FOOTBALL TEAM GOES TO HAVERFORD.

A Victory is Expected in Game To-morrow.

In the next to the last game of the season Trinity will meet Haverford next Saturday afternoon at Haverford. It is likely that the team will find a striking contrast at this game to the wild enthusiasm of last Saturday's victory since Haverford is so distant that few Trinity men will be in attendance. With the line of victories to their credit our men should meet the Pennsylvanians with confidence. Haverford has been one of the less fortunate teams of the season and her defeats almost equal Trinity's victories. In the game with Rutgers last Saturday Haverford was defeated 11 to 0. Throughout the game the ball was in their territory and in the first half they made some bad fumbles. Haverford was defeated by N. Y. U., 29 to 0 and by Lehigh 18 to 0. The line-up for Trinity will be the same as last Saturday. Loveland will be able to play in spite of his slight injury. The story about his having water on the knee which appeared in a Hartford paper is more than slightly exaggerated. Haverford seems to have a good man in Captain Levin, quarterback, who has done most of the work that the team has to its credit. The line-up for Saturday's game will be as follows:

Haverford.		Trinity.
Birdsall	1e	Burdick
Brownlee	1t	Woodbury
Barett	1g	Loveland
Post	c	McElroy
Froehlicher	rg	McCreery
Lonstreth	rt	Howell
Watson	re	Gildersleeve
Levin (c)	qb	Cooke
Wheeler	1hb	Ramsdell
Murray	rhb	Bassford
Porter	fb	Carroll

Guitars—Pitts '11, Robbins '13, C. H. Howell '13.

Mandola—Stansfield '10.

Violin—Flanders '11.

Cello—Dawley '13.

PROFESSOR KLEENE LECTURES BEFORE SOCIALISTS.

Discusses Their Party Platform.

Professor Gustav A. Kleene of the Department of Economics addressed Branch No. 8 of the Socialist party, last Tuesday evening on "Comments on the National Platform of the Socialist Party."

He said that the party stands for much that reformers favor and the immediate question is whether or not the platform is the best one on which various forces can unite. Though fault may be found with it, it is better than that of the two great parties for theirs are windy and insincere, drawn with a long list of demands and involving many questions which never will come before congress. The socialist platform starts from a different point of view, because the party takes seriously what it prints. It was drawn by able men, but it would seem that a number of demands in it might be put in differently, or omitted altogether. It appeals principally to the industrial class and demands a shorter work day and the prohibition of the employment of children, both good things, which should, perhaps, be there; but it ought to appeal to other classes, to the intellectual portion of society who are showing a drift toward socialism, to physicians, teachers and clergymen. The party cannot do without them, even though in other countries there may be a tendency among socialists to sneer at them.

The platform shows that the men who drew it were not versed in constitutional law, and in this matter the party should pull itself together and devote more time to the study of our political institutions. The general impression outside the party is that it is made up of men who have not been in this country long enough to become acquainted with our institutions and this notion ought not to be strengthened by the platform. For instance, the industrial demands include a shorter workday and the abolition of child labor. Both these are commendable, but the federal government cannot legislate on this matter, except as it affects its own employees. The subject is one for the different states to handle and the platform should have made this clear. The party should either take up the fight in the different states, else work for an amendment to the federal constitution giving the authority to congress to control such questions. What the party needs is to make a careful study of constitutional history and constitutional law and map out a program based on that study.

Professor Kleene was heartily applauded at the close of his remarks and Leo Weinstein, chairman of the meeting, said that Professor Kleene had been so fair and friendly that no member of the party could find fault with his attitude. The address was followed by a discussion.

ALPHA DELTA PHI DANCE.

Annual Dance Held at the Chapter House Last Tuesday.

On Tuesday evening, November 16th a dance was given by the Phi Kappa Chapter of the Alpha Delta Phi fraternity at the chapter house at 122 Vernon street. The fraternity house was tastefully decorated with smilax and white chrysanthemums. The porch was enclosed with canvas and attractively decorated and lighted by Japanese lanterns. During the first part of the evening a regular dance program was carried out, and after supper a cotillion was held, led by Alfred Howell and Miss Helen Hatch. The music was furnished by Hatch's orchestra and the catering was by Habenstein.

The patronesses were: Mrs. Flavel S. Luther, Mrs. George D. Howell and Mrs. Henry A. Perkins. Those present were: Miss Marjorie Barton, Miss Helen Nichols, Miss Catherine Souther, Miss Margaret Brockway, Miss Catherine Parker, Miss Mildred Quiggle, Miss Helen Lyman, Miss Margaret Sage, Miss Dorothy Davis, Miss Marjorie Howe, Miss Helen Hatch, Miss Marion Welles, Miss Helen Shepard, Miss Leila Sampson, Miss Marion Hawley, Miss Andrews of Boston, Mass., Miss Lewis, Miss Roswell Hawley, Miss Wilson, Professor Henry A. Perkins, Walter Schutz, Richard L. Wright, Alfred Howell, George T. Keyes, Blinn F. Yates, William B. Gibson, Walter M. Farrow, John Reddick, Paul Herrick, William A. Bird 4th, Elliot Pettigrew, Brian H. Barnett, Allan B. Cook, Charles H. Howell, John P. Leavenworth, Joseph N. Barnett, John Moore, Robert M. Foot, Robert Withington, Vincent Pazzetti of Wellesly Hills, Mass., and Donald Barnett of Jacksonville, Florida.

COMMUNICATION.

Nov. 13, 1909.

Editor of Tripod:—

Allow me to protest against the communication from "Sanity" published in your issue of November 9th criticising the compulsory attendance at gymnasium work now required by the college. Instead of that requirement being "far-cical, illogical and unjust" as described in rather exaggerated manner by "Sanity", I submit on the contrary, that it is a most valuable feature in the student life. No doubt Sanity is one of those for whom it is especially intended. There are many men who would rather go through their college course without any attention to regular and methodical development of the body and they come out of college lacking all physical graces and lacking that well rounded physical development and soundness which insures the sound mind. It is well that the college makes compulsory what each man should feel it a duty and privilege to attend voluntarily. The most awkward men have been rounded out and made efficient for general athletics and

Hop to be Held December Third.

At the meeting of the Sophomore class held in the History room last Thursday, L. H. McClure was elected chairman of the Sophomore Hop Committee. He immediately appointed the following men to serve on his committee: Carpenter, Reddick, Whipple, Blake, Jamieson, Sommers, Bateman and Bates the class president, ex-officio. This committee has almost completed its arrangements for the Hop.

The dance will be held in Alumni Hall on the evening of December the third. It will consist of sixteen dances and will probably be of a most informal nature. The programs will be neat folders printed in the class colors, red and blue, and will introduce a feature new to Trinity college. The dance is open to all students and alumni of the college, all of whom are most cordially invited to attend. The list of patronesses has not been announced, but it will be composed of the wives of the professors. The tickets are one dollar a couple and may be obtained in a few days from L. H. McClure.

for the milder sports of tennis and golf by daily attention to physical culture, either in their rooms or in the gymnasium. By all means enforce the college requirement as to gymnasium work, and enforce it in a willing spirit, cheerfully and hopefully. It is the foundation of any great improvement in football and baseball which the college may hope for.

EDITORIAL.

Now that the football season is approaching an end, it is high time that the undergraduates turn their attention to other activities. The musical clubs this year have arranged a series of concerts that is better than ever before. The first one comes just a week from to-night, and as conditions appear at present the clubs are not very well prepared for the affair. At the first call for candidates a large number of men reported, but since then the number has been gradually dwindling down, until now not enough men attend rehearsals to make even a fair showing at a concert. Up to within a few years the Trinity College clubs have had an excellent reputation, but of late this reputation has lessened considerably. At the beginning of the season, it looked as if this excellent position would be regained. Why can it not? It is not too late to develop the new men and all men should help support the leaders of both the Glee and Mandolin Clubs who are working hard to have a good season. The management has gone to a considerable expense to provide excellent trainers, who are now necessarily working against a great disadvantage. What the musical men should have is the same Trinity "fighting spirit" that the football team has displayed this fall.

Compared to the records of the last few years, the membership of the Athletic Association is not nearly as large as it should be. Almost every man in college by a little sacrifice could pay his five dollars twice a year and have his name enrolled as a member. The funds derived from the membership of the association is one of its important sources of revenue. If this falls off, the association will have a hard time keeping up and athletic games must of necessity become fewer. The association does its duty to the college and every student should aid it, which means that he should become a member and aid it from the inside. Governing the athletic relations of the college is a greater problem than most undergraduates are apt at first to think and if we do not want to see our athletics go backward we must do all in our power to help the Athletic Association.

DELTA PSI FRATERNITY HOLDS COTILLION.

Very Enjoyable Affair Held Last Night.

The Epsilon Chapter of the fraternity of Delta Psi gave their first cotillion of the season on Thursday evening at St. Anthony's Hall, twenty-five couples being in attendance. The affair was the first social affair of the season given by the chapter. The hall was prettily decorated for the occasion, cut flowers and evergreens being used. The cotillion was divided into two parts, the first being led by John Richard Cook, Jr., '10, and the second by Paul Maxon '11. The figures were varied and attractive and there were many favors. Music was furnished by Hatch's orchestra and a supper was served in the intermission. The patronesses were: Mrs. Flavel S. Luther and Mrs. F. E. Haight of Brooklyn, N. Y. Among those in attendance were the following: President Flavel S. Luther, D.D., the Rev. Cranston Brenton, the Misses Dorothy Clark, Julia Wilson of St. Louis, Marjory Hubbard, Josephine Stedman, Julia Allen, Betty Miller of Detroit, Catherine Souther, Caroline Patton, Florence Goodwin, Anne Loomis and Beth Loomis of Detroit, Marion Welles, Dorothy Allyn, Alice Phillips, Helen Shepard, Helen Hatch, Katherine Parker, Dorothy Davis, Margaret Sage, Liela Samson, Helen Lyman, Marjory Barton, Margaret Brockway, Carolan Alton and Miss Shatlee of Baltimore and Owen Morgan '06, Montague Flagg, W. AN OPPORTUNITY FOR A FEW INVESTORS.

The .8% 10-Year Purchasing-Fund Gold Certificates

ISSUED BY

THE WHEEL-MOTOR TRACTION CO.

This company has the sales monopoly of an improved form of commercial automobile, now in successful use by the U. S. Government and leading business concerns. The $25,000 accumulated by the sale of these certificates is to be used for one purpose only—buying machines at the factory to fill orders.
 The machines are then shipped C. O. D. to the purchasers. Thus there is no credit risk, and the investors' money is neither tied up in equipment nor dissipated by expenses, but is either in cash on hand or convertible thereto at short notice.

Investors in this purchasing fund have the option of withdrawal of principal before maturity. A strong National Bank has agreed to act as Trustee of this fund for and on behalf of investors—to see that it is kept intact and used only as a purchasing fund. This bank will pay dividends as they fall due and will return to any certificate holder, upon sixty days' notice, the amount of his investment or any part of it, should he desire to withdraw same at any time before maturity.

The total issue is only $25,000, each certificate being for $25. For the present, with each $25 certificate is given one share of 8 per cent preferred stock, par value $10; and with each $100 purchase five shares of preferred are given. This unusual opportunity really brings the net return up to about 12 per cent, with the prospect of selling the preferred for nearly enough to pay for the whole investment. We make this offer so that it will not be necessary for this announcement to appear extensively, as previous issues have been largely oversubscribed.

If interested in absolute security of principal, large and definite interest return, and opportunity of speedy withdrawal of principal before maturity if desired, this investment should receive your immediate attention. Communications and orders should be addressed, and checks made payable to,

The Connecticut Mutual Life Insurance Company,

HARTFORD, CONN.,

Why should I insure my life?

Because it is a debt you owe to those who are dependent upon your earnings for their support.

You admit that it is your duty to supply their needs from day to day, but forget that it is equally your duty to provide an ever ready and sufficient equivalent for your earning power, which your family stands in constant jeopardy to lose by your premature death.

Guard your family against disaster and yourself against dependency in old age.

When should I insure my life?

Now! The cost will never be less, and tomorrow you may not be able to obtain insurance at any price.

Even if others are not now dependent upon you, take time by the forelock and you will be the better able to meet future responsibilities, and at a smaller premium.

Where shall I insure my life?

In a purely Mutual Company.

In a company that earns, declares, and pays annual dividends.

In a company that is doing a conservative business.

Such a Company is The Connecticut Mutual Life Insurance Company of Hartford, Conn. It furnishes perfect protection at lowest cost.

COMMUNICATION.

Let every undergraduate loyally back up Professor Swan who can accomplish much greater results when his subjects are willing and anxious to co-operate with him. The Alumni want to build up the reputation of the college along proper lines in the matter of athletics, but their contributions will be of no avail unless the undergraduates vigorously co-operate by training themselves so as to present sound bodies, supple muscles and the physical and moral courage that go therewith. All this takes its start in the gymnasium.
