TENNIS SCHEDULE PROMISING.

Excellent Material for Team.

Manager D. Schuyler Pulford of the tennis team has almost completed his roster of games for the season which make up an exceptionally promising schedule. The schedule has not yet been approved by the college committee on athletics, but there is not likely to be many changes in the schedule as it now stands. Games will probably be played as follows:

April 19-Storrs at Hartford May 8-Williams at Williamstown. May 22-Union College at Schenectady. June 3-Amherst at Amherst. June 10-Wesleyan at Hartford.

There are two more games still to be added, including one with Syracuse which will be played at Syracuse. A game was arranged with Dartmouth, but was cancelled owing to the large guarantee necessary.

The outlook for the tennis season at Trinity gives promise of a recordbreaking series of games. There are more good players in college than there have been in several years and the work of the fall tournament showed the capabilities of the men to be far above the average of the past two seasons.

Nelson, D. S. Pulford and Carpenter are the three veteran members of the team who will play again this season. The most valuab'e addition to the squad this season is Burgwin, the member of freshman class who won the championship cup in the fall tournament. Burgwin came to Trinity from St. Paul's, Concord, with a long record of excellent work in hockey as well as The cup was held last year in tennis. by D. S. Pulford who came to Trinity with the class of 1913, bearing a long list of victories in tournaments on the Pacific Coast. A. E. Pulford, a brother of the former champion, who held the cup in 1908-9, left Trinity last year owing to ill health, but expects to return to college in time to take part in the coming season. Carpenter, one of the most reliable players that Trinity has had in the past few years will play with the team once more.

The fall tournament brought out some excellent material, including a number of the freshman class. Of these men, Ward, Lazarus, Dil'ard and Moses are perhaps the most promising. Dillard developed a fine form during the tournament and played Burgwin in the semi-

The tennis team will take part in the intercollegiate contests at Longwood, Mass., in the latter part-of May. Nelson is the only one of the Trinity players who has played on the Longwood courts in previous years.

The tennis association at Trinity will play at the same time.

Y. M. C. A. ELECTIONS.

"Freshman Bible" Discussed.

The first annual meeting of the Trinity branch of the Intercollegiate Young Men's Christian Association was held last Tuesday evening and officers were elected for the ensuing year. Trinity branch, which is in its first year of life after its successful inauguration during November last, now has forty members, including some of the most prominent men in college.

The nominees for the offices this year proposed by Chairman A. E. Rankin were elected as follows: President, Charles Hurd Howell; vice-president, William Short; secretary, Charles Collett; treasurer, D. S. Pulford.

The work of the association both in college and outside, is going steadily forward and the organization has already become a factor in college life. In college the members are meeting regularly once a week for Bible study in two classes. Under the leadership of Rev. Charles J. Harriman, half of the men are studying "The Social Significance of the Teachings of Jesus." President Howell is temporarily in charge of the other division, the substudy being "God's Will in Life Work." The interest in Man's Life Work." this part of the association work bids fair to become more and more popular as the membership of the association

The publication of a Trinity "Fresh-Bible" was advocated man evening's meeting. The "Freshman is a booklet printed under the Bible" direction of the Y. M. C. A. in most of the colleges for the instruction and aid of the incoming college man. contains information concerning the college, its institutions, and the rules and regulations of the faculty as well as the student body. In advertising the college the "Freshman Bible" often plays an important part and the value of the booklet in other colleges has led the men at Trinity to believe that the annual publication of such a book would be one of the many ways in which the Y. M. C. A. could aid the freshman. The chair appointed A. E. Rankin, Chapin Carpenter and J. J. Whitehead, Jr. to investigate the matter and to advise the association concerning it.

once more have charge of the college courts as was the ru'e last year. If the funds can be raised another court will be added to the three already at college. A good exhibition court is needed as for the past few seasons at Pope Park on the public courts. The

TRACK SCHEDULE AN-NOUNCED.

Manager Fettigrew Makes Public Plans for Coming Season.

*The schedule of the track team has been announced by Manager Pettigrew it now awaits the faculty's approval. The season will probably open with a meet with Worcester "Tech" at Worcester some time early in May. On the thirteenth of the same month Wesleyan will come to Hartford for the annual dual meet. This will be the annual dual meet. only meet at Hartford. On May 27 there will be a meet with Rensselaer at The intercollegiates will be held at Boston, May 19-20 and Trinity will be represented as usual at this event.

There is a good deal of promising material in college this year and there is every reason to believe that there should be a successful season in track. Of the men who were on the team last year the following are back in college Buck, Dooman, Maxon, Wessels, Nelson, Ramsdell, Yates, Ahearn, Bleecker, Craik, Howell, Bates, Clark, Collett, Gildersleeve, Heater, Holcomb, Swift, E. T. Smith, Withington and J. B. Moore.

W. J. Nelson who has been kept out of track on account of his health for the past two seasons will be back again this spring and should prove an aid to the team. Among the freshmen Hudson in the sprints and Wessels in the mile are good men. With this wealth of material the season of 1911 should prove unusually successful.

PROMENADE PREPARATIONS.

Music and Programmes Completed.

A meeting of the junior promenade committee was held last Tuesday even-The music for the prom was announced and the program for junior week is now complete. At the prom there will be, as in previous years, forty dances, alternating two-steps and waltzes. The promenade will open with the grand march, and for this has been selected the "March of the Priests" from Aida, although in previous years the "Second Regiment March" has generally been used for this opening of the chief social event of the college season. The music chosen is the latest dance music and includes to the joy of the students, all the whistleable and danceable tunes from the latest successes to which the men and the fair prom girls" can dance the new popular 'Boston" to their heart's content.

It has been the custom in previous years to have some novelty for the dance program. Usually the program has been a card-case or some similar souvenir, containing a program of the week and its events, as well as most of the matches have been played names of the many patronesses. The committee this year is keeping the form membership of the association at col- of the program a secret, but it is said lege last year was very large and the that the program which has been chosen accommodations were hardly sufficient is something decidedly novel, that will for the number of men who wished to prove a suitable souvenir of the oc- Feb. 18-Polytechnic Institute at Brookcasion.

HOCKEY TEAM vs. S. T. S.

Game to be Played at Springfield on Saturday.

The second hockey game of the season will be with Springfield Training School on Saturday. Trinity is having great difficulty in filling the position of goal as Brainerd is ineligible and there seems to be a lack of good material. Heater '13 and Bassford '14 have been practicing hard for the position and on Saturday will doubtless show improvement over the work of the game with Amherst Aggies. Trinity has lost the only game played to Mass. Agricultural College, but expects to win Saturday's contest.

BASKETBALL AT NEW YORK.

Strong New York University Five Will be Played Saturday.

On Friday of this week Trinity will journey to New York where they will play New York University in the annual basketball game. This is one of the most difficult games upon the Trinity schedule as N. Y. U. has long been noted for the superiority of her basketball teams. From the records of the two fives thus far it would seem that Trinity has but little chance to win, having been defeated in every one of the games played to date, while N. U. has had a splendid record. Navy and University of Pennsylvania have both fallen victims to N. Y. U's. prowess. However, Captain Gildersleeve and his men will put up a strong fight, as they have always done in the past with New York. Trinity is repast with New York. Trinity is regarded as one of N. Y. U's. best games. as the fighting spirit of the Gold and Blue is well known in the metropolis. The team will leave at 2:55 on Friday and will probably be composed of Gildersleeve, Carroll, Ramsdell, Horan and J. B. Moore.

The basketball schedule for the season of 1910-11 follows

Dec. 2-Columbia at New York.

Dec. 10-West Point at West Point. Jan. 7-Pratt Institute at Brooklyn.

Jan. 10—Yale at New Haven. Jan. 20—New York University at New York.

Jan. 28-Springfield Training School at Springfield.

10-Second Signal Corps at Brooklyn.

Feb. 11-St. John's College at Brooklyn. 17-Springfield Training School Feb. at Hartford.

EDITORIAL.

Owing to the presence of examinations in our midst during the next two weeks, the annual suspension will take place and the next issue will appear on February 7th. The issue of that date will contain a full account of the Annual Junior Week and its festivities.

The Tripod is glad to publish the following in view of the fact that any misunderstanding may have taken place. It may be well to add that the writer of the note deserves a great deal of credit, unclaimed by himself, quite contrary to the tone of the appended communication,

> Library of Trinity College, Hartford, Conn.

January 12, 1911.

To the Editors of the Tripod, Gentleman:—In the Tripod of Jantrary 10th in the review of the College catalogue there is a statement from which it might be inferred that the Librarian was the chairman of the committee on the catalogue. Such, however, was not the case. Professor Adams has been on this committee for three years acting as chairman for the last two years and the present form of the catalogue is the result of his experience and his desire to have Trinity issue as attractive a catalogue as possible.

Walter B. Briggs. (Signed)

Attention should be called to the fact that while the Tripod is undergoing a state of reorganization, as it is at present, an attitude of leniency and couragement should be taken by all its readers, especially in view of the proposed betterment of all the departments, especially the Alumni and Circulation. If our reaaders will send communications of any nature to the newly elected editors of these departments, all possible attention and despatch will be given to the same. A reading of the editorial column once in a while, starting at the top, might shed some light regarding the Tripod, those who attempt to perform the work, and its policies.

Extract from the annual report of .T. Jefferson Kelley, secretary of the Hartford Board of Trade: "We note with pleasure the steady growth of Trinity College. There has been an encouraging increase in the number of students, the total this year being 220. About three-fourths of the $500,000 endowment raised last year has been paid in. The library of the college has outgrown its accommodations, in fact all of the buildings are overcrowded. The expansion of this seat of learning means much to Hartford; al lof our citizens are proud of Trinity, and each year finds the ties that bind the community and the college more firmly established.

ALUMNI NOTES.

'99-W. B. Sutten is now one of the house doctors at the Lincoln Hospital and Home, corner of East 141st St. and Southern Boulevard, New York City.

INTERCOLLEGIATE NOTES.

Under the new scheme of requirements for admission to Harvard College, greater recognition than ever fore is given the high schools of the country. The new plan aims to open the doors of Harvard to those high school students who, after a four years' course in any school approved by the college, pass satisfactorily in four examinations held by the college.

The candidate for admission to Harvard under this plan must present to a committee on admission credentials showing in detail the character and quality of his work in high school. If credentials are satisfactory the candidate will then be subject to an examination in four subjects, these subjects being selected with a view to the degree for which the candidate desires to matriculate. There is also to be a change in the method and manner of marking examination papers. The examinations must indicate what the coilege authorities deem a "satisfactory record," or the candidate will not be admitted.

LIBRARY HOURS.

During the examination period, in addition to the regular hours, the Library will be open on the afternoons of Saturday, January 21 and 28 and on Wednesday evening, January 25th. From January 22-31, inclusive, the evening hours of opening will be from 7-10 o'clock.
