FRESHMAN-JUNIOR BANQUET.

Seven Freshmen Captured.

As was stated in the last issue, the Freshman-Junior Banquet was held in the Elton at Waterbury, Monday night. On account of the lateness of the occasion, the full account could not be printed then and it is therefore published in this issue.

The Freshmen had hoped to fool the Sophomores as to where they were to have their dinner, but failed in this and a strong force of 1909 men were in town last night, ready to catch any Freshmen they found straying about the streets. They were out bright and early this morning and captured four who had struck town before their classmates, previously arrived, were up and able to protect them from capture or attempt a rescue. These were Steele, Gabler, Gamerdinger and Clark. three who had declined yesterday to go back on their parole, Sturgis Harmon, Edward T. Langford and William E. Larned, were brought here under guard and all were kept at the Connecticut Hotel.

After the arrival of the 6:48 train from Hartford, the Freshmen who had been guarded all day at the Center street hostelry were reinforced by three more. The list of the Freshmen who were sent into the banquet decorated with orange and black, the Sophomore class colors and also various signs, Charles M. Gamerdinger, Bloomfield; David William Clark, Rose Bud Agency, S. D.; Edward Gabler, Brooklyn, N. Y.; Edward Thomas Langford, Yonkers, N. Y.; William Edwin Larned, West Point, N. Y.; Sturgis Harmon, Chicago; William Nelson, Woodstock, When the Freshmen had passed into the hotel the Sophomores gave their class yell for 1908 and 1910 after which the Juniors and Sophomores joined in Trin" for the banquet. As usual the greatest friendliness was displayed and the occasion will form pleasant remembrances for all concerned.

The menu at the banquet was as follows:

Rum Punch Martini Cocktails Cape Cods

Creme d'Asparagus aux Croutons
Olives Almonds, salted Celery
Fried Smelts, Sauce Tartar
Potatoes Elton

Tenderloin of Beef, Fresh Mushrooms Green Peas

Broiled Chicken on Toast Fried Sweet Potatoes. Lettuce and Tomato Salad Neapolitan Ice Cream

Neapolitan Ice Cream
Crackers Coffee Cheese
Music

The committee which had charge of the banquet was composed of Wilbert A. Smith, chairman, Syracuse, N. Y.; Cyril B. Judge, New York City; Edward Langford, Yonkers, N. Y.; A. Spencer Murray, New York City; W. Carleton Rich, Melrose, Mass.; and Robert K. Skinner, Hartford.

Wilbert A. Smith '10 of Syracuse was toastmaster. The toasts and their mottoes were: Paul McMillan Butterworth '08, "The College." "To Old Trinity—All Honor and Glory." William Rich Cross '08, "The Faculty." "They Take Arms Against a Sea of Trouble." Charles Lamb Trumbull '08, "The Ladies." "God Bless Them." James Oliver Morris '08, "1910." "May She Increase in Wisdom and Strength." Marlin Taylor '08, "The Sophs." "Absence Makes the Heart Grow Fonder." Edwin Joseph Donnelly '08, "Athletics." "On to Victory." Harvey Clark Pond '08, "Advice to the Freshmen." "To Thine Own Self Be True." Cyril Bathurst Judge '10. "1908." "Faithful Friends and True."

All these toasts were well given and shortly before twelve the banquet broke

There have been many sensational accounts of some unfortunate episodes which occurred just after the Freshman-Junior banquet in Waterbury. The fact is that some damage was done in the railway station by men who were waiting in the cold for a special train which had been promised and was not furnished as agreed. Several students were taken into custody for supposed participation in the opening of the station door. The matter was very soon adjusted with the authorities and nothing took place which can justify the lurid headlines which have been printed in some of the newspapers. While all Trinity men regret the occurrence they deem it fair to themselves to say that they were guilty of no serious offense.

ADDRESSES OF GRADUATES.

It would be of great assistance to the "Tripod" if the addresses of any of the following graduates were sent to the circulation manager:

Hon. Horace J. Canfield '57. Rev. Prof. Chas. L. Fisher '60.

Mr. Robert Shaw '68. Mr. James T. Bowdish '73.

NEW YORK TIMES ON AP-POINTMENT OF E. L. PURDY '84.

The following editorial which appeared in the "New York Times," of November 10th, shows the general satisfaction which the appointment of E. L. Purdy '84 as President of the Department of Taxes and Assessments in New York City has occasioned:

"Mayor McClellan's choice of Mr. Lawson Purdy for President of the Department of Taxes and Assessments is quite out of the ordinary line of Executive appointments in this and other American cities, and has manifestly been dictated by considerations not of a political nature. The Mayor justly says that Mr. Purdy is an expert on tax problems. There is probably no more highly qualified expert in the State.

"Mr. Purdy is an advocate and expositor of sound theories of taxation. His publications upon the subject have been written with remarkable clearness and convincing force. They have been re-inforced by illustrations drawn from his long study of the subject. As Secretary of the New York Tax Reform Association Mr. Purdy has labored with industry and diligence to get it into the heads of the people of New York that their present tax laws are outworn, defective and unjust. The reputation he has won naturally led to his appointment by Gov. Higgins as a member of the State Special Tax Commission appointed to revise our tax laws.

"It may be said not only that Mayor McClellan was wisely guided in appointing Mr. Purdy, but that, granted Mr. Purdy's willingness to accept the office, it was almost of obligation that he should be named because of his eminent fitness for the place."

CLASS OF '81.

The class of '81 which celebrated its twenty-fifth anniversary last June, held a second dinner in New York on November 13th. This was done, hoping that some who were away in June might come. Three such were present, Gilberson, Perkins and Swenson, while five who were in Hartford last June also appeared, Grint, Mason, Newton, Washburn and White. A pleasant reunion was enjoyed, and the class is calling for a large attendance of '81 men at the Alumni Dinner of the New York Alumni Association which is to be held on December 10th.

ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION MEETING.

The regular fall meeting of the Athletic Association for the purpose of electing a manager and assistant manager of next year's football team will be held on Monday, November 26th, at 7 o'clock, in the Latin room.

The men whose names will be voted on are: For Manager, C. L. Trumbull '08; for Assistant Manager, Stratton Carpenter '09, Henry Goodrich '09 and Edward Elwell '09.

Score 6-6.

The Freshmen sprung a surprise on the Sophomores Thursday when they succeeded in holding the 1909 team down to but 6 points, scoring an equal amount themselves. With five 'varsity men representing the class the older men expected an easy victory. The Freshmen, however, gave a great display of team work, rallying around their captain Henshaw and showing clearly the disorganization of the Sophomores.

In the first half neither side scored, the Freshmen being unable to gain through their weightier opponents. And the Sophomores, though they had many chances, being completely unable to get away with the ball. Frequent exchange of punts between Maxson and Cook resulted, the advantage being in favor of Maxson who did excellent work in this respect.

In the second half, Eaton picked up the ball on the 20-yard line after a fumble and scored the first touchdown for 1910. After the kickoff, Roberts, by a cross-buck through tackle, ran 40 yards and evened things up by scoring, Rich kicking the goal.

For the Freshmen, Henshaw, the 'varsity end, was the main strength. Roberts, Mason and Reineman showed up well for 1909, and Captain Maxson played his usual game.

The lineup was as follows:-

1910		1909
Eaton	1 e	Rich
Steele	1t	Snow
Nelson-Kedney	1 g	Rosa-Plant
N. Ripley	c	Carpenter
Draper	rg	Livingston
McElroy-Nelson	r t	Geo. Buck
A. M. Smith	re	Reineman
W. D. Clark	1 h	P. Roberts
Henshaw	r h	Mason
H. Cook	f b	Maxson
Neff	q b	Dibble

Referee, Dougherty. Umpire, Donnelly. Timekeepers, Buths and Chamberlain. Linesmen, Goodrich '09 and H. Bassford '10. Touchdowns, Eaton and P. Roberts. Goals, H. Cook and Rich. 20 minute halves.

BASKETBALL.

Basketball practice is being held at 4:45 every afternoon at the gymnasium. It is the duty of every man in college who has ever played basketball before to come out and try for the team. The first game is with Yale on December 6th in this city. The management is at present unable to say whether the game will be played in the gymnasium at college or at the Y. M. C. A. building.

There was a meeting of the football team to-day at 12:45 at which next year's captain was elected.

There will be a meeting of the "Tablet" board at 6:45 to-night at 33 Jarvis Hall. Matters concerning the next issue will be discussed.

Published Tuesdays and Fridays in each week of the college year by students of Trinity College.

The columns of The Tripod are at all times open to Alumni, Undergraduates and others for the free discussion of matters of interest to Trinity men.

All communications, or material of any sort for Tuesday's issue must be in the Tripod box before 10 p.m. on Monday; for Friday's issue before 10 a.m. on Thursday.

Subscribers are urged to report promptly any serious irregularity in the receipt of the Tripod. All complaints and business communications should be addressed to the Circulation Manager.

TO ALUMNI.

THE TRIPOD is published for the Alumni even more than for the Undergraduates. With this in mind we are striving to produce a paper which shall be interesting and necessary to Graduates, and also to reach as large a number as possible. We are very largely dependent on the Alumni both for our moral and financial support. If you are not already a subscriber will you kindly give this matter your attention?

WOW. THEN-TRINITY!"

EDITORIAL.

An unpleasant fact, but one which should be brought forward, is that many men who agreed earlier in the season to join the Athletic Association have not done so. If they will only see that not only is it due the college and the fellows representing the college in athletics but it is also due themselves. to fulfill their promises, and if they do this by a little self-denial, probably that is too strong a word, all difficulties would be smoothed away.

Football season is now over. A very successful one it was and the prospect of an even more successful season next year is extremely good. But that is looking too far ahead. Yesterday reg-ular basketball practice started. The first game, which is with Yale, occurs in two weeks. Now, Captain Donnelly cannot make a winning team solely by his own efforts. He must have not only plenty of material, but also some of the enthusiasm which is due a good basketball team.

The Editor of the Trinity "Tripod,"

Dear Sir:-A rule has lately been passed by those in authority to the effect that all members of the college Glee Club shall be required to pay a deposit or entrance fee of five dollars on joining the club, and they shall be subject to various fines and assessments which may be levied during the year. Although I am not a member or even a possible candidate for membership in that body, I take the liberty, even at the risk of being told to "butt out," of expressing my disapproval of this action and of pointing out its injustice and some of the dangers which are more than likely to result from it.

I, myself, know of more than one instance in which candidates, after making the club, have felt that they must withdraw because of the unexpected expense incurred, and I know of several men with good voices who have not even tried for the club for the same reason. It seems absurd that men who have to spend so much of their time and energies in the support of a college organization of this sort should be required to pay a fee which they may not be able to afford. The members of the various athletic teams not only have all their expenses paid but are furnished with all necessary clothing. The members of the Glee Club do not ask that the college furnish them with dress suits and so forth, but they certainly have a right to expect that their incidental expenses, if not defrayed by concert receipts, should be borne by those members of the student body who are not able to support the club by their talent as singers.

A system of small fines for lateness and absences from rehearsals would not be harmful and might be necessary, but any further expenses ought to be made unnecessary by a generous subscription of the undergraduate body.

Very sincerely,

An Upperclassman.

The course covering four years begins the last week in September and continues until June.

A preliminary training in natural science is of great advantage. All the classes are divided into small sections for recitations, laboratory and clinical bedside instruction. Students are admitted to advanced standing after passing the requisite examinations. The successful completion of the first year in any College or University recognized by the Regents of the State of New York as maintaining a satisfactory standing is sufficient to satisfy the requirements for admission which have lately been raised. The annual announcement giving full particulars will be mailed on application.
