ARMORY MEET SUCCESSFUL.

THREE TRINITY WINS.

The annual indoor meet of the Second Division Naval Militia was held Tuesday night in the State Armory, before a tremendous crowd which packed the large building to the doors, and showed their appreciation of the splendid programme by generous applause.

Although Trinity did not enter its track team as a team yet the men entered from the college did very creditable work. Maxon '11, track captain for this year, won the pole vault at ten feet with his team-mate, Wessels '12, second. Maxon then continued for a record, and the bar reached a height of ten feet six inches before he was forced to stop, thereby establishing a new pole-vault record for the Armory, breaking the old mark by six inches. Crehore '14, ran a good race in the half-mile-open, securing third place to Egan, the crack Irish-American A. C. runner, and Gardner of the Thirteenth Regiment A. A. in the fast time of 2.07 1-5. Considering Trinity's few entries the men did remarkably well, and this first showing points to a successful season for the Gold and Blue in the coming Track season.

Not a little delay was caused by the relay teams of Wesleyan and Harvard coming on the track with spiked shoes which were contrary to the regulations of the meet, as was distinctly stated on entry blanks. The spikes of the Wesleyan men were concealed in small pieces of rubber, and which, they claimed, would not allow the spikes to come in contact with the track. The officials, however, hit upon a novel plan for deciding the question. The men were requested to jump and land on both feet on pieces of paper. When this was done, the paper was riddled with holes. The Harvard men wore regular outdoor spiked running shoes. Both were required to borrow shoes before they could race.

The relay races were the chief feature of the meet, especially the special two-mile relay race between Harvard and Pennsylvania. It was by far the greatest and most interesting event of the evening, and kept the tremendous crowd on its feet from start to finish. The men passed each other frequently, and Boyle, the last runner for the Red and Blue, only beat Jaques, the brilliant Harvard runner, to the tape by six inches. Paul, the crack Pennsylvania runner, practically won the event for the Red and Blue by overcoming a large lead which Lawless, his opponent, had over him at the start of the second relay.

The special one-mile relay races between Wesleyan and Brown, and Columbia and Amherst, were very close, and it was only by the hardest kind of running that Wesleyan and Columbia won the events respectively.

The individual point trophy was won by Colvin of Company H, First Infantry, who made sixteen points.

CONNERY WILL COACH BASEBALL

Practice Begins March 10.

Professor Joseph D. Flynn of the athletic advisory committee received a letter a short time ago from Tom J. Connery in which he accepted the offer of the committee to coach the baseball squad this spring. Connery wrote that he would be here by the 10th of March and he would coach the players until April 10, when the players on the Hartford team report. He said he might get here a few days before the 10th, but he had some business matters to attend to in St. Louis about that time and he was unable to tell at the present time just how soon he could come on, but he would be here by March 10, at the latest.

Anson T. McCook, Professor Flynn and other members of the committee have had some correspondence with Manager Connery in regard to coaching the team and there was some talk of trying to engage a coach who would be able to give more time to the team and not be forced to leave it at a critical time. It will be remembered that when Manager Connery left the college nine last season to resume his duties with the professionals, the Trinity team had a horrible slump and lost about as steadily as they had won under the inspiring guidance of the coach. Not until another coach was engaged did the team return to its old time form. The college baseball season this year will be much later than a year ago and this fact also had to be considered.

Last spring, Manager Connery spent six weeks with the college squad and while his services have been engaged for two less weeks this year the athletic authorities were very anxious that he should be in charge again. No baseball coach ever did as much before with a team there and the authorities feel that they are fortunate to have such men as Professor Gettell in charge of football and Connery at the baseball helm. In speaking about the coaching a few days ago, a former member of the committee said that he would be in favor of engaging Manager Connery again, even if he could devote but two weeks to the work. He said that the way in which he had developed the green pitchers was wonderful, that he had good influence over the players and all who had watched the progress of the nine last season considered that it would be a backward step not to re-engage the coach.

The battery candidates are expected to begin work in the cage the last week in this month and they will be in condition to show something by the time the coach arrives.

REVIEW OF HOCKEY SEASON.

Even Break in Contests Played—Many Games Cancelled.

The season just closed by the hockey team, although not the most successful which has ever been completed at Trinity, is nevertheless encouraging. There were four games played in all, which resulted in two victories and two defeats for the Gold and Blue.

The first game with the All-Hartford team, composed largely of former college players, resulted in a victory of 4-2 for Trinity.

The second contest with the M. A. C. was won by the Aggies, 6-2. This defeat, however, was not entirely unexpected, for M. A. C. had one of the best hockey teams in the country. Both Amherst and Williams fell victims to its prowess.

Amherst succeeded in winning the third game by five goals to two. Trinity was ahead 2-1, at the end of the first half, but could not maintain the pace.

Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute was defeated 3-2 at Albany in the final game of the season. The Gold and Blue players were at their best in this contest and played at top speed throughout.

In addition to the above games, matters were canceled with Williams, Springfield Training School, West Point and Wesleyan. The first three on account of lack of ice, and the last by the withdrawal of Wesleyan from intercollegiate hockey. Had these games been played the record of the team would have been better in all probability, for Trinity was reported to have a faster team than any of these opponents.

Players Fast Next Year.

The seven next year will be greatly affected by the loss of several of its best players. Haight, who has been the mainstay of the team, will graduate in June. He has played a brilliant game for four years upon the seven, and has been captain for the past two years. Rankin, who at cover point has been a strong player for the past three years, will also graduate, as will Pomeroy and Morris. Brainerd, the reliable goal tender who has saved many scores by his steady work, is another veteran who will be lost by graduation.

SUNDAY CHAPEL.

The Reverend James L. Goodwin, rector of Christ's church of this city, will preach next Sunday in chapel. Dr. Goodwin is a Yale graduate, class of 1902. His charming personality and earnestness have endeared him to the members of his congregation, and he is also an eloquent preacher. There should be a large attendance.

Chairman Warner Appoints Committee.

At a meeting of the class of 1913, Harry Warner was elected chairman of the Sophomore Smoker Committee on the first ballot. Noble was the only man running against him. Harry Warner is a graduate of the New Milford High School, Conn. He was on the freshman baseball team, and is a member of the Varsity baseball squad. He is a member of the Delta Kappa Epsilon Fraternity.

The chairman appointed the following men to serve on the committee. John B. Moore, Geneva, N. Y.; Richard Lawton Deppen, Shamokin, Pa.; Russell Curtis Noble, New Milford, Conn.; Kenneth Beardsley Case, West Hartford, Conn.; Charles Henry Collett, Dover, N. H.; Arthur Frank Peaslee, Hartford; William Pond Barber, Hartford; Alfred Joseph L'Heureux, Jewett City. No set date has as yet been made for the smoker, but it will be in the near vicinity of President Luther's birthday, which is on the 26th of March. The program for the evening will include a short play, entertainment by the Glee and Mandolin Clubs and music by a city orchestra.

There will probably be a display of local talent in the form of a wrestling and boxing. Numerous talks will be given by the members of the faculty and the alumni, the baseball and the football captains. The Sophomore Smoker is generally a great occasion for the appearance of sub-freshmen and a large attendance is expected.

"NOW THEN—TRINITY!"

EDITORIAL.

The disposition of the funds accruing from Sunday chapel throughout the year is a question which is regularly brought to the attention of those most interested—the undergraduates. Yet, thus far, no action has ever been taken upon the matter except a passive acceptance, such as the annual forwarding of the small amounts to some worthy son of Trinity in the missionary field, by those in charge.

There have appeared in the columns of this paper, in years past, articles, from time to time, which promulgated the procuring of a certain object, one which would be appreciated by all in proportion as it was needed, and which would reinstate one of, what we believe to be, the very oldest and best customs or traditions in the history of the college.

A chapel bell! What magic there is in the words. They bring to us, not necessarily a warning of the hour, but the memories of all that is past, and perhaps of what is to come. The thought of those who have gone before us, of history in the making, of joys and sorrows, of victories and defeats—all which has moulded those who our Alma Mater has protected and fostered—it rises up and acclaim the fact—the vacancy is still unfilled—we have no chapel bell.

From twilight of the evening in September, when a new class enters the chapel for the first time until the noon of a mid-day in June, when the oldest class leaves these ivied walls forever as undergraduates—the chapel bell would toll unceasingly, as a constant reminder of many opening services in the chapel, and of the many graduation exercises in the Hall—Alpha to Omega. Tradition, sentiment, all cry for re-instatement of a custom as old as the college, but of late years, even now too far past, buried, dead, forgotten!

So, again, we would bring this matter to the attention of all who read these columns—now is the time to show your interest in a matter which we have no doubt would be of the greatest benefit to all, in the end—but of course, to those taking part in the active life of the college, primarily.

While the sums received from the collections in Sunday church, for one year, would never be able to help us attain the desired goal, two years would help, and other aid and assistance might easily be brought to bear in the assistance of the work. Needless to say, better and more prolific results would ensue from those parties most interested—the undergraduates. Think it over, see if you can help, talk about it, do all YOU can to restore the best custom Trinity ever had.

As we go to press, we are in receipt of a communication which is of vital interest to all undergraduates, upon the subject of politics prevalent throughout the college body. In view of the fact that the class day elections are to take place to-morrow, The Tripod wishes to take this occasion to comment on the fact that it is only too evident that elections in the past have been altogether cut and dried—the political plum-tree being used to the best advantage. As it is of the highest importance that representative men be chosen to represent not only the class, but the college, on Class Day, we feel the duty of our responsibility—and urge the members of the Senior Class to do their duty, and do it right.

As for the communication in question, we wish to call attention to the fact that the policy of The Tripod with regard to anonymous contributions has already been stated in these columns, frequently and not in the distant past. It is understood that the author of any article may sign himself as he desires, provided his own name is added, which will be omitted if requested, and is merely a mark of good faith. The communication on hand has been given due thought, and its desirability being in question, the writer can obtain good and sufficient reasons from the editor for its non-appearance.

The Connecticut Mutual Life Insurance Company,

Hartford, Conn.

Why should I insure my life?

Because it is a debt you owe to those who are dependent upon your earnings for their support.

You admit that it is your duty to supply their needs from day to day, but forget that it is equally your duty to provide an ever ready and sufficient equivalent for your earning power, which your family stands in constant jeopardy to lose by your premature death.

Guard your family against disaster and yourself against dependency in old age.

When should I insure my life?

Now! The cost will never be less, and to-morrow you may not be able to obtain insurance at any price.

Even if others are not now dependent upon you, take time by the forelock and you will be the better able to meet future responsibilities, and at a smaller premium.

Where shall I insure my life?

In a purely Mutual Company.

In a company that earns, declares, and pays annual dividends.

In a company that is doing a conservative business.

Such a Company is The Connecticut Mutual Life Insurance Company of Hartford, Conn. It furnishes perfect protection at lowest cost.

SMALL COLLEGES WILL SUFFER.

Intercollegiate A. A. Rules Out First Year Men at Annual Track and Field Championships in May.

There is bound to be a big howl in collegiate circles, especially among the smaller colleges, as a result of a ruling made by the executive committee of the Intercollegiate Association, a few weeks ago, at a meeting at the Waldorf-Astoria, which will bar freshmen from competition at the annual track and field championships which take place in May. Heretofore the freshman was allowed to compete in this sport, although he was barred from varsity competition in football, baseball and rowing.

The big colleges like Yale, Princeton, Harvard, Pennsylvania and Cornell will not suffer by this ruling, as these institutions did not allow freshmen to compete anyhow. The colleges that will be hit hard are Dartmouth, Syracuse, Wesleyan and Columbia, especially the latter. It is a noteworthy fact that most of the Blue and White's best men have always been freshmen. Last year Jacobs as a freshman cut out many a good man from winning points, and Harry Babcock as a freshman was a point winner two years ago.

There was a little objection to this ruling at first, but when the idea was explained every one agreed that it was a good thing. The idea seems to emphasize the one-year rule, and keep out of competition the athletes who go to college for a year or so, and suddenly decide to quit, and then the cry of professionalism is brought up.

The rule looks like a good thing, and the only objection is that it will leave the big meet wholly in the hands of the larger institutions, which have a bigger student body from which to draw their track men. Some of the colleges in the association have less than 200 students, most of whom are freshmen, so that it can readily be seen that these colleges will have a hard job to turn out teams that will make any sort of a showing.

As predicted some weeks ago there will be some opposition to awarding Syracuse the intercollegiate meet this year. F. H. Cooke, representing the up-State college, was present at the meeting and tried to get the consent of the body to hold the meet there.
The place has not been decided on yet, and Syracuse may not get it, although Cooke assured the members that Syracuse would put everything in shape in accordance with all requirements if the meet was awarded to the Salt City.

The difficulty at Syracuse lies in the fact that the track is not a regulation cinder path, and will have to be torn up and built over before a championship meet can be held there. "Sparrow" Robertson, who is an expert on track affairs, was called upon by the Syracuse management to inspect the track, and he made a report which in part said that it would cost the university at least $2,000 to put it in shape for the big meet.

Syracuse now stands ready to go to the expense of rebuilding the Stadium track, and has also promised to see to it that all of the colleges will have good hotel accommodations. Great pressure will be brought to bear on the committee to ward the meeting to the Orange.

Before adjourning the executive committee made a new ruling on hurdle racing, which reads: "That if three hurdles are knocked down by a competitor in a championship race, the runner shall be disqualified from the event." The next meeting will be held in March.
