all the smaller New England colleges which holds a tennis tournament near Boston every spring. In days gone by Trinity was well represented in these tournaments and was several times successful in capturing a first, but for the past three years, at least, no effort has been made to have the college represented. There are several star players in college now and we should revive this good old custom.

The college courts were repaired last year at the expense of the trustees, but, because of their poor condition when taken hold of, they could not be worked into respectable playing surfaces. This year they will be much better. The tennis candidates who are not interested in base ball or track should get out on them as soon as the weather permits. In the meantime let them devise a scheme to have a tennis team at the New England Intercollegiate tournament.

ADDRESS TO MISSIONARY SOCIETY.

Rev. F. C. Todd, assistant at Trinity church, Hartford, made an address to the Missionary Society last evening. He spoke on missions, emphasizing the manner of the Church in taking advantage of politically critical situations. Such are missions in the Philippines and Porto Rico, and work among the immigrants to America, and settlers in the west.

PUBLIC LECTURE.

The third in the annual course of public lectures before the College will be given in Alumni Hall Thursday next, March 8th, at 8 o'clock p. m. by Henry C. McCook, D.D., LL.D., Sc.D., of Philadelphia.

The subject of the lecture is "The Maternal Industry and Baby Life of Spiders."

No special invitations are sent, but the College and the public in general are invited.

J. J. McCOOK,
Chairman of Faculty Committee.

NOTES.

Prof. Perkins who was confined to his home with the grippe last week has now entirely recovered and is holding his classes as usual.

Wesleyan students at a mass meeting held last Saturday, pledged $5,500 to help in building a new dormitory to take the place of old North college, which was destroyed by fire last Thursday.

Robberies of college dormitories have been reported at Yale, Columbia, and Princeton, similar to that which occurred at Trinity a couple of weeks ago. A New Haven detective has been secured to locate the stolen property.

Williams defeated Hamilton in basket ball by the score of 24 to 4.

TO ALUMNI.

THE TRIPOD is published for the Alumni even more than for the Undergraduates. With this in mind we are striving to produce a paper which shall be interesting and necessary to Graduates, and also to reach as large a number as possible. We are very largely dependent on the Alumni both for our moral and financial support. If you are not already a subscriber will you kindly give this matter your attention?

"NOW THEN—TRINITY!"

EDITORIAL.

We print in this issue the '99 class letter. We wish that other class secretaries would gather the material for a letter, similar to this, as has already been suggested to them, and send it to us for publication. A copy of the "Tripod" containing their letter will be sent to each member of the class. Thus can be attained the double object of putting the letter in the hands of each member of the class, without expense, and of bringing the "Tripod" to their notice, if they have not already subscribed. Besides this, the letter will reach our large list of subscribers and be more useful than if confined to the class.

The recent action of the Senior Class in prohibiting the Freshmen from wearing caps and gowns in their class picture was not only justifiable but highly commendable. It was justifiable because the Senior Class is recognized as the ruling council of the college body and as such they have a right to dictate in all affairs of this nature. It was highly commendable because it was an act which protects a time-honored custom. Ever since the dark ages the Seniors have been the only members of the college body entitled to the dignity of cap and gown. Last year, because of the peculiar expediency of the occasion, it was deemed advisable to suspend the custom for one day. That one day was Inauguration Day, and on it the various classes were photographed in this attire. This furnishes no reason for allowing every incoming class to do the same.

Every Junior and underclassman will enjoy the privilege much more when he comes to his senior year if he has been strictly denied it on all previous occasions. We think that the few who were dissatisfied with the Seniors' action will appreciate the point of it if they stop to reflect. Of course a few very young freshmen who wanted to see and to have other people see how well they looked in the garb of dignity had to be disappointed. That was hard luck.

However, let us thank the Senior Class for taking a step to protect one of our most revered customs. The college is continually changing. It is little traditions like these which preserve its identity. If we undergraduates do not hand them on as they have been handed down to us Trinity will suffer an irreparable loss. More than that, we are morally bound so to do.

COMMUNICATION.

To the Editor of the Tripod:
Judging from the lecture on ants given by Dr. Henry C. McCook last year, the College has in store a rare treat for next Thursday night when we are to hear of spiders with particular reference to their maternal instincts. This talented brother of our own Professor McCook is not only a naturalist of reputation but at the same time an eloquent and successful clergyman and an author of theological and historical books and articles. He served as chaplain in the Civil War and was the author of the Relief Commission in the Spanish-American War. Probably Dr. McCook's chief zoological monograph is the large folio in three volumes on "American Spiders and Their Spinning-work." As a lecturer Dr. McCook has a charm of personality which immediately puts him en rapport with his audience. There is no attempt at verbose ponderosity but the simple statement of scientific fact which gives the information desired and stimulates the hearer to observe and study for himself. I trust the students will realize the opportunity thus presented to them and learn the fascinating story of the life of the spiders. C. L. E.

'98—Leonard A. Ellis has recently returned from a two weeks' trip to Cuba.

'98—Charles G. Woodward is on a trip through Georgia and other southern states.

'03—S. St. John Morgan and E. C. Thomas were recent visitors at the college.

Ex'04—Ralph C. B. Moore, who left Trinity in his freshman year to finish his studies at Columbia University, died at his home in Chatham, N. J., February 28th.

Ex'06—Homer Stuart Sayers, who left Trinity to enter the Sophomore class at the University of Michigan, is an associate editor of "The Inlander," a bi-weekly publication of the university.

'82—Ernest Flagg Henderson has moved to Cambridge, Mass., and is living on Brabble street.

WANTED: Material for the 1907 IVY. Every man in college should hand in some work for this book. "Come early and avoid the rush."

The Connecticut Mutual Life Insurance Company,

HARTFORD, CONN.,

Why should I insure my life?

Because it is a debt you owe to those who are dependent upon your earnings for their support.

You admit that it is your duty to supply their needs from day to day, but forget that it is equally your duty to provide an ever ready and sufficient equivalent for your earning power, which your family stands in constant jeopardy to lose by your premature death.

Guard your family against disaster and yourself against dependency in old age.

When should I insure my life?

Now! The cost will never be less, and tomorrow you may not be able to obtain insurance at any price.

Even if others are not now dependent upon you, take time by the forelock and you will be the better able to meet future responsibilities, and at a smaller premium.

Where shall I insure my life?

In a purely Mutual Company. In a company that earns, declares, and pays annual dividends.

In a company that is doing a conservative business.

Such a Company is The Connecticut Mutual Life Insurance Company of Hartford, Conn. It furnishes perfect protection at lowest cost.

For further information, address the Company, or any of its agents.
