1912 JUNIOR PROMENADE

BIG EVENT AND UNQUALIFIED SUCCESS.
ALUMNI HALL CROWDED.

The Junior Week of the class of 1912 was brought to a brilliant and successful close by the annual Junior Prom in Alumni Hall last night. The attendance was very large, including many alumni, and the whole Prom was one of the most successful in recent years.

Alumni Hall was splendidly decorated in red and blue, the class colors, and a novelty this year was an enormous sign suspended over the stage, and bearing the class numerals outlined in frosted electric lights. The entire walls and ceiling were covered with the red and blue hangings, and the hall and staircase outside were completely enclosed in the same way, making a very brilliant and delightful scene. Strings of electric lights were suspended from the corners of the ceiling. As in previous years, supper was served downstairs in the gymnasium by Habenstein, caterer, at twelve o'clock. Flags and bunting were the decorations.

The Prom Committee this year consists of the following men: Lawrence H. McClure, chairman, Chapin Carpenter, secretary, Daniel W. Bateman, J. Howard Humphrey, Walter A. Jameson, Elliot F. Pettigrew, Alfred E. Rankin, William E. Stevens, William Short, Jr., Charles R. Whipple.

The men's programs were handsomely bound in brown leather and the young ladies' in blue watered silk, both stamped with the Trinity seal. Inside they contained the program of dances, with spaces for the engagements, then a list of the patronesses for the evening, a complete program of the Junior Week festivities, and the names of the committee.

At 9:30 P. M. the Prom started with the grand march led by L. H. McClure and Miss Edna Rice of Hartford. The music was furnished by the Foot Guard orchestra, and an excellent program had been arranged by the committee, including such popular selections as "The March of the Priests" from Aida, the "Chocolate Soldier" waltzes, "Every Little Movement," "Under the Yum-Yum Tree," "Vision of Salome," "Birth of Passion," and ending with "Auf Wiedersehen" and "'Neath the Elms." Especially popular were the three "calcium" waltzes, the music for these being "Spring Maid," "Tales of Hoffman" and "The Blue Danube."

ALPHA CHI RHO HOUSE PARTY.

One of the pleasing functions of Junior Week was the house party of the Alpha Chi Rho Fraternity at their new chapter house, at 84 Vernon street. The house is very well suited to the purpose with the result that the party was an unqualified success. It started Thursday afternoon with eight guests which number was later increased to thirteen.

Wroth '14 as Mrs. Tyler, was at his best, and was very well seconded by Whitehead '13 and Humphrey '12. The Pianologue by Adam '14 entitled "A Night in Vienna," was received with applause. ### JUNIOR WEEK VESPERS.

Beautiful Service in Chapel.

Following the custom of the last few years, the junior week vesper service was held in the college chapel Sunday afternoon at half past four o'clock. The service was even more beautiful than usual and certainly deserves a place as one of the regular features of the week. In the first place there was quite a large attendance especially of the friends and guests of the students, and the sight of these fair faces crowding the students' benches certainly lends a new and unusual beauty to the little chapel. Dr. Luther welcomed our friends to the college and called attention to the significance of the fact that in the midst of all the festive receptions and dances there yet remained to us the time and inclination to stop and join in divine service. The music given by the choir was the best that we have ever heard in chapel. After the service a dinner was given at St. Anthony's Hall and the Alpha Chi Rho and Psi Upsilon Fraternities held informal teas.

The Connecticut Mutual Life Insurance Company,

Hartford, Conn.

Why should I insure my life?

Because it is a debt you owe to those who rae dependent upon your earnings for their support.

You admit that it is your duty to supply their needs from day to day, but forget that it is equally your duty to provide an ever ready and sufficient equivalent for your earning power, which your family stands in constant jeopardy to lose by your premature death.

Guard your family against disaster and yourself against dependency in old age.

When should I insure my life?

Now! The cost will never be less, and to-morow you may not be able to obtain insurance at any price.

Even if others are not now dependent upon you, take time by the forelock and you will be the better able to meet future responsibilities, and at a smaller premium.

Where shall I insure my life?

In a purely Mutual Company. In a company that earns, declares, and pays annual dividends.

In a company that is doing a conservative business.

Such a Company is The Connecticut Mutual Life Insurance Company of Hartford, Conn. It furnishes perfect protection at lowest cost.
