BOWDOIN TOMORROW. First Hard Game of Season Expected from Maine Team.

Saturday's game with Bowdoin on Trinity Field promises to be much more close and exciting than the last two The Bowdoin - Wesleyan matches. game last week gives a pretty fair basis for judging comparative strength, as Wesleyan still has practically the same team that Trinity defeated 14-13 last year, and with that team beat Bowdoin 7-6, in a very close and hard-fought struggle. Consequently, a good fight may be expected Saturday, when Trinity and Bowdoin meet for the first Professor Gettell is, however confident of the success of the Blue and Gold, and hopes for a fairly easy victory.

Bowdoin has a strong line and a good ground-gaining fullback. They depend almost entirely on line plunges and end runs, playing the old style game and using very few forward passes. The home team is likely to be without Captain Collett and Kinney, as Collett has not recovered from his injury of a week ago and Kinney has a very sore knee. Meyer and Dunsford are being worked into the two positions, and though not working in first-class style, will be able to give a good account of themselves.

Practice this week has been mainly devoted to strengthening the offensive. There was no scrimmage Tuesday, but on Wednesday the team lined up for practice against Hartford High. Immediately after practice, individual pictures of every man on the team were taken, and will be placed on sale shortly.

First S. D. C. Elections.

At a meeting of the Sophomore Dining club held Wednesday noon, the following men were elected to the club: Everett H. Hall, of Orange, N. J.; G. Dawson Howell, jr., of Hartford; James P. Murray, of Norwichtown; William B. Pressey, of Ashton, R. I.; Isaac B. Shelley, of New York City and Bertram L. B. Smith of Chicago.

FALL BASEBALL PRACTICE. Captain L'Heureux Brings Out a Promising Squad.

Captain L'Heureux has brought in the innovation of fall baseball practice at Trinity. The first practice was held Tuesday afternoon, with a good-sized squad of candidates out, including some promising new material. The work-out consisted mainly of fielding practice with about half an hour devoted to batting.

Carpenter, who entered the sophomore class from the University of Pennsylvania, this fall, showed up well behind the bat, while McEndy, '16, displayed good form at third base. Withington, '15, who was on probation last spring, looks good for an outfield position this year. Lambert, '16, and Holmes, '16, both of whom did good work in the underclass game last Monday, were prevented from reporting to Captain L'Heureux by football practice.

THE BULL MOOSE.

The Way He Rampages About the College.

An enthusiastic rally of the Progressives among the student body, was held Wednesday noon for the purpose of organizing a Trinity branch of active Bull Moose workers. Before the meeting was called to order, there was some dispute over a temporary chairman, as one of the students, a Wilson man in disguise, insisted that he should have the coveted honor. C. D. Ward, '13, over-ruled this contention, however, and took charge of the assembly himself. The first nominee for chairman was E. T. Smith, '13, who, after being unanimously elected,-the voice of the Wilson man was not heeded,-relieved the grateful chairman pro tem. The next officer unanimously elected was R. C. Noble, '13, who, amid roof-raising cheers, was acclaimed secretary.

There was some hitch about bringing about the unanimous election treasurer, occasioned again by the insurgent Wilson man. E. L. Ward '13, was nominated first, and immediately the nominations were closed. It was moved, seconded and voted that this also be unanimous, but the trouble-maker broke away from the plain-clothes men guarding him on either side, and demanded a vote by ballot. He was informed politely by every one present that there was no need for a ballot, whereat he danced up and down, shouting "Wilson". danced up and down, shouting Mandat this point, the voice of Hudson, the big all-American Bull Moose fithe West, was heard proceeding from where the S. D. the next room, where the S. D. C. meeting was being held. This so frightened the inconsiderate vaudeville performer that he left off his dancing and made a hasty exit through an upper window, after which the meeting window, after which the meeting proceeded in peace. It was planned that all members

It was planned that all members should read exhaustively upon the subject of Bull Moose, in order that opponents might be more easily defeated in controversy, and several parades, mass meetings, street-corner demonstrations, etc., were planned for the future. The meeting concluded with the singing of "Dear Teddy, 'tis of thee," and a loud Trin for Dr. Luther.

First Glee Club Rehearsal.

The first rehearsal of the Glee Club was held last evening at 81 Vernon St. Practically all of the twenty-five men picked the first of the week were there and leader Rosenbaum made the rehearsal the occasion of organization and a definite understanding as to the duties of the members of the club. At his suggestion, it was voted to hold short but busy rehearsals on Tuesday and Thursday evenings, these rehearsals to start promptly at 6.45 with a fine of ten cents for lateness, and twenty-five for unexcused absence.

The rehearsal was occupied chiefly with the song, "At Trinity", written by A. P. Burgwin, '82, and published in the Tripod last year. Two popular darky ragtime songs were also given a short rehearsal. The club will meet at the same place next Tuesday.

Y. M. C. A. RECEPTION. Large Crowd Entertained in Alumni Hall.

In pursuance of the custom instituted last year, the college branch of the Y. M. C. A. gave a reception Monday evening to the men of the entering class. As President Moses announced in his introductory remarks, the object of the reception was to have the freshmen become acquainted with the professors and their wives and the men in the higher classes.

Dr. Luther was the first speaker. He spoke in his usual fluent and impressive manner, urging the freshmen, and all others, too, to stand by the Y. M. C. A., not because of the name, but because it stood for something. That, after all, is the main thing, Dr. Luther said, to stand for something. So many men forget that characterbuilding is one of the most important courses in college. In spite of Dr. Luther's statement that in the last ten years or so he must have exhausted all possible permutations and combinations of words, there seems to be always something for him to say, and he says it in an original, forceful way.

Mr. A. L. Billings, head of the educational board of the Hartford Y. M. C. A., spoke next. Mr. Billings is a young man, only a year out of college, and he has all the energy and enthusiasm of youth. He was much in earnest about the good of the association, and he used many convincing arguments to show that all the best colleges were forming branches, and were doing wonderful work. In closing he spoke of the annual Northfield Conference which is held each spring under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A., and he urged all who could possibly manage it, to attend.

Moses then introduced Mr. Briggs, the librarian. Mr. Briggs chose as his subject, originality and individuality. Being such an ardent "Bull Mooser", Mr. Briggs doubtless finds originalty a most admirable quality. At any rate, he practiced what he preached, for his talk was scintillating with humor and originality from start to finish.

The reception closed with refreshments, and "'Neath the Elms", led by Rosenbaum, '14.

Many members of the faculty were present with their wives, and the refreshment period was pleasantly occupied by making acquaintances with the new men.

Bleachers Moved.

Yesterday afternoon, shortly after the beginning of practice in football, baseball and track, a good number of undergraduates, including many of the candidates who were practicing for the various teams, moved two of the three sections of the bleachers on the east side of the baseball diamond, to the west side of the football field. These sections were carried across the gridiron, but as great care was taken, very little damage was done to the turf.

FOUNDERS' DAY. Plans Being Made to Increase Its Importance.

The Autumn Holiday at Trinity College has had a rather curious history. In 1866, during the annual football game between the sophomore and freshman classes, one of the students met with a serious accident. For this reason the faculty forbade the playing of the usual game but granted a holiday at some date early in November which was first called "Compensation Day." A little later the date was shifted to November 1st-All Saints' Day- and was marked by appropriate services in the chapel as well as by the omission of lectures and recitations. For the last half dozen years or so the day has been given the sub-title of "Founders' Day" and distinguished alumni have made addresses in the chapel appropriate to the occasion.

With a view of still further increasing the importance of the day, the program of 1912 is to include the matriculation of the freshman class. It is proposed to have the usual celebration of the Holy Communion in the chapel, and, shortly thereafter, to assemble the whole college body and snch friends from town as care to attend, in Alumni Hall, It is probable that two or three degrees may be conferred. An oration will be delivered by the Honorable William Renwick Riddell of Toronto. Judge Riddell is a noted juridical authority and is well known in this country as an entertaining and instructive speaker. The college was fortunate enough to receive his acceptance of the appointment for Founders' Day some months ago. Following the oration the audience will probably withdraw except that the freshman class will remain to sign the matriculation pledge.

SECOND TEAM VS. HOTCHKISS. Hard Game to Be Played in Lakeville Tomorrow.

The second team plays its second game tomorrow, and it will line up against a worthy opponent when it faces the Hotchkiss eleven at Lakeville. Meyers, assistant manager of football, expects to take fifteen men with him. "Hobe" Cook, who is coaching the second, will also go.

Last year Hotchkiss had one of the strongest prep-school teams in the country. This season it lost over half the team, including Cole, the freshman who is handling right end on the 'varsity in such a capable manner.

Arbitration Prizes.

The Mohonk Conference on International Arbitration offers a prize of $100 for the best essay on "International Arbitration" by an undergraduate man student of any college or university in the United States or Canada. The contest closes March 15, 1913. Further particulars may be obtained at the college office.

Inter-fraternity Conference.

In response to a request signed by J. B. Moore, '13, and S. H. Evison, '13, representatives of all the fraternities in college met last night at 122 Vernon Street to draw up plans for an interfraternity rushing agreement. Considerable time was spent in discussion of the various clauses which should make up such an agreement. The plan in detail as agreed upon by the men present, is too long to publish in this issue of the Tripod but its main provisions are about as follows: No pledges shall be given or accepted until after the midnight of the Thursday following the opening of college in the fall. Invitations to join a fraternity are to be mailed to reach the addressee no earlier than that hour; The rushing season shall commence at noon on the Saturday before college opens and each day of the season shall be divided into six rushing periods; No fraternity shall have any man more than one-eighth of the entire number of rushing periods. Entertainment shall be limited to college and fraternity property.

A date card system such as is in use in other colleges was suggested and a method was worked out whereby each crowd should have as equal a chance as possible with each man.

The plan will be printed in detail in next Thursday's Tripod. It will be referred back to the fraternities, for ratification within the next three weeks.

Reporters' Meeting.

There will be a meeting of all candidates for the editorial side of the Tripod at 6.45 tonight in the Tripod office.

Y. M. C. A. MEETING. Freshman Bible Shown to Be Self-Supporting.

*

The meeting of the Y. M. C. A. held Tuesday evening, October 8th, was called to order by the president at 7.10 o'clock, fifteen members being present. Mr. Wroth opened with a word of prayer. The minutes of the previous meeting were read approved.

Mr. Hill for the Freshman Handbook committee, reported as follows: receipts from advertising, $134.00; sale of hand books, $6.00; total receipts, $140.00. Total expenses, including trade, cost of printing, debt on last year's book, and express, $135.30; leaving a balance of $4.70.

Mr. Fort for the social service committee reported three places where Sunday School teachers and boys' workers were needed, and urged the men willing to do such work to give him their names.

Mr. Hill for the Freshman Reception committee reported the reception a success, one hundred and twenty people present, and urged that the recentions present, and urged that the receptions be held oftener.

On motion of Mr. Ramsay, the reports were accepted.

Mr. Hill suggested that the secretary post a notice on the bulletin board so that freshmen and others desiring to join the association may learn how to do so.

There followed free discussion concerning the meeting night, it being finally decided to meet regularly every week on Monday evening, at which time the various Bible and social work classes will be held, and once a month to have a business meeting.

Mr. Fort moved to adjourn. Respectfully submitted,
