VOL. II. No. 37.

HARTFORD, CONN., FRIDAY, MARCH 9, 1906.

PRICE, FIVE CENTS.

WHITLOCK ORATORICAL CONTEST.

Will be Held To-night in Alumni Hall—Music Will be Furnished by the Glee Club.

The annual contest for the Frank W. Whitlock Prizes in Oratory will be held to-night in Alumni Hall. The programme follows:

Music by the Glee Club.
"John Hay"—Frederick C. Hedrick '07
"Wordsworth as a Nature Poet,"
Phillip Everett Curtiss '06
Music by the Glee Club.
"Is Russia in a Critical Condition?"
Donald Ely Landerburn '06
"John Hay,"
Henri DeWolf deMauriac '07
Music by the Glee Club.

The judges will be Mr. John Lee Bunce, the Rev. Francis Creswick Todd and Mr. Backus Williams. Mr. Bunce, a Yale graduate, is one of Hartford's prominent young business men, and is connected with the Connecticut Mutual Insurance Company. Mr. Todd is the assistant minister of Trinity church, Hartford and is a graduate of Harvard. Mr. Williams, who is also a Harvard graduate, is a Hartford lawyer.

Last year the first prize was won by Phillip E. Curtiss '06, one of the speakers to-night. The second prize was won by Allen R. Goodale '05.

Professor Henry Ferguson will preside at the contest.

The Whitlock Prize Contest which will be held to-night in Alumni Hall promises to be an unusually interesting occasion. A special effort is being made by those in charge to have the fellows turn out and hear it. The Glee Club has very kindly offered to sing.

The professor having the contest in charge expressed to the "Tripod" his most cordial appreciation of the Glee Club's willingness to help make this an attractive entertainment. It is hoped that the members of the college will come and bring their friends and it will well repay the friends of the college from town to attend.

The men are being trained by Mr. Butler who won the highest prize in the oratorical contest at Cornell last year and so is well qualified to instruct the competitors.

INTERCOLLEGIATE NOTES.

Chicago has held a competitive trial for the selection of a drawing of the college seal. All designs bearing the lamp were rejected as it was thought that it would suggest Standard Oil.

Yale football authorities propose building a permanent stadium of steel, to take the place of the present wooden stands. They propose building it in the shape of an arc, and have part of it covered. The baseball diamond will be laid out on the same ground, and the stadium used during the baseball season.

Constitution of the Trinity College German Club.

Article I. The name of this organization shall be the "Trinity College German Club."

Article II. The purpose of this organization shall be to give Germans and to further the best social interests of the college.

Article III. (a) Members shall be drawn from the student body. (b) The membership shall be limited to twenty-five. If possible six shall be added each year.

Officers.

Article IV. (a) The president shall preside at meetings of the club and shall appoint meetings and committees. (b) The secretary-treasurer shall not be a member of the senior class. He shall keep the minutes of meetings, manage the finances of the club and make a report at the close of his term of office.

Elections.

Article V. (a) Election of officers shall be held at the last meeting before the last German of the year. (b) Election of members shall be by ballot, three-fourths of the votes cast being sufficient for election. (c) Members may be elected at any meeting of the club provided a notice of such action be posted on the bulletin board at least one week before the meeting. (d) Candidates for the club must hand their names to the Secretary-treasurer, who shall report them to the standing committee. (e) No member shall be permitted to vote by proxy in transacting any of the business of this club. (f) Two-thirds of the members of the club shall constitute a quorum.

Article VI. (a) Amendments to this constitution shall be by four-fifths vote, notice of the amendment having been given at a meeting at least one week before the time of action. (b) Two copies of it at least shall be existent, held by the two officers of the club. (c) The president shall read the Constitution and By-laws aloud at the beginning of each college term.

THE BY-LAWS.

Germans.

Article I. Six Germans shall be given each year. They shall be led by the older members of the club.

Committees.

Article II. (a) The standing committee shall be elected by the club at the beginning of each college year. The president shall be its chairman, and the committee shall consist of three other members, including the secretary-treasurer of the club. (b) This committee shall make a report on the name of each candidate for the club. (c) The committee shall choose the leaders for the Germans, and shall assign the date for each German, subject to change by a majority of the club.

Article III. (a) At the last meeting of each college year a committee of four alumni shall be chosen by the club. (b) This committee shall meet with the undergraduate members of the club at a meeting previous to the first German of each year to discuss the policy for the ensuing season.

Dues.

Article IV. The dues of the club shall consist of: (a) Five dollars each college term, payable to the secretary-treasurer before the first German of each term. (b) One round of favors each term, payable to the leader of some German, at a time to be assigned by the standing committee. (c) An initiation fee payable at a time to be fixed by the committee. (d) Neglect to pay any moneys when due shall cause the forfeiture of the membership, and the name of the delinquent shall be stricken from the role of the club. Furthermore, a three-fourths vote shall be necessary for reinstatement.

Article V. Fees from graduate members: (a) One dollar for each German attended with a partner. (b) Three dollars for each German attended without a partner. (c) All fees shall be payable to the secretary-treasurer.

Non-Members.

Article VI. (a) Non-members of the club may be invited to attend a German, preferably the Junior or the Senior week German, by the standing committee at the request of a member of the club. But no non-member shall be invited to attend more than two Germans during one college year. (b) Fees from such non-members shall be two dollars for each German attended with a partner; and three dollars for each German attended without a partner. (c) Such fees shall be payable to the secretary-treasurer at least two days before the date of the German.

Article VII. Amendments to these by-laws shall be by four-fifths vote, notice of the amendment having been given at a meeting at least one week before the time of action.

LECTURE BY DR. HENRY C. MCCOOK.

On Wednesday afternoon at 3:45, Dr. Henry C. McCook delivered an informal lecture before the Natural History students.

He gave those who attended a very good idea of the practical side of the study of spiders. He showed how all spiders could be divided into two main groups, the sedentary and the wandering, and that each of these groups are divided in several classes, each class receiving its name from the shape of the web, or the manner of catching prey.

Dr. McCook told very interestingly and clearly the facts about the wonderful spinning organs of the spider and answered many questions asked by the students in regard to it.

BASE BALL TEAM.

Practice Has Now Begun in Earnest.

Every afternoon the candidates for the baseball team turn out for practice at 3:45 o'clock. The total number of candidates who have appeared now amounts to twenty-nine. The men in college who played on last year's team are as follows: Capt. John F. Powell '06, s. s.; Owen Morgan '06, c. f.; William C. Burwell '06, 2d b.; Oliver W. Badgeley '07, p., and M. Stuart Dravo '07, c.

Captain Powell wishes it understood that all the places on the team are open, and no man will play, no matter how good he is, unless he reports faithfully for practice. Powell may play third base this year if a good short stop be developed. The following is a list of the candidates up to date:

Burwell '06, Marlor '06, Morgan '06, Powell '06, Badgeley '07, Cunningham '07, Dougherty '07, Dravo '07, Fallow '07, Ferguson '07, Myers '07, Off '07, Corbett '08, Hyde '08, McGuyer '08, Morris '08, Randall '08, Trumbull '08, Buchanan '09, L. G. Carpenter '09, Coleman '09, Connor '09, Goodrich '09, Hinkel '09, Maxson '09, Morrow '09, Rich '09, Stafford '09, Xanders '09.

CLASS DAY OFFICERS.

There will be a meeting of the Senior Class at 1.20 p. m. on Monday next, in the Latin Room. The purpose of this meeting is to determine the method of electing Class-Day officers. Last year's class elected a president and treasurer by vote of the entire class and then a committee was appointed consisting of one man from each fraternity, to make two or three nominations for each of the other officers. These nominations were then voted upon by the class as a body. President Gateson desires every 1906 man to attend this meeting, in order that the best method of electing may be adopted. The following officers are usually chosen for class day: President, Orator, Poet, Statistician, Presenter, Historian and Treasurer.

The Trinity Tripod

Published Tuesdays and Fridays in each week of the college year by students of Trinity College.

The columns of THE TRIPOD are at all times open to Alumni, Undergraduates and others for the free discussion of matters of interest to Trinity men. To aid in this purpose THE TRIPOD mail box has been placed in the section entrance of Middle Jarvis.

All communications, or material of any sort for Tuesday's issue must be in the TRIPOD box before 10 p.m. on Sunday; for Friday's issue before 10 a.m. on Thursday.

TO ALUMNI.

THE TRIPOD is published for the Alumni even more than for the Undergraduates. With this in mind we are striving to produce a paper which shall be interesting and necessary to Graduates, and also to reach as large a number as possible. We are very largely dependent on the Alumni both for our moral and financial support. If you are not already a subscriber will you kindly give this matter your attention?

"NOW THEN—TRINITY!"

EDITORIAL.

A week from to-morrow is the birthday of a national apostle which the college body never fails to commemorate. It is difficult to say just why these rites of commemoration started, but when once begun enthusiasm increased from year to year, until we have a delightful college custom to perpetuate and one that should by no means be abolished.

But there are three things that are often done on St. Patrick's day that we can do without. There is no reason why a freshman in his enthusiasm for his class should paint his numerals on some citizen's property. His enthusiasm will be more efficient if he uses it in putting up his class flag on the campus.

The parade at night is not indulged in by a majority of the college body, for after a man has been in it once he has but little desire to repeat the performance. Since it is not supported by a majority of the college body, this rite could well be dispensed with.

And last, it is needless to say, that no part of the contest for the possession of the class flag should occur in any of the buildings. There is a place in the ceiling of Alumni Hall where one man nearly fell through. He was saved in the nick of time and played a good football game during the three remaining years of his course.

With these three things eliminated St. Patrick's day would be improved.

LECTURE BY PROF. BRENTON.

The first of the series of Lenten lectures before the Seabury Club was given in St. James' church, Tuesday evening, by Prof. Brenton. The general topic of the course of lectures is the seaside parables of Christ as found in the Thirteenth chapter of St. Matthew's gospel.

The special text for the evening was: "The kingdom of heaven is like unto leaven, which a woman took and hid in three measures of meal 'till the whole was leavened."

The second lecturer will be the Rev. Dr. George M. Christian, of New York, who will speak on "The Parable of the Sower."

SPECIAL MUSICAL SERVICE.

Next Sunday afternoon there will be a musical service in the chapel of a more elaborate character than usual. A quartet from the Glee Club will sing, composed of Gateson '06, first tenor; Cunningham '07, second tenor; Chandler '09, bass; and R. P. Butler, 2d bass.

Mr. William B. Davis, the Glee Club trainer, will furnish the organ music.

NOTES.

President Luther is reported as being well and enjoying a successful western trip.

Professor Ferguson will preach in Rockville on Sunday evening.

During Lent the Rev. Professor Merrill is preaching at Trinity Church, New Haven, every Sunday night.

The Rev. Prof. Cranston Brenton is giving a course of addresses every Thursday afternoon in Lent at Trinity Church, New Haven. His subject is "The Prophets."

Last Monday evening the Mandolin Club played before the Union for Home Work on Market street and were very cordially received.

On Tuesday evening the Glee Club gave a concert at the Tuberculosis Hospital on Cedar Mountain. Eight or ten pieces were sung and dancing followed.

The erection of the new base ball bleachers will be commenced very soon. Improvements are to be made also on the diamond itself and the old grandstand. We shall have a first class base ball field when the season begins.

Annual Indoor Track meet will probably be held next Thursday evening, March 15th, in the gymnasium.

A meeting of the Debating Club was held in the History Room last night. The following officers have recently been elected: President, Phillip Everett Curtiss, 1906; Secretary, Francis Joseph Corbett, 1908.

WANTED: Material for the 1907 IVY. Every man in college should hand in some work for this book. "Come early and avoid the rush."

HARTFORD SOCIAL SETTLE- MENT.

Annual Meeting Held Wednesday Afternoon.

The annual meeting of the Hartford
Social Settlement was held Wednesday afternoon in Jewell Hall. An interesting address was made by Miss Elizabeth H. Haight of New York, on "New Social Ideals." Very favorable reports on the local work were read.

Rev. James Goodwin opened the meeting with prayer. Miss Mary Graham
Jones, the headworker of the Settlement, said that much good has been done the past year and that the Settlement was much cramped for room for the clubs and classes.

On the newly elected Board of Managers are Rev. Henry Ferguson and Walter S. Schutz.

The course covering four years begins the last week in September and continues until June.
A preliminary training in natural science is of great advantage. All the classes are divided into small sections for recitations, laboratory and clinical bedside instruction. Students are admitted to advanced standing after passing the requisite examinations. The successful completion of the first year in any College or University recognized by the Regents of the State of New York as maintaining a satisfactory standing is sufficient to sat-been raised. The annual announcement giving full par-

The Connecticut Mutual Life Insurance Company,

HARTFORD, CONN.,

Why should I insure my life?

Because it is a debt you owe to those who are dependent upon your earnings for their support.

You admit that it is your duty to supply their needs from day to day, but forget that it is equally your duty to provide an ever ready and sufficient equivalent for your earning power, which your family stands in constant jeopardy to lose by your premature death.

Guard your family against disaster and yourself against dependency in old age.

When should I insure my life?

Now! The cost will never be less, and tomorrow you may not be able to obtain insurance at any price.

Even if others are not now dependent upon you, take time by the forelock and you will be the better able to meet future responsibilities, and at a smaller premium.

Where shall I insure my life?

In a purely Mutual Company. In a company that earns, declares, and pays annual dividends. In a company that is doing a conservative business.

Such a Company is The Connecticut Mutual Life Insurance Company of Hartford, Conn. It furnishes perfect protection at lowest cost.

For further information, address the Company, or any of its agents.
