TUFTS DEFEATS TRINITY.

Good Game Except For One Inning
—Score 6 to 3.

Several wretched errors on Trinity's part in the sixth inning, were the chief factors in allowing Tufts to win an otherwise well played game Saturday on Trinity field. Trinity up to the sixth was ahead of Tufts by one run and seemed in a fair way of winning the game. Xanders was in the box, Badgely being held for the Lehigh game Wednesday, was pitching fine ball and had the Tufts men fanning the air in great style. In the sixth, however, with one man out, Randall started the ball rolling by fumbling McConnell's grounder. This was followed in quick succession with errors by Powell, Cunningham and Connor, a hit and a base on balls off of Xanders. During this unexpected slump on Trinity's part, the men from Tufts had scored five runs, making the score 6 to 2. Xanders made a game effort to stop Tufts' scoring and finally retired the side on strikeouts.

Aside from this one poor inning, the game was an interesting one. Watson, Tufts' first pitcher, had his spit ball under perfect control, and although the balls looked large as balloons, Trinity's batters could not land but one safe hit. Tufts, too, had her difficulties with Xanders, making eight hits, no two of which were bunched, and having nine strikeouts.

Burwell robbed Tufts of one hit by pulling down a low, swift liner from Galligher's bat. Donnelly also fielded has position well, making a double play unassisted at a critical point in the game. For Tufts, the work of Watson was very commendable, and this may be said of the catcher, Sutor, who after making a costly wild throw in the first inning, played an excellent game. The game in detail follows:

Tufts came to the bat first and retired one batter after another, on a strikeout, an infield fly to Powell and a grounder to second base. For Trinity, Morgan waited and took first on a base on balls. Burwell laid a neat bunt in front of the pitcher and reached first, advancing Morgan. Powell sacrificed, Morgan reaching third. After Xander's out, Sutor made a wild throw to first after miffing Connor's third strike and Morgan and Burwell scored. Marlor was out to the pitcher and Trinity took the field.

In the second Tufts made one run. McConnell struck out, then Galligher took first on a base on balls. Priest struck out, and Fisher walked. Then Clapp knocked a hard single to short right field and Galligher scored the only earned run of the game. Watson struck out. For Trinity Donnelly was fielded out, Randall struck out and Cunningham was out on a grounder to second base.

With Tufts' heavy end of the batting order up in the third, there was no scoring, but one man reaching first. In Trinity's half Morgan did the unexpected and fell a victim to Watson's spit ball; the next batters placed the ball right in Watson's hands, more results of the spit ball.

Galligher opened up the fourth by a rap to Burwell who made the feature catch of the game and put him out. Randall captured hard grounders from the next two batters, and the side was retired. Trinity could do no better, only three men facing Watson this inning.

Tufts, in the fifth, were still unable to connect with Xander's swift balls and the spectators now felt sure of seeing a close contest.

In the sixth, however, came the disappointment. Sutor the first man up for Tufts knocked a clean single to right field. Then Roper was struck out. McConnell got to first on Randall's error, Sutor coming around to third. Powell fumbled Galligher's grounder and Sutor and McConnell scored. A single advanced Galligher and then Connor muffed Fisher's easy fly to left field, letting in two runs. Clapp walked and Cunningham failed to catch Watson's third strike, another score being recorded. The side was finally retired after Clapp had scored, on a strikeout by Sutor. Trinity could not get around the bases in her half.

In the seventh, however, one run resulted. Connor walked to first and after a daring steal to second scored, while Cunningham, Donnelly and Randall went out. The feature of the seventh inning was a double play by Donnelly. Roper was on first and started for second when McConnell hit a foul well behind first base. Donnelly made a difficult catch and ran back to tag first, thus doubling up Roper who was too late in coming back from second.

Both sides went out in order in the eighth. In the ninth inning Trinity could not raise her score. Badgely, with two out, was sent to the bat, and received hearty and enthusiastic applause, but Clapp put him out by taking a rather difficult foul fly.

TRINITY-UNION TRACK MEET.

Trinity closes her track season with the annual meet at Schenectady to-morrow. The team is to arrive in Schenectady, Tuesday night and is to be entertained at the college.

Last year Trinity won the meet with comparative ease and after its victory over Holy Cross at Worcester, May 10th, and very strong showing at the New England Intercollegiate meet, the Hartford men feel confident of success.

Faculty regulations and unfortunate accidents crippled the team during the first part of the season, but by hard work and good coaching the squad was worked rapidly into shape and a strong team will wear the old gold and blue on the field Wednesday.

Captain Gateson, Trinity's hundred yard man, is not in his usual form owing to a broken arm resulting from basketball. He is still a strong man, as was shown in the trials at Brookline.

Olmsted and Roberts should do well in the high jump for they have shown remarkable form under O'Connor's coaching.

Taylor has made the greatest improvement of any member of the team this year. He was picked to win the quarter against Dartmouth and only lost it through an unfortunate accident.

Morris, our long distance man, is running a very strong race. Last year he took two seconds and this year is looked to for first places. He is a natural runner and can always be counted on to finish strong.

H. Pond, Curtiss, Olmstead and Cadman will be hard men to pass in the hurdles. All have taken places in their events and are counted on to bring in points.

Maxson and Collins will take care of the weight events. The former only recently started work at the hammer and has thrown it for enough over one hundred feet to be counted on for a place.

There are a number of men, who will take part in the meet that are "unknowns." They have been carefully trained by Coach O'Connor and have been developed for the meet.

The contest is looked forward to by the two colleges with a great deal of interest. Both teams are strong and the feeling, though keen, is that of sportsmen. A number of Trinity men expect to go up with the team and lend their vocal support.

A. A. NOMINATING COMMITTEE MEETS.

The nominating committee met Monday evening at 81 Vernon street for the purpose of nominating officers for the Athletic Association, 1906-07.

The following men were nominated: President, G. A. Cunningham, secretary-treasurer, Paul M. Butterworth, J. Oliver Morris and Harvey C. Pond.

A. C. Coburn ex-'07 was the over-Sunday guest of friends at college.

"THE MAYOR OF WARWICK."

Communication by Prof. Johnson.

The following letter appeared in a recent issue of the "Hartford Courant"; To the Editor of "The Courant":

I read your rather severe strictures on Mr. Hopkins' novel, "The Mayor of Warwick," some time ago, and since reading the book it seems to me you were a bit severe. It may not be exactly pleasant to find out that "a chiel was among us taking notes," and perhaps it is not quite fair for a writer to make literary material of stories he picks up in a community which received him kindly, but in the dearth of matter to make a book what can a man do but "combine his information?" Furthermore, the man in the book who forecloses on the president—without any valid mortgage—is not in the least like our dear and honored Colonel Greene. It seems to me that we Hartford people ought to be very glad that Mr. Hopkins possesses none of the gift of humor. Supposing he had a drop of the vitriol of Dickens on his pen and had called you "Jefferson Brick," and Senator Bulkeley "Colonel Pegram" and me "Professor Mullett"—of course it is out of the question to suppose that we possess any of the features of the Chuzzlewit heroes, but suppose he had caricatured us even slightly, we should have reason to "sit up" more in anger than in sorrow. But as it is, Hartford's "withers are unwrung."

The only person who might possibly take offense is that corporate entity Trinity College. To be represented as putting an astronomical dome on the top of a Gothic tower, when, to say nothing of the breach of architectural propriety, every passing wagon would jar the instruments out of adjustment is hard enough to bear from the scientific standpoint. But to be represented as a hotbed of ecclesiastical politics is harder to bear, since the imputation is untrue and the very suggestion of it has been vigorously resented by the college for twenty years and more. To represent an attractive young woman, half married and half not—visiting one of the bachelor professors without a chaperone after 6 p. m. is, to say the least, in questionable taste and reflects on the characters of a meritorious and modest set of young men. From an observation of a quarter of a century I venture to say that under such circumstances, even were the young lady the daughter of a mere clergyman and not of a bishop, the bachelor professor would have been dreadfully alarmed and have telephoned for a chaperone at once and have upset the plot completely.

"The Mayor of Warwick" contains with much that is absolutely unnatural, some admirable bits of description and the undefinable element called atmosphere. Nobody need take offense except Trinity College and the impossible daughters of impossible bishops. As the ingenuous youth of the day phrase it, "they have a kick coming." The rest of us can continue in our usual self-complacency. Yours apologetically,

C. F. J.

The Trinity Tripod

Published Tuesdays and Fridays in each week of the college year by students of Trinity College.

The columns of THE TRIPOD are at all times open to Alumni, Undergraduates and others for the free discussion of matters of interest to Trinity men. To aid in this purpose THE TRIPOD mail box has been placed in the section entrance of Middle Jarvis. All communications, or material of any sort for Tuesday's issue must be in the Tripod box before 10 p.m. on Sunday; for Friday's issue before 10 a.m. on Thursday.

Entered as second class matter Nov. 29, 1904, at the Post Office, at Hartford, Conn.

TO ALUMNI.

THE TRIPOD is published for the Alumni even more than for the Undergraduates. With this in mind we are striving to produce a paper which shall be interesting and necessary to Graduates, and also to reach as large a number as possible. We are very largely dependent on the Alumni both for our moral and financial support. If you are not already a subscriber will you kindly give this matter your attention?

"NOW THEN—TRINITY!"

EDITORIAL.

To-morrow will be a busy day along athletic lines for Trinity teams. The 'varsity base ball team left this afternoon for Bethlehem to play Lehigh University. The track team has gone to Schenectady to compete with Union in their annual dual meet and the second team will play Wesleyan Academy at Wilbraham.

The Trinity-Lehigh game is considered by Lehigh men to be their most important game of the season. This is evidenced by the fact that the Pennsylvania University preferred to play Trinity on Decoration day instead of scheduling a game with Lafayette or U. of P., as has been the custom in former years. It will undoubtedly be a good game.

The track meet at Schenectady with Union will be close and exciting, but it is thought that the old gold and blue will again be victorious. In another column the records which have been established in former Trinity-Union dual meets are published. It will be interesting to compare these statistics with the records of to-morrow's meet.

The second team plays the strong Wesleyan Academy to-morrow, and it is expected that we will defeat our opponents if our team plays the good game which it has been putting up in the last few contests. To them all the "Tripod" extends its best wishes, with the sincerest hope that it will, indeed, be a Trinity Day.

COMMUNICATION.

The Editor of the "Tripod":

Dear Sir:—Let the critics criticize. But the "Mayor of Warwick" is a good book and those who know Dr. Hopkins are proud of him.

But why all this talk and comment concerning the exactness of details? Why this protest that either Hartford or Trinity or any individual is slandered? Surely this is no history. It is only a story,, and if Hartford and Trinity are the setting with some of our personal friends as the jewels, so much the better for them. If the shoe pinches somewhere, and we discern a little truth being squeezed out, is it not better to profit by the knowledge than to spend time arguing as to the proportions of truth and error exposed. And if there is no truth at all, then, at least, we know what to avoid.

For my part I found the impossible daughter of an impossible bishop interesting. I found the descriptions given to be an expression of my own feeling, and the atmosphere of the book not to be so very unreal after all. It is a good atmosphere in reality, and tingles one's imaginative nostrils in the reading.

Perhaps the young lady was indiscreet, as Dr. Johnson suggests, but remember, also, that she was no stranger to the dear old walls, and must have felt at home. Besides, she put her trust in Trinity men, God bless her, and was safe.

The book is not meant to be read with an eye to the error in poets, but to be enjoyed as a story, and surely Dr. Hopkins has given what will be a pleasure to all Trinity men.

ALUMNUS.

COMMUNICATION.

The following letter was received yesterday from Howard Richards, Jr., who was a recent visitor at the college: To the Editor of the "Tripod":

Your issue of May 8th has a good account of the needs of Boone College, Wuchang, China. One might, however, infer from the article that specialists were the only men needed at Boone College. The growth of Boone College has been and seems sure to be a rapid one. It is fair to say that any good man who is qualified to teach along almost any line of modern study and really wants to help in this time of need and special opportunity in China can find a place at Boone College. One man has already sent in his application blank. Five more men are needed. It is earnestly hoped that many Trinity men will apply for these positions as soon as possible.

"TABLET" BOARD MEETING.

The "Tablet" Board will meet Friday, June 1st, at 6:30 p. m., in 13 J. H. to consider material for the eleventh number, to hear reports of officers, and to elect the new members of the Board for the coming year. A full attendance is desired.

NOTES.

Dr. Luther last week addressed twelve hundred boys in the large auditorium of the Brooklyn High School, Brooklyn, N. Y. Trinity is at present represented by three graduates from this high school.

Judge Buffington's possible nomination for governor of Pennsylvania seems still to be a possibility according to recent issues of Pittsburg papers. The "Tripod" has no knowledge of the judge's attitude in the matter, but we all know he would make a very good governor.

Last Saturday Dr. Luther presided at a meeting of the Connecticut State Educational Council.

The course covering four years begins the last week in September and continues until June.

A preliminary training in natural science is of great advantage. All the classes are divided into small sections for recitations, laboratory and clinical bedside instruction. Students are admitted to advanced standing after passing the requisite examinations. The successful completion of the first year in any College or University recognized by the Regents of the State of New York as maintaining a satisfactory standing is sufficient to satisfy the requirements for admission which have lately been raised. Why should I insure my life?

Because it is a debt you owe to those who are dependent upon your earnings for their support.

You admit that it is your duty to supply their needs from day to day, but forget that it is equally your duty to provide an ever ready and sufficient equivalent for your earning power, which your family stands in constant jeopardy to lose by your premature death.

Guard your family against disaster and yourself against dependency in old age.

When should I insure my life?

Now! The cost will never be less, and tomorrow you may not be able to obtain insurance at any price.

Even if others are not now dependent upon you, take time by the forelock and you will be the better able to meet future responsibilities, and at a smaller premium.

Where shall I insure my life?

In a purely Mutual Company. In a company that earns, declares, and pays annual dividends. In a company that is doing a conservative business.

Such a Company is The Connecticut Mutual Life Insurance Company of Hartford, Conn. It furnishes perfect protection at lowest cost.
