

A SUCESSFUL CONCERT.

The Musical Clubs Well Received.

The concert and dance given by the Musical Clubs on Saturday evening, February 9th, was a decided success. The first number by the Glee Club, "Neath the Elms," was given the most enthusiastic applause. The college quartet, composed of G. Cunningham '07, Harmon '10, Chandler '09 and Skilton '08, rendered "Won't You be My Man" in a manner worthy of much credit. Chandler '09 sang "Jean." Mr. Chandler was in good voice and responded to the hearty applause, with Nevin's "Necklace of Love." Harmon '10 sang "Love's Dream," and as an encore, "Spring-time." This was Mr. Harmon's first appearance as a soloist before a Hartford audience and all were delighted with his voice and manner.

As an encore for the "Lemon Song," the Glee Club sang "Waltz Me Around Willie." This number caused much amusement as the singers, with their backs toward the audience, were grouped as if around a funeral bier. The song was sung very slowly, and many so-called eccleasical chords were introduced. The work of the Mandolin Club was very good, the "Magician" being especially well received.

There was a large audience present, among which were the Trinity professors and their wives and the many young ladies participating in the festivities of Junior Week.

After the concert dancing followed, Snow's orchestra furnishing the music.

The concert program was as follows:

- 1 College Song—"Neath the Elms"
Glee Club. Burgwin.
- 2 The Frost King.
Kenneth.
Mandolin Club.
- 3 Trinity College Quartet.

NOTES.

A double quartet from the Glee Club will give a concert at Lakeville this evening at the Taconic Girls' School. Messrs G. Cunningham, R. Cunningham, Chandler, Roberts, Harriman, Harmon, Xanders and J. S. Carpenter have gone on the trip.

There will be a basketball game Thursday evening February 14th at 8 P. M. in the gymnasium, between the 'varsity team and Battery A of C. N. G. of Brandford. A hard game is expected.

ALPHA DELTA PHI HOUSE PARTY AND TEA.

On Friday afternoon the members of Alpha Delta Phi fraternity held their annual tea at their lodge No. 122 Vernon street. The guests, consisting of the college faculty with their wives, upper classmen and many friends from the city, were received from four until six.

The patronesses were: Mrs. F. S. Luther, Mrs. Percy S. Bryant, Mrs. Henry A. Perkins, Mrs. John M. Brainard and Mrs. William H. Seward of Auburn, N. Y.

At the table in the dining room, presided in turn, Miss Laura Rich of Auburn, the guest of her brother, Frank Rich; Miss Clara M. Hathaway of Brooklyn, the guest of John C. Hart; Miss Beatrice Gates of Auburn, the guest of William R. Cross; Miss Winifred Saunders of New London, the guest of Ralph R. Wolfe; Miss Florence Licht of Geneva, the guest of her brother, William Licht; Miss Harriet Eastman, with Wells Eastman of St. Paul, Minn. A light collation of chocolate and coffee, sandwiches and cakes was served throughout the afternoon.

The tea initiated for the members of the Alpha Delta Phi fraternity a house party for which they have been preparing for some days. The ladies arrived in the morning and in due time to prepare for the tea. The party consists of six young ladies, Miss Laura Rich of Auburn, N. Y., Miss Clara M. Hathaway of Brooklyn, N. Y., Miss Florence Licht of Geneva, N. Y., Miss Winifred Saunders of New London, Miss Harriet Eastman of St. Paul, Minn., and Miss Beatrice Gates of Auburn, N. Y. The chaperones are: Mrs. John M. Brainard and Mrs. William Seward of Auburn, N. Y.

The house party ended this morning.

SUNDAY VESPER SERVICE.

A large number of Trinity students and their friends gathered at the chapel Sunday for the Vesper service, given by the Glee Club. Mr. Davis, the director, assisting at the organ. DeKoven's setting of Kipling's "Recessional" was efficiently rendered by the club, Mr. Cunningham taking the tenor solo. Chandler '09 sang "Pro Peccatis" from "Stabat Mater." Harmon '10 sang "O Savior Hear Me" in a pleasing style. Dr. Luther gave a brief address followed by a short evening prayer.

The program was as follows:

- Hymn—"Ancient of Days."
Easter Music from
"Cavalleria Rusticana."
Prayer from Tannhäuser Wagner
"Pro Peccatis" from "Stabat Mater"
Mr. Chandler. Rossini.
The Recessional. DeKoven.
Mr. Cunningham and the Glee Club.
"O Savior Hear Me." Gluck.
Mr. Harmon.
Improvisation on the organ of familiar themes
Hymn—"God That Madest."

THE JUNIOR PROMENADE.

The Function a Great Success and Largely Attended.

The annual Junior Promenade was held last night, beginning at 9:30. After twenty dances elaborate refreshments were served. There were forty dances in all, and the dancing continued until about four o'clock.

The decorations were very attractive and the committee is to be very much complimented on the arrangements as a whole.

A more detailed and full account will be given in the next issue of the "Tripod", when we intend to print a picture of the hall showing the decorations.

I. K. A. GERMAN THURSDAY EVENING.

The opening function of Junior Week was the german at the I. K. A. Lodge, No. 70 Vernon street, Thursday evening. Dancing began at 8:30 though the german itself did not begin until nine o'clock. Refreshments consisting of lobster patties, ice cream, coffee and cakes, were served shortly after eleven, after which the german was continued until two o'clock. The dancing rooms were tastefully decorated in palms and greenery.

The patronesses were: Mrs. Luther; Mrs. W. C. Skinner, Mrs. J. H. Barbour and Mrs. H. G. Hart, and the german was led by Mr. Paul M. Butterworth with Miss Alice Frisbie. Those who were present were: Mrs. Luther, Col. and Mrs. Skinner, Mrs. Barbour, Mr. and Mrs. Hart, P. M. Butterworth with Miss Frisbie, C. V. Ferguson with Miss Hatch, W. H. Licht with Miss Licht, W. R. Cross with Miss Collins, L. A. Ladd with Miss Butler, A. B. Sutcliffe with Miss Clark, B. Budd with Miss Flagg, C. E. Jones with Miss Van Zile, C. L. Trumbull with Miss Proctor, J. S. Carpenter with Miss Welch, H. O. Hinkel with Miss Abrams, P. H. Barbour with Miss Merriam, H. L. Richards with Miss Barbour, R. K. Skinner with Miss Steadman, and G. Brown with Miss Wander. The stags were D. C. Graves and J. F. Townsend.

There were twelve rounds of favors, consisting of violets, paper muffs, china automobiles, dainty blotters, handsome leather match boxes and many other equally attractive things

PSI UPSILON TEA.

The Psi Upsilon fraternity held a very pleasing tea at their house, No. 81 Vernon street yesterday afternoon. The lodge was very tastefully decorated. Most of the people from out of town, who were here for Junior week, and many Hartford people were present. Scott Snow's orchestra furnished music during the tea. Mrs. Luther, Mrs. Trumbull, Mrs. Gross, Mrs. Cutler, Mrs. Hamersley and Miss McAlpine were patronesses. The Misses Collins, Cutler, Flagg, Gross, Butler and Dunham poured.

JUNIOR GERMAN VERY SUCCESSFUL.

Large Attendance.

The Junior Week German which the German Club gave last Friday evening in Alumni Hall was typical of Junior Week, most successful. The patronesses were: Mrs. Luther, Mrs. Merrill, Mrs. Van Zile, Mrs. Trumbull, Mrs. Brainard and Mrs. Seward.

Mr. Trumbull with Miss Proctor led the first half, which started at nine o'clock, and Mr. Cross with Miss Gates led the second half which lasted from supper to two o'clock.

The favors were pretty and numerous, consisting of paper parasols, paper hats, miniature chafing dishes, imitation pipes, tiny rug beaters, carpet sweepers, lawn mowers, rakes and many other novelties. The figures which have been so pleasing this year were novel and well executed. One particularly attractive figure was a small Christmas tree, on which were hung six peaches and one lemon, all daintily done up in white tissue paper. While the music played "Why I Picked a Lemon in the Garden of Love Where They Say Only Peaches Grow," seven men rushed for the tree which was labeled the "Garden of Love" and the unlucky man picked the lemon. The other figures were equally original and amusing and cannot be adequately described on paper.

When finally the German broke up at two in the morning, Mr. Trumbull and Mr. Cross must have felt amply repaid for their labor by the faces of the participants among whom were the following: Mr. P. C. Bryant with Miss Winslow, Mr. Licht with Miss Licht, Mr. Ferguson with Miss Hatch, Mr. Butterworth with Miss Frisbie, Mr. Cross with Miss Gates, Mr. Trumbull with Miss Proctor, Mr. Morris with Miss Van Zile, Mr. Taylor with Miss Glazier, Mr. J. S. Carpenter with Miss Welch, Mr. Hamersley with Miss Dunham, Mr. Hart with Miss Hathaway, Mr. L. G. Carpenter with Miss Flagg, Mr. E. K. Roberts with Miss Cutler, Mr. Edsall with Miss Hunter, Mr. Ripley with Miss Fields, Mr. Etwell with Miss Milleisen, Mr. Rich with Miss Rich, Mr. Wolfe with Miss Saunders, Mr. Eastman with Miss Eastman, Mr. Potter with Miss Wander, Mr. Skinner with Miss Steadman, and Mr. Hinkle stag.

THE COLLEGE TEA.

The annual college tea was given Saturday afternoon in Alumni Hall. At one end of the hall was placed a large table decorated in lavender and white, the 1908 class colors. Miss Marion Flagg and Miss Marv Winslow poured at this table, assisted by Miss Marion Collins, Miss Marv Van Zile, Miss Ruth Cutler and Miss Marion Welch.

Those in the receiving line with Mrs. Luther were: Mrs. Cranston Brenton, Mrs. John J. McCook, Mrs. Frederick Honey, Mrs. Henry A. Perkins, Mrs. Cecil F. Lavell, Mrs. Elmer Truesdale

TO ALUMNI.

THE TRIPOD is published for the Alumni even more than for the Undergraduates. With this in mind we are striving to produce a paper which shall be interesting and necessary to Graduates, and also to reach as large a number as possible. We are very largely dependent on the Alumni both for our moral and financial support. If you are not already a subscriber will you kindly give this matter your attention?

"NOW THEN—TRINITY!"

EDITORIAL.

Junior Week is over and the college once more assumes a tranquil appearance. The week as a whole is judged as successful as any that Trinity students ever gave and coming as it did immediately after examinations, furnished a sufficient relaxation for the students to begin their work again steadily. We are now in the period of the year during which we should study most earnestly and faithfully. There are no interruptions from social events and few from athletic contests, and Trinity men must remember that one of the best ways of keeping up our college's high reputation is to maintain our standard in scholarship.

It is proposed to offer this term a course in religious studies of three hours per week, counting the same as any other elective course towards the total number of hours for graduation. The subject for this course is "The English Bible." The work will not begin until next week. It is probable that the course will be put in Group V. The instructor has not been appointed so the matter is somewhat indefinite, but elections by students in the Senior, Junior, and Sophomore classes will be received and considered by the committee.

PLAN FOR GLEE CLUB PLAY.

"Sweet Bells of Matrimony" to be Staged Again.

Dr. Luther has recently suggested to the Glee Club, the reproducing of a play given by the class of 1870. Dr. Luther, who was a member of the first production, vouches for its acceptability both to the present generation of Trinity men and to the alumni of '70 time. All but two of the original cast are living and if the play was given, it is probable that a large number of graduates will attend it and also a number of Hartford people who saw it when first produced.

The play is on the order of a comic opera and is entitled "Sweet Bells of Matrimony." The music was arranged by Rev. Godfrey Brinley 1870.

Mr. Davis, the Glee Club director says the play has many possibilities and should prove a grand thing for the Glee Club to put on next Senior Week.

NOTES.

On Thursday night, the 14th, the Sophomore Dining Club will hold a banquet at 7:30 P. M. S. E. McGinley '09 will be toastmaster.

The cause of education in general seems to be receiving a good deal of financial support just now. Mr. Rockefeller's gift of $32,000,000 is stupendous. Moreover, it is stated that Mr. Carnegie intends to build a university in Chicago and has furnished $40,000 for a swimming pool annex to the Yale gymnasium. Mrs. Sage has made a slight deviation from the policy of the late Mr. Sage, and has recently given a couple of millions to two or three institutions.

The Yale corporation is considering the advisability of increasing the present tuition charges and President Hadley is sending letters to the members of the Alumni Advisory Board seeking their opinion on the matter.

The state geological and natural history survey commission has filed its second biennial report in the governor's office. The members of this commission are the governor, who is chairman, President Hadley of Yale, President Raymond of Wesleyan, President Luther of Trinity and President Stimson of the Connecticut Agricultural College. Professor William Rice of Middletown is superintendent of the survey.

Senator McGovern is sponsor for two important bills now before the state senate. These bills were drafted by Professor McCook. One is designed to prevent convicts from voting and the other is an amendment of the Corrupt Practice Act.

At the recent dinner of the Hartford Alumni Association of Yale University, held at the Allyn House, President Luther was one of the speakers.

ALUMNI DEPARTMENT.

'47—The Rev. Dudley Chase, for some time a member of the class of 1840, who received the degree of Master of Arts in 1847, died in Philadelphia, January 30th, aged 91. He was born in Hartford, March 5, 1816, the son of the late Rev. Dr. Philander Chase bishop of Illinois. He has been a chaplain in the United States Army since 1864.

'57—The Rev. Dr. William Henry Benjamin, a graduate of Trinity in the class of 1857, died on Thursday, January 31th, at Irvington-on-Hudson, where he has been rector of St. Barnabas' Church for the last forty years. He was born in New York city seventy years ago and after graduating from Trinity, studied for one or two years in Heidelberg, and then entered the General Theological Seminary of New York. He was ordained in 1862, then for two years rector of the Church of the Holy Trinity at Westport, Conn., going from there to become an assistant minister in the Church of the Holy Communion in New York. In 1867 he was elected rector of the parish of Irvington, which, under his care, became one of the most influential along the Hudson.

THE RHODE ISLAND ALUMNI ASSOCIATION.

The recently elected officers of the Rhode Island Alumni Association are: President, Mr. G. L. Cooke '70; vice-president, Mr. L. W. Downes '88; secretary-treasurer, Mr. F. M. Barber '91. This association is small but its activity and interest are pretty well proved by the fact that a couple of months ago they pledged themselves to give five dollars per member to increase the Floating Laboratory fund. Not only that, but they have since written to the other associations and to individual graduates, urging support to this worthy enterprise.

May their efforts meet with the best of success.

The Connecticut Mutual Life Insurance Company,

HARTFORD, CONN.,

Why should I insure my life?

Because it is a debt you owe to those who are dependent upon your earnings for their support.

You admit that it is your duty to supply their needs from day to day, but forget that it is equally your duty to provide an ever ready and sufficient equivalent for your earning power, which your family stands in constant jeopardy to lose by your premature death.

Guard your family against disaster and yourself against dependency in old age.

When should I insure my life?

Now! The cost will never be less, and tomorrow you may not be able to obtain insurance at any price.

Even if others are not now dependent upon you, take time by the forelock and you will be the better able to meet future responsibilities, and at a smaller premium.

Where shall I insure my life?

In a purely Mutual Company. In a company that earns, declares, and pays annual dividends. In a company that is doing a conservative business.

Such a Company is The Connecticut Mutual Life Insurance Company of Hartford, Conn. It furnishes perfect protection at lowest cost.

For further information, address the Company, or any of its agents.

The course covering four years begins the last week in September and continues until June. A preliminary training in natural science is of great advantage. All the classes are divided into small sections for recitations, laboratory and clinical bedside instruction. Students are admitted to advanced standing after passing the requisite examinations. The successful completion of the first year in any College or University recognized by the Regents of the State of New York as maintaining a satisfactory standing is sufficient to satisfy the requirements for admission which have lately been raised. Sectional Bookcases
Solid Oak $1.00 per section without door $1.75 per section with door

Rigid economy, acquired by the manufacture of a single product in large quantities, combined with our modern methods of selling direct to the user, enable us to offer a superior article at a considerable saving in cost to the purchaser.

SEND FOR OUR LATEST CATALOGUE No. 77 in which we illustrate the different grades, from the neatly finished Solid Oak cases at above prices, to the highly polished Solid Mahogany cases for the more elaborate library. Every book section has non-binding, disappearing glass door. Tops and bases, $1.00 each.
