COLGATE VS. TRINITY TOMORROW.

First Game Away From Home Looks Stiff.

On Saturday the Trinity football team will play that of Colgate University, at Hamilton, N. Y. This game is looked upon as one of the hardest on the schedule this year, and Captain Ramsdell anticipates a closely-contested game.

Since the game with the Amherst "Aggies" there has been strenuous practice each day on Trinity field. Hudson, the freshman fullback, who was injured in the opening game of the season with Worcester, reported for work, and his presence strengthened the 'Varsity materially. His ankle is in good shape again, and by Saturday he should be in as good form as ever. Carroll went back to his old place at tackle, and Bleecker takes Buck's position at center.

Coach Gettell has been smoothing off the defects in the play and whipping the men into shape in various ways. The line men have been given special instructions as to "knifing through" and other rough points have been polished off, so that the team should give a good account of itself when it lines up against Colgate.

Colgate last week played a no-score game with Brown at Providence, which would seem to indicate a strong team, as Brown stands high in the football world. Trinity has defeated Worcester Polytechnic Institute and the Amherst "Aggies," both without much effort, so the real test of their ability will not be taken until the game on Saturday.

Fitzpatrick, the freshman who gave so much promise in the center position after the first game, developed a case of water on the knee which has since kept him off the field and will be unable to play. From indications, it will be several weeks before he is again in the line-up. Bleecker has proven himself an acceptable substitute however, and last week made good as a man of 'Varsity calibre.

The squad will leave on Friday morning from the Union station at 9.03 for Springfield. It will leave Springfield at 11.45 a. m. and arrive at Utica at 6.08 p. m., where the night will be spent, the trip to Hamilton, one of a short duration, being made Saturday morning.

On the return the squad will take a sleeper, arriving in Hartford early Sunday morning. Besides Coach Gettell and Manager Skinner, the following men will be included in the squad: Captain Ramsdell, Carroll, Gildersleeve, Howell, Cook, Clark, Ahern, Bleecker, Collett, Lawlor, Hudson, Dissell, Sage, Lennox, Buck, Moore and "Lefty."

S. D. C. Elections.

On Tuesday night the members of the Sophomore Dining Club held a meeting and elected to membership six men from the class of 1913. These six men now constitute the active members of S. D. C. and will elect six more members within the week. The club may be filled to fifteen, and after the full complement has been decided upon an initiation banquet will be held. C. R. Whipple, '12, is the chair-

ANNUAL FALL TENNIS.

Burgin, '14, Outstrips All Rivals in the Tournament.

The annual fall tennis tournament came to an end Wednesday, when Burgwin, '14, defeated Nelson, '11, at Pope Park by the score of 3-6, 6-3, 6-2, 6-4. Wednesday's match produced some of the finest tennis that has been seen in the college for some time. Nelson started out by winning the first set in fine style, but at that point Burgwin cut loose and with a tremendous volley of Lawfords and cross-court drives completely swept Nelson off his feet, despite a strong effort to stave off the terrific onslaught, and the set finally went to Burgwin at 6-3. The next set was slightly easier than the others, as Nelson seemed to tire. The fourth set, however, was a battle royal all the time, Nelson playing desperately to stave off defeat, while Burgwin seemed to grow steadier every minute. Near the end of the set, Nelson displayed a fine burst of speed, but it was too late, as Burgwin ran out the set, thereby winning the match and tournament.

Another fine match in the tournament was in the lower semi-final bracket, when Burgwin won from Pulford, last year's winner, after two hard sets by the score of 11-9, 6-3. The first set was a toss-up all the time up to last point, when Pulford seemed to tire. In the last set Pulford played hard, but he had shot his bolt and could do nothing against Burgwin's bewildering rain of strokes.

Carpenter '13, and Dillard '13 show promise of giving Burgwin, Nelson, and Pulford hard matches at any time and will doubtless make a good bid for the tennis team. As yet the team has not been chosen and probably the choice will not be made until the spring.

The summary of the tournament is as follows:

Preliminary Round—Lazarus '14, Harriman '05; Langdon '14, Dillard '13; Brainard '11, Rosebaugh '11; McNeil '14, Ward '13; Pulford '13, Lister '14; Page '14, Maxon '11; Kendall '12, Carpenter '12; Clark '14, Walker '14.

First Round—Barnett '13, Edgelow '14; Nelson '11, Heater '13; Lazarus '14, 6-1, 6-0; Dillard, 9-7, 6-1; Brainard 6-1, 6-1, Ward, 6-0, 6-0; Pulford, 6-2 (6-2); Maxon 6-3, 6-1; Carpenter 6-4, 6-0, Walker 6-3, 6-2; Adkins '14, Burgwin '14; Peaslee '13, Moses '14.

Second Round—Barnett 6-1, 6-2; Nelson 6-1, 6-1; Dillard 9-7, 6-2; Ward 7-5, 6-3; Pulford 7-5, 6-3; Carpenter 6-1, 7-5; Burgwin 6-1; Moses 6-2, 6-1.

Semi-Finals—Nelson 6-4, 6-3; Dillard 9-7, 6-2; Ward 7-5, 6-3; Pulford 7-5, 6-3; Carpenter 6-1, 7-5; Burgwin 6-1, 6-4; Nelson 6-4, 6-3; Burgwin 11-9, 6-3; Burgwin, 3-6, 6-3, 6-2, 6-4.

GLEE CLUB PROSPECTS.

Mandolin Club to be Replaced by a Double String Quartette.

The first trials held Thursday night at 81 Vernon street, showed that Trinity has every reason to expect one of the best glee clubs she has seen for many years. The Freshman material made a very good showing, producing one or two stars.

There is one drawback, however, there is a woeful deficiency of funds. Several schemes have been proposed for raising the necessary money, the most feasible being by subscription. Having no financial backing, the club cannot afford to engage a director, but expects to be able to do so after one or two concerts.

The first concert will be held at Tariffville, Conn., the evening of November eleventh, and although there are no definite plans besides this, the officers of the club, who will act as directors for the present, expect to arrange for concerts in all the towns around Hartford. Then there is a trip in view for January which will include New Rochelle, Brooklyn, New York, and some preparatory schools on the Hudson. The big event of the year, will, of course, be the concert given in Junior week.

Unfortunately there will be no mandolin club this year. The freshmen have not supplied enough new material in this direction, although they have done remarkably well for the glee club. A great number of the best players was lost last year, and there being almost none to take their places, the mandolin club will have to remain in the background for the present. A double string quartette will be arranged, however, and ought to be very good.

AN ALUMNI COMMUNICATION.

Important and Pertinent.

September 28, 1910.

To the Editor of The Tripod:

Dear Sir:—In the first issue of The Tripod, I have read with a distinct disappointment, the schedule of the football games for this fall. Because I believe that there is no reasonable excuse for such a poor one, I think the matter should be brought up now, so that there will not be a repetition of it next year. I do not know whether the Manager of the football team is solely responsible for the schedule, but if he is, some other official or board should be hereafter admitted to share in the responsibility.

It is true that Trinity must select her games with opponents of her average strength and ability. I believe, however, that the Alumni and undergraduates, would prefer to cheer Trinity to a victory over, or take a chance of losing to, the team of a bigger college of recognized athletic standing, rather than to see Trinity roll up a big score against a team of inferior ability. After the team which we had last year, and as long as Professor Gettell infuses his enthusiasm into the players, is there any reason why Trinity should not match up with something bigger.

Personally, I should like to see the game with Yale resumed, not that we can defeat Yale, but the association is worth a lot. If not that, why not a game with Tufts, Amherst, Wil-

ANNUAL UNDERCLASS BASEBALL.

Sophomores Defeat Freshmen by the Scores of 5 to 2.

The annual underclass baseball game was held on Monday, the sophomores defeating the freshmen by the score of 5 to 2. The teams had been practicing steadily for several days previous to the contest, so there was plenty of snappy work, although several plays which were suggestive of inexperience, were pulled off.

The game, which only lasted five and one-half innings, was put on ice by 1913 in the second inning, by the scoring of two runs, and another in the third. In the fifth, both teams added two more to their total. Darkness stopped the contest in the sixth, after 1914 had failed to score.

The pitching of Sayres was a large factor in the defeat of the freshmen. Wessels, the 1914 pitcher, put up a good game and with practice should prove a good man for the 'Varsity. Hicks and Clark, in left field and at first base respectively, played good games for the freshmen. The game was almost errorless, only one being charged to each side. O'Connor, the freshman catcher, could not hold the delivery of Wessels, and thereby let in two runs. The score by innings:

	1	2	3	4	5	6	R.H.E.
1913	0	2	1	0	2	*	5 3 1
1914	0	0	0	0	2	0	2 4 1

Batterier, C. Sayres and A. Sayers; Wessels and O'Connor and Clark. Struck out by Sayres 11, by Wessels 6. Bases on balls, Wessels 4. Umpire, Carroll.

Hams, University of Vermont, Rhode Island State, or some of them, in addition to Wesleyan and West Point.

Yours truly,

BOSTON ALUMNUS.

The Ruling of the Faculty Committee on Athletic and College Organizations.

Managers of all college teams must present proposed schedules to the Faculty Committee on Athletics and College Organizations before concluding and agreement with other teams; and it is suggested that the preparation of schedules will be facilitated if, in advance of all correspondence on the subject, a list of possible choice with margin broad enough to cover all contingencies be submitted to the Advisory Alumni Board and to this Committee.

At least twenty-four hours in advance of home contests, and twenty-four hours in advance of starting for contests elsewhere managers must present to the Chairman of this Committee on a blank to be had at the Office of the Treasurer of the College a list of all proposed contestants with the name of the Manager who is to accompany them, together with the Registrar's certificate of their academic eligibility. In games away from home the hour of leaving and returning will also be indicated.

No mid-week games may begin before four o'clock p. m.

All teams, whether recognized by the Athletic Association or not, come under the above rules, and are subject to all regulations as to probation, absences, and academic eligibility. This includes second teams. Class

"NOW THEN—TRINITY!"

A great deal is heard, during the present day, of the woeful lack of literary activity, both in Trinity College, and throughout other colleges and universities. In this connection, we quote the March, 1910, Independent, as follows:—

"... But all the students go through the English department and there they are apt to come under the influence of men who have other ideals than most of their colleagues who are not doing, and are often not capable of doing, original work, who are not making literature of the day as other men in the faculty are making the philosophy, the politics, the art and the science of the day. They are critical rather than creative. Their ideal is impeccability rather than originality.

This, I think, is partly accountable for the decline of the literary society and the literary magazine in colleges. It is remarkable that at a time when new magazines, by the hundreds are appearing, and books in every department of literature are sold in unprecedented editions, the literary activity of college students seems to be declining. I doubt if there is a literary magazine in any of our universities which could be called prosperous or popular, as they were a generation ago. In some of the universities, in spite of the increase in size and wealth, the literary monthly has ceased to exist or appears only fitfully, always in distress for want of contributions. Looking over the files, as I have in many cases, I do not find that there has been any noticeable improvement in the literary quality of the contributions to these magazines in the last twenty years, notwithstanding the greater attention now paid to training in English.

Good work of its kind is being done by the students on their dailies and humorous periodicals. Apart from from this the only form of literary activity that seems to have attraction for the college student of to-day is playwriting. If the great American drama does not appear within the next decade it will not be for lack of ambition or earnest effort. Usually there are one or two of the English professors who interest themselves in the student dramatics and journalism, but for the most part it is spontaneous and independent. . . ."—Edwin E. Slosson, Ph. D., on Great American Universities—XV.

The Tablet has been born and re-born, each time following the same course—growth, prosperity, and then failure—and extinction. All this for one reason—poor business management, on account of lack of funds, or energy—not for the want of material to fill its pages.

Along this same line, we may say for once and all that The Tripod is not a literary publication in any way, it neither aspires, nor claims to be such. However, in view of the fact that there is latent literary ability here at Trinity, which might be called forth by the opportunity occasioned by its possible publication, The Tripod wishes to open its columns to a free and open discussion by all those interested in the matter. It is proposed to devote one or more columns occasionally to the printing of such material, as may be submitted to its editors, of a literary nature. Communications bearing on this topic are earnestly solicited from the faculty, alumni, and undergraduates.

 teams are subject to special rules which, with all rules respecting academic eligibility, may be had of the Registrar.

Teams not recognized by the Athletic Association will, in general, be expected to take required absences, if any, out of their allowed absences. Exceptions to this arrangement must be settled with this Committee in advance.

The numbers of contests arranged will not exceed that of last year: football, 8; baseball, 13; track, 4, excluding those on college holidays and during vacation.

Managers assume responsibility for the observance of the above regulations by the members of their respective teams. This, however, will not exempt individual members of teams from responsibility for their own acts.

Stated meetings of this Committee are held on Fridays in term-time in the Modern Language Room, at 11:45 a. m., at which time the Committee will be glad to receive representations respecting athletic and other organizations whether submitted in person or by letter.

 Why should I insure my life?
 Because it is a debt you owe to those who are dependent upon your earnings for their support.
 You admit that it is your duty to supply their needs from day to day, but forget that it is equally your duty to provide an ever ready and sufficient equivalent for your earning power, which your family stands in constant jeopardy to lose by your premature death.
 Guard your family against disaster and yourself against dependency in old age.
 When should I insure my life?
 Now! The cost will never be less, and to-morrow you may not be able to obtain insurance at any price.
 Even if others are not now dependent upon you, take time by the forelock and you will be the better able to meet future responsibilities, and at a smaller premium.
 Where shall I insure my life?
 In a purely Mutual Company.
 In a company that earns, declares, and pays annual dividends.
 In a company that is doing a conservative business.
 Such a Company is The Connecticut Mutual Life Insurance Company of Hartford, Conn. It furnishes perfect protection at lowest cost.
