1909 CLASS SMOKER.

Seniors Hold a Smoker Tonight.

The class of 1909 will hold a smoker at Chase's Rathskellar this evening at eight o'clock, at which the entire class is expected to be present.

The program is a very attractive one of white tied with the class colors of orange and black. Following the title page is a poem by G. E. Elwell, '09, which runs as follows:

Come, members of the senior class,
We'll have a celebration.
In song and speech we'll praise
Nought-Nine
With joy and jubilation.

Forget such things as chapel cuts,
Exams and admonitions;
Forget your college bills unpaid;
Forget that you've conditions.

Forget your gas was taken out;
Forget you're on probation;
In other words cheer up and smile;
Forget all tribulation.

Lay ev'ry care aside tonight,
Be not a gloomy croaker,
But jump right in and liven up
The Nought-Nine Senior Smoker.

The toasts are of course, an important part of the evening's programme, and with Elwell, '09, as toastmaster, the following will be participated in:

'Neath the Elms .....Everybody
'1909' .....J. S. Carpenter, Jr.
Selection ..... 1909 Quartette
Messrs Roberts, Chandler, Harriman and Carpenter.

"Our Sometime Members",
H. N. Chandler
"A Bit of Drool"....L. G. Harriman
Class Songs.....All of us

The four class songs of '09 are entitled "1909 Marching Song," "Nought-Nine," "Farewell, Nought-Eight," "The Best Class of All," and are printed in full in the programme, followed by a picture of the class, in the panorama style, entitled "Nought-Nine's Beauty Show."

A picture of the memorial arch, with the St. Patrick's day decoration of 1909 is pictured, entitled "Our Arch Intrigue of Freshman Year." The last illustration is one of Alumni hall, decorated for the 1909 Junior Promenade, and entitled "Another of Our Triumphs."

The class roll, with its "Sometime Members" follows, and the whole is finished off by the list of the committee of arrangements, consisting of G. E. Elwell, Jr., Chairman; George S. Buck, E. K. Roberts, Jr., and W. H. Plant, ex-officio.

1911 CLASS DANCE.

Sophomores will give a Hop on Friday night.

The second annual Sophomore hop will take place in Alumni hall on Friday evening, the fourth of December. It is expected that as many of the undergraduates will attend as possible, in order that this custom of giving an underclass dance every fall may be continued, as one of the many college enjoyments.

The programme, which is a neat folder, made up in the class colors of blue and grey, contains sixteen dances, beginning with a two-step and alternating with a waltz, throughout. The intermission will take place between the eighth and ninth dances, when light refreshments will be served by Besse. Music will be furnished by Hatch's Orchestra, and no decorations other than the usual ones will be used to fit the hall.

It has been urged by the committee in charge, that all who attend will kindly conform to the general request, that the dance be informal. Evening dress, flowers and carriages, will be strictly out of place, as this dance is intended to be one for the purpose of getting everybody in college out for a good time, and not to let in any of the element of formality.

The dance, as announced will start as near 7.30 as possible, and will last until shortly before 12, when there will be a special car at the corner of Broad and Lafayette Streets in order to accommodate those attending.

Mrs. F. S. Luther, Mrs. R. G. Gettell, Mrs. R. J. Howe, and Mrs. C. H. Brenton, will be the patronesses for the Sophomores.

Tickets may be obtained at $1.00 per couple from: Burgwin, Maxon, Howell, Pitts, Buck, Pulford, Porteus, Ramsdell and Sherman, 1911.

SUNDAY CHAPEL SERMON.

Bishop of California Speaks.

The sermon last Sunday in chapel was given by the Rt. Rev. Bishop Nichols of California.

Needless to say his talk was enjoyed by all who attended, both undergraduates, alumni, and outsiders. His text was "Fishers of Men," and he dwelt very emphatically on the subject of the college man going into some sort of service, which would benefit the country at large. He showed how well a text could be interpreted and be explained with reference to our present day circumstances and manner of living.

PRESIDENT LUTHER AND PROF. F. R. HONEY SPEAK.

At a meeting of the Connecticut League of Art Students, in order to commemorate the twentieth anniversary of their founding, held in their studios, at 92 Pearl street, on Friday evening, November 27th, at eight o'clock. President F. S. Luther and Professor F. R. Honey spoke.

Program:

Music, (a) Folk Song, Komsak; (b) Fairy Tale, Komsak. Address, Frederic R. Honey. Music, Andante Cantabile, from D major Quartet, Tschaiakowsky. Address, Charles Noel Flagg. String Quartet: First violin, Emma Spieske Miller; second violin, Eugene R. Youngs; viola, Walter O. Eitel; violoncello, Susan Lord Brandegee.

UNDERCLASS FOOTBALL GAME.

To be Played Tuesday Afternoon.

The underclass football game has been called for Tuesday afternoon by Capt. A. B. Henshaw of the varsity. Captains Ramsdell for 1911 and Oliver, 1912, will have their men on the field at 3.45 and the game will be called at 4 p. m. sharp. Although the sophomores have several more men on the varsity than 1912, the freshmen expect to make a great fight and their hopes are high.

COLLEGE NOTES.

Basket ball practice was held in the gymnasium this afternoon at 5 o'clock. There will be regular practice from now on to prepare the team for its hard schedule which begins in ten days.

A glee club rehearsal is being held this evening in alumni hall, beginning at 6.45.

A very important meeting of the Tripod board will be held at 3.45 p. m., Thursday at 161 Jarvis hall. It is imperative that all the members be there.

S. D. C. INITIATION BANQUET.

1911 Members to be Taken in by 1910.

The annual initiation banquet of the Sophomore Dining Club, will be held in Chase's Rathskellar on Tuesday evening, the tenth of December.

The toastmaster will be William F. McElroy, '10, of Manchester, N. H., and toast will be given by Cyril B. Judge, '10, of New York City, Joseph Groves, '10, of Poughkeepsie, N. Y., Henry S. Marlbor, '10, of Brooklyn, N. Y., and Clarence E. Sherman, '11, of Brockton, Mass.

GRIDIRON NEWS.

Harvard's football victory over Yale closed one of the most successful years in athletics the crimson has ever experienced. Yale was beaten in baseball, crew and football. It is also encouraging to Harvard men to have such good material for next year's teams, prospects being very bright in crew, football and baseball, but only fair in track athletics.

The army vanquished the navy Saturday afternoon on Franklin field at Philadelphia by the small score and narrow margin of 6 to 4—a touchdown and goal against a goal from the field. Thirty thousand persons saw the husky cadets from up the Hudson conquer the sturdy midshipmen from the Severn in a contest that never lagged. That the navy boys were surprised at the unexpected strength of their opponents is putting it mildly; they were quite overwhelmed, whereas they entered the game practically sure of victory. While the navy boys had entered the game as the favorite picked by close followers of the sport, they found themselves confronted with what was at once perceived to be an equal match.

The army victory carried with it no disgrace to the vanquished. The defensive playing of both teams was all that could be desired. It was so powerful, in fact, that neither team could make much impression on its opponent's line, and in consequence they both played a kicking game. There was more punting in Saturday's game than has been seen on Franklin field this season. As was the case in the big college games of the year, the contest brought out little that was new. Two forward passes and two onside kicks were the only so-called modern plays attempted, and of these only one forward pass, by the navy, was successful.

MEETING OF THE NOMINATING COMMITTEE.

A meeting of the nominating committee was ordered to be held this noon at twelve forty-five, for the purpose of selecting nominees for the position of manager and assistant manager of the football team for the ensuing year. The committee is composed of H. I. Maxson, I. L. Xanders, W. Eastman, J. S. Carpenter, Jr., S. E. McGinley, George Buck, A. W. Creedon and W. F. Dwyer.

"NOW THEN—TRINITY!"

EDITORIAL.

The most important thing before the college at present is the annual Sophomore hop, to be given by the class of 1911, on this coming Friday night.

This most enjoyable custom was initiated by the class of 1910, and as the affair was seemingly a great success, and apparently filled a long-felt want, there is no reason why this repetition should not be fulfilled in the same way.

Now, it is most certainly "up to" every man who knows the "one-two-three movement" to be present in Alumni hall, on the fourth of the month, so it may be seen that when class takes up an enterprise for the good of the college, the class is heartily supported by the college body.

One very important feature of this dance is that of making it strictly informal, for it is a very unpleasant thing to have one or more fellows run against the general consensus of opinion, and try to make a function formal, by adopting something which he knows is out of place at the time, and which may cause more or less embarrassment to himself or to others.

So as the committee has urgently requested, let no one appear in anything more "ressy" than a sack suit and neither have flowers nor carriages, in order that the entertainment may take place as it is intended.

This may all be summed up in four words,—Be there, be informal.

"ALL-EASTERN" NOMINATIONS.

Several fine players either added to their prominence gained last year or shone this season for the first time. Good fullbacks and halfbacks were many. Quarterbacks as a class werenot as good as in past seasons. Had "Eddie" Dillon been in condition to play all season he would easily have out-topped the others. On the ends the supply of stars was not as large as has been the rule. But there were a whole lot of good tackles, some good guards and centers. The individual star of the year was Coy of Yale.

Kennedy and Schildmiller, both of Dartmouth, were the best of the ends. Other good ones were Scarlett of Pennsylvania, Dennie of Brown, Reifsnider of Annapolis, Walshh of Villanova and Browne of Harvard. With such stars as Horr of Syracuse, Fish of Harvard, Brides of Yale, O'Rourke of Cornell, Siegling of Princeton, Northcroft of Annapolis, Draper of Pennsylvania, Pullen of West Point, the picking of two men is a hard task. But Fish and Horr have done better work, both on the offense as well as defense. Both played on the right side of the line, but one could be moved over. The others are all stars. Guards are not so many. The Yale pair, Andrus and Goebel, look better than the others. Morse of Williams and Slingluff of Annapolis were the best of the centers. Lange of Annapolis, Cutler of Harvard and Pishon of Dartmouth were the quarterbacks. Lang was the best of the three, being fine kicker, a good man in running with the ball as well as an able general.

But for fullbacks Coy of Yale, Walder of Cornell, Marks of Dartmouth, Ver Wiebe of Harvard, Hollenbach of Pennsylvania, White of Fordham, Stein of Syracuse and McCaa of Lafayette were certainly a brilliant lot. Halfbacks of prominence were Corbett and White of Harvard, Tibbott of Princeton, Mayhew of Brown, Manier of Pennsylvania, Greble of West Point, Hawley of Dartmouth and others. In picking the backfield Hollenbach is moved from fullback to right half, Coy being the fullback and Tibbott, Princeton's squirming halfback on the left side. Picture such a backfield as Coy, Hollenbach and Tibbott! The second set is also a slashing one, Marks, Ver Wiebe and Corbett. The Republican's "All-Eastern" nominations follow:

The annual meeting of the New York Alumni Association will be held at 8.30 p. m. on Thursday evening, Dec. 3rd, at Keen's Chop House, 70 W. 36th Street. This is the important business meeting of the year, and there must be a large attendance.

The annual meeting will be preceded at 7 p. m. by the regular monthly meeting. Please note that, because of the annual meeting, the monthly meeting will be held on Thursday evening, December 3rd.

Come early, eat what you like, and go when you can tear yourself away.

You will find a bunch of enthusiastic Trinity men at these meetings, and you will be sure to meet a number of your old pals. Better put aside the pursuit of wealth and fame for one night, and drop around for an evening of Trinity good-fellowship. Besides, we have an unusually successful football season to play over again.

F. C. Hinkel, Jr.

Mrs. Mary W. Gray died in this city on Tuesday November 24th, in her 86th year. She was a niece of David Watkinson, one of the first trustees of Trinity college.

Mrs. Gray's son was John W. Gray, '72, her son-in-law was Rev. J. H. Barbour, '73, and her grandsons are Robert W. Gray, '98, H. G. Barbour, '06 and F. H. Barbour, '09.

'49. The Rev. Dr. Gemont Graves, and Mrs. Graves celebrated their golden wedding at Burlington Vermont, on October 28th. St. Simon and St. Jude's day all the children and grandchildren were present, with many friends. The father of the family celebrated an early communion which was followed by the usual breakfast reception, and the evening gathering, when were read many telegrams and letters from bishops, clergy, former parishioners and others.

Among the contributors at Cleveland, Ohio, to the National Republican Campaign fund were W. J. Boardman, a member of the board of trustees of the college, to the extent of $1,000—and William G. Mather, class of 1877, $500.

'53. A stone altar is memory of the Rt. Rev. D. B. Knickerbocker, has been placed in the chapel of the Howe school, Lima, Ind., which was named in honor of the Hon. John B. Howe, '35, Bishop Knickerbocker being one of the founders.

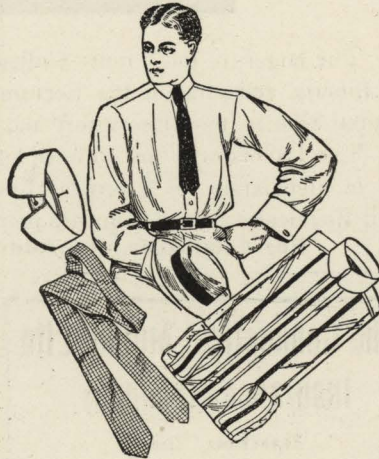

'76. The "Southern Workman" for September last, contained an article by the Rev. Dr. Beonly E. Warner, on "The Negro's Outlook for Health."

'79. Robert S. Winkley, has been appointed New England representative of the Matthews-Northrop Works of Buffalo, N. Y., his office being at 221 Columbus Avenue, Boston, Mass.

'88. Married, Alonzo McConihe, to Maria McChesney Benson, May 21, 1907, at Troy, New York.

'00. Married, in the Centre Congregational Church, Manchester, Conn., November 24th, Alexander Arnott, '09, and Miss Frances Carrier.

The Connecticut Mutual Life Insurance Company.

HARTFORD, CONN.

Why should I insure my life?

Because it is a debt you owe to those who are dependent upon your earnings for their support.

You admit that it is your duty to supply their needs from day to day, but forget that it is equally your duty to provide an ever ready and sufficient equivalent for your earning power, which your family stands in constant jeopardy to lose by your premature death.

Guard your family against disaster and yourself against dependency in old age.

When should I insure my life?

Now! The cost will never be less, and tomorrow you may not be able to obtain insurance at any price.

Even if others are not now dependent upon you, take time by the forelock and you will be the better able to meet future responsibilities, and at a smaller premium.

Where shall I insure my life?

In a purely Mutual Company.

In a company that earns, declares, and pays annual dividends.

In a company that is doing a conservative business.

Such a Company is The Connecticut Mutual Life Insurance Company of Hartford, Conn. It furnishes perfect protection at lowest cost.

For further information, address the Company, or any of its agents.
