

1912 IVY OUT EARLY.

Excellent Number of the Annual Appears.

The 1912 Ivy succeeded in putting to shame the old-fashioned prophets who judge the future by the past, and made its appearance last Thursday, the earliest date the annual has ever been out, according to those who have been here long enough to know. Its reception by the college body was enthusiastic, and the editors have been overwhelmed with compliments on the fine appearance of the book and the excellence of the literary and artistic material. From the generous proportions of the advertising section, one can see that the business department has not been blind to its duties, and it seems to be safe to say that the "annual deficit" will be turned into a substantial surplus this year.

The dedication reads:
"To George Dawson Howell, '82, who, as student, alumnus, trustee, and benefactor, has so loyally served his Alma Mater, and who, as a friend of the undergraduates, has earned their affectionate regard, this number of THE TRINITY IVY is respectfully dedicated."

While the number of pages is the same as last year, the book has been made more interesting by the substitution of a large amount of humorous matter for some of the old tables and statistics. A clever burlesque on The Tripod occupies four pages, and is one of the features of the volume. Individual write-ups of the members of the Junior class are providing the subject-matter for a great deal of campus "joshing."

The alumni will be interested in an account of the theft of the lemon-squeezer, the details of which have been obscured by tradition, but are here set forth with the vividness that only an eye-witness could supply. An illustrated calendar of events throws a humorous light on some of the happenings of the year, while several pages of "grinds" on members of the faculty and various student celebrities gives an element of extremely personal interest.

The athletic record of the year is included, as usual. The review of the remarkable football season of 1910 is illustrated with some especially fine photographs of the four seniors who have done so much for Trinity football, Capt. Ramsdell, Cook, Carroll and Gildersleeve.

A sketch, entitled, "The Battle of March 17," tells in a comic style the events of the recent St. Patrick's Day scrap, and is illustrated by a number of photographs taken especially for the Ivy.

The board consists of William A. Bird, IV., editor-in-chief; T. F. Flanagan, business manager; James S. Craik and Walter A. Jamieson, assistant business managers; C. R. Whipple and Lawrence H. McClure, athletic editors; Walter S. Jarvis, Clarence I. Penn, Raymond H. Segur and Nicholas V. Walsh, associate editors.

An edition of 400 has been printed, most of which was subscribed in advance. A few copies are being held for alumni, who may obtain them free of postage by sending $1.50 to the business manager.

MAXON'S BIG RECORD.

Goes Over 12 Feet in Pole Vault at Intercollegiates.

Vaulting in beautiful form, Paul Maxon, '11, won the New England Inter-collegiate championship at the pole vault, last Saturday at Springfield, beating a field composed of some of the best vaulters in the country and twice breaking the old N. E. I. A. A. record for this event.

Maxon outclassed the other entrees in this event, although he was competing against such men as Rogers of Maine, Salisbury of M. I. T. and Holdman of Dartmouth, who won the vault last year.

The pole vault came as a fitting climax to a great athletic meet. The day was beautiful, the crowd large and enthusiastic. Every event had been closely contested, and six records had already been broken. Dartmouth expected their man Wright and Holdman to win first and second in the pole vault which would have made Dartmouth and Williams tied for first place in the meet; therefore fully 3,500 people crowded about the vaulting standard to see the outcome of the deciding event. Wright of Dartmouth and Wessels of Trinity, who was fourth in the event last year, dropped out at 11 ft. 6 in. This left Maxon of Trinity, Holdman of Dartmouth, Rogers of Maine, and Salisbury of M. I. T. in the contest. The bar was raised to 11 ft. 9 3/4 in., which was 1 3/4 in. above the old record, and all these men dropped out except Maxon who made the vault prettily on his first attempt winning the event and setting up a new record.

The bar was then raised to 12 ft. 1/4 in. and Maxon on his third trial cleared this height amid tremendous applause of the appreciative crowd. The new champion then tried 12 ft. 3 3/4 in. and missed this only narrowly on all three attempts.

The whole meet was most successful from every point of view. Seven records were broken, new marks being set in the mile, 440-yard dash, 880-yard run, two-mile run, 220-yard hurdles, shot-put, and the pole vault. Gutterson of Vermont was the individual star with a total of 12 points. A comparison of the old and new records follow:

One-Mile Run—Won by R. L. Keith, W. P. I.; F. J. Newton, Williams, second; G. Simpson, Williams, third; N. S. Taber, Brown, fourth. Time, 4:24 2-5. This broke the record of 4:24 3-5 made by A. L. Wright, Brown, in 1898.

440-yard Dash—Won by J. D. Lester, Williams; L. R. Wood, Wesleyan, second; J. H. McLoughlin, Holy Cross, third; E. T. Walker, Maine, fourth. Time, 49 3-5s. This broke the record of 50 1-5s., made by G. B. Shattuck, Amherst, in 1891.

880-yard Run—Won by H. W. Holden, Bates; W. R. Byland, M. I. T., second; C. Cook, Williams, third; R. S. Thompson, Wesleyan, fourth. Time, 1:57 3-5. This broke the record of 1:59, made by H. S. Baker, M. I. T., in 1902.

Two-mile Run—Won by F. J. Newton, Williams; R. A. Powers, Maine, second; G. C. Shedd, M. I. T., third; H. T. Ball, Dartmouth, fourth. Time, 9:48 2-5, made by S. M. Udale, M. I. T., in 1907.

220-yard Hurdles, Semi-finals: First Heat—Won by Gutterson, Vermont; N. E. Smith, Maine, second. Time, 25 3-5s. Second heat—Won by V. S. Blanchard, Bates; H. W. Smith, Dartmouth, second. Time, 25 3-5s. Final heat—Won by Gutterson, Vermont; H. W. Smith, Dartmouth, second; N. E. Smith, Maine, third; V. S. Blanchard, Bates, fourth. Time, 24 3-5s. This broke the record of 24 4-5s., made by J. H. Hubbard, Amherst, in 1906.

Hammer Throw—Won by A. H. Tilley, Dartmouth, distance 146 ft. 6 1/2 in.; H. E. Marden, Dartmouth, second distance, 146 ft. 5 1/2 in.; L. G. Metcalf, M. I. T., third, distance, 130 ft. 8 7-8 in.; R. E. Lewis, Dartmouth, fourth, distance, 129 ft. 3 in. Tilley's throw broke the record of 144 ft. 1/2 in., made by A. C. Demming, Bowdoin in 1905. Marden's throw was made during the trials Friday and didn't break the old record as it wasn't made from the regulation steel circle.

Pole Vault—Won by P. Maxon, Trinity, height, 11 ft. 9 3/4 in.; L. B. Rogers, Maine; W. C. Salisbury, M. I. T., and O. E. Holdman, Dartmouth, tied for second, third and fourth. height, 11 ft. 6 in. Maxon's vault broke the record of 11 ft. 8 7/8 in., made last year by O. E. Holdman of Dartmouth.

Discus Throw—Won by O. V. Chamberlain M. I. T. distance, 121 ft. 5 1/2 in.; L. E. Lovejoy, Dartmouth, second, distance 119 ft. 6 in.; A. E. Bartlett, Brown, third, distance, 118 ft. 10 1/2 in.; G. A. Gove, Bates, fourth, distance, 117 ft. 10 1/2 in.

TENNIS TEAM LOSES.

Amherst Wins All Matches.—D.S. Pulford Stars.

The Trinity tennis team met defeat at the hands of the strong Amherst team by six matches to none, at Amherst, Saturday. Trinity was handicapped by the absence of Burgwin from the line-up, as he was laid up with a bad knee. A glance at the scores will indicate the closeness of the play, nevertheless, and Trinity should have captured at least two matches.

The best match of the day was between D. S. Pulford and Johnston of Amherst, who lately defeated the intercollegiate champions in straight sets. Johnston won the first set 6-1, but Pulford played magnificent tennis and took the second set, 6-2. The third and deciding set went to four-all when Johnston, by a phenomenal spurt, took the match.

Nelson (Trinity) and Shumway of Amherst had a gruelling contest in which Shumway finally won. Nelson was within a point of the match at one time. The second set was 12-10 in favor of Shumway, and Nelson could not come back sufficiently in the third to win. A. L. Pulford lost in straight sets to Miller of Amherst, although the first set was 11-9.

Carpenter was defeated by Randall without much difficulty, as the Amherst player showed himself superior in all departments of the game.

Amherst captured both the doubles matches. Trinity's doubles teams were broken up by the absence of Burgwin. The detailed scores:

Johnston (A), captain, defeated D. Pulford (T), 6-1, 2-6, 6-4.

Shumway (A) defeated Nelson (T) 2-6, 12-10, 6-3.

Miller (A) defeated A. Pulford (T) 11-9, 6-2.

Randall (A) defeated Carpenter (T) 6-4, 6-2, Johnston and Miller (A) defeated Nelson and Carpenter (T) 6-4, 6-4.

Randall and Shumway (A) defeated Pulford and Pulford (T) 6-2, 8-6.

TRINITY 3, AGGIES 2.

Fast and Sensational Game Results in Victory.

Trinity defeated the crack "Aggies" team Saturday in a game that was in the balance until the last man died. Warner pitched god ball, though he sometimes got the spectators a bit nervous in allowing the Aggies complimentary tickets to first. The team fielded snappily, however, several visitors being caught on the sacks.

First Inning—Dav's grounded through second and reached first safely. Piper bunted towards first, and was put out. Williams fanned. McGarr walked. Huntington grounded to Carroll and was out at first. No runs.

L'Heureux walked. Turner knocked a fly to center. A wild throw to first put L'Heureux on second. Horan popped to short-stop; Carroll flew to left field. No runs.

Second Inning—Ackerman drove to Horan and failed to reach first. C. Brewer fanned. H. Brewer knocked the ball through Warner and Turner and reached first safely. Sherman drove through Short to Ahern, who threw to Horan, nipping Brewer at third. No runs.

Brainerd knocked a foul fly to third. Ahern drove to second and was out at first. Bleeker broke a bat trying to put the ball over short-stop, and was put out at first. No runs.

Third Inning—Davies stepped into a pitched ball and took first. Piper knocked a foul fly to L'Heureux. Williams made a safe hit to Turner, putting Davies on third. McGarr bunted and was put out first, but brought Davies home. Huntington gave the ball to Carroll, who threw him out. One run.

Lister gave Ackerman a hard-hit ball, but failed to reach first. Warner fanned. L'Heureux sent a weak bouncer to Sherman and was put out. No runs.

Fourth Inning—Ackerman walked. C. Brewer sacrificed. H. Brewer walked. L'Heureux threw to Horan, catching Ackerman at third. H. Brewer was caught sleeping at the first bag. No runs.

Turner and Horan fanned, and Carroll was put out on a fly to right field. No runs.

Fifth Inning—Sherman out on first. Davies walked, but was put out trying to steal second. Piper took his base by being hit on the hand by a swift ball, though he did not seem to feel any ill effects from it. Williams fanned. Piper was caught stealing second. No runs.

Brainerd flew to Sherman. Huntington caught a foul fly from Ahern's bat. Bleeker made a safe hit and stole second. Lister sent the ball to first base. No runs.

Sixth Inning—Williams flew to Carroll. McGarr sent a line-drive to Lister, who dropped it, allowing McGarr to reach first safely. Huntington knocked a foul fly to Horan. Ackerman made a safe hit, which was followed by a safe hit by C. Brewer, fill-

"NOW THEN—TRINITY!"

EDITORIAL.

Captain Maxon's record in the pole-vault is one that will probably stand, as a Trinity record at least, for a considerable time. A height of twelve feet is a truly remarkable performance for a small college, and is not to be despised even by larger institutions. When it is remembered that three years ago the local record stood at 10 feet, 6 inches, the work of Maxon and Wessels in driving it up to 12 feet, 3-4 inch, can be appreciated.

The baseball team gave another demonstration of its prowess Saturday, showing that it is not lack of baseball ability that is losing games for us. Of course there are a number—and a large number—who will never be convinced, simply because they do not attend the games. A man who fails to attend the home games whether the team is winning or not is in a fair way to earn the contempt of those whose opinion is of worth.

ing the bases. H. Brewer knocked out a difficult fly to Bleecker, who mastered it. No runs.

Warner was out, short to first. L'Heureux sent a bounder to Piper, but was unable to beat the throw to first. Turner was put out at first, on a grounder to Ackerman. No runs.

Seventh Inning—Sherman was put out by a foul fly to Horan. Davies lifted one to Lister. Piper walked. Williams sent a grounder to Carroll and was out at first. No runs.

Horan lifted the ball over short and reached first. Carroll sacrificed, putting Horan on second. Brainerd knocked a grounder through second, which was muffed by center, taking first and bringing Horan home. Brainerd stole second, and got third on a sacrifice by Ahern. Bleecker doubled, and Brainerd came home. Lister fanned. Two runs.

Eighth Inning—McGarr flew over right field, and took third. Huntington knocked to Bleecker, taking first and bringing McGarr home. Ackerman reached first, but Huntington was put out at second. C. Brewer hit to Carroll, forcing Ackerman. One run.

Warner knocked the ball to short-stop, who fumbled. L'Heureux sent a slow grounder to first, Sherman covering the base too late to catch him, putting Warner on second. Turner popped to Ackerman, and Warner was caught before he could return. L'Heureux took second. Horan knocked a two-bagger to left field, bringing L'Heureux home. Horan stole third. Carroll flew to center. One run.

Ninth Inning—Sherman flew to Ahern; Davies flew to Bleecker; Piper flew to Ahern. No runs.

Trinity plays their third home game Wednesday afternoon with Springfield Training School. Judging from the latter's record, this season, we might well prophesy a victory, and if our team plays the ball they did Saturday, there should be no doubt as to the outcome.

The line-up will be as usual for Trinity.

PHI GAMMA DELTA WINS

The third game in the intra-college baseball league took place on the field on Thursday afternoon, when the I. K. A. team was beaten by Phi Gamma Delta. The former put up a great scrap, but their opponents, who number some of the best ball players in college, out it all over them, and the final score was 8 to 2. Short and Dexter performed on the mound for the losers, and Haithwaite did the slab work for the victorious nine.

A great deal of interest is being taken in intra-fraternity games thus far, and a good contest between the heads of the respective leagues at the close of the season is looked for.

Sunday Chapel.

The Reverend W. H. T. Gairdner, who has been for some years engaged in educational and religious work among the Mohammedans at Cairo, gave an address in the chapel at the regular Sunday morning service. He used as his text the Kingdom of God is like unto a man who soweth good seed in the world.

The music was very well rendered, and for the offertory a quartet sang "Jesu, my Lord, my God, my all." The choir also made other interesting noises during the sermon.

Memorial to John E. Brown, '10.

Mrs. Ellile Brown of Poughkeepsie, N. Y., and Miss Phyllis Brown, Vassar, '14, have recently published in pamphlet form the life of John Edward Brown, who graduated from Trinity with the class of 1910, died October 1, 1910, in Plainfield, N. J., where he was an instructor in a preparatory school. The book contains a number of poems by Brown, some of which had not previously been published. Among these poems are "Struggles," inspired by a night-view from Jarvis Hall; "Drifting," the scene of which is the Connecticut River; "Theodora," "Away," "Night" and "Sunset Storms."

John E. Brown was one of the most promising younger graduates of Trinity, and his death was a severe loss to all who were acquainted with him. He assisted Professor Gettell in his recent book, "An Introduction to Political Science," and his work is acknowledged in the introduction of this book. The review of his life contains letters of praise and sympathy from President Luther, Professor Brenton, and others, and the resolutions adopted by the Phi Psi chapter of the Alpha Chi Rho fraternity, of which he was a member.

The Connecticut Mutual Life Insurance Company,

Hartford, Conn.

Why should I insure my life?
Because it is a debt you owe to those who are dependent upon your earnings for their support.

You admit that it is your duty to supply their needs from day to day, but forget that it is equally your duty to provide an ever ready and sufficient equivalent for your earning power, which your family stands in constant jeopardy to lose by your premature death.

Guard your family against disaster and yourself against dependency in old age.

When should I insure my life?

Now! The cost will never be less, and to-morrow you may not be able to obtain insurance at any price.

Even if others are not now dependent upon you, take time by the forelock and you will be the better able to meet future responsibilities, and at a smaller premium.

Where shall I insure my life?

In a purely Mutual Company.
In a company that earns, declares,
and pays annual dividends.

In a company that is doing a conservative business.

Such a Company is The Connecticut Mutual Life Insurance Company of Hartford, Conn. It furnishes perfect
