TRINITY DEFEATS AMHERST.

GOLD AND BLUE OUTCLASS THE PURPLE, AND GAME IS NEVER IN DANGER.

Trinity surprised Amherst, and won the confidence and admiration of all her own followers last Saturday by defeating the wearers of the purple by a score of 13 to 0. The score is not a real indication of the comparative strength of the two teams, which is better shown by the fact that Trinity made thirty-odd first downs, recovered two onside kicks, and picked up an Amherst fumble in the middle of the field for a touchdown, while Amherst only made first down twice during the game. Twice it was only the sound of the whistle which kept Trinity from a touchdown.

As predicted in the last issue of this paper, the Trinity team "found itself" in the Amherst game. The back field with Cook at quarter worked smoothly and powerfully, and although there is still room for improvement in the interference, yet Trinity gained consistently around Amherst's ends, and Hudson's line plunges seldom resulted in loss. The line was impregnable on the defense and showed the old Trinity aggressiveness on the offense, Bleecker and Moore in center and guard going down under punts along with the ends and tackles, and the whole line being continually alert.

Trinity's two touchdowns came on a fumble and an onside kick. Regarding these two plays we may well recall the words of a famous football critic regarding the New York University game last year. He said: "It was opportunism of course, but it was based on a sound system." We also find the following words of this critic regarding a previous game applicable to the work of the team last Saturday: "The men from Hartford possessed just the extra qualities that count so heavily under the new rules. They were more alert, and they followed the ball as if their lives depended upon it. It was this extra watchfulness, this football instinct, that carried the blue and gold to victory."

The game in detail:

First Period—

Trinity won the toss up and chose to defend the south goal. Amherst kicked off and the ball was returned five yards on the catch. Hudson went through r. g. for a gain of six yards and Howell easily made the remaining distance on an end run. Lawlor gained two yards and the ball was given to Amherst on failure to make the first down. Amherst attempted a forward pass and Trinity was penalized five yards for off side. Amherst fumbled the next play on their forty-eight yard line and Ahern recovered the ball and made a spectacular dash for a touchdown with several Amherst players at his heels in the first five minutes of play. Kinney failed to kick goal. Score: Trinity, 5; Amherst, 0.

Amherst kicked off and the ball was again run back five yards on the catch. A line play netted five yards and Hudson circled the ends for five more. Ahern made five around right-end and Collett duplicated the stunt. Trinity's line-back-end-over failed, an Amherst man getting through the line and causing a loss. The ball was given to Amherst a minute later on downs. Amherst kicked to Cook, who ran the pig-skin back five yards. Collett moved it up five yards more around left end and Hudson got the rest of the distance on a line plunge. Lawlor fumbled the ball and it was recovered by Hudson. Trinity fumbled on the next play and Amherst gained five yards around her left end, but was thrown back on another attempt to circle the same end. Amherst plunged. Lawlor fumbled the ball and it was recovered by Hudson. Trinity fumbled on the next play and Amherst gained five yards around her left end. Amherst attempted a forward pass, but but was thrown back on another attempt to circle the same end. Amherst attempted a forward pass, but Jim Moore got the ball. Cook kicked to Amherst's forty-seven yard line, the ball going out of bounds. The period ended with the ball in Amherst's possession on the forty-two yard line. Score: Trinity, 5; Amherst, 0.

Second Period—

Amherst kicked to Cook who brought it up twenty yards. Hudson gained seven yards on a line plunge and Howell easily made first down. Lawlor lost one yard and the ball was given to Amherst in the next two plays. Amherst tried a quarter-back run but fumbled and Trinity had the ball on her fifteen-yard line. Lawlor got thirteen yards around right end, and Hudson went through center for the first down again on a line plunge. Lawlor made eleven yards and on the next play, Amherst was penalized five yards for off side. Lawlor smashed through the line for five yards, and a double forward pass, Lawlor to Collett, netted fifteen more. Trinity steadily rushed the ball down the field. Hudson made twelve yards around left end and Collett's run brought the ball to Amherst's eight-yard line, when the first half was over.

Third Period—

Amherst kicked to Hudson, who brought it back ten yards on the first play. Collett gained sixteen yards around left end. Lawlor broke through for an eighteen-yard run, but was recalled on Trinity's penalty of five yards for off side play. Howell made eleven yards. Cook kicked to Amherst's thirty-yard line. Amherst kicked to Cook, he made a fair catch. Hudson went through center for five yards. An onside kick by Cook was caught by an Amherst man, who fumbled the ball, which was recovered by Ahern. Lawlor gained five yards, but was hurt and fumbled the ball an Amherst man falling

GLEE CLUB TRIALS.

Twenty New Men Out, and a Number of Concerts Arranged.

The annual trials for the glee club were held last Friday evening at St. Anthony's Hall, and about twenty freshmen reported. Some of the new material is excellent, and as the club last year lost only two of its members by graduation, there is every prospect of a successful coming season.

There will be two rehearsals weekly until November, when the first concert will take place. Ten concerts will be given in this state before mid-years and the club will be heard as usual at the New York Alumni Banquet and in our own Alumni Hall during Junior Week.

The club officers are as follows—President, Samuel S. Swift, Detroit, Mich.; manager, Charles H. Collett, Dover, N. H.; assistant manager, Wm. L. Rosenbaum, New Rochelle, N. Y.; director of the glee club, John J. Whitehead, Waterbury, Conn.; director of the mandolin club, Felix E. Baridon, Torrington, Conn.

on it on Amherst's ten-yard line. The ball was immediately kicked out of danger to Collett, who ran it back ten yards. Trinity was penalized five yards on the next play for off side. Hudson made six yards on a line plunge. Cook made first down on a quarter-back run. Ahern and Collett each made three yards and Hudson again smashed through the line for first down. Ahern made a gain of one yard on a run across the field. Collett lost six. Lawlor took the ball to Amherst's ten yard line directly in front of the Amherst goal posts. Kinney made a goal from placement. Score: Trinity, 8; Amherst, 0.

Amherst kicked off to Trinity's five-yard line and on each of two plays Trinity made her distance. A penalty of fifteen yards set Trinity back and Cook kicked to mid-field. The period ended there.

Fourth Period—

Amherst kicked off to Cook, who ran it back twenty yards before he was downed. Lawlor made the distance and Hudson made five around left end. Cook went through center for five yards and Collett made five through right tackle. Hudson hit the line for six yards. Collett lost six yards on an end run and Cook kicked onside, Dawson Howell recovering the ball on Amherst's seventeen-yard line. Trinity was penalized fifteen yards for holding. Forward pass by Trinity was illegal and the ball was taken back to the thirty-two yard line. An onside kick by Cook was recovered by Hudson and from this point he rushed the ball over for a touchdown. Kinney failed to kick goal. Score: Trinity, 13; Amherst, 0.

During the remaining minutes of the period, Trinity rushed the ball toward

COLLEGE MEETING.

Professor Gettell and Mr. McCook Address the Undergraduates.

On Friday evening last the second college meeting of the year was held for the purpose of getting up enthusiasm for the Amherst game. President Short of the Athletic Association called the meeting to order and spoke a few words to the meeting on the subject of being at the game, before calling on Professor Gettell.

Professor Gettell was greeted by an enthusiastic "Trin" and spoke at some length on the prospects of the football team. He outlined the work of the men thus far and urged that the student body support the men in a better fashion. Especially could this be done by more concerted cheering. Professor Gettell's words made a strong impression on his hearers, as the cheering Saturday was better than that of the preceding week.

A. T. McCook, the graduate treasurer of the A. A., next addressed the men. He told of the advisability of joining the A. A., as the team needs monetary aid as well as moral support. The meeting closed after the rehearsal of cheers and songs, with "Neath the Elms".

MATRICULATION.

the Amherst goal line until it was on the thirteen-yard line. A smashing quarter-back run by Cook brought the pigskin to the four-yard line. Hudson made three yards through center. Lawlor took the ball on the next play and landed it on the goal line, but when the players were separated, the center of the ball was two inches inside the line and time was called. The score was not allowed, but had the ball been moved two inches more on the play, it would have brought Trinity five more points.

The line-up and summary:

“NOW THEN, TRINITY.”

Too much credit cannot be given to the football team for their work Saturday. Amherst, confident of victory, was given a beating which will long rankle in the minds of the Massachusetts collegians. This defeat was only accomplished by the splendid team work which the Gold and Blue players displayed, and it was Trinity first and the individual afterward, which made the men play as they did. To Professor Gettell we extend our sincerest congratulations in developing thus early a team capable of playing as Trinity did Saturday. While the season is not yet half over, nevertheless an important place has been successfully passed.

For the good work to continue there must be the co-operation between students and players that Prof. Gettell urged so strongly on Friday evening. We cannot afford to sit back and rest on whatever laurels we may have gained.

At the college meeting Mr. McCook, the graduate treasurer of the A. A., spoke of the need of men joining the A. A. We wish to second this appeal most heartily, for without money we cannot get along. Every man should join as soon as he is approached and even before that if he is able,

We do not wish to encourage men to make themselves poverty-stricken, but save and scrape and the necessary money will be found to be at hand in a shorter time than may seem possible at first thought.

PSI UPSILON TEA.

First Social Function of the Year an Enjoyable Affair.

An informal tea was held at the Psi Upsilon Chapter House on Saturday afternoon, immediately following the Amherst football game. The house was thrown open to its guests; the rooms being decorated very effectively with flowers. Refreshments were served in the front rooms. Those who poured tea were Misses Sage, Hawley, Rankin and Rees. Afterwards the guests gathered in the drawing room, where the fraternity men led in the college and fraternity songs. The chaperones were Mrs. R. G. Gettell, and Miss A. McAlpine. There were a few graduate members and guests from other houses present at the tea, which everyone declared to be a very enjoyable affair and a most auspicious beginning for the social activities of the college year.

TRIBUTE TO WOOLSEY JOHNSON

His Electric Zinc Furnace Commented on by Authority.

At the meeting of the American Electrochemical Society in New York this year, Prof. Joseph W. Richards of Lehigh University and Franklin Institute, one of the leading metallurgists in the country, read a paper on the Johnson electric zinc furnace. The Mr. Johnson whose invention this furnace is, is Woolsey McA. Johnson, Trinity '98, son of Professor Charles F. Johnson. The article is too technical to be popular reading, but it pays Mr. Johnson's invention the compliment of being ahead of anything hitherto undertaken, and says it marks the dawn of a new era in zinc smelting.—Hartford Courant.

TRINITY THEN IS BLESSED.
(Des Moines, Ia., Register.)

The difficulty Princeton University is having in choosing a successor to Gov. Woodrow Wilson serves again to call to attention the almost impossible job a college presidency has grown to be in these modern times.

A college president is expected to be:

A man of fine presence, an inspiring public speaker, a man whose personality will impress itself upon the state and the country;

A man of educational ideals, a leader professionally, one who can give intellectual initiative to a great educational institution, one who can dominate in many ways the intellectual activities of a state or section of the country;

A sagacious man of business, a good beggar, one who can induce other people to give material aid to the institution over which he presides, organize and successfully conduct movements for large endowment;

A wise governor of men, one who can get together an effective faculty, fitting all the round pegs into round holes and disposing of square pegs with as little disturbance as possible.

It may well be questioned whether in the end we shall not be forced to come to a definite division of labor, when the intellectual and business side of college work will be separated and when it will be possible to consider a man of high professional attainments for leadership without demanding of him that he also keep the books and look out for the annual deficit.

In any event the present situation is well nigh impossible, for fewer and fewer men are able to meet the exacting conditions of a present-day college presidency, and each new selection is immediately followed with such critical pulling to pieces as to damn his work before he even gets started.

Why should I insure my life?
Because it is a debt you owe to those who are dependent upon your earnings for their support.

You admit that it is your duty to supply their needs from day to day, but forget that it is equally your duty to provide an ever-ready and sufficient equivalent for your earning power, which your family stands in constant jeopardy to lose by your premature death.

Guard your family against disaster and yourself against dependency in old age.

When should I insure my life?
Now! The cost will never be less, and tomorrow you may not be able to obtain insurance at any price.

Even if others are not now dependent upon you, take time by

SUNDAY CHAPEL.

Pres. Luther Delivered the Sermon.

At the chapel service Sunday morning, President Luther spoke on the text,
"For they drank of that spiritual Rock that followed them: and that Rock was Christ". The stream flowing from that Rock of Ages, he said, has followed from the moment Moses struck the rock, and from the time that that Rock came upon earth to be "clef for us", even up to the present day; from the lands of the Orient to the civilized countries of the Occident. He showed how the stream of the spirit of Christianity follows us through our whole lives, whether we recognize it or not.

After the sermon, the hymn, "Jesu, my Lord, my God, my All" was satisfactorily rendered as a solo by Shelley, '15.

RECENT FOOTBALL SCORES.

| Trinity, 6 | Worcester Tech., 0 |
| Trinity, 13 | Amherst, 0 |
| Wesleyan, 0 | Amherst, 0 |
| Princeton, 31 | Colgate, 0 |

| Yale, 33 | Virginia Poly., 0 |
| Dartmouth, 6 | Holy Cross, 0 |
| Brown, 33 | Bowdoin, 0 |
| Cornell, 0 | Penn. State, 5 |

By comparing scores it is evident that Trinity should beat Wesleyan, since Amherst and Wesleyan tied 0-0. It is safe to predict, however, that Wesleyan will show more fight against Trinity than against any other team, and the game will be a close one.

Official announcement has been made that the Army and Navy football game will be played on November 25th, the Saturday before Thanksgiving. This sets at rest all rumors that the big football match would be held on a gridiron other than that of the University of Pennsylvania. The selection of this date, however, makes a conflict with the Yale-Harvard game, which takes place on the same day.
