PRICE, FIVE CENTS.

ANOTHER TRINITY SONG.

The Tripod in this issue gives for the first time the words of a new Trinity song. The words were written by Dr. Elmer Truesdale Merrill and music by William B. Davis, trainer of the college musical clubs. All Trinity is indebted to both Dr. Merrill and Mr. Davis as this is the second contribution along musical lines that they have given the college during the past month.

The title is "Hail To Thee, Trinity" and is printed below:

HAIL TO THEE, TRINITY.

I

There's a fair and stately College
Built upon a rocky hill,
Lifting high its roofs and turrets
Where the breezes have their will:
Eastward looks it toward the dawning,
Welcoming the coming day,
Westward, toward the hills of sunset
And the ages past away.

CHORUS.

Hail, hail to thee,
Dear Trinity,
Fair Alma Mater, ever young!
Gathered together, all thy sons to-day
Raise to thee the proud acclaim of heart and tongue.

II

Sentinel upon its greensward
You may see The Founder stand,
Showering ceaseless benediction
From benign, pontific hand:
Its Palladium of glory
Is no shape of goddess fair,
But an old and battered mitre
That a bishop used to wear.

(Chorus)

III

Underneath its spreading portals
And within its oaken door
Throgs of lusty youngsters mingle,
As in all the days before;
And they learn the same old lessons,
And they play the same old plays,
And they cluster 'neath the elm trees,
Singing Alma Mater's praise.

(Chorus)

IV

When the comrades are all scattered
O'er the land and o'er the sea,
Strong and earnest, true and valiant,
Heroes of the world to be,
Still they own the bond uniting,
And their hearts are loyal still
To the home of Alma Mater,
To the College on the hill.

(Chorus)

The Tripod calls attention to two typographical errors in the words, as printed in a recent issue, of the new marching song written by Dr. Merrill and Mr. Davis. The third verse of the chorus should read "And hail the triumph nigh." In the last verse of the second stanza the word is "joy" and not "joys."

There will be a meeting of the German Club Monday evening at seven o'clock at the Alpha Delta Phi house.

The second football team will play the Wesleyan freshmen, Saturday, November 16th, at Wesleyan.

THE AUTOMATIC CASHIER CO.

New Hartford Manufacturing Company organized by Trinity Man.

The Hartford Courant for last Monday contained an article of interest to Trinity men concerning The Automatic Cashier Company of this city, and its organization by a Trinity man, Irving R. Kenyon '07.

A Tripod representative visited the plant of the company and was greatly interested in the new machine.

The cashier is a machine of a new and advanced type. To convey the idea it may be called a combination of a cash register, a vending machine and a cashier, for it automatically, and without manipulation performs the work of all three.

The machine is designed for use at any place where paper checks may be paid for merchandise, admittance or service instead of actual cash. It is the medium between the customer and the clerk and its duty is to receive and record the cash received and to deliver a receipt therefor in the form of a paper check. In this manner it may be used at soda fountains, lunch rooms, cigar counters, pool and billiard rooms, bowling alleys, clubs, shoe shining parlors, theaters, parks, etc.

Considering its operation in detail let us take for a sample one single type of the machine to be used at a soda fountain, delivering checks of the value of five cents and receiving five and ten cent pieces and no other coins. (The machine can be constructed to handle all denominations of coin.)

The purchaser desiring a five cent drink of soda merely deposits a five cent piece in the indicated slot and immediately receives a paper check, suitably printed, which he hands to the dispenser in payment. No time is wasted, the check received is absolutely dry and clean, and the cash, which is recorded by the operation of the machine, is securely deposited in a locked drawer, thus assuring full returns. The customer has had to do nothing more than place his coin properly in the machine.

Should he desire a ten cent drink he may place either two nickels or a dime in the same slot.

But one coin slot is used for all coins and the machine assortments them.

Should the customer lack the proper change he may receive the same from the dispenser just as he does now, the dispenser having been supplied with a definite amount for which he is held accountable. Patrons of stores where the cashier is used, it is found by experience, learn to have change.

As stated, the machine in its operation records the cash received. For this purpose a double adder is used, which gives two totals, one of which may be set to zero daily and the other is a monthly record.

As but one slot is used to receive all coins there is no possibility of confusion. To accomplish this the cashier is

TWO TRINITY WEDDINGS.

The Zimmerman-Farrow Wedding.

The wedding of Miss Emma Zimmerman and Mr. Malcolm C. Farrow, Jr. '05 took place in the Trinity Episcopal Church at Shamokin, Pa., on last Wednesday evening. The service was performed by the Rev. E. C. Thomas '03, of Scranton, assisted by the Rev. Harry Hartman, rector of this church. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Anna Zimmerman, as maid of honor, and also by the bridesmaids Miss Marguerite Shoemer, Miss Clara Deppen, Miss Sarah Wagenseller, Miss Anna Farrow, Miss Grace Reddig and Miss Goldie Lewellyn. The groom was attended by his brother, Daniel R. G. Farrow as best man. Four of the ushers were Trinity men. They were: Walter Farrow, Burdette C. Maercklein '06, William Rich Cross '08, Giles D. Randall '08, Percy C. Bryant '07 and Daniel Green.

A dinner was given to the bridesmaids at the bride's house on the night before. The same evening a bachelor dinner was given by the groom at the Windsor Hotel in that city.

Immediately after the wedding reception was tendered the participants and a few other guests; this was followed by a dance. At present Mr. and Mrs. Farrow are on their wedding tour.

Mr. Farrow was one of the founders of the Tripod and was its first editor-in-chief in 1904-05.

The Brainard-Davis Wedding.

Miss Edith Hollister Brainard, daughter of Mrs. Leverett Brainard, and Captain J. H. Kelso Davis were married Wednesday evening at the home of the bride's mother, on Washington street. The bridegroom was graduated from Trinity College in the class of 1899. Captain of the baseball team and otherwise busy while in college, Mr. Davis has always been closely identified with Trinity interests.

The maid of honor was Miss Ruth Brainard, sister of the bride. The bridesmaids were: Miss Elsa M. St. John and Miss Marjorie Matson, of Hartford, Miss Isabel C. Chaney, of Detroit and Miss Mildred Welles, of Chicago.

The groomsmen were C. Shiras Morris '09, and the ushers were: Oliver C. Beckwith, Newton C. Brainard, Dudley Graves '08 and F. Goodwin Smith, all of Hartford.

GAME WITH C. C. N. Y. TO-MORROW.

The football team has been holding light practice this week after the Wesleyan game. The game to-morrow will be with the College of the City of New York. This team has been defeated by several small teams this year and a hard game is not expected. Coach Landefeld will probably put in the second team in the second half.

President Luther has deferred his annual trip to preparatory schools in the West until mid-winter.

COLLEGE CALENDAR.

Thursday, Nov. 7-7 p. m., rehearsal of Mandolin Club.

INTER-COLLEGIATE NOTES.

Registration at Columbia has passed the 5,000 mark for the first time in the university's history. The official report of the registrar, which will appear in the general catalog, shows a total enrollment of 5,159, including the summer session of 1907. A large part of the increase is due to the growing attendance at the summer session, which this year had 1,392 enrolled students, as against 1,041 in 1906.

By special vote of the faculty of architecture of Columbia, three students have received permission to complete their graduating theses in Paris. The privilege was granted, it is said, by way of experiment, as the faculty has no intention of substituting work in the Paris Ecole for that required for the Columbia degree. Should the experiment turn out successfully, there is a possibility that the faculty will take action to extend the privilege to one or two deserving students each year.

Prof. Josiah Royce will give two courses at Yale this year by provision of the Harvard lecture fund. Prof. Royce goes to Yale once each week. On Saturday morning he meets an undergraduate class in ethics, and later in the same day a seminary class in philosophy and metaphysics. He will continue these lectures during the entire year. The Harvard lectureship at Yale was founded in 1905 by the gift of $10,000 from an anonymous Harvard graduate, for the purpose of securing members of the Harvard faculty to lecture at Yale. President Eliot was the first speaker under its provisions. Prof. Muensterberg, Prof. Palmer and Prof. E. C. Moore have occupied it successively since that time.

ALL SAINTS' DAY.

Rev. John T. Huntington '50 addressed the students in chapel this morning, it being the occasion of the celebration of All Saints' Day and also Founders' Day. The choir rendered special music with a solo by H. N. Chandler '09.

Arrangements are being discussed for a joint concert between the Amherst and Trinity musical clubs sometime in February at Hartford.

"NOW THEN—TRINITY!"

EDITORIAL.

Last Saturday President Schurman of Cornell University issued his annual report. It stated that for the year ending September, 1907 there were 4,225 students enrolled in the institution. This includes all special and summer school students. The dominant note of the report however is educational efficiency, with recommendations for improving it both in the field of liberal culture and pure science and also in the fields of professional and technical education. On the subject of liberal education at Cornell, President Schurman points out that the general adoption of the elective system has obscured the idea of what a liberal education is and expresses the opinion that, pending the recovery of an acceptable definition of liberal education, the colleges of arts in America will perform three definite functions.

He says on this subject:

"They will give an education in the liberal arts and the pure science to the comparatively small number of men who seek it before entering schools of theology, law, medicine or technology: they will train specialists in language, philosophy, history, economics, politics and physical science, most of whom after graduation will devote themselves to teaching or writing; they will give a more general education to men who will afterward devote themselves to business, journalism and public service, etc."

The president suggests to the faculty the consideration of the policy of formulating, with the aid of outside experts in business, journalism, etc., courses to be recommended to undergraduates who look forward to those vocations.

Current magazines are frequently making the assertion over the signature of college professors and other commentators, that athletes are poor students. That this assertion is not substantiated by conditions at Trinity is shown by the scholastic standing of our football athletes. The captain of last year's team was a winner of the Holland prize for highest standing in his class for three successive years. He was a member of Phi Beta Kappa. A member of the team this year is now holder of the same scholarship in the junior class. Three other players have maintained the high average of eighty per cent or over for three years. The work of the other men, including the freshmen who thus early have not had a chance to make a scholastic reputation is not below that of the average college student. These facts would tend to disprove this much-mooted theory as to the brain-powers of athletes.

equipped with an accurate and patented coin shute, capable of automatically assorting the money placed in it. To avoid unpleasantness with a customer who shall erroneously put in a penny, slug, or wrong coin all such are immediately returned without operating the mechanism, in the course of which a bell is rung notifying the clerk of the error so that he may direct the customer or detect if he is trying to defraud the cashier. After such a surprise the attempt will hardly be repeated.

Realizing that a customer may be mistaken in the value of a coin placed in the cashier a means of showing the last coin placed therein is provided, and this coin remains in sight of the dispenser until the next customer purchases a check.

Immediately after the machine commences to operate the coin slot closes in such a manner as to prevent the insertion of another coin until the first check is delivered when it quickly opens again.

As an advertising feature a means of delivering a percentage of free checks is provided. By this means the proprietor may, at his option, adjust the mechanism so that it will give, at intervals, an additional check.

The machine is in every way a high grade one and great care has been given to the manufacturing details. It is thoroughly covered by patents all of which are owned or controlled by the company.

Many Trinity men are interested in the company and all predict a brilliant future for the enterprise. Mr. Kenyon is the general manager. While in college he was one of the founders of the Tripod, was the first business manager and is very interested in the success of the paper.

ADDRESSES OF THE ALUMNI WANTED.

At intervals in the past the circulation manager of the Tripod has desired to find out the correct addresses of certain alumni who have changed their place of residence and have not notified the college authorities of their change. The only way in which the Tripod can find out their present address is through the co-operation of the subscribers who happen to know where they live. The present addresses of the following men are not known to either the college or the Tripod, and it would be deemed a great favor if any alumni who know would send the circulation manager the correct address. This would also be of value to the college office as it will enable the records to be brought up to date.

The list follows:
T. D. Reed '51, Rev. J. G. Armstrong '54, J. H. Lamon '54, Rhodes Fisher '56, W. McC. Gregory '56, Hon. H. J. Canfield '57, H. W. Kloppenburg '58, J. H. Bowles '60, Rev. C. L. Fischer '60, D. B. TRINITY REUNION AT THE GENERAL CONVENTION.

A large number of our alumni were members or visitors at the General Convention of the Episcopal Church recently held in Richmond, Va., including eight of the bishops. If they could have had a meeting early in the session, there might have been forty or fifty present; but the decision of the convention to transact business in the evenings of the last week interfered seriously with the attendance when the reunion was held, October 15th, and delayed the formal opening until after 10 p. m. The arrangements were made by Col. Cogswell and Dr. Harriman as a committee; the latter presided and called upon the speakers. President Luther had come up for the night from the Jamestown Exposition, where he was orator on Connecticut Day, October 16, and he delivered an admirable address on the

The Connecticut Mutual Life Insurance Company,

HARTFORD, CONN.,

Why should I insure my life?

Because it is a debt you owe to those who are dependent upon your earnings for their support.

You admit that it is your duty to supply their needs from day to day, but forget that it is equally your duty to provide an ever ready and sufficient equivalent for your earning power, which your family stands in constant jeopardy to lose by your premature death.

Guard your family against disaster and yourself against dependency in old age.

When should I insure my life?

Now! The cost will never be less, and to-morrow you may not be able to obtain insurance at any price.

Even if others are not now dependent upon you, take time by the forelock and you will be the better able to meet future responsibilities, and at a smaller premium.

Where shall I insure my life?

In a purely Mutual Company.
In a company that earns, declares, and pays annual dividends.
In a company that is doing a conservative business.

Such a Company is The Connecticut Mutual Life Insurance Company of Hartford, Conn. It furnishes perfect protection at lowest cost.

For further information, address the Company, or any of its agents.

There were men there who had not been back to college for thirty years; and such reunions in distant parts of the country are productive of much good. $8.50 PUNCTURE-PROOF TIRES ONLY $4.80
Regular Price $8.50 per pair. To introduce We Will Sell You a Sample Pair for Only $4.80 (CASH WITH ORDER $4.55)

NO MORE TROUBLE FROM PUNCTURES.

Result of 15 years experience in tire making. No danger from THORNS, CACTUS, PINS, NAILS, TACKS or GLASS.

Serious punctures, like intentional knife cuts, can be vulcanized like any other tire. Two Hundred Thousand pairs now in actual use. Over Seventy-five Thousand pairs sold last year.

DESCRIPTION: Made in all sizes. It is lively and easy riding, very durable and lined inside with a special quality of rubber, which never becomes porous and which closes up small punctures without allowing the air to escape. We have hundreds of letters from satisfied customers stating that their tires have only been pumped up once or twice in a whole season. They weigh no more than an ordinary tire, the puncture resisting qualities being given by several layers of thin, specially prepared fabric on the tread. That "Holding Back" sensation commonly felt when riding on asphalt or soft roads is overcome by the patent "Basket Weave" tread which prevents all air from being squeezed out between the tire and the road thus overcoming all suction. The regular price of these tires is $8.50 per pair, but for advertising purposes we are making a special factory price to the rider of only $4.80 per pair. All orders shipped same day letter is received. We ship C.O.D. on approval. You do not pay a cent until you have examined and found them strictly as represented.

We will allow a cash discount of 5 per cent (thereby making the price $4.55 per pair) if you send FULL CASH WITH ORDER and enclose this advertisement. We will also send one nickel plated brass hand pump and two Sampson metal puncture closers on full paid orders (these metal puncture closers to be used in case of intentional knife cuts or heavy gashes). Tires to be returned at OUR expense if for any reason they are not satisfactory on examination.

We are perfectly reliable and money sent to us is as safe as in a bank. Ask your Postmaster, Banker, Express or Freight Agent or the Editor of this paper about us. If you order a pair of these tires, you will find that they will ride easier, run faster, wear better, last longer and look finer than any tire you have ever used or seen at any price. We know that you will be so well pleased that when you want a bicycle you will give us your order. We want you to send us a small trial order at once, hence this remarkable tire offer.

COASTER-BRAKES, built-up wheels, saddles, pedals, parts and repairs, and everything in the bicycle line are sold by us at half the usual prices charged by dealers and repair men. Write for our big SUNDRY catalogue.

DO NOT WAIT but write us a postal today. DO NOT THINK OF BUYING a bicycle or a pair of tires from anyone until you know the new and wonderful offers we are making. It only costs a postal to learn everything. Write it NOW.
