HARTFORD'S LEAD TOO BIG.

Trinity Rallies in the Ninth.

The Hartford team took a game at Trinity Field Wednesday afternoon from Trinity by a score of 5 to 3. It was good baseball weather with the exception of a high wind which made the judgment of the high ones rather difficult, one of the home team's errors being attributed to this fact.

Hartford started off in the first inning after the first two men were down, with a two bagger by Hart, and a single by Connery, who scored the former, Goede, the next man up being an easy out. The league team went out in order in the second, but succeeded in adding one more in the third when McKenna reached first on a misjudged fly, and was scored by Hart's single. The third and fourth were uneventful for the professionals, and their next score came in the sixth when McKenna reached the initial sack on a fast ball which he put between Horan's legs. Davison got a bingle sending "Mac" home. Trinity pulled off what looks like a double play in this inning, but the umpire did not allow it, and although Connery got a nasty crack from Olson, and the next man hit safe, there was no more in it for Hartford. The next two innings were empty for them also, and it was not until the ninth, that they found Olsen, Metzger getting a single, followed by Friel, who pulled off a two-bagger, and his successor, Stark, also hit the ball on the nose for a basehit, two runs coming in during the inning, which finished the leaguers scoring.

Trinity did not succeed in crossing the plate until the ninth, although there were men on bases five out of the nine innings. Abbey got the first hit in the second, but Cook, the next man up struck out; in the third inning Olsen who batted a clean 1000 for the home team, got a single, after Gildersleeve reached first on balls, but the next two men were out. The next hit was Olsen's in the eighth, but there was no man on base to send in, and the scoring came at last only in the ninth when Horan reached first by Connery's error, was advanced by L'Hereux's single, and was scored by Abbey who got a single. Cook up next struck, Gildersleeve reached first on a fielder's choice, throwing out "Red" L'Hereux at the plate, when Olsen was good for a two base hit and scored Abbey and Gildersleeve. Smith ended the inning, going out by the pitcher's assist to first.

The hits were even, seven all, and the errors were two for Trinity, one for Hartford. Olsen gave one base on balls, Rehlg giving 2; Olsen struck out 5, Rehlg fanned 4.

TRINITY-WILLIAMS SATURDAY.

Williams Starts out Strong.

The first possible line that could be drawn on Williams came last Wednesday, when the team from the Bay State put it on Princeton by a 2 to 0 score in a 13-inning contest. The New Jersey nine was unable to hit Templeton, while their opponents got to White, and in the thirteenth, after (a man) reached first, the next two men up arrived with single, and two runs were tallied. This is the first game that Williams has played this season and a close rub may be looked for when Trinity visits Williamstown on Saturday.

Probable line-up: Templeton (c) or Davis, p; Lambie, c; Shons, 1b; E. H. Winter, 2b; Mills, 3b; Wallace, ss; Bohnet, lf; Hamilton, cf; Brown, rf.

The William's coach, Wm. Lauder, Brown '98, was for some time a player with the New York Americans.

Templeton, Lambie and Hamilton are veterans in their positions. Shons, Mills and Davis (as substitute) played on last year's team, but Shons and Mills did not occupy the same positions as this year. Thus no infield and only one outfield position will be filled by a veteran. Four men of 'varsity calibre have been injured in practice, and Lewis, who has played three years on the team, is ineligible.

Ralph Hornblower was unanimously elected captain of the Harvard hockey team for the coming season. He has played right wing on the team for two years.

U. G. Kay has been elected captain of the Princeton hockey team for the coming year.

PROF. URBAN LECTURES BEFORE SOCIALISTS.

Discusses the Ethical Values of Labor Unions.

Prof. W. M. Urban of the department of philosophy and psychology addressed the Hartford branch of the socialist party last Tuesday evening on "The Ethical Basis and Moral Justification of the Labor Movement." He said in part:

"The socialist movement has rendered great service to the cause of progress. It has brought about many reforms in our social and political life. While the early socialists considered only the economical aspects of life, the socialists of to-day consider far less important the ideal elements involved in the structure of society. While the philosophers of the intuitionistic school believe in "What was good will always be good," I hold the idealistic, or evolutionary conception i. e. the theory that with the change of social institution, the rights and obligations of men change also. Men have rights and expectations. They are natural and legitimate expectations in the ideal form. The industrial revolution which has introduced the present order of production and distribution has robbed the workman from his rights.

"The 'existence minimum' which every individual needs for the realization of the ethical ends, has become less secured for the workman. The labor unions are to restore the security of laborers and by doing that they perform a high moral act.

"The relation between workmen which was broken off by the extreme division of labor is now restored by the labor unions, which organize all the workers and develop among them a high moral discipline.

"The labor unions develop also in the workingmen class-conscience, class-solidarity which are the rights and obligations between fellow-workers.

"There is a class struggle in society and we can't deny that. It is a factor. The individual workman can't lead his own battles, he naturally combines with other workers, and by means of collective bargaining he fights for a shorter workday, higher wages, securance of his job—all of which are means for the realization of the ethical ends in society. The labor unions are against the present law. It is natural, as law always lacks behind progress and civilization.

"The action of the courts toward labor unions, as it is demonstrated in the absolute unrightful use of injunctions, lead the workingmen to disregard the law. The law is so interpreted as to frustrate the ethical values of labor. The struggle between capital and labor which is constantly going on in the society is brought out by the labor unions before the general public, and it is good that the issues should be known by the public."

Professor Urban concluded his address by giving examples of what the COLLEGE NOTES.

Dr. Luther was a speaker at the Third Annual Banquet of the Plainville Business Men's Association last evening in the town hall at Plainville. He talked on the topic: Our State.

Another meeting of the amputators of the football rules is necessary before it will be ascertained just what kind of a game is to be played on the college gridirons next fall. Half a dozen changes have been decided upon.

labor unions have practically succeeded in their struggle for emancipation. His address was received very warmly and it was heartily applauded by the whole audience. A lively discussion followed. Many socialists have expressed their utmost gratitude for the marvelous and sympathetic address and at the conclusion, a rising vote of thanks was given to the lecturer.

It is interesting to note, that among those present were two members of the faculty, Prof. G. A. Kleene and Prof. C. Brenton and about twenty Trinity students.

EDITORIAL.

Some weeks ago the Senate decided to try and encourage class singing, and for this purpose offered a banner to the class which should do the best campus singing. The various classes elected sing leaders—and then the movement, like many other good movements here at Trinity, died and vanished away on account of lack of interest among the undergraduates as a whole. Trinity never has had a reputation for good singing. We do not compare with such colleges as Amherst and Wesleyan; and there is no very good reasons why this should be so. This year we have a splendid glee club, and there are many men outside of the musical organizations who have good voices and know how to use them. Of course the failure of the recent movement for better singing is due very largely to the class leaders, who so far have not had energy enough to even start any campus singing. If they only got a few men together one or two nights in the week, just enough to lead the songs, and started some college or popular "agony" on the campus, they would certainly draw a crowd from the dormitories. The nights are growing warm, the grass is long and soft, what could be more pleasant than a half hour's singing with your college mates in front of the good old bishop.

In spite of the fact, or perhaps it is on account of the fact, that the track team is unusually weak this spring there is an unusual amount of interest being taken in this branch of sports. There are more men and especially more new men out for the team this year than there were last; and although there are no stars in any of the events the team will be large and very well balanced.

Saturday the interclass meet will be held and this will give us the first opportunity to get a line on what the men can really do. The class rivalry is keen and the points will be very evenly divided, so the records of this contest are sure to be better than those made last year.

INTERCOLLEGIATE NOTES.

The attendance at the larger American Universities, according to Professor Tumbo of Columbia, is as follows: 1, Columbia, 6,132; 2, Harvard, 5,558; 3, Chicago, 5,487; 4, Michigan, 5,259; 5, Cornell, 5,028; 6, Pennsylvania, 4,857; 7, Illinois, 4,502; 8, Minnesota, 4,357; 9, Wisconsin, 4,245; 10, California, 4,084;—O. W. Transcript.

Mrs. Amanda W. Reed of Portland, Ore., bequeathed $7,000,000 to establish a college in Portland to be known as the Reed Institution.

When some of our colleges were founded: The University of Oxford was founded by King Alfred in 872; the first college of the Cambridge University was founded by Hugo, bishop of Ely, in 1257; the University of Paris was founded by King Phillip II. about 1200; the first university of the German empire was at Prague, Bohemia, 1348; Trinity College, Dublin, was incorporated by royal charter in 1591; Howard University and its beginning at Newton in 1636; Yale University had its beginning at Saybrook, Conn., in 1700, and the William and Mary College was started in 1617 and was chartered at Williamsburg, Va., in 1693.

Fate seems to have an eye on the fraternity houses at Cornell. During the last eleven years six fraternity houses have been burned, causing eight deaths and a financial loss of nearly $350,000.

Besides having an organized police corps and militia, Colorado has acquired a hospital corps of ten members.

Chicago seniors have appointed a committee to draw up resolutions requesting the faculty to select a university seal immediately.

The scholastic record of the students at the University of Kansas shows that the standing of fraternity men is higher than that of non-fraternity students.

A movement is on foot at Missouri to eliminate "cuss-words" from the songs.

Princeton's football schedule has been announced, and consists of eight contests. The games and the dates on which they will be played are as follows: Oct. 1 and 5, Villa Nova; October 15, New York University; October 15, Lafayette; October 22, Carlisle; October 29, Dartmouth; November 5, Fordham; November 15, Yale.

The president of the University of Oregon is urging the students to organize a canoe club.

To make geometry popular, Prof. H. E. Slaughter of the University of Chicago (of course) is preparing a text in which the theorems are applied to football and cut glass.

The humor of college hazing has failed to appeal to the New York legislature. That body has lately provided a penalty of from $10 to $100 for ordinary forms of hazing, and has classified as mayhem that form of the "sport" in which the victim is branded with nitrate of silver or other like substance. The penalty for the offense is imprisonment for three years.

The 8% 10-Year Purchasing-Fund Gold Certificates

ISSUED BY

THE WHEEL-MOTOR TRACTION CO.

This company has the sales monopoly of an improved form of commercial automobile, now in successful use by the U. S. Government and leading business concerns. The $25,000 accumulated by the sale of these certificates is to be used for one purpose only—buying machines at the factory to fill orders. The machines are then shipped C. O. D. to the purchasers. Thus there is no credit risk, and the investors' money is neither tied up in equipment nor dissipated by expenses, but is either in cash on hand or convertible thereto at short notice.

Investors in this purchasing fund have the option of withdrawal of principal before maturity. A strong National Bank has agreed to act as Trustee of this fund for and on behalf of investors—to see that it is kept intact and used only as a purchasing fund. This bank will pay dividends as they fall due and will return to any certificate holder, upon sixty days' notice, the amount of his investment or any part of it, should he desire to withdraw same at any time before maturity.

The total issue is only $25,000, each certificate being for $25. For the present, with each $25 certificate is given one share of 8 per cent preferred stock, par value $10; and with each $100 purchase five shares of preferred are given. This unusual opportunity really brings the net return up to about 12 per cent, with the prospect of selling the preferred for nearly enough to pay for the whole investment. We make this offer so that it will not be necessary for this announcement to appear extensively, as previous issues have been largely oversubscribed.

If interested in absolute security of principal, large and definite interest return, and opportunity of speedy withdrawal of principal before maturity if desired, this investment should receive your immediate attention. Communications and orders should be addressed, and checks made payable to,

The Connecticut Mutual Life Insurance Company,

HARTFORD, CONN.,

Why should I insure my life?

Because it is a debt you owe to those who are dependent upon your earnings for their support.

You admit that it is your duty to supply their needs from day to day, but forget that it is equally your duty to provide an ever ready and sufficient equivalent for your earning power, which your family stands in constant jeopardy to lose by your premature death.

Guard your family against disaster and yourself against dependency in old age.

When should I insure my life?

Now! The cost will never be less, and tomorrow you may not be able to obtain insurance at any price.

Even if others are not now dependent upon you, take time by the forelock and you will be the better able to meet future responsibilities, and at a smaller premium.

Where shall I insure my life?

In a purely Mutual Company.
In a company that earns, declares, and pays annual dividends.

In a company that is doing a conservative business.

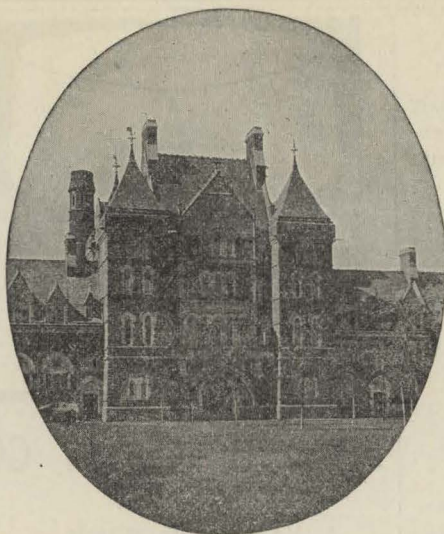

Such a Company is The Connecticut Mutual Life Insurance Company of Hartford, Conn. It furnishes perfect protection at lowest cost.
