CORNELL GAME TOMORROW.

Last Game of the Season.

Trinity goes into the game with exactly the same team that has played together ever since Buck was put out of the game. Although our team is light, still it makes up in speed what it lacks in weight, so that Cornell will have to fight for every yard they gain. Coach Gettell has the team working together well, and this team-work is what has brought the team up so since the beginning of the season. The men are all in good condition with the exception of Maxson and A. L. Gildersleeve. The former wrenched his knee in Saturday's game, and the latter is suffering with a wrenched shoulder, but both will be all right for tomorrow's game. If Maxson should be taken out, Ramsdell will be pulled back into his place, and either Clark or O. Gildersleeve will be placed at end. With a good day and a fast field, it seems as if the team ought to do quite well against their heavy opponents. Cornell considers this an easy game in preparation for the Penn game next week, but it will not take any chances. In last Saturday's game with Chicago, which ended in a tie 6-6, Cornell showed its powerful strength both in offensive and defensive work.

A large delegation of Trinity men, both graduates and undergraduates, were at the dock yesterday to give the team a good send-off. There were Trinity songs and cheers, and great enthusiasm was shown by all. The team go to New York by boat, and from there to Ithaca, where it will spend Friday night. The team had light signal practice yesterday at 2 o'clock, the last that will be held on Trinity field this year. The following scores may be of interest in order to get a comparison of the teams.

Trinity	0,	Worcester	4.
"	0,	West Point	33.
"	18	N. Y. U.	4.

SOPHOMORE HOP.

Preparations Being Made for Second Annual Dance December 4th.

Preparations are practically completed for the second annual Sophomore Hop to be held in Alumni Hall on the evening of December 4th. Last year's Sophomore class started the custom of holding a hop in the fall term and it has been determined that this year's dance will come up to the high standard of last year's. These affairs are informal and the preparations are therefore more or less simple as no decorations will be used in Alumni hall and the programs will be small cards in the colors of the class. It is further stated by the committee that no flowers should be brought. The dance will start at 7.30, will not last after 12, and special cars will be engaged.

The attendance at this dance is not limited to any special classes and there promises to be a big sale of tickets. Hatch's band will furnish the music and Besse will be the caterer.

The patronesses will be Mrs. Luther, Mrs. Gettell, Mrs. Ham and Mrs. Brenton. The members of the committee in charge are: H. H. Burgwin, Pittsburg, Pa., chairman, P. Maxon, Detroit, Mich., Alfred Howell, Uniontown, Pa., N. F. Pitts, Ballston Spa, N. Y., W. W. Buck, Cheshire, Conn., A. E. Pulford, South Tacoma, Wash., James Porteus, Hartford, E. B. Ramsdell, Lee, Mass., C. E. Sherman, Brockton, Mass., ex officio.

Tickets will be $1.00.

PLANS FOR THE 1910 IVY.

The work on the 1910 Ivy is now well under way and the book bids fair to be the "best ever."

The contract for the printing and binding has been awarded to the Tuttle Company of Rutland, Vermont, and the illustrating will be done by the Electric City Engraving Company of Buffalo, N. Y. Both of these companies did the work on the 1909 Ivy.

The book this year will be dedicated to Professor Raymond G. Gettell by vote of the class. The O. W. Elson Company of Boston is making a photogravure plate of Professor Gettell, which will be one of the most attractive features.

The cover will be of grey material with maroon lettering in the same style as the 1909 book.

The paper will be of a heavier grade than usual and it is expected that a large number of illustrations of undergraduate life will appear in the volume.

There will be an entirely new set of drawings, which are being prepared by Brian Barnett, '12.

The arrangement of the book will differ considerably from that of former years, and there will be several new features.

ALPHA DELTA PHI DANCE.

Annual Affair Held Last Evening.

The Phi Kappa Chapter of Alpha Delta Phi gave their annual dance at their chapter house on Vernon street last evening. The house was prettily decorated with greens and the fraternity colors. About eighteen couples were present and all greatly enjoyed the informal affair. The patronesses were Mrs. F. S. Luther and Mrs. R. G. Gettell.

Those who attended were: Miss Elinor Collins, Miss Marion Collins, Miss Marion Welch, Miss Marjorie Howe, Miss Carolan Alton, Miss Harriet Rankin, Miss Mary Rees, Miss Helen Hatch, Miss Marjorie Barton, Miss Grace Rogers, Miss Florence Bryant, Miss Dorothy Davis, Miss Margaret Eno, Miss Ruth Collins, Miss Helen Lyman, Miss Florence Goodwin, and Miss Helen Nichols; W. S. Schutz, '94, Burdette C. Maercklein, '05, H. O. Peck, '09, Welles Eastman, '09, R. L. Wright, '10, F. S. Kedney, '10, Albert Clark, '11, G. I. Keyes, '11, T. S. Morris, '11, Alfred Howell, '11, B. F. Yates, '11, W. B. Gibson, '11, H. K. Rees, '11, W. M. Farrow, '11, B. H. Barnett, '12, W. H. Bleecker, '12, W. A. Bird, '12, W. R. Curtis, '12, P. F. Herrick, '12, E. F. Pettigrew, '12, J. F. Reddick, '12, and Henry Bryant.

YALE-HARVARD GAME.

In the midst of a rousing send-off delivered from the throats of a thousand fellow students, the Harvard football team left Cambridge for Farmington, Wednesday, on the 2 o'clock train from Back Bay station. The cortege includes thirty-one players, three managers, six coaches, a trainer and three helpers.

As a whole the team is in pretty good condition. There are several instances, however, of unfit or injured men, the most important of which is Captain Burr. He is not looking so very well, although it is expected that he will play in Saturday's game. While not overconfident, the squad is optimistic with regard to the result of the coming contest and according to latest reports the odds are in their favor, 8 to 5.

The Yale men are equally cheerful. Yesterday there were 1,500 men on the field to cheer the team during their final practice. All the Yale supporters put great trust in Coy, who has performed so remarkably during the year, rather than in the team as a whole, which rather lacks uniformity. The line-up for Harvard has not been decided upon. That for Yale is as follows:

UNDERCLASS FOOTBALL GAME.

A Close Contest Expected.

Although the Freshman-Sophomore football game is but a few days off, taking place on Monday, November 23; very little regular practice has taken place as many of the players on both sides are playing with the Varsity. A very close contest is anticipated for both teams can put some very good material on the field.

The Sophomores will rely mainly on a few star men from the Varsity, while the Freshmen will have to place their confidence in all-around team work. The Sophomores who are playing on the Varsity are Ramsdell, who is the captain of the 1911 team, and who has been playing a remarkable game at end, Carroll and Gildersleeve, the two strong tackles, and Burdick, who is playing end for the Varsity. In addition to these players, Buck has played a strong game in the backfield for the Scrub. The Freshmen have but one man on the Varsity, Breed, who has been guard, but they have two of the first string substitutes, Oliver, who is the captain of the class team, and a strong backfield man, and Gildersleeve, a substitute quarterback and end. Besides these men, both classes have several promising men on the Scrub.

The candidates for the teams are: 1911.

Ramsdell, captain, Gildersleeve, Carroll, Burdick, Buck, Konvalinka, Green, Maxon, Clark, Haight, Pomeroy, Blackman.

1912.

Oliver, captain, Breed, Gildersleeve, Beers, Walsh, Pettigrew, Bleecker, Reddick, Townsend, Bates, Wessels, Craik, Bonnell, Rankin.

ARTICLES BY PROFESSOR KLEENE.

The following articles written by Professor Kleene have been published recently.

"The Limitations of Charity Organizations" in the Yale Review for November, and "The Statistical Study of Causes of Destitution" in the journal of the American Statistical Association for September.

The Freshman class picture, which was taken some time ago, can be ordered through Pettigrew, '12, 34 Jarvis.

The taking of the picture of the Tripod board, which was to have taken place Wednesday, has been deferred until a later date.

The Naturalist Club is planning to take a trip, under the conduction of Professor Genthe, to Tariffville, next Sunday.

There will be a rehearsal of the Mandolin Club in the Music room this evening at 6.45.

"NOW THEN—TRINITY!"

EDITORIAL.

Tomorrow Trinity plays the final game of one of the most successful seasons it has had in many years. It is not necessary to wait for the outcome of tomorrow's game to say this. The past four games have shown to everybody that the old "Gold and Blue" has got a fighting aggregation it may well be proud of. It is no use to prophesy the result of tomorrow's game but it is safe to say that Trinity will do its best and that is enough.

With the football season drawing to a close it is time that men should begin to turn their attentions to other college activities. Of course the basketball and hockey teams claim support but it is the musical clubs for which everything should be sacrificed now. Too much can not be said at this time to emphasize the importance of supporting these clubs. For it is true that up to now the support given to the Glee and Mandolin Clubs has been weak. There is a lot of material for both these and is must be developed, but it can only be developed by the hearty co-operation of the trainers, leaders and members. There are fine prospects for the clubs in the way of trips; in fact it is open to the management to accept contracts for concerts in Brooklyn before the Christmas vacation, and in six Pennsylvania towns during the Easter vacation. That means two good trips and it depends on the clubs as to whether they are taken. Now let's see Trinity show the same fine spirit in supporting this branch of college life as it has shown this season on the football field.

PLANS FOR THE 1910 IVY.

The board consists of the following juniors: R. L. Wright, Editor-in-Chief, J. Groves, Business Manager, A. M. Smith, Athletic Editor, R. H. Merrill, B. F. Turner, J. B. Clark, G. W. E. Draper, and J. R. Cook, Associate Editor.

It is expected to have the book on sale before the Easter recess.

MEMORIAL TO F. B. PEABODY, '08.

A memorial to Mr. Francis Bolles Peabody, '48, who died on January 2, 1908, published by the Citizen's Association of Chicago, contains, in part, the following:

"Mr. Peabody was born at Milford, N. H., October 27, 1827, and so had passed his eightieth anniversary when called away. He was graduated at Trinity College, Hartford, in 1848, and studied law at Concord, N. H., in the office of Franklin Pierce, afterwards President of the United States."

He was admitted to the bar in 1850, and after practicing his profession in his native state for nearly seven years, removed to Chicago, where, "as a lawyer he was distinguished and successful. His last firm was Gallup and Peabody, and while, like the others, it was organized for the general practice of law, the growing demands of his clients in the matter of mortgages and investments became so pressing as to crowd out all other business. This firm, and its successors, have stood in the front rank of the mortgage banking business, and has very materially contributed to the rebuilding of the city and its phenomenal growth.

"Mr. Peabody was an old-time Democrat, but early in his career he adopted these principles: First, that national politics should be divorced from municipal politics; second, that all politics should be based upon sound moral principles and purposes. His independence was of the rare type, which, while it possesses the soul in patience, kindness, and gracious manner, yet keeps it unyielding and unshaken in everything involving principles.

"Mr. Peabody at various times was President of the Revenue Reform League, the Tariff Reform League, and the Civil Service Reform League, but his longest, most faithful and most adroit public service was as a member and official of the Citizen's Association of Chicago."

It was chiefly through his efforts that the Chicago politics were "cleaned up," the drainage canal legislation begun, and the annexation of towns adjoining the city, and the prosecution of the Gas Trust which resulted in the dissolution of that scheme.

THE FRESHMAN-JUNIOR BANQUET.

Some time in the near future the Juniors will be given a dinner by the class of 1912. This is one of the yearly events of the college and the banquet this year promises to be up to the standard of past years. The banquet this year must be held within a radius of thirty miles from Hartford. The banquet last year was held at the Allyn House, and 1909 and 1910 gave their banquets at New Britain and Waterbury respectively.

ALUMNI DEPARTMENT

'91. A new edition, revised, of "Confirmation Instructions," by the Rev. Charles Herbert Young, '91, has been published recently.

'02. The Rev. James Henderson has become general missionary in the district of Eastern Oregon, under Bishop Robert L. Paddock, '94.

'05. Charles Hamlin Pelton has resigned his business position in Youngstown, Ohio, and has begun the study of medicine at Johns-Hopkins University.

On Saturday, Amherst and Williams clash on Pratt Field, Amherst. The Williams team started the season off at a fast clip but has deteriorated somewhat. Amherst has been steadily improving and it is expected that the game will be close and exciting. Both teams are working hard and steadily and will be in the best of trim for Saturday's game.

The Connecticut Mutual Life Insurance Company,

HARTFORD, CONN.

Why should I insure my life?

Because it is a debt you owe to those who are dependent upon your earnings for their support.

You admit that it is your duty to supply their needs from day to day, but forget that it is equally your duty to provide an ever ready and sufficient equivalent for your earning power, which your family stands in constant jeopardy to lose by your premature death.

Guard your family against disaster and yourself against dependency in old age.

When should I insure my life?

Now! The cost will never be less, and tomorrow you may not be able to obtain insurance at any price.

Even if others are not now dependent upon you, take time by the forelock and you will be the better able to meet future responsibilities, and at a smaller premium.

Where shall I insure my life?

In a purely Mutual Company.

In a company that earns, declares, and pays annual dividends.

In a company that is doing a conservative business.

Such a Company is The Connecticut Mutual Life Insurance Company of Hartford, Conn. It furnishes perfect protection at lowest cost.
