DEBATING ASSOCIATION.

Adopts Constitution and Elects Officers.

A meeting of the Trinity College Debating Association was held last Thursday to perfect the organization. The following constitution was adopted:

ARTICLE I.

Name.

The name of this organization shall be "Trinity College Debating Association."

ARTICLE II.

Object.

The object of this association shall be to promote the art of debating among the students of Trinity College.

ARTICLE III.

Officers.

Sec. 1. The officers of this association shall be the President, the Vice-President, the Secretary, and the Treasurer.

Sec. 2. The duties of the President shall be to preside at all meetings, to decide all points of order, and to represent the association on all occasions unless other provision be made by the association.

Sec. 3. The Vice-President shall assume the duties of the President in case of the absence or disability of the latter.

Sec. 4. The Secretary shall keep a careful record of all meetings and transactions of the association.

Sec. 5. The Treasurer shall collect and disburse all moneys due to or possessed by the association, subject to the approval of the association.

ARTICLE IV.

Membership.

Sec. 1. The initial membership of this association shall be determined by a committee of three elected by the general body of those desirous of becoming members of the association. Additional members may be elected from time to time at the pleasure of the association.

Sec. 2. Any one shall be eligible to membership in the association who is an undergraduate at Trinity College and is desirous of becoming a member.

ARTICLE V.

Meetings.

A meeting of the association shall be held once every two weeks. The day of the week and the hour of meeting shall be determined by the association at the beginning of each collegiate year. The meeting place shall be determined by the President.

ARTICLE VI.

Amendments.

This constitution may be amended in the following manner: The proposed amendment shall be presented in writing and shall be signed by three members of the association. It must then be passed at two successive meetings by a two-thirds vote.

The following officers were elected for this year:

President—E. M. Lazarus, '14.

Vice-President—L. F. Wallace, '14.

Secretary—R. L. Scofield, '15.

Treasurer—W. F. Borchert, '14.

The first debate will be held next Friday on the following subject: "Resolved: That the formation of a third party is of advantage to the people of the nation."

TRINITY'S LINE STILL UNCROSSED.

BOWDOIN TEAM SUCCUMBS TO THE TUNE OF 27 TO 0. HUDSON AND COLE THE STARS OF A SUMMER WEATHER CONTEST.

Trinity added another scalp to her football string, last Saturday, on Trinity Field, by running up a 27 to 0 score against the strong Bowdoin eleven. The Gold and Blue outplayed the Maine delegation from start to finish, and only once in the course of the whole game was Trinity's still uncrossed goal line in danger. The result of the game was particularly encouraging from a Trinity viewpoint, because Wesleyan recently defeated Bowdoin by a margin of only one point.

As Bowdoin was one of the strongest teams on this year's schedule, the Gold and Blue expected a warm tussle. The whole Trinity team fought hard and well for every point that was scored. While the highest credit is due to every man on the team for his share in earning a Trinity victory, the greatest individual work was done by Lawlor, Hudson, and Cole, with Captain Collett, and Sage pressing them closely for the honors. Hudson put up his usual, all-American game at full-back, ploughing through the Bowdoin line like a locomotive. Although forced to retire temporarily from the game, with a wrenched shoulder, in the second quarter, he "came back" better than ever in the next period. Cole put up the fastest game at end that has been seen on Trinity Field the season. Nothing got past him on the defensive, and his work on the offensive was equally brilliant. In the third quarter he intercepted a punt on Bowdoin's 25-yard line and ran it back for a touchdown. A little earlier in the same quarter, he had carried the ball over the Bowdoin goal line on a forward pass from Sage, but Trinity was off-side and the ball was called back.

Captain Collett played a remarkably strong defensive game, until compelled to retire with an injured ankle. His tackle of Faulkner after the latter had made a spectacular 55-yard run, was one of the features of the game. Lawlor was a consistent ground-gainer throughout the game. Whether sent through the line or around the end, the big half-back could always be relied upon for a substantial gain. Sage ran his team with faultless judgment, punted strongly, and showed a marked improvement in getting off his forward passes. The line men did splendid work in opening up holes for the back to plunge through, and though having no opportunity for brilliant work, played a steady, consistent, game. John Moore permitted no gains around his end, and effectually broke up every play. Castator was an unusually aggressive guard, and could usually be found near the bottom of every pile. Jim Moore, as defensive fullback, backed up the line in fine style, and during Hudson's absence from the game, did good work as offensive fullback.

For Bowdoin, Faulkner, La Case and Leadbetter put up strong games. Faulkner made a sensational 55-yard run in the first quarter that was the longest single gain of the game. Bowdoin showed a decided tendency to "rough it up" at times, and lost a good many yards on penalties.

At the beginning of play, La Case kicked off to Hudson who carried the ball from Trinity's 10-yard line to the 45-yard line before he was thrown. On the first Lawlor tore off 25 yards and on the next play, Hudson tore through the line for 15 more. Here Bowdoin held strongly against the attacks and after a few short plunges by the Trinity backs, intercepted a forward pass, which gave them the ball on their own goal line.

La Case punted to Sage on the 25-yard line. After line plunges by Hudson and Lawlor, Cole netted 10 yards on a forward pass. Bowdoin held against the next three charges, but on the fourth, Hudson ploughed through the line for the first score of the game. The tally was made within six minutes of the beginning of play. Kinney lifted the ball over for a goal. Score: Trinity 7, Bowdoin 0.

La Case kicked off to Collett on his 25-yard line, who carried the ball for 10 yards. Lawlor shot around the end for 25 yards, and Bowdoin was penalized for being offside. Rushes by James Moore, Hudson, and Lawlor brought the ball again within striking distance of Bowdoin's goal line and Hudson was sent over for the second time. He shot over the line in a spectacular dive which the visitors vainly protested was hurdling. Kinney missed the try at goal. Score: Trinity 13, Bowdoin 0.

Kinney kicked off to Faulkner who ran back 25 yards and had a clear field before him when he was spilled by Collett. The Bowdoin backs made several unsuccessful onslaughts against the Trinity line, and an incomplete forward pass followed. Sage obtained the ball on a failure at a drop-kick for goal and on the next play punted to midfield. The period ended a few seconds later with the ball in Bowdoin's possession on Trinity's 45-yard line.

At the resumption of play, Bowdoin failed to gain on both the double pass and the forward pass, and was forced to kick for safety, La Case booting the ball to Cole on Trinity's 35-yard line. Line plunges by Lawlor and Hudson netted the distance for Trinity. Bowdoin's defense now stiffened and when a try at forward pass was unsuccessful, Sage punted to the 15-yard line. A burst of brilliant ground-gaining by Leadbetter and Brown gave Bowdoin

RUSHING RULES.

Tentative Plans Drawn up Last Thursday Evening.

The following are the plans for a rushing agreement, drawn up by representatives of all the fraternities in college at a meeting held last Thursday evening. These are merely suggestions and before having any force must be ratified by the various organizations.

Rushing Season—The rushing season shall open at noon on the day on which the fall entrance examinations start and shall close at 10 p. m., on the Thursday one week from the beginning of college.

Pledges—No pledges shall be offered before Friday morning one week after the opening of college. The invitations to pledge shall be written on a uniform invitation card approved by an interfraternity council and shall be mailed to reach the person to whom they are directed not earlier than the Friday morning one week after the opening of college. No further invitation shall be given before or after this time.

Engagements—(a) Each man entering college shall register before an interfraternity committee before receiving or accepting engagements; (b) On registration, he shall be given a card, having on it spaces to correspond with the six periods of each day of the rushing season; (c) Each day of the rushing season shall be divided into the following periods: (1) 8 to 10 a. m., (2) 10 a. m. to 12 noon; (3) 12 noon to 2 p. m. (4) 2 to 5 p. m.; (5) 5 to 7 p. m.; (6) 7 to 10 p. m.; (d) First chance at the card of any man shall be given to the various fraternities in rotation following the order of their foundation at Trinity; (e) No fraternity shall be allowed to entertain a man more than one-eighth of the total of his possible rushing periods and not more than two of these shall come on a single day, nor shall more than one of these two include a meal; (f) No fraternity shall engage a man for more than one rushing period until each other fraternity has had an opportunity to procure a period; (g) A copy of these rules shall be given with each date card.

Entertainment—Entertainment of the men being "rushed" shall be limited to college or fraternity property.

Scrub Team Wins.

The Trinity second football team went to Lakeville Saturday and defeated Hotchkiss School by the score of 7 points to 6, in a close and exciting game. Both teams fought hard and the second team has reason to be proud of its victory. Hotchkiss had a somewhat lighter and less experienced team than the Trinity boys, but they put up a game battle, nevertheless. Both teams tried forward passes frequently, although Hotchkiss was not as successful in this style of play as was Trinity. Ives pulled off one very long run after receiving a pass, and on the whole was the individual star. Craig at fullback played a much-improved game and easily outpunted Hotchkiss. Vizner at quarterback, played a very heady game and scored Trinity's touchdown. Trinity's gains were made principally on end runs and trick plays.

"NOW THEN TRINITY"

It is hoped that every reader of the Tripod will peruse with care the tentative rules for rushing printed elsewhere in this issue. Imperfect they doubtless are, as all such things are imperfect at the beginning. So all who are interested in the ratification of them will welcome any suggestion which points to their improvement. There will probably be many small objections to particular clauses in the rules but no fault can fairly be found with their spirit and object, which is to give each man who enters, an absolutely fair opportunity to decide on the fraternity which provides the companionship most congenial and useful to him and at the same time to allow each fraternity plenty of time to become acquainted with the man to whom it may wish to extend an invitation to become one of its number.

first down three times in succession on as many plays and gave the Bowdoin supporters hope of seeing Trinity scored upon. However, the local line braced up again and La Case punted to Sage who ran the ball from his 10-yard line to the 35-yard line. Hudson received a blow on his shoulder in one of the following scrimmages and was forced to retire from the game for the rest of the period. Jim Moore was shifted from guard to fullback, John Moore from the end of the line to guard, and Smith was put in the game at end. Leadbetter intercepted a forward pass and gained 20 yards. Bowdoin netted 20 more in a successful forward pass. The next forward pass was unsuccessful, Sage capturing the ball and advancing it 10 yards. Sage punted to midfield, but the ball still remained in Trinity's hands, as Smith recovered it after a Bowdoin fumble. A forward pass, Sage to Lambert, made 10 yards for Trinity. The half ended with the ball near Bowdoin's 25-yard line. Score: Trinity 13, Bowdoin 0.

At the beginning of the second half, La Case kicked off to Collett. In three rushes by Lawlor, "Jim" Moore and Sage, Trinity gained first down, Cole, and Lambert gained 8 more yards and then Hudson plunged through the line and broke away for 20 yards. On the next play, Collett's injured ankle went back on him and he was obliged to leave the game, Meyer replacing him at right half. A 10-yard gain by Hudson and another by Lawlor placed the ball on Bowdoin's 10-yard line. On a fumble by Lambert, Bowdoin obtained the ball. Weatherill punted to Sage on the 20-yard line, but on another fumble, Bowdoin recovered the ball. Several rushes proving ineffective, Weatherill punted to Cole at midfield. Bowdoin was penalized 15 yards for interference with a fair catch. Hudson tore through center for 25 yards and Cole passed the line after a forward pass, but Trinity was penalized for offside play. Bowdoin now made a desperate stand and held Trinity for downs. Bowdoin punted to the 20-yard line and Cole shot through a broken field for a touchdown. Kinney kicked the goal. Score: Trinity 20, Bowdoin 0.

Weatherill kicked off to Sage, who made a run of 35 yards to midfield. On a fumble by Meyer, Bowdoin obtained the ball, and after a few plays, time was called for the quarter. Score: Trinity 20, Bowdoin 0.

At the beginning of the last quarter, Bowdoin had possession of the ball on Trinity's 35-yard line. Two onslaughts against the line gave Bowdoin no advantage. Howell intercepted a forward pass, fumbled, but quickly fell on the ball. Trinity had first down on the 50-yard line and Lawlor skirted the end for 10 yards. Meyer advanced the ball 5 yards, then Hudson plunged through for 10 more.

Lambert was kicked in the head and Bowdoin was penalized for slugging. This penalty helped materially and after a small gain by Meyer, Hudson crashed through the line for another touchdown. Score: Trinity 27, Bowdoin 0. Kinney kicked the goal.

Kinney kicked off to Faulkner. In a line plunge Leadbetter was knocked out and was relieved by Hall. Howell was knocked out also in the next play and Smith was returned to the game. Dunsford took the place Kinney was forced to leave because of injury. Bowdoin punted to Cole on the 30-yard line. Lawlor netted 10 yards. Hudson fumbled and Bowdoin recovered the ball. Bowdoin made two incomplete forward passes and attempted a drop-kick for goal which was caught by Cole who ran it back 15 yards. After a 10-yard gain by Hudson, Trinity was penalized for offside play and Sage punted to Brown on the 25-yard line. Trinity held Bowdoin for downs and as but a few seconds of play were left, Sage tried a drop for goal. It was unsuccessful, and the ball was captured by Bowdoin as time was called for the end of the game.

To Professional Men:
No class of men need life insurance more than do professional men. As a rule, the income of a professional man is largely, if not wholly, dependent on his brain, and when the activity of the mind ceases, his income ceases, or is at once greatly reduced.
The Connecticut Mutual Life Insurance Company offers to the professional man who desires to assure his wife and children for life, or for a specified term of years, the continuance of a substantial part, at least, of the income to which they were accustomed during his lifetime, a contract perfectly suited to these needs.

TAFT MEN ORGANIZE.
Formation of the "Republican Club" Saturday.
The history room again became the scene of a stirring political rally, when the adherents of President Taft assembled there Saturday afternoon to organize their forces.
The meeting was called to order by John B. Moore and proceeded to the election of officers with the following results:
President—F. S. Fitzpatrick, '14.
Vice-President—F. S. Mardsen, '14.
Secretary—Chas. Cook, '14.
Treasurer—W. L. Rosenbaum, '14.
A constitution, drawn up by the national Republican Organization, was then adopted. The purpose of the club is primarily to afford a rallying point for the republican students of the college. The club affiliates with the National Republican College League, and at present contains about twenty-five members.

DEMOCRATIC RALLY.
Wilson's Supporters Form Latest Political Organization.
A brief, but spirited meeting of the Wilson cohorts was held in the history room early Monday afternoon. S. H. Evison, '13, acted as temporary chairman, and, working under great difficulties, brought the meeting to order. After considerable cheering and stamping, the enthusiastic democrats selected the following cabinet:
President—R. P. Withington, '13.
Vice-President—S. H. Evison, '13.
Sec'y-Treasurer—J. S. Moses, '14.
Next the entire body voted to participate in the big democratic parade and rally next Monday evening.
Following another outburst, the meeting adjourned for lunch, hunger overcoming even patriotism. The Wilson Club announces that all may look for the salvation of the country any day now.

R. L. Deppen, '13, has been confined by a diphtheritic throat for the past two weeks at the Hartford Hospital. He has not yet returned to college.

R. W. Thomas, '13, who has been troubled with a nervous and muscular affection in his right shoulder since the beginning of college, left Sunday to stay with relations in Brooklyn. In case the trouble shows no improvement, he will return to his home in Centerville, Maryland.

Wesleyan-Brown Game.

Wesleyan's victory of 7-6 over Brown Saturday demonstrates her formidable strength in this year's football world. Her use of the new style game was very effective, especially noticeable being the forward passes between Bacon and Eustis. The Brunonians played the straight game throughout; and in this they feel keenly the loss of Sprackling around whom many of their plays were built last year. Although Wesleyan's touchdown was the result of a Brown fumble she nevertheless, deserved the game.
