COLUMBIA THE WINNER.

Basketball Team Shows Up Creditably in First Game.

The Trinity basketball team played their first game with the strong Columbia team at the Columbia gymnasium in New York, last Friday, and were defeated by a score of 31 to 12. This score is, however, no worse than could have been expected, considering the fact that the Trinity team had only had three days practice before the game, and so were not in as good condition as their opponents, who, moreover, still have several of the men who played on their championship team last year.

About five hundred people were in the temporary stands when the two teams came out on the floor at twenty-five minutes of nine. After some preliminary practice, the opening whistle blew at three minutes after nine. On the Trinity team, Captain Gildersleeve was the only veteran, although Moore and Dissell were on the scrub last year. Sage and Selden are both new men who have never played under college rules before. The inexperience of our men accounts for the number of fouls called on Trinity in the course of the game. On the Columbia team, Captain Kiendl and Benson were both All-Eastern men last year, while the other members of the team were all on last year's Freshman team.

The men took the floor in the following positions:

Line-Up.

Trinity.	Columbia.
Gildersleeve (Capt.) .. r. f. ..	Benson
Sage l. f.	Kiendl (Capt.)
Moore c.	Jaques
Dissell r. g.	Mendelsohn
Selden l. g.	Lee

In the first half the Columbia team showed a greater amount of practice by their superior quickness and accuracy. A number of fouls were called on both sides, especially for holding, and Gildersleeve shot two goals from fouls. Sage and Selden each made a basket for Trinity. Score, Columbia 18, Trinity 6.

In the second half Columbia put in several substitutes, and did not play such an aggressive game. Gildersleeve made a pretty goal for Trinity in this half. Final score—Columbia 31, Trinity 12.

Goals—Kiendl (4), Benson (5), Salisbury (2), Gildersleeve (1), Sage (1), Selden (1), Mendelsohn (1). Fouls—Kiendl (7), Gildersleeve (4), Sage (1), Moore (1). Referees—Griegg, N. Y. A. C. and Salmon, Central Y. M. C. A., Brooklyn. Time-keepers—Ramsdell, Trinity; Rockwood, Columbia. Scorekeeper—Osterhout, Columbia. Time of halves—20 minutes.

After the game the Columbia team gave a dance in the gymnasium to the Trinity team, but our men were unable to remain for it. The next game will be played with West Point in their gymnasium next Saturday afternoon.

N. Y. Alumni Annual Meeting.

The annual meeting of the New York Alumni association was held Dec. 1, at the Graduates' Club, 11 E. 44th street, New York City. The greatest enthusiasm prevailed. The football team was a big topic of conversation and its splendid work was cheered.

It was decided to abolish the monthly meetings because of lack of interest, and in their place to hold special dinners at the discretion of the committee. The dinner to the football team this fall was a large success and the association suggested that the more important undergraduate organizations visiting New York be entertained, instead of holding stated meetings.

The plans for the annual dinner, usually held in February, were left to the executive committee with power.

The affairs of the association are in a flourishing condition, and the association intends to be of use to the college.

The following officers for the ensuing year were elected: President, Hon. W. E. Curtis, '75; vice-presidents, Rev. Dr. E. O. Flagg, '48; Dr. T. M. L. Chrystie, '63; C. E. Hotchkiss, '82; W. S. Langford, '96; secretary, F. C. Hinkel, Jr., '06; treasurer, P. J. McCook, '95; executive committee, M. H. Coggeshall, '96; Rev. Samuel S. Mitchell, A. D. Vibbert, '99; J. J. Penrose, '95, F. R. Holsington, '91 and ex-officio the president and the secretary; committee on dinners, M. H. Coggeshall, '96; F. R. Holsington, '91; P. J. McCook, '95; A. D. Vibbert, '99; A. T. Wynkoop, '01; F. C. Hinkel, Jr., '06.

PSI U. DANCE LAST NIGHT.

Large Attendance at Annual Function.

One of the most delightful dances that has been held at college recently was that given last night by the Beta Beta Chapter of Psi Upsilon at their chapter house at 81 Vernon street.

The four large rooms and the hallway on the first floor were cleared for dancing and crash was laid on the upper hallway for the "Boston" and similar dances. In addition all the rooms upstairs were thrown together and opened up into the hallway as a relief to the crowded dancing floors. The effect of throwing open all of these two floors made the house look very attractive and was necessary on account of the large number of couples dancing. The house was simply decorated with palms and evergreens.

The patronesses were Mesdames J. R. Hawley, — — —

The young ladies present were: Misses Rankin, Shepard, Brockway, M. Hawley, R. Hawley, Sage, Parker, Bolles, Samson, Dunham, Lyman, Nichols, G. Rogers, Tracy, O'Connor, Crowell, Phillips, Hatch, Wells, Allyn and Fenn.

The men present outside the members of the chapter were: Messrs. Everett Bacon, Ralph Merrill, Paul Maxon, Sherman Haight, Harry Rees and Chapin Carpenter.

PRAISE FOR CAPTAIN HOWELL.

N. Y. Paper Comments on Next Year's Possibilities.

(From the New York Sun.)

Trinity's football hopes for next year are centered on the captain-elect, Charles H. Howell of the class of '12. A better man for the task could not have been found. For two years he has been making a name for himself at tackle; he has also been playing a most important part in all branches of college activity, athletic and otherwise. An example of his strength and influence is found in the recent establishment at Trinity of a chapter of the Y. M. C. A., for which he was very largely responsible. He appears to meet with success in all his varied undertakings, still nothing can be quite so soul satisfying as the way in which he has been playing the game of football in the position of right tackle. Judgment, alertness, strength and speed combine to render him conspicuous.

All season long he has insisted on getting down the field with the ends and picking up all the fumbles in sight, more than once with a touchdown as his reward. He has also been highly successful in receiving forward passes, while on the defence he has proved utterly impervious to attack. Unless the cares of leadership weigh too heavily he should figure among the stars of next year's gridiron.

If this year's standard is to be maintained Trinity must acquire some good material in next year's entering class, for some serious losses will be incurred, particularly in the backfield. Ramsdell, one of the best half backs the college has ever known and one of this season's best, particularly in carrying the ball, will be graduated. So also will Carroll, who has always been a most reliable full back. A still more serious loss will be the gap left by the retirement of Quarter Back Cook, who, himself a player of merit, has proved indispensable in getting out of his men the utmost of team play, dash and precision. However, one very good half back, Collett, will remain, while two or three of the forwards, notably Hudson and Lawlor, can at a pinch be transferred to the backfield.

Of the linemen the most serious loss will be Gildersleeve at end; always cool and quick to size up a play, always strong in making interference or in breaking it, he has this year developed still further and will be sorely missed. Although Clark has played but one year at guard his place too will be hard to fill.

The best of the substitutes, Nelson at tackle, Dissell at quarter and Buck at half, will also be graduated. While there is no real ground for pessimism there will have to be a stirring up of that fighting spirit which has so often pulled Trinity teams out of a tight place.

NOW FOR THE SMOKER!

Every Man Has a Definite Engagement for Friday Evening.

As previously announced in The Tripod, a college smoker is to be held at Bond's Rathskellar at 8 p. m. next Friday evening, December 9th. This smoker is being given in honor of the football team, and its coach and manager, and it is the duty of every undergraduate to be there. This is also a good opportunity for the Hartford alumni to turn out in full force, and as loyal Trinity men show their appreciation of the good work the team has done for Trinity this fall. The New York alumni have done their part by giving the team a dinner after the West Point game, and it is the Hartford graduates' turn. The smoker will be informal, and everyone will pay for what he orders. Remember the place and date: Bond's Rathskellar, at 8 p. m. next Friday.

Sophomore Hop Next Week.

The sophomore hop will be held on Tuesday, Dec. 13. Judging from reports it will be a great success. Tickets are now on sale and may be procured from members of the committee or 17 Jarvis. G. C. Heater is chairman of the committee.

Chess Tournament Progressing.

Most of the matches in the preliminary rounds of the chess tournament have been played off and play in the next round will commence this week. The results to date are as follows: Barnett, '13, defeated Dooman, '11, 2-1; Adkins, '13, defeated C. Ward, '13, 2½-½; Bird, '12, defeated de Ronge, '14, 2-0.

Under the conditions of the tournament the first player to total two games (draws counting ½) wins the match.

Junior Promenade Committee.

At a meeting of the class of 1912, McClure was elected chairman of the junior promenade committee and appointed the following men: Carpenter, secretary-treasurer, Whipple, Bateman, Rankin, Humphrey, Pettigrew, Short, Steven, Jamieson.

Nominations for Football Manager.

The college senate at its last meeting made nominations for the assistant manager of the football team for next year. The election will be held at the meeting of the Athletic Association on December 8. The following are the nominees, together with their respective standings under the point system: Dillard, 86.2; Roberts, 92.1; Jewett, 97.6; Ward, 92.1; Withington, 100.

Note:—As this issue goes to press, the name of H. J. Roberts has been withdrawn.

"NOW THEN—TRINITY!"

COLLEGE SOCIALIST SOCIETY.

Professors Kleene and Urban Endorse Its Purpose.

The recently issued bi-monthly bulletin of the Intercollegiate Socialist Society contains, among many other matters concerning the growth and development of study chapters in different colleges and universities, an item of interest to every Trinity man. The society prints a list of names of prominent professors who have endorsed the purpose of the Intercollegiate Socialist Society—"to promote an intelligent interest in Socialism among college men and women." Among the many leading figures of the "Faculties of American Colleges," we find the names of two professors at Trinity, namely,—Dr. G. A. Kleene, professor of economics, and Dr. Wilbur M. Urban, professor of philosophy.

The bulletin also gives an account of the work done by the organized chapters of the society in more than twenty colleges and universities. All chapters report excellent work in arousing interest in an intelligent discussion of the social and economic problems embodied in the study of socialism.

Lectures upon subjects of vital importance are held at the meetings of the chapters. The lectures are delivered by members of the faculties or by invited speakers noted in the socialist movement in this country. All study groups are in a flourishing and promising condition.

In the news from Harvard, we find the following note:—

"The petition of three hundred students of Harvard last June for a course in socialism to be given by a lecturer in sympathy with the socialist movement has borne fruit, and the petitioners are now assured that their request will be granted if a suitable man for such a course can be found."

ALUMNI NOTES.

The Rev. Dr. Beverly Warner died of heart disease last Sunday morning in New Orleans, La., while his congregation in Trinity Church was praying that his life might be spared. Word of his condition was received while the assistant rector of the church, the Rev. A. A. Price, was reading the gospels. It was accompanied by the request that Doctor Holt, Doctor Warner's physician, be sent to the rectory, a short distance away. Mr. Price called for the physician from his pew and then began praying for the rector.

The congregation joined in the prayer. While the words of the supplication were still sounding, the janitor came to the door of the vestry and signaled that Doctor Warner was dead.

For more than 20 years, except for a short time spent in Philadelphia, Doctor Warner had been rector of Trinity, the most fashionable of the Episcopal churches in that city.

Doctor Warner was a man of very liberal education and of considerable literary note. He was born in Jersey City, N. J., in 1885, and after going through the elementary schools, attended successively Princeton University, Trinity College, Connecticut; Berkeley Divinity School, University. From Trinity College he secured the degree of master of arts.

He was a lecturer and writer on sociological topics, and some of his best-known works are "Troubled Waters," a novel; "English History in Shakespeare's Plays," "The Facts and the Faith," "The Young Man in Modern Life," "The Young Woman in Modern Life," and "Famous Introductions to Shakespeare's Plays."

The Rev. Dr. Beverly Warner had a rectorship of five years at St. Stephen's Episcopal Church in Philadelphia, Pa. He went there in 1905, but had scarcely necessitated his return to New Orleans.

Doctor Warner was of great service to his church and the community in New Orleans, where he will be long remembered. The Rev. Dr. Carl E. Gramer, the present rector of St. Stephen's Church, said last night:

"He was a man who made an extraordinary impression in New Orleans by his heroism and organizing ability during the yellow fever peril, several years ago. His services were considered of such importance that people of all creeds united in presenting him with a silver service as a testimonial of their appreciation. He will be remembered in New Orleans as one of the city's heroes."

"Doctor Warner was an author of considerable ability, and possessed a delightful personality."

'06—Clifton C. Brainerd, organist and choirmaster of the Church of the Good Shepherd gave an organ recital last Saturday which was thoroughly enjoyed by a large number of his friends, and members of the church.

Dr. Luther at St. Paul's.

President Luther left Hartford last Saturday afternoon for Concord, N. H., where he exchanged pulpits over Sunday with Professor Henry Ferguson. Professor Ferguson was formerly a lecturer in history at Trinity, and is now head of St. Paul's school at Concord. Each year President Luther goes up to see the St. Paul boys while Professor Ferguson comes to Trinity to renew acquaintances with Trinity men.

For Class-Room, or Social Function.

Yes and for roughing it too. When it comes to right things to wear, for any service the place to go to is Horsfall's, Hartford. Just now this house is showing a complete line of Evening Dress Suits, Tuxedos, and Fancy Waistcoats, and for general wear, there is everything that a fellow could as for the Winter Saints and overcoats.

The Connecticut Mutual Life Insurance Company,

Hartford, Conn.

Why should I insure my life?

Because it is a debt you owe to those who are dependent upon your earnings for their support.

You admit that it is your duty to supply their needs from day to day, but forget that it is equally your duty to provide an ever ready and sufficient equivalent for your earning power, which your family stands in constant jeopardy to lose by your premature death.

Guard your family against disaster and yourself against dependency in old age.

When should I insure my life?

Now! The cost will never be less, and to-morrow you may not be able to obtain insurance at any price.

Even if others are not now dependent upon you, take time by the forelock and you will be the better able to meet future responsibilities, and at a smaller premium.

Where shall I insure my life?

In a purely Mutual Company.
In a company that earns, declares,
and pays annual dividends.

In a company that is doing a conservative business.

Such a Company is The Connecticut Mutual Life Insurance Company of Hartford, Conn. It furnishes perfect protection at lowest cost.
