GEORGETOWN WINS.

Visitors Hit Hard. Trinity's Errors Costly.

The Georgetown baseball team took Trinity's nine into camp Saturday afternoon by a score of 7 to 3. The visitors decidedly outplayed the wearers of the Blue and Gold in the field, and also displayed better stick-work, collecting twelve hits off Warner's delivery, as against Trinity's eight off Kelly and Fienle. Georgetown made but one error, Mulcahy's muff of a rather difficult throw at first, while four slip-ups were made by Trinity players, most of these coming at critical moments.

Hollander's work, both at bat and in the field, was the principal feature of the game. The Georgetown short-stop made three doubles and a single out of five trips to the pan, besides fielding his position in sensational style. Mullaney, the big Georgetown catcher, also hit the ball hard and played a star game behind the bat as well. For Trinity, Murray put up a great exhibition of fielding at third, while Captain L'Heureux, at his new position of second base, handled everything that came his way in professional style. Carpenter, Shelley and Brainerd showed up well at the bat, the first two mentioned gathering a pair of singles apiece, while Brainerd started Trinity's batting rally in the fourth inning with a beautiful two-sack smash. Brainerd also made a great throw to the plate in the first half of the fourth, nailing Mullaney with a big margin to spare. Gillooly, in left field for Trinity, played a star game, pulling down four difficult chances in the field, and displaying good form at the bat.

Georgetown got one run in the first inning on Hollander's double, an infield out, a base on balls to Davis, and McCarthy's single. Davis tried to score on McCarthy's wallop but was out on Withington's throw to Carpenter. A couple of hits, two bases on balls, and some slow Trinity fielding gave the visitors three more tallies in the next inning. No more Georgetown men crossed the pan until the sixth, when doubles by Mullaney and Hollander put another run across. Two more counts were added to Georgetown's total in the seventh, on three singles, a passed ball, and an error.

Trinity's first run came in the third, on a base on balls to Warner, Murray's infield out and Mullaney's error. Brainerd's double, and singles by Shelley, Gillooly and Murray resulted in two more runs for Trinity in the next inning. The Gold and Blue was unable to score thereafter.

The score:

MEETING OF TRUSTEES.

Favor Plan of Resident Secretary for Y. M. C. A.

At the meeting of the trustees of the college held Saturday, the proposition of a paid secretary for the Y. M. C. A., was laid before that body and approved. Furthermore, President Luther was authorized to use for the purpose of lodging the secretary any room he saw fit to so use.

Owing to the rush of junior week, the committee in charge of the matter has not been able to accomplish much recently in the way of obtaining subscriptions to the secretary's salary fund, but the amount pledged to date amounts to about $165. This represents the minimum amount which only a portion of the student body feels safe in pledging, while a large proportion of the men have not yet been canvassed. The committee hopes, too, that a number of the smaller amounts will be found to have grown when the time comes for collecting them. Under these conditions, it is fairly certain that before the close of the year, the full $250 which is hoped for from the undergraduates will be realized.

SENIOR DRAMATICS.

Playlet by Marsden with Various Musical Numbers.

Chairman W. Stewart Marsden of senior dramatics is now busy on a playlet which he will present during Senior Week. The production of "Arms and the Man" which had been suggested, has been dropped owing to the many difficulties in properly staging the piece. The plot of the new play is as follows: The Eta Beta Pi's of a certain college have received notice that J. Smith is coming to their college and alumni of their's advise them to look him over. But they find that many J. Smith's come to their college, three in all, and they proceed to rush these with vim and vigor. Other fraternities also take a hand in rushing the Smiths and there is much excitement. Finally, however, it turns out, after the Smiths have been pledged that the original J. Smith has gone to another college. During the play there will be a number of songs by the Glee and Mandolin Clubs, some Rosenbaum rags by Spofford, and various other musical numbers.

Tennis Team Wins.

The Trinity tennis team had little difficulty in defeating the Connecticut Agricultural College Friday afternoon by a score of six matches to none.

G. C. Burgwin, Trinity, defeated Henry, Aggies, 6-2, 6-2; E. L. Ward, Trinity, defeated W. Ackerman, Aggies, 6-1, 6-1; S. H. Edsall, Trinity, defeated Truman, Aggies, 6-0, 6-0; J. G. Mitchell, Trinity, defeated L. Ackerman, Aggies, 6-0, 7-5; Burgwin and Ward, Trinity, defeated Henry and W. Ackerman, Aggies, 6-1, 6-1; Squire and Edsall, Trinity, defeated L. Ackerman and Truman, Aggies, 6-1, 6-3.

"Aggies" Today.

The third home game of the season is scheduled for this afternoon, with the Massachusetts Agricultural College, on Trinity Field. Swift, '15, will probably be on the mound for Trinity.

Miss McAlpine.

Sunday morning, at 2 o'clock, Miss Anita McAlpine, sister-in-law, of Professor C. F. Johnson, died at her home at 69 Vernon Street. Miss McAlpine had been suffering for just about a week but had not been considered dangerously ill until Saturday night and her sudden death was a great shock to her many friends. She was very well-known and very popular with Trinity men, both undergraduates and alumni, and her absence from social functions about college will be greatly missed. Her kindly and amiable nature, her perfect friendliness and helpfulness to all with whom she came in contact, have made her one whom Trinity men particularly will remember with a deep sense of loss.

1914 CAPTURES MEET.

Hudson Gets Thirty Points. No Records Broken.

The annual interclass track meet was held on Saturday, with four of the college's best men away at the Pennsylvania Relay Carnival. Hudson, '14, was the star of the meet, capturing six first places, and putting his team far in the lead. 1914 was first with 71 points, 1916 second with 32, 1915 third with 15, and 1913 fourth with 7. The most notable performances of the afternoon were Hudson's hammer throw of 133 feet and Crehore's work in both the mile and half mile runs. His time in each event closely approached the college record.

The meet as a whole furnished an excellent prospectus of what the men will be able to accomplish in the forthcoming meets. In the sprints, Meyer, '16, made Hudson work hard for his laurels, but unfortunately he is ineligible to be in the meets. Hall, '15, and Lyon, '16, were absent, but are valuable men in the sprints. It will be hard to pick between Senay, '14, Mitchell, '15, and Young, '15, for a place in the team.

Captain Wessels, '14, was at Philadelphia with the relay team, but between Crehore, '14, Spofford, '14, and himself, some distance records are liable to go by the board this spring.

Hudson had things pretty much his own way in the weights. Edsall, '15, is a promising man at the discus, but did not compete in the meet.

Trinity has good men in both the jumps, and will not fall down in that department. The pole vault is not quite in a class with the championship work of the last few years, but Chow, '13, and Steven, '14, are capable of satisfactory and consistent work.

Hudson, '14 Hall, '15, and de Ronge, '14, will give a good account of themselves in the hurdles.

There will be a dual meet with the University of Maine this week Saturday on Trinity Field.

The score in detail:

Mile run—Won by Crehore, '14; W. George, '16, second; Bissell, '15, third. Time 4 minutes, 43 seconds.

High jump—Sage, '14, and Schmitt, '16, tied for first place, height 5 feet 4 inches; third, O'Connor, '16, height 5 feet, 2 inches.

120-yd. hurdles—Won by deRonge, '14; Perkins, '16, second; Morris, '16, third. Time, 17 seconds.

100-yd. dash—Won by Hudson, '14; Meyer, '16, second; Mitchell, '15, third. Time, 10 3-5 seconds.

440-yd. dash—Won by Baridon, '14; P. J. Young, '15, second; Senay, '14, third. Time 56, seconds.

Shot put—Won by Hudson, '14, distance, 35 feet, 2 inches; second, Schmitt, '16, distance, 30 feet, 8 inches; third, Castator, '16, 30 feet.

Two-mile run—Won by Spofford, '14; Swift, '14, second. Time, 10 minutes, 57 seconds.

OFFICE—1 SEABURY HALL

"NOW THEN TRINITY"

Another theft in Jarvis! Something has already been said editorially about putting the college under police protection during athletic contests, but of course no notice was taken of it. It certainly seems necessary to have police patrol of some sort while games are in progress down on the field, for at such times the buildings are usually deserted. The wonder is that more valuables have not disappeared. Perhaps now that several horses have been stolen the stable will be locked.

Concerning the Ivy.

One of the first things a freshman learns to do when he comes to Trinity is to develop class spirit. This is as it should be. Class spirit is a very fine thing, but like many other fine things, it can be run into the ground. At times it is decidedly overworked, or rather perverted, here at Trinity. We are inclined to forget to see things in the large, and look at them through the narrower medium of class prejudice. A notable example is the common attitude adopted each year towards the Ivy. It is true that one class gets out the Ivy, and each class rightly tries to outdo its predecessor. But while the juniors are working hard on the book, many of the members of the other classes, especially the seniors, are looking on with very pronounced scepticism, and often doing anything but trying to boost the Ivy. And occasionally some of the juniors themselves, the men who should do their best to support the publication, take particular delight in "knocking."

The reason for this lack of support is simply narrowness of point of view. We lose sight of the fact that the Ivy is not simply a class affair, but a book published in the interests of the whole college, and that therefore every man in college should do his best to help. It is true that if the seniors feel that their book is superior to that published by the class below them, they are decidedly pleased, whereas there should be a desire for continuous improvement. We are not referring especially to the classes now in college, for the situation has probably existed from time immemorial. Why not start now to regard the Ivy as belonging to each one of us? If the juniors turn out a good book, then it is so much the better for Trinity, and not simply a class triumph.

Relay Team Loses.

Trinity sent a team to compete in the great Relay Carnival held by the University of Pennsylvania, at Philadelphia on the twenty-sixth of April, but was unable to place. The race was won by Johns Hopkins University, with Haverford second, Lafayette third and New York University fourth in the remarkable time of 3:36. The race was thirtieth on the program and was the fastest of the thirty.

A bit of bad luck was encountered by Captain Wessels, who ran second, at the very beginning of his race. Just after he was touched by Hall he was hindered by the Johns Hopkins man who had just finished and who, exhausted, staggered across the track and into Wessel's way, delaying him considerably.

The team was composed of Hall, '15, Captain Wessels, '14, Lyon, '16, and Furnival, '15, and ran in the order named. Track manager Moses was in charge of the squad.

To Professional
Men:

No class of men need life insurance more than do professional men. As a rule, the income of a professional man is largely, if not wholly, dependent on his brain, and when the activity of the mind ceases, his income ceases, or is at once greatly reduced.

The Connecticut Mutual Life Insurance Company offers to the professional man who desires to assure his wife and children for life, or for a specified term of years, the continuance of a substantial part, at least, of the income to which they were accustomed during his lifetime, a contract perfectly suited to these needs.

ALPHA CHI RHO WINS.
Ferris and Baker Pitchers in No-Hit Game.

In a hitless game Alpha Chi Rho and Psi Upsilon crossed bats on Trinity Field last Friday morning. Alpha Chi Rho won the closely contested struggle by the score of 2 to 1. It was a pitchers' battle throughout, Ferris, '16, and Baker, '16, the two 'varsity recruit pitchers, twirling respectively for the former and latter-named teams. Ferris struck out nine men to Baker's five, but Baker only passed one man to first, while Ferris walked five. Tiger, '16, and Morris, '16, scored for the victors, Smith, '15, for the losers. Ferris and Roberts, '14, figured in a double play for Alpha Chi Rho. Four errors were chalked up against Psi U, and two against Alpha Chi Rho.

The score by innings:
 Alpha Chi Rho, 1 0 0 0 1 0
 Psi Upsilon, 0 0 0 1 0 0
 Carpenter, '15, umpired.

THIEVES AT WORK AGAIN.
Pilfer Rooms in Jarvis During Georgetown Game.

The time during which a baseball game is in progress seems to be a favorite period for thieves to work in about college. After Saturday's game Shelley, '15, missed his gold watch from his room in 36 Jarvis, and the next morning his roommate Edsall discovered the loss of a suit of clothes. A silver pencil on which was engraved the name of a Greek letter fraternity, had been detached from Shelley's gold watch chain and left in the room, while the watch and chain had been taken. A thumb-mark on the pencil is the only clue to the identity of the thief. In addition to the losses suffered by Shelley and Edsall, Warner, '13, returned to his room after the game to find fifteen dollars, which he had left there, missing. The same thief probably made both hauls. The Hartford detective force has been notified but as yet nothing has been learned of the whereabouts of the stolen property.

DR. LUTHER PREACHES.

Conscience The Only Safe Guide
Through Life.

Dr. Luther filled the pulpit as usual, at the Sunday morning chapel service, giving a brief and comprehensive talk on the subject of the individual conscience. Romans, XIV, 14: "to him that esteemeth anything to be unclean, to him it is unclean," formed the text of his sermon.

The words of the text, Dr. Luther said, referred to the old Jewish regulations regarding food, but may well be interpreted to mean that if a man thinks a thing wrong, for him it is wrong. Each man must decide for himself what is right and what is wrong, and when once his conscience has decided, he must obey it, and not anybody else's conscience. The communal conscience has improved, as formerly slavery, polygamy and drunkenness were not considered wrong.

The speaker also emphasized the fact that we ought not to judge other people's actions purely by our own standards, as they may be acting as seems right to them but wrong to us.

When one's conscience says, 'do this, it's more likely to lead one astray, for sometimes the voice of conscience is the voice of fanaticism. But despite this danger, a pure and unsullied conscience is man's surest guide through life. It may sometimes lead him into foolishness and failure, but it will always lead him upward. It is a triumph, indeed if as we grow older, we still cling to our untainted conscience of younger days.
