THE FOOTBALL SEASON OF 1909.

Summary of the Games Played.

The football season just closed has been one of the most successful seasons that we have had, and the only regret that there seems to be is that we did not have such colleges as Amherst and Williams on our schedule. In this season just past Trinity showed up even better than other colleges which beat Amherst and Williams.

The work of the team might be criticized from a few standpoints, but as a whole one could not ask for a better team than we had this year, and everyone is proud of the record they have made. If we could be as equally successful in our other branches of athletics, we would be more than fortunate. In the first game of the season, that with Worcester Tech, while the team did not show up exceptionally well they did show that they had excellent material and were fast. At the beginning of this game, it rather looked as if it were all Worcester's way. They secured the first touchdown in the first ten minutes of play. On the next kick-off Trinity came back strong and with little difficulty they made the second touchdown of the game. The half ended with the score a tie, but in the first few minutes of the second half Trinity made another touchdown. This ended the scoring of the game, and the final score was 12 to 6 in favor of Trinity.

The strong Army team was the next one taken on, and in this game it was shown that Trinity made one of the forward passes to very good advantage, for it was by means of a forward pass that they were able to score on West Point. The Army also made one of their touchdowns on a forward pass, but it was mostly by line plunging that they made their gains. It was not to be hoped for that we could beat West Point and scoring on them was looked upon as a victory for Trinity. It was the first time since the two teams have met that Trinity has succeeded in crossing the Army's goal line. This game resulted in the score of 17 to 6 in favor of West Point.

Following this game was the one with Holy Cross at Worcester. Had the game been played on our own field or with officials of the right sort we undoubtedly would have beaten them. Holy Cross was outplayed at every stage of the game, and only by rough playing and very poor work on the part of the officials were they able to score. Trinity secured the first touchdown but were not able to kick the goal, because of the strong wind that was blowing against them. In the middle of the second half Holy Cross secured their touchdown, but were also unable to kick the goal. The game ended with the score a tie 5-5. It is hoped that some other college such as Amherst or Williams can be placed on our schedule next year in place of Holy Cross.

The next victims were the Norwich team, which defeated Wesleyan by the score of 6 to 0, and tied Amherst. They had no chances against the "Gold and Blue." And their only score was made on a fluke. Cook who was injured in the Holy Cross game was unable to play, so O. Gildersleeve played at quarter. In the first few minutes of the game Norwich intercepted a forward pass near their goal line and carried the ball over for a touchdown, but failed to kick goal. In the next few minutes Trinity rushed the ball down the field for a touchdown. They failed to kick goal however, and the score at this stage of the game was a tie. The half ended with the score 11 to 5 in favor of Trinity. In the second half Norwich was driven over her own goal line and Trinity scored a safety, ending the scoring, Trinity 13, Norwich 5.

The following Saturday the team journeyed up to Hamilton, N. Y., where they played one of their best games of the season against the strong Colgate aggregation. Colgate anticipated Trinity's strength, but besides that they found that they were up against one of the snappiest and pluckiest teams that ever put in appearance at Hamilton. Trinity was outweighed considerably, but her backs and ends had much the better of Colgate's. One of the Hamilton papers said of the game "that the work of Trinity was very commendable and their performance was one that greatly surprised Colgate." Several times during the game each team succeeded in carrying the ball to the other's 15-yard line only to be held on downs. Those that saw this game thought that it was even harder played than the Wesleyan game. The score of this game was 0 to 0.

The Connecticut Agricultural College from Storrs gave Trinity a little practice game on the following Saturday, for such it proved to be. In this game with the exception of two men, all of the first team were taken out and the "Subs" put in. The Aggies were outclassed at every stage of the game, and even the second team had no difficulty in making touchdowns on them. The score at the end of the first half was 30 to 0 in favor of Trinity, while at the end of the game it was 64 to 0. A great mistake was made in having Storrs on our schedule at all for the average high school team could have given a better practice game. Of course Storrs was greatly handicapped by the loss of five of their regulars, and that more than probably has a great deal to do with the snow storm which completely buried them. Perhaps it is a good thing for the team to have one game of the year in which they can play. It doesn't help the team materially, but it does give them a sort of recreation.

Then next Saturday found the Wesleyan team and some four or five hundred rooters here. While they had not had a very successful season, they did intend to end it up gloriously by defeating Trinity. It was a great week for them, and a victory over Trinity would have added greatly to the glory of their inauguration. Just having inaugurated their new president, they were especially anxious to win, for they wanted to show him that they could beat their greatest rival, Trinity.

The game started by Wesleyan's kicking off to Trinity, and it was almost before the Wesleyan rooters knew what had happened, that Trinity had carried the ball almost the entire length of the field on line plunges for her first touchdown. The half ended with the score 6 to 0 in favor of Trinity. Trinity opened up strong again at the beginning of the second half and scored another touchdown. Wesleyan then braced up a bit and played their hardest. As a result they were able to score a touchdown and came within five yards of scoring a second one. At this stage of the game our team was pretty well used up, but they showed their pluck, and every man played the game of his life. When the game ended the ball was in Trinity's possession well into Wesleyan's territory. The score at the end of this game was 12 to 6 in favor of Trinity.

In the last game of the season which the team played, that with Haverford, the team was in poor shape. They showed the effect of their long schedule and hard training, and besides most of the men were saving themselves as much as possible for the "N. Y. U." game which was to have been played on Thanksgiving. Had the men known that it was the last game of the season, and for some of them their last game of football, they would have undoubtedly rolled up a score somewhat similar to that of the Stoses game. Without half playing football they were able to defeat Haverford by the score of 17 to 0.

Thanksgiving morning the team journeyed down to New York where they were to play "N. Y. U." that afternoon. On arriving in New York they found that "N. Y. U." would not play us on that day, but wanted to postpone the game until Saturday because of bad weather. None of the players wanted to stay in New York until Saturday, for they were tired out since they had been in training since the 2nd of October. N. Y. U. were told that

EDITORIAL.

This year the 'varsity football team
was the best playing machine that Trinity ever had. To perfect this aggregation from much green material was only accomplished by the faithful and skillful work of Coach Raymond G. Gettell.
When one stops to consider the amount of work necessary to bring a football team to the proper shape, one realizes fully what Coach Gettell did in addition to his regular collegiate work. Too much praise can not be given Professor Gettell.

The schedule arranged by the management contained games with colleges
larger than Trinity and as a consequence four games were battles royal.
While the teams played did not bring Trinity into great prominence, yet they were of an excellent standard in the football world. Next year it is hoped that both Williams and Amherst will be on the schedule.

The team should be complimented upon the clean way in which they played the game. It showed the sportsmanship that all colleges should strive for.

As usual, Trinity confined its tactics
to the new game, in which the forward pass, end runs, and on side kicks gained many yards. The team suffered but two injuries at all serious, Captain Henshaw and Cook were both kept out of the game for a while on account of injuries received. The team this year played more as a unit, than ever before, and it was this combined with the individual stars that accomplished so much.

The 'varsity this year was helped a great deal by the fact that a large number of good second string men were available. It has been often said that a good scrub team makes a 'varsity, that maxim was proved at Trinity this year. The second eleven should be complimented upon the excellent manner and great interest showed, with which they strengthened the Trinity football team.

The Tripod wishes to extend its congratulations to the members of the team, Coach Gettell, and the second teams for the past successful season,
and hopes that next year's team and season will even be better.

they could either play then or not at all. They refused to play that day, and consequently they forfeited the game to Trinity with the score of 1 to 0. It was afterwards learned that "N. Y.
U.'s" real reason for not playing was that their quarterback was sick. They did not feel as though they had any chance of beating us without their quarter, and they thought that it would be better to forfeit the game than lose it.

Number of games won 5.

Number of tie games 2.

RAMSDELL CHOSEN CAPTAIN OF 1910 FOOTBALL TEAM.

A Unanimous Vote.

At a meeting of this year's football team on Wednesday, Earl Blanchard Ramsdell 1911, of Lee, Massachusetts, was elected captain of the 1910 football team. This news comes not unexpectedly to the followers to Trinity football.
The vote was unanimous and no formal ballot was used.

Ramsdell is the best player Trinity has had for some years, and without doubt would make any college team in the country. He is not only the most popular man on the team, but also on the campus. Ramsdell shines particularly in the forward pass tactics and rushing the ball, and it is seldom that it does not take more than one man to down him, when he has the ball. He is an enthusiastic player and takes part in every play, and also he is a born leader, which makes him all the more capable for the position of captain. In his playing he is particularly clean. This season was his third year as a member of the 'varsity.

Ramsdell is a member of the Phi Gamma Delta fraternity, of the Sophomore Dining Club, the Junior Prom Committee, and the basketball team.
Last year he was a weight man on the track team. It was he who with Gildersleeve has taken such active part in the St. Patrick's day "scraps" during the past two years.

Captain Arthur B. Henshaw 1910, played at his usual position of right half back until the Colgate game where he received a badly wrenched leg which kept him out of the remaining games.
His playing this year was of unusually high order in all departments of the game. With Henshaw in the interference a play was sure to gain, as well as when he carried the ball. It was a great disappointment to Henshaw and to all Trinity supporters that he was unable to play in the Wesleyan game. Henshaw has played four years on the 'varsity.

Hobart W. Cook 1910, played quarterback. In generalship he appeared to good advantage, while the rapidity with which he got off punts was a feature of every game. In the catching and return of punts Cook was sure, but in rushing the ball, speed was against him though clever at dodging he gained many yards. Practically all of the forward passes tried were sent off by him. This was his first year on the 'varsity.

Earl B. Ramsdell 1911, who is captain of next year's team, was this year shifted from right end to halfback. As usual he made many long gains and was in every play. Time and again he would drag several men five or more yards before being downed. In open field work and recovery of the forward pass he shone particularly well. For the past three years the excellent playing of Ramsdell has astonished everyone who saw him. In the Storrs, Wesleyan and Haverford games he was field captain. Next year Ramsdell will probably again play in the backfield where he adds much strength and speed.

W. F. McElroy 1910, played on the 'varsity at center this year for the first time. He is rather light for such a position, but is aggressive, and played well except for rather erratic passing for punts.

J. O. Carroll 1911, was this year shifted from tackle, where he played for two years, to fullback. Carroll, though not very fast, advanced the ball many yards by heady and fighting work. On the defense he was perhaps the strongest man on the team, as he was in every play and used his ability in the right place and at the right time. He also did some of the punting and executed the forward pass well.

A. L. Gildersleeve 1911, was this year shifted back to his position at right end. On the defense he played his best game; many times did he stop the opponent's plays before they were under way. In the latter part of the season he rushed the ball for good gains. The goal kicking of Gildersleeve was one of the leading features of the team. He missed but three goals during the entire season, which puts him far above most of the university goal kickers. He has been on the 'varsity for three years.

V. G. Burdick 1911, was again at left end in most of the games. On the defense he was rather weak, but in rushing the ball, his speed gained many yards for Trinity. This year he received the forward pass much better than last. He has played two years on the team.

Loveland 1912, entered college this year and was immediately placed at left guard, where he finished the season. He is big and aggressive, many times did he break through and stop plays before they had really started.

Charles Howell 1913, came to Trinity from St. Marks, where he captained the team. Howell played right tackle, and, though somewhat light, was fast. Several times did he get down under punts and either recovered them or made splendid tackles. He did very little offensive work but was perhaps the best tackler on the squad.

H. G. Woodbury 1913, played left tackle after the first game. He was in every play and spilled the tackle plays of the opponents in an excellent manner. Though this year somewhat unaccustomed to the Trinity style of play another year will doubtlessly find him and excellent line man.

McCreary 1913, the third freshman on 'varsity played at right guard in every game, but was often substituted for in the second half. McCreary, new to football, did not understand the game well enough to make an excellent guard. However, with his weight and this year's experience, he should make good on next year's team.

Charles H. Bassford 1910, should head the list of substitutes, as it was he who took Captain Henshaw's place in the backfield. Bassford has been one of the most faithful men on the squad for the past four years, and everyone was glad to see him in the game this year. In the Wesleyan game he was one of the stars, especially in rushing the ball. On the defense he was plucky, though weight was against him.

W. S. Eaton 1910, also substituted in the back field. He carried the ball well, but open field tackling was his strong point. Lack of speed handicapped him on the offense. Eaton has been on the squad for four years.

G. C. Capen 1910, substituted at end in several games, where he played well. He did his best work in the Wesleyan game, where he spoiled Wesleyan's chance of scoring a second touchdown. Capen has been on the squad for two years.

W. J. Nelson 1910, played in the line during some of the games. Heavy and

The 8% 10-Year Purchasing-Fund Gold Certificates

ISSUED BY

THE WHEEL-MOTOR TRACTION CO.

This company has the sales monopoly of an improved form of commercial automobile, now in successful use by the U. S. Government and leading business concerns. The $25,000 accumulated by the sale of these certificates is to be used for one purpose only—buying machines at the factory to fill orders. The machines are then shipped C. O. D. to the purchasers. Thus there is no credit risk, and the investors' money is neither tied up in equipment nor dissipated by expenses, but is either in cash on hand or convertible thereto at short notice.

Investors in this purchasing fund have the option of withdrawal of principal before maturity. A strong National Bank has agreed to act as Trustee of this fund for and on behalf of investors—to see that it is kept intact and used only as a purchasing fund. This bank will pay dividends as they fall due and will return to any certificate holder, upon sixty days' notice, the amount of his investment or any part of it, should he desire to withdraw same at any time before maturity.

The total issue is only $25,000, each certificate being for $25. For the present, with each $25 certificate is given one share of 8 per cent preferred stock, par value $10; and with each $100 purchase five shares of preferred are given. This unusual opportunity really brings the net return up to about 12 per cent, with the prospect of selling the preferred for nearly enough to pay for the whole investment. We make this offer so that it will not be necessary for this announcement to appear extensively, as previous issues have been largely oversubscribed.

If interested in absolute security of principal, large and definite interest return, and opportunity of speedy withdrawal of principal before maturity if desired, this investment should receive your immediate attention. Communications and orders should be addressed, and checks made payable to,

The Connecticut Mutual Life Insurance Company,

HARTFORD, CONN.,

Why should I insure my life?

Because it is a debt you owe to those who are dependent upon your earnings for their support.

You admit that it is your duty to supply their needs from day to day, but forget that it is equally your duty to provide an ever ready and sufficient equivalent for your earning power, which your family stands in constant jeopardy to lose by your premature death.

Guard your family against disaster and yourself against dependency in old age.

When should I insure my life?

Now! The cost will never be less, and tomorrow you may not be able to obtain insurance at any price.

Even if others are not now dependent upon you, take time by the forelock and you will be the better able to meet future responsibilities, and at a smaller premium.

Where shall I insure my life?

In a purely Mutual Company.

In a company that earns, declares, and pays annual dividends.

In a company that is doing a conservative business.

Such a Company is The Connecticut Mutual Life Insurance Company of Hartford, Conn. It furnishes perfect protection at lowest cost.

The Library contains about 56000 volumes, 30 per cent of which have been purchased within the last twelve years. It is open daily for consultation and study.

The Laboratories, Physical, Chemical, Biological, and Physico-psychological, are fully equipped with modern apparatus for work in these departments. Special attention is given to work in preparation for Electrical Engineering, Civil Engineering, Industrial Chemistry, and Medicine.

Extensive courses are offered for study in Mathematics, Ancient Languages, Modern Languages, Economics, History, Ethics, and Philosophy.

A large list of valuable scholarships and prizes may be found in the Annual Catalogue.

For Catalogues and information address the President or the Secretary of the Faculty.

fast he did good work, but was somewhat erratic. It is probable that he will return another year, when he will make a strong try for a first string position.

O. Gildersleeve 1912, the 'varsity substitute quarter back, did well in the games in which he played. However, in one game he was at end where he showed at a better advantage. He has been substitute for two years.

N. T. Breed 1912, is a capable substitute for any line position. He played in the majority of games during the second half. His offensive work was the better.

Among the other substitutes were: Green '11, Disell '11, Short '12, Ahern '12, Collett '13 and Barney '13.
