VOL. III. No. 32.

HARTFORD, CONN., TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 19, 1907.

PRICE, FIVE CENTS.

ADDRESS BY PROF. MERRILL.

"Church and State in the First Century" was the subject of a talk by Professor Elmer T. Merrill February 12th, before the Seabury club. Professor Merrill's paper looked at the subject from the standpoint of a Roman. It pointed out the fact that the early conflict between the state and the church through its great disciples, was brought about not by a desire of the Roman government to persecute Christians as such but because the Jews in their persecutions of the Christians alleged that the latter incited to insurrection or riot. It was so in the case of Christ, of Stephen, of Paul and Silas. Rome was not excited over the preachings of the Nazarene; it viewed Him as an idealist and visionary, many of whom they had seen before. It was the persecution and the false accusations of the Jews that led to Christ's crucifixion, not any desire on the part of the provincial government to punish Him because of His religion. So long as the Christians broke no laws and did not interfere with order Rome maintained a stolid indifference.

As to the three persecutions of Nero, Domitian and Trajan in Bithynia, there was absolutely no persecution of Christianity as such. Nero was looking for some class upon whom to fix the blame for the great fire, and naturally fixed upon the Christians because they were unpopular. Domitian's persecution was the result of an attempt to crystalize the sense of national unity around the cult of the emperor and the Christians were killed not because of their religion but because they refused to join this cult. Trajan's persecution came because the country was disturbed by private clubs, trade unions, etc., and the Christians, banded together in their cause, were viewed as one of these peace disturbing elements.

NOTES.

A double quartet from the Glee Club will supply a couple of selections for the University Club of Hartford at their meeting next Saturday evening.

President Mellen of the Consolidated Railway Company will give a lecture, Thursday evening, February 28th, before the college body and townspeople of Hartford on "Government Regulation of Railway Rates."

Professor Howard Crosby Butler of Princeton University will deliver an illustrated lecture on "Recent Explorations in Syria," this evening at 8 o'clock in Hosmer Hall, Broad street, near Farmington avenue.

As one of the local papers has published an incorrect statement of the number of students on probation, the "Tripod" gives below the correct list. There are 35 men on probation, 22 as a result of 12 hour rule, 13 because they passed only 6 hours.

ADDRESS BY MR. GEORGE '05.

Sunday morning those who attended chapel had the privilege of listening to Mr. James Hardin George, Jr., of the class of 1905, who is a member of the faculty of St. John's College in Shanghai, China. He stated that in order to reach the spiritual side of a man's character, one must benefit the man in the occupation in which he is interested. As an example of this, Mr. George related a story told of an eminent reformer, who was asked by a missionary for advice in the work which he was about to carry on. The reformer asked, "What are the principal interests of the people among whom you are going?" The reply was, "sheep raising." "Then go to them and teach and help them to raise more and better sheep." So in St. John's it is the aim to raise more and better Christians. First, since their ideals are learning and scholarship, give them every advantage and promote them as far as possible in this line so as to lay a foundation upon which to build the character which believes in and supports the Christian religion.

Mr. George in his brief address stated that the fame and popularity of St. John's reached even beyond the limits of the Chinese empire. Men from the whole eastern part of Asia and from the islands of the Pacific are attending the college. Although, like Trinity, St. John's is founded by the Episcopal church, men of all classes and beliefs are admitted, in the hope that all will derive benefit from the wholesome environments and good examples. The majority of the students are of the middle class which is the most influential class in China.

St. John's is noted for its records in athletics and in scholarship. The alumni have proven to be just as staunch and faithful to their Alma Mater as the alumni of our own college. The two colleges are very similar to each other in many ways.

The college was founded not to educate the priests, but to improve the condition and educate the layman; not to benefit a few, already well educated, but to improve the general public, whereby the whole country will abandon its distrust and antagonism for the foreign nations.

The great need of St. John's is for men; men who will go to China and stick to their work and benefit those who are in need of so many things, but most especially, general education, which is the basis for and foundation for an understanding and appreciation of our religion.

SOPHOMORE SMOKER COMMITTEE.

President Rich of the Sophomore Class has appointed the following committee for the Sophomore Smoker: Maxson, chairman; Elwell, Dwyer, Mason, Hinkel, Hart, McGinley, and Buck. The smoker will probably be held shortly after Easter vacation.

ALUMNI HALL AT JUNIOR "PROM."

THE ARMORY MEET.

The sixth annual indoor athletic meet of the Second Division Naval Battalion will be held in the First Regiment Armory on Thursday evening, February 21st. There are a large number of entries and it will be necessary to run many of the events in heats. Colt's Band will furnish music during the evening. Beside the intercollegiate events there will be a number of events for national guard and high school teams. The colleges that will be represented are Holy Cross, Trinity, Tufts and Wesleyan. This will be the first time that Wesleyan and Trinity have met in two years and for this reason great interest is being taken in the events.

The college events in which Trinity will take part together with our entries are: Forty-yard Dash, Taylor, Olmstead, H. Pond, Xanders, Henshaw, Capen, D. Clark, Running High Jump, Olmstead, P. Roberts, Harmon, Larnard.

Mile Run, Morris, Phillips, D. C. Pond, Nelson.

Mile Relay Race, H. Pond, Taylor, Olmstead, Henshaw.

NOTES.

At a social meeting of Ruth Wyllys Chapter, D. A. R., held February 14th, at the home of Mrs. John Spencer Camp, Mrs. Prof. Charles L. Edwards presented a paper on "Colonial Music."

'05—H. R. McIlvaine has been visiting in Hartford recently.

'06—The wedding of Miss Florence Virginia Deen, daughter of Mrs. William Morris Deen, formerly of Short Hills, N. J., and Herman Livingston Schwartz '06, son of the Rev. D. L. Schwartz, of Lakewood, N. J., took place on Tuesday, February 12th, in New York City

COLLEGE MEETING.

Badgley, the president of the Senior class, called a college meeting Monday morning in the Latin room to impress on the college body the importance and necessity of joining the Athletic Association immediately. If sufficient money is not raised within the next few weeks, the managers of the track and baseball teams will not be justified in arranging their schedules. Inasmuch as we have such good teams, it would be the poorest sort of college spirit not to support them. The way in which every man in college can give support at present is to join the Athletic Association. Cunningham, Butterworth, and Cross spoke on this matter.

J. K. Edsall, manager of the track team, spoke of the meet next Thursday night and urged every one to be present.

Dr. Luther, recently in Sunday chapel, announced that a comfortable sum had been realized from the monthly collections. The disposition of this, he said, was a concern of the college body and asked that action be taken by them. Acting on this, a committee was appointed by President Badgley to confer with Dr. Luther upon the question. The meeting adjourned at 9:30.

NOTES

'85—Robert Thorne, a member of the class of 1885, and trustee of the college, has recently been operated upon for appendicitis. He has left the hospital and is recovering rapidly.

'94—C. F. Weed has been spending considerable time recently at Claremont, N. H., owing to sickness in his immediate family, who were taken sick while visiting there.

'01—J. M. Hudson was recently married in Syracuse and has taken an apartment in the "Wickfield", Beacon street, Brookline.

Trinity Tripod

Published Tuesdays and Fridays in each week of the college year by students of Trinity College.

The columns of THE TRIPOD are at all times open to Alumni, Undergraduates and others for the free discussion of matters of interest to Trinity men.

All communications, or material of any sort for Tuesday's issue must be in the Tripod box before 10 p.m. on Monday; for Friday's issue before 10 a.m. on Thursday.

Subscribers are urged to report promptly any serious irregularity in the receipt of the Tripod. All complaints and business communications should be addressed to the Circulation Manager.

TO ALUMNI.

THE TRIPOD is published for the Alumni even more than for the Undergraduates. With this in mind we are striving to produce a paper which shall be interesting and necessary to Graduates, and also to reach as large a number as possible. We are very largely dependent on the Alumni both for our moral and financial support. If you are not already a subscriber will you kindly give this matter your attention?

"NOW THEN—TRINITY!"

EDITORIAL.

Through events over which the board had no control, the "Tripod" was unable to print a view of the "Prom" Hall in our last issue. We print it in this issue with the hope that it will still be interesting to our subscribers though appearing so long after the event.

Trinity men everywhere are proud of their loyalty and continually boast of it. But it is certainly deplorable that when the undergraduates receive a call for a real sacrifice, so many are found to be woefully lacking in this same spirit. The number of men who give their earnest support to the Athletic Association are not by any means as numerous as they ought to be. These loyal men are called on time after time, while the rest of the college body persuade themselves that giving their support would be too much of a sacrifice. That is not true Trinity spirit and such men are not true Trinity men. Practically every man in college now, can and ought to belong to the Athletic Association, and let us not have forty men who take the trouble of promising to join the Association without fulfilling it when the time comes.

COMMUNICATION.

To the Editor of the "Tripod,"

Dear Sir:—I wish to make a few remarks on the College Meeting held yesterday.

At nine fifteen the undergraduates began to arrive in small groups and to file slowly and reluctantly into the Latin Room. By nine twenty almost one-half of the students were gathered together. The last two benches of the recitation room were packed. A few seniors spread themselves in a vain endeavor to cover the six rows of seats in front. The back of the room was crowded so that the men coming in had to force a way through a tightly jammed mass which seemed afraid to leave the threshold. The president pounded for silence despairingly. In a momentary lull in the general conversation he called for speeches. A few men who could not escape responded and tried to stire up a few grains of manhood in the gathering. At the conclusion of each speak a sense of duty impelled a few men to applaud. The president called in vain for further speaking. The assembly as a whole yawned and looked sheepish. In despair the presiding officer called for a motion for adjournment. Each member of the gathering rose simultaneously and strolled out of the room. A college formerly noted for its fire and spirit had held a college meeting.

HARTFORD, CONN.,

Why should I insure my life?

Because it is a debt you owe to those who are dependent upon your earnings for their support.

You admit that it is your duty to supply their needs from day to day, but forget that it is equally your duty to provide an ever ready and sufficient equivalent for your earning power, which your family stands in constant jeopardy to lose by your premature death.

Guard your family against disaster and yourself against dependency in old age.

When should I insure my life?

Now! The cost will never be less, and tomorrow you may not be able to obtain insurance at any price.

Even if others are not now dependent upon you, take time by the forelock and you will be the better able to meet future responsibilities, and at a smaller premium.

Where shall I insure my life?

In a purely Mutual Company. In a company that earns, declares, and pays annual dividends. In a company that is doing a conservative business.

Such a Company is The Connecticut Mutual Life Insurance Company of Hartford, Conn. It furnishes perfect protection at lowest cost.

For further information, address the Company, or any of its agents.

The course covering four years begins the last week in September and continues until June. A preliminary training in natural science is of great advantage. All the classes are divided into small sections for recitations, laboratory and clinical bedside instruction. Students are admitted to advanced standing after passing the requisite examinations. The successful completion of the first year in any College or University recognized by the Regents of the State of New York as maintaining a satisfactory standing is sufficient to satisfy the requirements for admission which have lately been raised. The annual announcement giving full particulars will be mailed on application.
