TRINITY 1—"AGGIES" 1.

Exciting 10-Inning Contest—Badgley Pitches Superb Game.

The 'varsity's second home game of this year's series was played with the Massachusetts Agricultural College on Trinity field, Wednesday afternoon—score 1 to 1. As the tally indicates, the game was an excellent exhibition of ball playing by both teams. Although the weather was anything but favorable for a good game, the fair sized crowd that was present was more than rewarded by the home team's able playing. It was virtually a victory for Trinity; the visitors were outbatted and outpitched, while the fielding was about even.

The splendid showing of the team was greatly due to Badgley's masterly pitching; he not only brought in the tying run but had a long string of strike outs, eleven in all. His control was excellent, his most effective ball being a wide out curve, and this with his change of speed, completely fooled the visitors—the nine that defeated the 'varsity last season. Badgley was well supported by Cunningham. Although the visitors made no hits, their pitcher, Kennedy, kept his head; time and time again men would reach third and there he would retire the side.

The game started at 4 o'clock with Trinity taking the field. The side was retired in one, two, three order, Donnelly capturing a difficult foul fly from first. The Aggies in turn quickly retired the 'varsity, a double play by Clark to Shattuck being the feature.

Xanders opened the second inning with a clean two base hit in deep center-field. He was put out on third by Connor's grounder to short stop. Donnelly struck out.

In the third inning the first three men to face Badgley were struck out, not being able to connect with the ball. In Trinity's half, Cunningham walked after Randall's strike out and was forced at second on Badgley's attempted sacrifice. Morgan was out on a foul fly to catcher.

Mass. Aggies scored their first and only run in the fourth. O'Grady made first on an error, stole second and third, and scored on a muffed third strike by Cunningham. The other three men struck out. The inning was closed by Burwell, Powell and Xanders being fielded out in quick succession.

In the fifth inning, French got to first on an error by Randall and was left over as the visitors' next three men were shut out on a ground ball to Burwell and two more strike outs by Badgley. For the 'varsity, Connor was out on a short grounder. Donnelly and Randall struck out.

The first half of the sixth was soon over as the visitor's first three men on the batting list were disposed of in quick succession. Cunningham was first at bat for the home team, getting out on a ground ball well handled by O'Donnell. Badgley walked and was advanced when Morgan received his base, being hit by a pitched ball. Badgley got to third on Burwell's sacrifice and scored on a timely single by Powell between first and second. The inning closed by Xanders being out on a fly to third—score 1 to 1.

Both teams, in the seventh, shut out each other in rapid order. The visitors' first three men were disposed of, and Connor, for Trinity, was at bat. He was out on a short ball to third, and was succeeded by Randall, who followed his predecessor by an infield ball. Donnelly struck out.

The eighth inning resulted in no more tallies for the Aggies, O'Donnell flying out to Morgan, Hubbard out on first, and O'Grady out by a fly into short left field, caught by Capt. Powell. Trinity came near scoring again; Morgan being hit by pitched ball and advanced to third by Badgley's hit and Burwell's sacrifice. The Massachusetts pitcher steadied down, however, and the side was retired on a grounder by Powell to Shattuck.

In the ninth, once more the visiting batters were quickly retired and Trinity came to bat resolved to finish the game then and there. But no such luck. Xanders failed to reach first. Connor placed a neat two base hit in right field which raised the hopes of scoring, but these were soon blasted. The inning closed by Randall striking out and Cobb's fine fielding of Donnelly's grounder.

Mass. Aggies still failed to solve Badgley's delivery in the tenth and it looked as if, with Trinity's heavy end of the batting list up, the winning tally would yet be scored. Cunningham was out on first, followed by Badgley. Morgan then made a splendid effort, placing a long hit good for two bases out in deep center. Burwell was unable to get a hit through the visiting team's well nigh invincible infield, and the side was retired. As was expected, the umpire then called the game for approaching darkness and inclemency of weather.

For Trinity, Badgley easily excelled, his pitching being excellent. He also made one of the five hits of the game. Morgan got on bases three times, once by a two base hit. Capt. Powell played a consistent game and was also ready with the hit that scored the tying run. For the visitors, Kennedy, the pitcher, did well, as also did the whole infield, showing excellent team work.

- Trinity defeated Holy Cross in their dual meet here to-day by the narrow margin of 45 $\frac{1}{2}$ to 44 $\frac{1}{2}$. Trinity's victory is due to the splendid condition of her men and to the faithful training which they have undergone, and to the efficient coaching of Mr. O'Connor.

The meet was very close and exciting, and at no time during the events was Trinity more than eleven points ahead. The meet was not decided until the last event. Here Holy Cross secured eight points while Trinity was credited with but one. The team seemed to be in very good shape and things begin to look brighter for a better showing in the Intercollegiate at Brookline next week.

PRESIDENT LUTHER'S RETURN.

His Address in Pittsburg.

Dr. Luther returned to college Wednesday after a week's absence. After a short stay in Ohio he went to Pittsburg, where he was the guest of Judge Buffington '75, of the United States court. On Monday evening he delivered an address before the students of the Carnegie Technical School. The "Pittsburg Post" gave a very complete account of Dr. Luther's speech, and in addition, published his photograph.

The "Pittsburg Dispatch" of the same day also printed a much briefer account of the address. This account follows:—

"Dr. F. S. Luther, president of Trinity College, Hartford, Conn., gave a very interesting talk last night to the students of the Carnegie Technical Schools in the assembly room of the school. At the conclusion of his address Dr. Luther was given a rousing ovation, after which the glee club sang several of the school songs. Dr. Luther's talk was on the advantages of education.

"Dr. Luther said that a student's ability was measured by what he accomplished and that civilization was what man had accomplished in the measuring of things. Growth consists, he said, in finding out how long, how wide and how heavy a thing is. Without it inventions would be nothing more than pleasing experiments. He then spoke of the division of the day into eight hours for work, eight hours for recreation and eight hours for sleep, and stated that through the advance of mechanical appliances the working days for the men in the shops would necessarily be shortened to even less than eight hours a day.

"Dr. Luther said education did not only show how to use the eight working hours to the best advantage, but also how to use the eight hours of leisure, in which all the trouble and all the mischief of the world was hatched, to the advantage and improvement of the world in general.

"The speaker mentioned the awful waste of intellectual forces of the present day and pointed out the fact that an infinitesimal percentage of the human race was taking advantage of education. He spoke of the different ways in which education affects different men. If it sets him aside from his fellows and places him above them, it is worthless, but if it gives an incentive to work for the advancement of the whole, it is a lasting blessing. He said an education should mean more responsibility and more work."

TO ALUMNI.

THE TRIPOD is published for the Alumni even more than for the Undergraduates. With this in mind we are striving to produce a paper which shall be interesting and necessary to Graduates, and also to reach as large a number as possible. We are very largely dependent on the Alumni both for our moral and financial support. If you are not already a subscriber will you kindly give this matter your attention?

"NOW THEN—TRINITY!"

EDITORIAL.

We are glad to see that the tennis courts are being repaired and that, judging from appearances, they will be ready for use in a short time. The Tennis Association has a very small membership, and, while the "Tripod" does not make an appeal to the students to support another association, still it most strongly advises all those who care for the game to join their own association instead of spending the same amount of money to play on the Pope Park or other courts.

Owing to lack of space the "Tripod" is unable to publish the letter of the Class of '98 in this issue, but we hope to have it appear in our next issue.

We extend hearty congratulations to our track team for their victory over the strong Holy Cross aggregation. The long and faithful training practiced by all the men has had its effect and has reaped for us the laurels of victory. Great praise is due to Captain Gateson for his efficient leadership and to Coach O'Connor for his excellent coaching. It is generally considered that Trinity's victory is due, in great part, to Mr. O'Connor's careful instruction, which has brought out in each man his best efforts. A circumstance which greatly encouraged the team on their arrival in Hartford last night was the gathering of the undergraduates to welcome the team, and to escort them to the college.

THIRD TRINITY GERMAN.

The German Club held the third german of the year in Alumni Hall on Tuesday evening. It was a very enjoyable affair and by far the most successful german that the club has given this year. The first half of the evening was taken up as a regular dance and the second half as a german led by H. G. Barbour '06. Scott Snow's orchestra furnished excellent music as usual. During the intermission refreshments were served in the gymnasium.

The chaperones were Mrs. Flavel S. Luther and Mrs. E. T. Merrill. Those present were: W. S. Schutz '94 with Miss Roberts, H. Burgwin '06 with Miss Hatch, F. C. Hinkel '06 with Miss Frisbie, H. G. Barbour '06 with Miss Chittenden, C. V. Ferguson '07 with Miss Howe, P. C. Bryant '07 with Miss Plummer, W. H. Licht '07 with Miss Stoughton, C. L. Trumbull '08 with Miss Flagg, W. R. PRACTICAL USES OF AN ALARM CLOCK.

Professor Honey has an article with this title in the "American Inventor" for May. The alarm clock can be used for opening any kind of a door at any hour, for adjusting the draught of a furnace, opening and shutting windows. Professor Honey applied his invention some years ago to the adjustment of the draught of the furnace in Trinity Church, New Haven, where the janitor now rises two hours later than before. (Note for Duffy!) Prof. Honey has previously described his invention in the "American Machinist," his article in which attracted wide attention in this country and in England.

TRACK PICTURES.

Pictures of various groups of the track team were taken on Tuesday afternoon and will appear, together with an article on our track athletics in next Sunday's "Globe." The sprinters occupied one group, the hurdlers another, all the jumpers were put in a third, and the distance runners in a fourth.

POLITICAL CLUB ORGANIZED.

Several students met Tuesday evening to form a political club. The object of this club is to discuss political subjects, with speakers for each meeting. The officers are: President, F. A. G. Cowper; Vice-president, H. L. Thompson; treasurer, A. D. Haight; secretary, J. A. Furrer.

TRIBUTE TO TWO PRISONERS.

By Judge Buffington '75.

The same issue of the "Pittsburg Post," that has been referred to in other columns of this paper, also prints an article regarding Judge Buffington '75, accompanied by a very good likeness of this loyal Trinity man. Below his photograph are the following words:—

"His faith in mankind was increased when men he released upon promise to report for sentence appeared."

The article states that six months ago two prisoners were convicted of passing a counterfeit dollar and were brought before Judge Buffington for sentence. He allowed them to depart from the court room and ordered them to return in six months for sentence. This they did, and Monday, when their names were called, both appeared. The "Post" says in conclusion:—

"With a smile Judge Buffington said he was pleased to see them there, as they promised to be. He said he had faith in them and their act proved to the court they were not bad at heart. In conclusion Judge Buffington said:

'I have ordered the district attorney to dismiss your case and you are therefore free. May you never get into trouble again. You may now go.'

Both thanked the court and left the room."

The Connecticut Mutual Life Insurance Company,

HARTFORD, CONN.,

Why should I insure my life?

Because it is a debt you owe to those who are dependent upon your earnings for their support.

You admit that it is your duty to supply their needs from day to day, but forget that it is equally your duty to provide an ever ready and sufficient equivalent for your earning power, which your family stands in constant jeopardy to lose by your premature death.

Guard your family against disaster and yourself against dependency in old age.

When should I insure my life?

Now! The cost will never be less, and tomorrow you may not be able to obtain insurance at any price.

Even if others are not now dependent upon you, take time by the forelock and you will be the better able to meet future responsibilities, and at a smaller premium.

Where shall I insure my life?

In a purely Mutual Company. In a company that earns, declares, and pays annual dividends. In a company that is doing a conservative business.

Such a Company is The Connecticut Mutual Life Insurance Company of Hartford, Conn. It furnishes perfect protection at lowest cost.

For further information, address the Company, or any of its agents.
