RELIGIOUS CENSUS OF THE COLLEGE.

The following statistics concerning the religious preferences held by the student body have just been compiled: The Protestant Episcopal church leads with a total of 115, of which number 103 are confirmed and 12 baptized, only. The Congregationalists follow with a total of 40, of which number 35 are baptized. Catholic, 17; Methodist, 10; Baptist, 5; Presbyterian 5; Hebrew, 4; Universalist, 1; German Lutheran, 1; Dutch Reformed, 1. Ten of the student body are unbaptized in any denomination, but of this number 3 have a preference for the Protestant Episcopal, 5 for the Congregational, and one for Christian Science. One has no preference whatever.

ERNEST DE KOVEN LEFFINGWELL, '95, RETURNS TO CIVILIZATION.

Spent a Year Alone.

Ernest De Koven Leffingwell, '95, has recently returned from the Arctic regions. He went on the Mikkelson-Leffingwell expedition, organized three years ago by Captain Mikkelson, to hunt for a frozen continent in the untracked sea north of the coast of Alaska.

Leffingwell was the last man of this expedition to return to civilization, the others having left nearly two years ago to make maps and surveys of a previously unmapped land. Leffingwell desired to remain alone and make further explorations. For a year or more he was quartered in a hut made from the wreck of the Duchess of Bedford, the expedition's ship. The nearest inhabited place was about 300 miles westward. As a result of his lonesome stay, Mr. Leffingwell has made a map of the northern coast of Alaska for about 200 miles.

The only people seen while he was alone were a family of Eskimos, and later on, two white prospectors. Mr. Leffingwell describes the natives of the northern coast of Alaska as resembling the Eskimo more than any other tribal division, there is also a resemblance in their customs and language. They know nothing of the United States, or that they are under its dominion.

It is the intention of Mr. Leffingwell to return to the Alaskan coast to complete his work there. He will go independently in a boat of his own, sometime during the ensuing year.

COLLEGE NOTES.

On Sunday, Jan. 10th, the Rev. Lorin Webster, L.H.D., of the class of 1880, will preach in the college chapel.

Dr. Webster is the head master of Holderness School, Plymouth, N. H.

At the last commencement the honorary degree of Doctor of Letters was conferred upon him.

In the January issue of the "International Journal of Ethics" appears a very interesting article entitled, "Will to Make Believe," by Professor Urban.

THE 1910 IVY.

The work on the copy for the first half of the 1910 Ivy is rapidly being completed. Almost all the cuts of the members of the Junior Class have been made, as well as a large number of group pictures. The headings for the various parts are new and very catchy. From present indications, the book will be ready for delivery before the spring vacation.

TRINITY COLLEGE BULLETIN.

New Catalogue Issued.

The new catalogue, resplendent in a neat brown cover, was ready for distribution a few days before the end of the fall term. In neatness and quality of materials, this shows a decided advance over former ones. The paper used is of a smooth texture and the printing is in sharp, easily legible type. The list of students shows an increase of five over the number last year. The enrollment of the Senior and Junior classes is equal, each numbering thirty-four men, while the Freshmen number seventy-three, ten more than the Sophomores, but ten less than the enrollment of last year's Freshman class.

In the list of courses of instruction the names of the instructors in each department are printed at the head of the list of studies in that department.

There are few other changes in the contents, but the appearance of the new catalogue is decidedly better.

OPENING OF COLLEGE.

Usual Chapel Service.

College opened Monday evening, January 4, with the usual voluntary chapel service, at which about thirty students were present. As the evening wore on, however, the numbers increased and their advent was greeted with cheers, yells and other forms of celebration in honor of a joyous return to the college work of another term and in pleasant (?) anticipation of the two weeks distant mid-years. Chapel on the following morning showed almost the entire college body in the accustomed places and the work, broken off by the vacation, was promptly resumed.

CLASS DAY ELECTIONS.

A meeting of the Senior Class was held on Wednesday at which the election of class day officers was discussed.

It was decided that a committee, consisting of one man from each fraternity, and one man from the "neutral" body should be appointed, to constitute a nominating body.

It was also decided that the chairmen of the various committees should be elected by the class instead of appointed by the class day president, as has been the custom in former years.

The officers to be nominated are: Class Day President, Secretary and Treasurer, Poet, Orator, Statistician, Historian Prophet, Presentor and Chairman of the General Arrangements Committee, the Class Day Committee, and the Promenade Committee.

The Nominating Committee met yesterday afternoon and it will present a list of nominations to the class at a meeting this afternoon, when the elections will be held.

COLUMBIA WINS.

Columbia, 35; Trinity, 11.

Trinity met defeat at the hands of Columbia in basketball for the second time this year, on the evening of December 18th. The score was 35 to 11. The game was fast and somewhat rough at intervals. The Columbia five gave one of the best exhibitions of accurate shooting ever seen in the Trinity gymnasium.

The first scoring of the game was done by Carroll, of Trinity, but Melitzer quickly shot a basket from the centre of the floor. Columbia scored again soon. Then Trinity made the score a tie, Abbey making the goal. The Columbia team then started a fast pace and made the score 24 to 7 in its favor at the end of this period.

Several times during the second period it was necessary to take out time, as both teams showed the fast pace. Trinity guarded much closer during this period. Capen and Abbey scored on easy shots, while Benson and Kiendl did the most in this period for Columbia.

Abbey played the best game for Trinity, while Melitzer and Kiendl were the Columbia stars. The summary:

Trinity.	Columbia.
	l. f.
Abbey.	Kiendl.
	r. f.
Capen.	Militzer, Carson.
	c.
Ramsdell.	Ryan, Spencer.
	l. g.
Gildersleeve.	Cerussi.
	r. g.
Carroll.	Benson.

Score, Columbia 35, Trinity 11; goals from the floor, Kiendl 6; Melitzer 5; Benson 4, Abbey 3; Capen, Carroll and Ryan. Goals from fouls, Kiendl 1, Benson 2, Gildersleeve 1. Referee, Quigg. Timers, Dr. Swan and Fischer. Length of halves, 20 minutes.

COLLEGE MEN IN BASEBALL.

The list of college men in the major leagues includes "Doc" White, "Hub" Hart, Jake Stahl, Fred Falkenberg, Jeff Pfeffer, Carl Lundgren, Beebe, Al Storke, Bill Carrigan, Ed Reulbach, Murray, of the New Yorks, Barry of St. Louis, Mike Powers, Joe Birmingham, Phil Lewis, Eddie Grant, Fred Tenney, Christy Mathewson, Ed. Spencer, Addie Joss, Ovie Overall, Roy Thomas, Jack Coombs, Arthur Devlin, Scanlon, James and Curtis with scores in the minor leagues.

"NOW THEN—TRINITY!"

EDITORIAL.

The period of the mid-year examinations is but two weeks away. It is up to every man in college to get through and not be either "flunked-out" or placed on probation. Too great stress cannot be placed upon this matter.
Perhaps many of the new men in college do not fully realize what examinations mean. At present there are many who are on the doubtful side, so to speak. These coming two weeks is the time to get busy and put in some solid work. In many of the courses, reviews of the past term's work are being made, and every one should take advantage of these opportunities to try and be well posted in his courses.

About probation; everyone knows that the faculty ruling will not allow any person on probation to represent the college in athletics or in any official position on a college organization. The baseball and track season is not very distant, and it is up to everyone, especially who is good along these lines, to keep off probation. To get through the examinations successfully is a duty everyone owes, not only to himself, but also to the college. So let every man stay at college in the evening for the next few weeks and do his utmost to remain a Trinity man in good standing.

BASEBALL AT AMHERST.

The Amherst College baseball schedule as announced today contains twenty-eight games. The schedule begins with eight games in the South during the spring vacation. This follows the precedent established last spring. On the trip this spring they will play with Trinity College of North Carolina,
the University of North Carolina, Washington and Lee University, of Virginia, Annapolis, and the University of Pennsylvania. The schedule follows:

March 26-27—Trinity, at Durham, N.
C.; 29-30—North Carolina, at Chapel Hill, N. C.; 31—Washington and Lee, at Lexington, Va. April 1—Virginia, at Charlottesville, Va.; 3—Annapolis, at Annapolis, Md.; 5—Pennsylvania, at Philadelphia, Penn.; 14—Springfield Training School, at Amherst; 17—Bow-doin, at Amherst; 24—Vermont, at Amherst; 28—Bates, at Amherst. May 5—Aggies, at Amherst; 12—Harvard, at Cambridge; 19—Yale, at New Haven, Conn.; 22—Dartmouth, at Hanover, N.
H.; 26—Williams, at Amherst; 28
—Dartmouth, at Amherst; 31—Williams, at Williamstown. June 2—
Princeton, at Princeton, N. J.; 3—
Pennsylvania, at Philadelphia, Penn.;
5—West Point, at West Point; 12—Brown, at Amherst; 14—Brown, at Providence; 19—University of Texas, at Amherst; 26—Wesleyan, at Middletown, Conn.; 28—Wesleyan, at Amherst.

Seven veterans from the last year's team remain, and a strong field of material to choose from is presented.
By graduation the team lost Danahey and Palmer, while Birch, '11, did not return to college. Henry, who caught on the 1907 team, and Storke, '12, are promising battery candidates, while Fink, '10, and Burt, '12, look good for first base. McClure and Vernon, '12, should do good work in the box. The infield is unusually strong as it stands, with Kane, second base; Washburn,
third base, and Pennock, short stop,
but Johns, '12, and Vroom, '12, are promising material.

JUNIOR CLASS ELECTIONS.

The class of 1910 held their elections for the spring term today at which the following officers were elected: President, A. M. Smith, Berlin, N. H.; Vice-President, J. C. Clark, Rosebud Reservation, N. D.; Secretary-treasurer, A. L.
Potter, Saybrook, Conn., and Historian,
C. B. Judge, New York.

There will be an innovation in the junior week program this year when, instead of the usual concert by the musical clubs, there will be a performance of the Jestors, with only a few numbers by the musical clubs.

The musical clubs will give a concert in Southington on the twenty-second of this month.

ex-'06. The engagement of T. C.
Curtis, Jr., of New York, to Miss Virginia H. Jerome of the same city, has recently been announced.

ALUMNI DEPARTMENT.

The New York Alumni held their regular monthly meeting on Monday evening, January 4th, at Keen's Chop House, 70 W. 36th street. The New York Alumni were fortunate in having with them a number of alumni from other associations. It is needless to say that all Trinity men and their friends are cordially welcome at these meetings, and should come whenever possible. A man is sure to meet men who were in college with him, men, perhaps, whom he has not seen since college days, and what is more pleasant than getting together with old college friends?

As is the usual custom, the evening was spent in having a good, sociable time, such as good fellows only can. It was well toward midnight when the men reluctantly tore themselves away.

Among those present were: Hon. Lawson Purdy, '84, president of the New York Tax Commissioners; E. S. Van Zile, '84, author and playwright; Rev. Prof. C. N. Shepard, '91, of the General Theological Seminary; Rev. Prof. G. M. Brinley, '88, of St. Paul's school, Concord, N. H.; Dr. W. R. Martin, of the Hispanic Society; F. M. Barber, '91, secretary-treasurer of the Rhode Island Alumni Association; E. De K. Leffingwell, '95, scientist, who recently returned from a trip of exploration to the Arctic region; W. G. Davies, '60, a distinguished New York lawyer; Rev. Dr. E. O. Flagg, '48; R. H. Hutchins, '90; G. N. Hamlin, '91; G. D. Hartley, '93; P. J. McCook, '95; J. J. Penrose, '95; DeForrest Hicks, '96; W. S. Langford, Jr., '96; M. H. Coggeshall, '96; W. M. Austin, '98; A. D. Vibbert, '99; E. P. Taylor, '00; J. W. Bradin, '00; A. J. Wynkoop, '01; J. J. Boller, '06; F. C. Hinkel, '06.

Owing to the fact that the annual banquet of the New York Alumni Association will be held early in February, the date to be announced later, the monthly meeting for February will be omitted. Please note that the next monthly meeting will be on the first Monday in March.

'54. The fiftieth anniversary of the ordination of the Rev. Dr. Cornelius B. Smith, '54, was observed in St. Paul's church, New Haven, Conn., on the 13th of December. His brother, Bishop Alexander Mackay-Smith, '73, was also present.

'90. George Thornton Warren, a graduate of Trinity, in the class of 1890, died at his home, No. 718 Fifth Avenue, New York, on Friday, January 1, after a week's illness. A direct descendant of Richard Warren, who landed at Plymouth in 1631, Mr. Warren was born in Troy, N. Y., on April 18, 1868. He prepared at St. Paul's School, Concord, and after graduating from here in 1890, received his M. A. in 1893. He graduated from the New York Law School in 1892, having entered the law office of John Vernon Bouvier, Jr. He was for some time in the law department of the Fidelity and Casualty Co., leaving that to be associated with Mr. Bouvier, Jr., at 31 Nassau street. Mr. Warren was a member of the Tammany General Committee from the Twenty-seventh Assembly District of the Bar Association, and belonged to the Union, Uni-

The Connecticut Mutual Life Insurance Company,

HARTFORD, CONN.,

Why should I insure my life?

Because it is a debt you owe to those who are dependent upon your earnings for their support.

You admit that it is your duty to supply their needs from day to day, but forget that it is equally your duty to provide an ever ready and sufficient equivalent for your earning power, which your family stands in constant jeopardy to lose by your premature death.

Guard your family against disaster and yourself against dependency in old age.

When should I insure my life?

Now! The cost will never be less, and tomorrow you may not be able to obtain insurance at any price.

Even if others are not now dependent upon you, take time by the forelock and you will be the better able to meet future responsibilities, and at a smaller premium.

Where shall I insure my life?

In a purely Mutual Company.

In a company that earns, declares, and pays annual dividends.

In a company that is doing a conservative business.

Such a Company is The Connecticut Mutual Life Insurance Company of Hartford, Conn. It furnishes perfect protection at lowest cost.

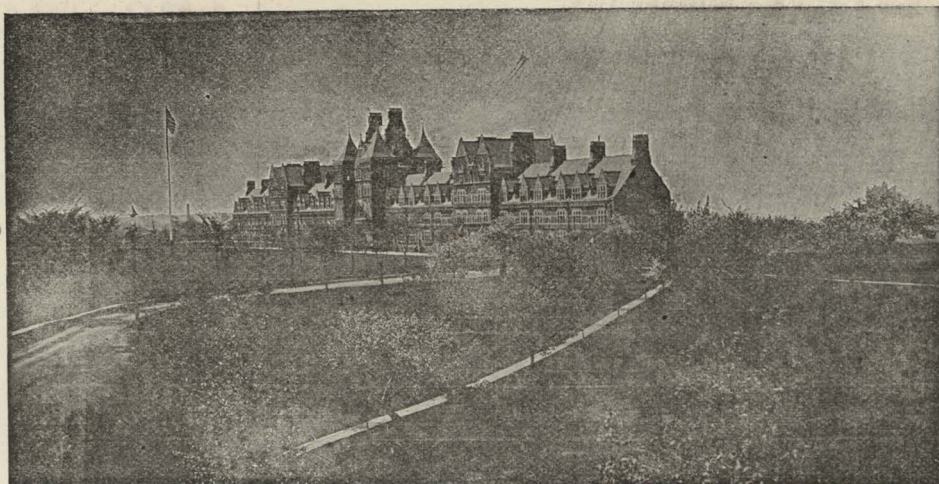

For further information, address the Company, or any of its agents.
