CLASS DAY OFFICERS.

Elected by Class of 1909.

On Wednesday afternoon, January 13, the Senior Class held a meeting for the purpose of electing the officers for Class Day.

A committee composed of S. E. McGraley, L. G. Harriman, A. W. Creedon, H. O. Hinkel, M. A. Connor, W. Eastman, W. Dwyer and G. E. Elwell had been appointed previously to prepare a list of nominations for the various offices. This committee made its report, which was accepted, and the class proceeded to the election of officers.

The highest class day honor, that of President, went to James S. Carpenter, Jr., of Pottsville, Pa. Carpenter has always been prominent in college and class matters, having been manager of the football team, chairman of the junior promenade committee, president of the German Club, and a member of the Glee and Mandolin Clubs. He is a member of the I. K. A. fraternity, the Sophomore Dining Club, and the Senior Honorary Society.

Henry O. Peck, of Pittsfield, Mass., was elected secretary and treasurer. Since entering college Peck has been prominently identified with the "Tripod," holding the position of treasurer at the present time. He is a member of the Alpha Delta Phi fraternity.

Alexander W. Creedon, of Hartford, was unanimously elected orator. He is the manager of the basket ball team and a member of the Mandolin Club, having at one time been the leader of the same. He was a member of the junior promenade committee. He is a member of the Phi Gamma Delta fraternity and the Sophomore Dining Club.

Welles Eastman of St. Paul, Minn., was the choice of the class for the position of historian. Eastman entered college in his sophomore year. He was a member of the 1909 Ivy board and the junior promenade committee. He is the advertising manager of the "Tripod" and a member of the Alpha Delta Phi fraternity.

G. Edward Ewell, Jr., of Bloomsburg, Pa., was the unanimous choice of the class for the class poet. Elwell was the editor-in-chief of the 1909 Ivy, a member of the sophomore smoker committee, and the Tablet Board. He is on the Glee Club and is a member of the Delta Psi fraternity.

The class statistics will be delivered by Michael A. Connor, of Hartford, Ct. Connor has been on the baseball team for the past three years and will captain the 1909 team. He is a member of the Alpha Chi Rho fraternity.

The "gifts" to the various members of 1909 will be handed out this year by Harold N. Chandler, of Fitchburg, Mass. Besides his prominence in class affairs Chandler has distinguished himself as a student by winning the Holland Prize Scholarship and the Goodwin Greek prize. He is a member of

THE BROTHERHOOD OF ST. ANDREW.

Second Annual Conference to be Held at Trinity.

A meeting of the Missionary Society was held Tuesday evening, Jan. 12, in the history room. The society this year is studying the missionary conditions in our far-off territory of Alaska. For each meeting three of the members volunteer to write short papers or give short talks which are not to exceed ten minutes each. The study of Alaska is particularly interesting, and the whole college body is cordially invited to attend the meetings. The papers read Tuesday evening were the first ones on the subject of Alaska. Barbour, '09, spoke on "Alaska, Geographically and Politically"; John Clark, '10, had for his subject "Alaska, Historically"; while Kedney, '10, read an article on "Alaska, Industrially." All the talks were very interesting and showed a great deal of preparation on the part of the speakers. After the reading of the papers there was a short informal discussion on the talks.

The Missionary Society and the Brotherhood Chapter are going to hold a conference of college men on February 20, 21 and 22, lasting from Saturday until Monday. The conference last year was held at Harvard. Some of the colleges which will probably be represented are: Yale, Harvard, Princeton, Amherst, Williams and M. I. T. The list of speakers will probably include President Gardiner, of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew, Bishop Hall, of Vermont, and Bishop Brewster, of Connecticut, and several other prominent churchmen. The number present at the conference will probably be in the neighborhood of fifty. The advantage which this conference will be in bringing Trinity College into the public eye can hardly be overestimated.

The committee on entertaining the visiting delegates is composed of A. S. Kean, '09, John B. Clark, '10 and F. S. Kedney, '10.

SOPHOMORE CLASS MEETING.

The Sophomore Class held a meeting Wednesday at which the officers for the ensuing term were elected. They are as follows: President, Earl B. Ramsdell, of Lee, Mass.; Vice-President, A. L. Gildersleeve, of Middletown; Secretary-Treasurer, George T. Keyes, of Hartford; Historian, G. W. Stewart, Portland.

On account of the proximity of the mid-year examinations, the concert of the Musical Clubs, which was to have been given in Southington on the 22nd, has been postponed.

POMFRET SCHOOL 3; TRINITY 1.

Trinity's First Defeat in Hockey.

The Trinity College hockey team met its first defeat of the season Wednesday afternoon at Pomfret, Conn., at the hands of the team of the Pomfret Preparatory school. The final score was 3 to 1. The playing of the college team was very ragged, and there was little team work, although man to man the college men were better hockey players. On the other hand, Pomfret having already won four victories, and having played much together, were able to use very good team work. Two of Pomfret's goals were made by the puck hitting the skate of a Trinity man and rebounding into the net. Trinity's only score was made early in the first period on an excellent shot by Haight. The fact that the game was played in a rink with high sideboards was a great advantage to Pomfret, for it was Trinity's first game or practice in a rink.

The line-up was:

Trinity.		Pomfret.
Breed	right wing	Chauncey
Haight	center	Willis
Roberts	rover	Morton (Whitman)
Rankin	left wing	Stevenson
Buck	cover point	Scully
Eaton	point	Romeyn
Brainerd	goal	Alexandre

HARTFORD CLUB SMOKER.

The Hartford Club of Trinity College had a smoker Wednesday evening in its club room, 4 Northam Towers, in honor of William A. Bottomley, '11, the president of the club, who is leaving college to prepare for technical school. The smoker was attended by twelve members, and a very enjoyable evening was spent and light refreshments were served. The retiring president was presented with a club pennant. The following men have lately been admitted to the club: George S. Francis, '10, James J. Riordan, '10, and George T. Keyes, '11.

INTERCOLLEGIATE NOTES.

On the face of negotiations now in progress, it is almost a certainty that the football teams of Harvard and Princeton will meet on the gridiron next fall. These two elevens have not been together for some years, since 1896, to be exact, but now, in spite of opposition in both universities by both faculty and students, it is almost an assured thing.

The Harvard faculty demand that, if Harvard plays Princeton, one of the other big games be dropped. As they could drop the Indians with less cause of offense, than Brown or Dartmouth, this will probably be done in spite of the popularity of the Indian game with Bostonians.

MEETING OF TRACK CANDIDATES.

Naval Battalion Meet Discussed.

A meeting of those interested in track athletics was held Tuesday, Jan. 12, in the History Room. Maxson, '09, the captain of the track team, presided. The discussion was mainly concerned with the Naval Battalion Meet at the Elm street armory on February 19, and whether Trinity should enter or not. There were about fifteen present and the general opinion seemed to be that Trinity should enter the meet as the training would greatly benefit the men for the spring work if they did not do well in the meet. The events open to colleges include a forty-yard dash, a quarter-mile relay race, and a mile run besides some field event. Manager Judge of the track team announced that a very good schedule had been arranged including four meets—one at home and one with Wesleyan, the Intercollegiate at Boston, and a triangular meet with Union and Hamilton at Clinton, N. Y.

PROSPECTS FOR WESLEYAN GAME.

Next Tuesday evening the basketball team meets Wesleyan on that college's own floor and in preparation for this contest the team has been practicing hard every day. Our fellows are in the best of physical condition, and if only they improve a little in the matter of their shooting ability, Wesleyan has a hard game coming. The squad has had a rest of more than two weeks and probably in consequence of this the work has been unusually heady and snappy. Abbey and Capen will go in as forwards and, although Wesleyan has one crack guard, the other is weak, so the chances are that these two will outplay their opponents. The centers of both teams are fast players and very evenly matched. Captain Gildersleeve and Carroll as guards are both veteran players and it can be pretty safely predicted that they will handle their men well. By thus comparing the individual ability of the members of the opposing teams, one can "dope" with some degree of certainty the probability of an even game. And everything foretells a close contest. A fact, not hitherto taken into consideration, is that while our team is free right up until Tuesday evening, the Wesleyan men have two hard games in the interim.

Taking things as they stand, conditions point to an even, hard-fought game.

"NOW THEN—TRINITY"

EDITORIAL.

One of the most important events of the year for the college is to occur in the meeting of the second annual conference of the college branch of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew, which will be held here in February under the auspices of the local chapter.

This conference will bring together a large number of college men from all parts of the country and we will be given an opportunity to show our ability as hosts.

It is earnestly hoped and urged by those in charge that every man in college, whether a member of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew or not, will take hold and do his best to entertain the guests so that the conference may be a success and that the delegates will go away with a good impression of Trinity hospitality.

the Glee Club, having been leader of the same in his junior year. He was a member of the freshman junior banquet committee and the "Tripod" Board. He is a member of the Delta Psi fraternity and the Sophomore Dining Club.

Israel L. Xanders of Broken Bow, Neb., was elected chairman of the Senior Promenade Committee. Xanders was captain of last year's baseball team, has played on the football team three years and has been a member of the track team and Glee Club. He was recently elected class president for the spring term. He is a member of the Delta Psi fraternity.

George S. Buck, of Cheshire, Conn., will head the Class Day Committee. Buck has been a member of the football team for the past four years, on the sophomore smoker committee, the junior promenade committee and the Mandolin Club. He is a member of the Alpha Chi Rho fraternity and the Senior Honorary Society.

Clinton J. Backus, Jr., of St. Paul, Minn., was chosen chairman of the Dramatic Committee. Backus entered college at the beginning of his junior year and has always been prominent along this line, being president of the "Jesters." He played on last year's football team and is a member of the Phi Gamma Delta fraternity.

Also the class passed the following resolutions:

Resolved: That all contracts for commencement shall be given to Hartford firms if possible.

That a committee composed of H. I. Maxson, A. W. Creedon, W. Dwyer, H. O. Hinkel and W. H. Plant be appointed to regulate Class Day exercises.

That Class Day committees be composed of five men besides the chairman.

The following extract from a letter written by J. W. Curtiss, the graduate advisory rowing coach at Yale, to the "Yale Alumni Weekly" regarding the collapse and subsequent death of Griswold, the stroke of last year's crew, during the Harvard-Yale race at New London last year, in which he attributes his death to typhoid fever, is interesting:

"The collapse," he writes, "has been very generally misunderstood. It was purely nervous and not physical. His nervous condition was supplemented by the false start. Long after the race was over he told me that during the same he felt something clenching at his throat; that he did not feel physically exhausted at all, but that this unknown something was preventing him from breathing. Physicians have since told me that this was a sign of nervous collapse."

Harvard defeated Williams at hockey Wednesday by a score of 10 to 2.

'94. Guy Andrew Hubbard, '94, died at his home, 136 St. Paul's Ave., Tomkinsville, N. Y., on December 28, 1908. He was born April 23, 1871, at Oakland, Me., and entered the junior class here, receiving the B.A. degree in 1894. He taught in St. Mark's, and the New York Military Academy, and at the time of his death was a professor in DeWitt Clinton High School, New York City. He was an uncle of G. H. Newhall, '12.

ALUMNI DEPARTMENT.

'76. Col. W. C. Skinner, '76, at the recent reorganization of the Colt Fire-Arms Co., of Hartford, was elected to the presidency of that firm, having previously been vice-president and very active in the management. He is also one of the five members of the board of directors.

Col. Skinner is a trustee of the college, and an ex-president of the Alumni Association. He is director in many Hartford banking and trust companies.

Dr. Lorin Webster, '80, the headmaster of Holderness school, will visit President Luther over Sunday and preach in the chapel on that day. It was incorrectly stated in last Friday's issue of the "Tripod" that he would preach last Sunday. Dr. Webster holds a special interest for Trinity men as being the headmaster of a school which sends a great majority of its graduates to Trinity.

'91. A. C. Graves, '91, is the author of a lengthy article on "Railroad Accounting and the Hepburn Law," which appeared in the Railroad Age Gazette, December 11, 1908 to January 1, 1909. He deals in full with the working of this law, and the changes caused by it. He says:

"In the very unfortunate results which have ensued after one brief year of railroad operation under the Hepburn Law and which we have briefly rehearsed, all people suffer, the shipper as well as the investor. But the investor and stockholder, whose rights are seldom regarded by politicians and never by commissions, have a complaint also against the president and directors of our railroad companies. It is that, while objecting in speech and written statement they have yielded with a singular facile compliance to the unlawful demands of the Commission in respect of railroad accounting. To protest by speech and public interview when partisan feeling is running high is of little avail. We think that, regardless of fears and personal inconvenience, in a broader and higher appreciation of their position, as trustees of the transportation interests of the country in which are invested thirteen thousand millions of dollars of private capital and personal savings, the most tremendous industry, perhaps, in the entire world, they should appeal to the protection of the Federal courts to check the autocratic assumption of unconstitutional power on the part of the Interstate Commerce Commission."

'93. On January 5th James Cullen tendered a banquet at the Business Men's Club, Cincinnati, to members of the Alpha Delta Phi Fraternity, residing in Cincinnati and several adjacent cities. The twenty-two guests present embraced graduates of ten colleges. During the evening a movement was started to adopt the plan which has proven so popular among the New York Trinity men of having monthly meetings on informal lines. Trinity was also represented by the Rev. John Moore McGann, '95, now located at Columbus, O.

ex-'08. Miss Emma Selapp and Oliver Warren Badgley were married December 23 at Fort Madison, Ia. The bridegroom, who was familiarly known as "Badg," was Trinity's star pitcher a few years ago and also pitched for the Hartford professionals. Mr. and Mrs. Badgley will live at Hackettstown, N. J.

The Connecticut Mutual Life Insurance Company,

HARTFORD, CONN.,

Why should I insure my life?

Because it is a debt you owe to those who are dependent upon your earnings for their support.

You admit that it is your duty to supply their needs from day to day, but forget that it is equally your duty to provide an ever ready and sufficient equivalent for your earning power, which your family stands in constant jeopardy to lose by your premature death.

Guard your family against disaster and yourself against dependency in old age.

When should I insure my life?

Now! The cost will never be less, and tomorrow you may not be able to obtain insurance at any price.

Even if others are not now dependent upon you, take time by the forelock and you will be the better able to meet future responsibilities, and at a smaller premium.

Where shall I insure my life?

In a purely Mutual Company.

In a company that earns, declares, and pays annual dividends.

In a company that is doing a conservative business.

Such a Company is The Connecticut Mutual Life Insurance Company of Hartford, Conn. It furnishes perfect protection at lowest cost.

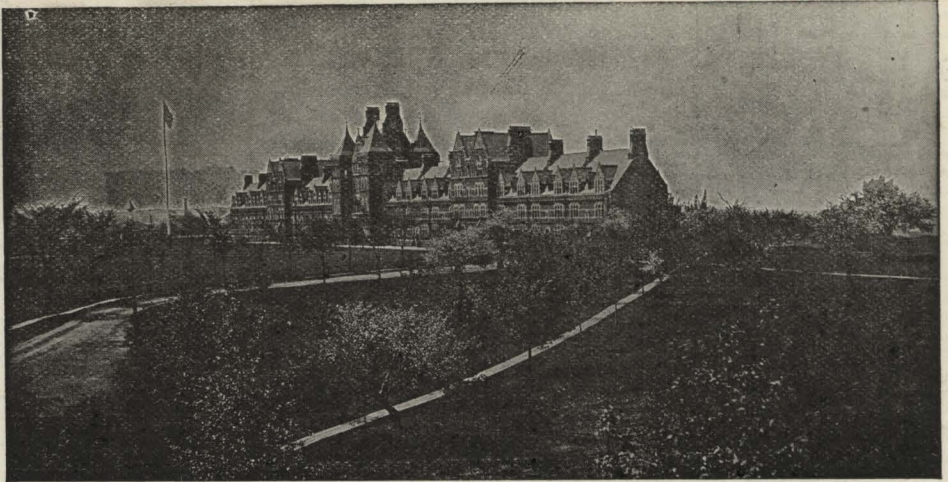

For further information, address the Company, or any of its agents.
