SPRINGFIELD TAKES GAME.

Visitors Win 5 to 3 in Five Inning Contest.

In a five-inning game played yesterday afternoon on Trinity Field, Springfield Y.M.C.A. College defeated Trinity 5 to 3. The contest was fast and exciting, but Trinity managed to get in the accustomed bad inning that cost the team a victory. Trinity led off with a tally in the second, but the visitors came into their own in the third, piling up four points, aided by a few timely hits and a few Trinity errors. Swift started on the mound for Trinity, but was replaced by Warner when Springfield began to find him in the third. Shelley's stop of a red-hot bounder at a ticklish point of the contest was the feature of the game.

Captain L'Heureux gave the infield another shaking-up Wednesday. Murray shifted from third to short, Gillooly from second to third, and Shelley from short to second. The new arrangement seems to be the most satisfactory of the several tried thus far.

Trinity retired Springfield's first batters in one-two-three order. Withington walked, but was left on third at the end of the inning. Trinity started the scoring in the second, when a nice little single from Brainerd's bat sent in Gillooly, who had worked his way around to third in his usual professional style, after getting his base on an error. At her next time up Springfield had her inning. Swift hit Eddy, who advanced to second when Gillooly juggled Wielt's bunt. Diehl sacrificed, sending Eddy to third and Wielt to second. Shelley prevented a score by scooping up a stinger from Chittick and whipping the ball home in time to cut off Eddy. Fountain singled one out over second, scoring Wielt and Chittick. Kelley was passed, while Haskins got on by Vizner's error in left garden, and Fountain crossed the plate after a wild throw by Swift. Warner was sent in to improve matters and allowed Ritchie only a pop fly, which L'Heureux pocketed, putting an end to the melee. Trinity captured another point in the fourth, L'Heureux doing the trick when Eddy tossed a wild one. Gillooly's sacrifice helped to advance L'Heureux, who had received his base on an error. Both sides added another in the fifth and last inning, Chittick for Springfield and Ives for Trinity. Ives went in as pinch hitter and rapped a safe one over first base on the first ball pitched. He was sent home on a drive by Carpenter. When the inning ended, Springfield had a margin of two runs.

Improved spirit on the part of the college body was shown. A larger number attended than previously, and many hearty "Trins" rolled out from the grandstand.

The score:

WESLEYAN TOMORROW.

First Game of Series With Trinity's Old Rival.

The Wesleyan baseball team comes to Hartford, Saturday, to join battle with Trinity in the first contest of a three-game series. In spite of the rather disappointing record of the Blue and Gold nine to date, Trinity supporters have good reason to hope for better things in tomorrow's contest. Wednesday's set-to with Springfield, although resulting in a Trinity defeat, was far from discouraging. The new alignment of the Blue and Gold infield worked like a charm. Captain L'Heureux seems finally to have hit upon an infield combination that will work together.

In the outfield, Brainerd is showing great form both in the field and at the bat, while his two colleagues are holding up their ends well. Norton Ives, who showed he had the stuff as a pinch hitter, Wednesday, ought to make the outer gardeners hustle to hold their jobs for the rest of the season. On the whole, Trinity's nine looks better now than at any previous time this season, and tomorrow's contest should prove a good, warm battle.

Notice.

A letter has been received from the manager of the Hartford Rubber Works calling attention to the educational work in Chemical Engineering offered by the Company, and inviting any members of the class of 1913 who are interested to confer with the officials of the Company at their office in Parkville.

MEET WITH BOWDOIN.

Squad of Fifteen Takes Trip to Brunswick.

The track team left this morning for Brunswick, Maine, where it will meet Bowdoin on Saturday in the first dual meet ever held between the two institutions. The following men, under the management of Hill, '15, have taken the trip: Captain Wessels, Hall, de Ronge, Crehore, Spofford, '14, Lyon, P. J. Young, Hudson, Furnivall, Steven, Edsall, Baridon, Paulsen, H. A. Sage and Chow.

The prospects for a victory for the Blue and Gold seem bright if comparative times can be reckoned on. Except for Captain Haskell in the 440, McFarland in the hurdles, Hall in the two mile and Faulkner in the broad jump, the Bowdoin men, have so far, shown no evidences of performances as good as those made by Trinity men last Saturday. Nevertheless, the Brunswick men are always a tough proposition on track and field, consequently while all indications point towards a Trinity victory, that victory can only be obtained by the hardest kind of work from each of the fifteen men.

A Bowdoin alumnus has offered a cup to the winner of the meet.

More From Big League.

Wednesday morning in one of the best games that have been played in the Intramural League this year, the Alpha Chi Rho's defeated Delta Kappa Epsilon by the close score of 2 to 1. The game was a pitchers' battle from start to finish with Ferris and Dooman as the participants. The former struck out thirteen men and the latter succeeded in disposing of eleven by the strike-out route.

The Dekes scored their lone tally in the first inning. No scoring was made after that until the seventh and last inning when Furnivall's single drove in two runs for Alpha Chi Rho.

The score by innings:

D. K. E.,	1	0	0

Batteries: Dooman and Craig, Ferris and Kyle; umpire, L'Heureux, '13.

New Lights in Alumni Hall.

Besides the great improvement lately made in the appearance of the Alumni Hall by the repainting of the walls and ceiling, in about a week there will be a new lighting system which will add greatly to the attractiveness of the hall. Electricians are now at work lowering the present lights about three feet from the ceiling. Instead of the old and somewhat feeble lights, there will be two hundred candle power tungstens, throwing indirect rays. The indirect rays are well diffused and much better for the eyes than the direct. New footlights are also being placed in the stage.

WORK OF COLLEGE GRADUATES.

Education Outstrips Ministry and The Law.

"What becomes of our college and university graduates?" is a question which a recent bulletin, prepared by the government Bureau of Education and lately reviewed in the New York Times, endeavors to answer. The bulletin contains a maze of statistics, interesting as statistics go, compiled from a study of the records of the pursuits of graduates from thirty-seven of our most prominent universities, excluding the technical schools. The statistics date from the first graduation class at Harvard in 1642, up until 1900, and the total number of students graduated in this time from the thirty-seven universities is 100,009.

In 1642 the percentage of graduates who entered the ministry was 70. Within three years' time the percentage had begun to drop, with varying rapidity and some recoveries until it has now reached the low ebb of about six per cent. The legal profession had few followers at first but claimed about thirty per cent. of all graduates at the close of the eighteenth century. Education and business show a consistent and steady increase in the number of their followers, while public service attracts a decreasing percentage of college men, and medicine about the same.

To quote from the New York Times: The principal facts disclosed in the history of the graduates living and dead of these American colleges and universities are:

1—Teaching, as a result of a phenomenal rise during a quarter of a century, is taking 25 per cent. of the graduates, or about 5 per cent. more than any other profession.

2—Commercial pursuits, after an almost equally phenomenal rise, are taking about 20 per cent.

3—Law, although taking one-third of the graduates at the beginning of the century, takes but 15 per cent. at its close.

4—Medicine takes between 6 and 7 per cent. and has manifested a slight tendency to decline.

5—The ministry takes between 5 and 6 per cent., which marks the lowest point for that profession during the two and one-half centuries of American college history.

6—Engineering pursuits, after a slow but certain rise, take between 3 and 4 per cent.

The Bureau's bulletin should be of great value to educators, as it will render possible the establishment of curricula with a clear knowledge of past developments and present tendencies.

Mr. Waterman left Hartford at the beginning of the week for a short visit to Atlantic City. He is expected back within a few days.

The Glee Club.

With the close of the glee club season a word in appreciation is certainly forthcoming. Most of the men in college are able to contrast this year's club with those of previous seasons, and it seems safe to say that they will unanimously accord the palm to the organizations of 1912 and 1913. The reason for the success of the club this year is two-fold. In the first place it was particularly fortunate in having as trainer, Mr. Weyhe, who devoted so much of his time to smoothing off the rough places and making the men sing with real expression. But the trainer by himself could not have accomplished much without the co-operation of the members of the club and of the leader. We cannot praise Mr. Fort too highly for his work as leader. By his own example of promptness, cheerfulness and hard work, he inspired the rest of the men to do their best, and we feel sure that if he has charge of the club next year it will be a pronounced success. The only fault to find with this year's club is that its concerts were all in Hartford and the vicinity. A good club is a good drawing card for the college and it is to be hoped that next year's itinerary will include many places which were not visited this season.

Baseball is ever a game of ups and downs. So far in Trinity's present season, the downs have had it. But, by all past performances of fickle Dame Fortune, the luck is due to turn at last. The team is working better now than at any previous time this season, and all the auguries indicate tomorrow's game with Wesleyan as the turning-point.

But the flighty Dame must be helped along. The team may be trusted to do its part. How about the rest of the college? There is a difference between frank criticism and "crabbing." More in sorrow than in anger, after some of this spring's exhibitions, the Tripod, with its—ahem!—usual devotion to truth and accuracy, has been compelled to say somewhat unkind things. But this criticism of the men's work, in a particular game or games, is one thing; verbal "knocking," by individuals with a bowing acquaintance with baseball, is quite another. So, away with the hammers!

Wednesday's game revealed the fact that part of the college body still remembers how to give a "Trin". It behooves the rest of the undergraduates to burnish their memory in regard to this little point before tomorrow's contest. The team may be trusted to show Wesleyan that "pep" is not solely a football property at Trinity. Go, ye bleacherites, and do likewise!

When a visitor attends week day chapel at the college, his impressions of the students are not quite the same as those received by the junior week guests who flock to the vespers service. As we are somewhat removed from that part of the city where the Sunday best is in order at all times, and as in general ourselves are the only ones who are unfortunate enough to have to witness our personal appearance on the campus, it is only natural that most of us should wish to economize on good clothes. Those who have laboratory periods are especially loath to don a good suit when sulphuric acid is liable to be spilled recklessly upon the clothing. Thus far, there is a good excuse for wearing such articles of apparel so that it would not greatly matter even if the test tube were to break, or a machine were to fling grease around too promiscuously. This should not mean, however, that the oldest and most dilapidated sweater obtainable must be worn to chapel in lieu of a coat, or that a ragged shirt which had seen the wash tub last fall should have the begrimed collar band turned in so as to display the fact that B. V. D.'s were worn. In particular, when it is known that a visitor is very likely to appear at the morning chapel, it would help give him less of an impression of coal-miners, stevedores or knights of the road if the averseness of the shirt to the wash tub were hidden by a second-hand coat, and the sweater were introduced to said tub, or if the latter garment is too far gone for that to help any, a better looking one might be borrowed for the occasion. Also, an old tie surrounding some sort of a collar and hanging down in front of the antique shirt would not only look better than the advertisement of the B. V. D., but would help hide said shirt from view, and make a much better impression.

No class of men need life insurance more than do professional men. As a rule, the income of a professional man is largely, if not wholly, dependent on his brain, and when the activity of the mind ceases, his income ceases, or is at once greatly reduced.

The Connecticut Mutual Life Insurance Company offers to the professional man who desires to assure his wife and children for life, or for a specified term of years, the continuance of a substantial part, at least, of the income to which they were accustomed during his lifetime, a contract perfectly suited to these needs.

Neutral Body Wins.
 Playing Tuesday morning in a heavy fog that rendered the fielding of both teams very erratic, the Neutral Body baseball team defeated the I. K. A. nine by the score of 8 to 4.

Usher, who was in the box for I. K. A., pitched as good a game as could be expected under the adverse weather conditions. His support was decidedly shaky, however, a majority of the Neutrals' runs resulting from errors. Paulsen, who started to pitch for the Neutrals, was wild and retired in the second inning in favor of P. J. Young, who pitched hitless ball for the rest of the game. McCue's batting was a feature.

The score by innings:

Hockey Elections.
 The hockey team met last Friday and elected G. C. Burgwin, jr., '14, captain and J. Landon Cole, '16, manager for next year. The prospects for next year are very bright as only Alfred Howell, '13, and F. J. Brainerd, '13, are to be lost by graduation and Burgwin, R. F. Walker, Little, H. L. Brainerd, G. D. Howell, jr.; A. Johnson and Bassford remain in college as a nucleus for next year's team.

Spring Football Practice.
 Captain Lawlor is holding daily practice for the members of the football squad who are not engaged in track or baseball activities. The work consists mainly of forward passing and the general handling of the ball. The following men have reported: B. L. Smith, James Moore, Dawson Howell, Castator, Dexter, Sage, Harding and C. B. Spofford, Jr.
 Early fall practice will be held again this year at the football camp at Madison, beginning September 13th.
