COLLEGE MEETING.

Financial Standing of the Athletic Association Discussed.

The first college meeting of the year was held last Friday in Alumni Hall. President Cunningham of the Senior class called the meeting to order at 7:15, stating that owing to illness Mr. Waterman could not be present as expected, but that Professor Kleene would read a letter which would state the object of the meeting. Professor Kleene then read a letter from Frank L. Wilcox '80, in which Mr. Wilcox had enclosed a check of $680 for the Athletic Association, on condition, that immediately upon the opening of college an undergraduate subscription of at least $385 be taken.

A loud applause followed the reading of the letter, after which short speeches were made by Professor Flynn, Mr. J. K. Davis, and W. R. Cross '08, manager of the baseball team. Professor Flynn spoke of the gift which has no precedent at Trinity and stated the minimum amount that he thought every student ought to give.

Mr. Davis, who for three years had charge of the finances of the Athletic Association, gave a brief account of the necessities of the teams and suggested that someone be appointed secretary to take the subscriptions. He further suggested that the list of the names of the men who subscribed, with the amount each subscribed, be posted on the bulletin board and the names crossed off the list as the amounts were paid.

The suggestion was put into the form of a motion and carried.

Pond '08, was appointed secretary and nearly $500 was pledged, about half of which was paid at the meeting.

A committee composed of the managers of the teams, with the presidents of the classes, was appointed to see those men not present at the meeting and find out how much they could give. The meeting closed with the singing of "Neath the Elms," and a "Trin" for Mr. Wilcox.

Since the meeting about $40 in addition has been subscribed.

PROSPECTS FOR THE WEST POINT GAME.

Next Saturday Trinity will play her first game on the football schedule, with West Point. Prospects for a successful season are unusually bright this fall, as anyone may observe by attending the daily practices on Trinity field. The enthusiasm of the squad, together with its growing members, are evidences of a promising team.

As to what the final score may be in Saturday's game, Captain Dougherty and Coach Landefeld are loathe to say. There is so much uncertainty brought about by the inexperience of the men, and the beginning of the season, that just what the score will be is extremely uncertain. Captain Dougherty intends to take a squad of about seven-teen on this Saturday's trip.

THE PUSH RUSH.

Freshmen Win Three Out of Four Closely Contested Rushes.

The annual "Bloody Monday" struggle between the Freshmen and Sophomores took place last evening at the accustomed place on the campus. This year the number of men engaged in the rush was greater than ever before, which fact made the affair of much more interest to the spectators.

At seven o'clock the college body gathered on the campus. The Seniors took the Sophomores in hand and soon had them drilled into proper form. The Juniors assembled the Freshmen and instructed them in the various essentials to a successful ending to the rush. After considerable drill, the Seniors, who were to act as judges, assembled beneath the electric light pole where the two classes were to meet.

At a signal from the Junior and Senior drill marshals, G. Cunningham dropped a white flag and the two classes started toward each other, slowly at first, but with increasing speed, till they met with a violent impact. The Sophomores gave back ever so little, but enough for the judges to award the decision to the Freshmen.

The two classes formed immediately for the second rush. The Freshmen, becoming a little too confident, proceeded with less care while the Sophomores were more determined than ever, with the result that the rush was awarded to 1909. The third rush was very evenly matched, both classes being determined to win. The rush ended in a tie. The last and deciding rush was plainly won by the Freshmen, whose slight advantage in numbers gave them a little advantage. The rushes were followed by many class yells, and much enthusiasm was shown.

At this time the fife and drum corps arrived on the scene. The college body formed in line as usual by classes, the Seniors preceding.

The march was then taken toward town with the drum corps at the head. A halt was called in front of Dr. Luther's house and several "Trins" were given. Dr. Luther responded with remarks befitting the occasion, at the close of which the march was resumed down Vernon and Washington streets to the capitol grounds. There, on the former site of Trinity College, the men sang "America" and "Neath the Elms."

From the capitol the procession continued down to Asylum street and thence to the Palm Garden, where each year the Freshmen do their best to entertain the upper classmen with refreshments and original wit. The freshmen succeeded in this attempt and thus came to a close the most eventful "Bloody Monday" the college has seen.

TO ALUMNI.

THE TRIPOD is published for the Alumni even more than for the Undergraduates. With this in mind we are striving to produce a paper which shall be interesting and necessary to Graduates, and also to reach as large a number as possible. We are very largely dependent on the Alumni both for our moral and financial support. If you are not already a subscriber will you kindly give this matter your attention?

"NOW THEN—TRINITY!"

EDITORIAL.

The heart of every Trinity man should be swelling with pride to think that our college has such an alumnus as Hon. Frank L. Wilcox '80, who, on Friday night, gave a large amount of money to clear the Athletic Association from debt. We should be doubly thankful, inasmuch as we would be able to carry on very little athletics this year without such a gift. The "Tripod" hereby most heartily thanks the Hon. Mr. Wilcox in behalf of the college, its undergraduates, and every alumnus.

THE BULLETIN BOARD RUSH.

The bulletin board rush was held yesterday afternoon as scheduled at 3:45. Long before the time, the Freshmen and Sophomores began collecting around Middle Jarvis to prepare the line-up.

The Sophomores grouped around the bulletin board, locking arms to keep their organization as intact as possible when the Freshmen should strike. Mason, McGinley, Maxson, L. G. Carpenter and Willoughby were stationed in front and when the Freshmen, who had formed a wedge rushed forward, these five men plunged in, mixing the column and lessening the impact.

After vainly endeavoring to break through the cordon, a Freshman tried to work his way over the heads of the men but was promptly despatched by Rich, who, following his example, from the shoulders of his classmates kept other 1910 men from trying the trick a second time.

Finally, several notices were posted by small freshmen who crawled through under the struggling bunch and stuck forth their hands in some vain and some successful attempts to touch the coveted goal.

The rush being declared over, the two classes met in a couple of hastily organized rushes, thus ending a bulletin board rush in which the Sophomores withstood the Freshmen very well till yielding to numbers and college tradition they were forced to desist.

The Connecticut Mutual Life Insurance Company,

HARTFORD, CONN.,

Why should I insure my life?

Because it is a debt you owe to those who are dependent upon your earnings for their support.

You admit that it is your duty to supply their needs from day to day, but forget that it is equally your duty to provide an ever ready and sufficient equivalent for your earning power, which your family stands in constant jeopardy to lose by your premature death.

Guard your family against disaster and yourself against dependency in old age.

When should I insure my life?

Now! The cost will never be less, and tomorrow you may not be able to obtain insurance at any price.

Even if others are not now dependent upon you, take time by the forelock and you will be the better able to meet future responsibilities, and at a smaller premium.

Where shall I insure my life?

In a purely Mutual Company.
In a company that earns, declares, and pays annual dividends.
In a company that is doing a conservative business.

Such a Company is The Connecticut Mutual Life Insurance Company of Hartford, Conn. It furnishes perfect protection at lowest cost.

For further information, address the Company, or any of its agents.
