

BOWDOIN WINS MEET.

Crehore and Hudson Break Records
In Two-mile and Hammer.

The track meet held between Bowdoin and Trinity at Whittier Field, Brunswick, Me., on Saturday, resulted in a victory for Bowdoin, the score being 74 to 52. Bowdoin captured eight first places to six of Trinity's. Hudson and Crehore were the stars of the meet. The fierce wind and intense cold stiffened up the athletes somewhat and particularly handicapped the Hartford men, who were not quite as accustomed to that style of weather as their northern rivals. The fifteen men who made the trip under the supervision of Hill, '15, report that they greatly enjoyed the trip and have nothing but words of praise for the courtesy and hospitality of their hosts.

The meet furnished plenty of excitement as the teams, were tied twice in the course of the afternoon, once at 36 points, and once at 42. Hudson was the high point man, getting away with two firsts, a second, and a third, 14 points in all. In the hammer throw, he broke his own college record, raising it from 138 ft. 4 in. to 141 ft. 7 in. Crehore won both the mile and two-mile, lowering his record in the latter event by 18 seconds. Wessels won the half-mile and soon afterwards got second in the two-mile event, pulling up from last place by a remarkable sprint on the last lap.

Although Trinity cleaned up everything in the distances, Bowdoin landed first place in all three dashes. Lyon, however, gave Smith, the winner of the 220-yard dash, a good run for his place. Trinity got both hurdles, Hall and Hudson winning the high and low hurdles respectively.

The Gold and Blue was whitewashed entirely in both the high jump and the discus, and only made a third in the pole vault.

Smith gained the most points for the winning team, netting two firsts and a third.

Summary of events:

100-yd. dash—Smith, Bowdoin, first; Hudson, Trinity, second; Wyman, Bowdoin, third. Time, 10 2-5 seconds.

1 mile run—Crehore, Trinity, first; Spofford, Trinity, second; Tarbox, Bowdoin, third. Time, 4 min. 43 4-5 secs.

120-yd. high hurdles—Hall, Trinity, first; MacFarland, Bowdoin, second; deRonge, Trinity, third. Time 16 4-5 seconds.

440-yd. run—McWilliams, Bowdoin, first; Haskell, Bowdoin, second, Furnivall, Trinity, third. Time, 54 secs.

880-yd. run—Wessels, Trinity, first; Russell, Bowdoin, second; Wright, Bowdoin, third. Time, 2 min., 7 2-5 secs.

2-mile run—Crehore, Trinity, first; Wessels, Trinity, second; Norton, Bowdoin, third. Time, 10 min, 21 2-5 sec.s

220-yd. dash—Smith, Bowdoin, first; Lyon, Trinity, second; Haskell, Bowdoin, third. Time, 22 4-5 secs.

220-yd. hurdles—Hudson, Trinity, first; Hall, Trinity, second, Fox, Bowdoin, third. Time, 27 2-5 secs.

FIRST BLOOD OF SERIES DRAWN BY BLUE AND GOLD.
FERRIS MAKES DEBUT AND PITCHES GREAT GAME.

Trinity's baseball team has "found itself." In a well-played, although one-sided game, on Trinity Field last Saturday, the Blue and Gold downed Wesleyan by the score of 10 to 2. The hero of the day was Ferris, the Trinity freshman pitcher, who made his 'varsity debut under the most trying conditions—and made good. But the highest credit is due the rest of the team as well. In the field they supported Ferris in almost faultless style, only one error being charged to Trinity. On the offensive, the wearers of the Blue and Gold displayed some big league stuff, both at bat and on the base-paths. Take it all in all, the game was a Trinity "come-back" with a vengeance.

It is difficult to single out stars, when the team as a unit played such splendid ball. Ferris, of course, deserves safely three times, besides covering the primary pillow in graceful style. Murray got a two-bagger and a single, and fielded like a veritable fiend, his unassisted double play in the second inning being the fielding sensation of the game. Gillooly's rousing three-base wallop played a big part in Trinity's third inning rally. Gillooly also ran bases in Ty Cobb fashion. Vizner, in left field, made two great catches in the eighth inning.

The weather was suited to football rather than to baseball, but this did not affect Trinity's fielding in the least. On the contrary, the Blue and Gold fielders displayed by far the greatest accuracy and "pep" that they have shown this season.

The cheering was of the football variety also. This revival of the outward and audible sign of Trinity spirit the center of the spotlight. The youngster conclusively proved his possession of a good arm, a good head, and, last but far from least, good nerve. Injected into his first 'varsity game, with two men on bases and nobody out, the freshman twirler retired the next trio of batters in one-two-three order. Although in tight places more than once during the remainder of the game, he never wavered and, aided, it is true, by the gilt-edged support, always pulled himself out of the hole. Wesleyan gathered but six hits off Ferris' delivery, two of these coming in the ninth inning.

There was more than one hero of this conflict however. In fact, there was a nice little galaxy of them. Capt. L'Heureux, Murray, Carpenter and Gillooly proved themselves mighty warriors on the offensive, while this same quartette, together with Shelley and Vizner, did surpassingly nifty work on the offensive also.

Carpenter had a red-letter day all around, collecting three singles out of five trips to the plate, and performing some thrilling acrobatic feats behind the bat as well. Captain L'Heureux also had a big day at the bat, connecting undoubtedly contributed to the successful outcome of the game. Throughout the battle, the stands were one mighty voice, now basso profundo, thundering "L'Heureux!", now melodiously yodeling "Gillooly!"

The play by innings:

First inning—Swift, who started in the box for Trinity, passed Wright and Persons. Ferris relieved Swift, and fanned Martin. Durling forced Persons at second, Murray to Shelley. Beeman grounded out to Gillooly. No runs.

Murray out, Stanley to Durling. Withington went out by the same combination. Carpenter singled, but was out attempting to steal. Gilman to Wright. No runs.

Second inning—Holden and Davidson singled in succession. Gilman out, Gillooly to L'Heureux. Murray made a corking catch of Stanley's low liner and doubled Holden off third, unassisted, retiring the side. No runs.

L'Heureux singled. Gillooly followed suit. Brainerd fanned. Shelley walked. Vizner forced L'Heureux at third, Stanley to Beeman. Gillooly took third on a passed ball and scored on a wild pitch. Ferris flied to Stanley. One run.

TENNIS TEAM VICTORIOUS.

Brown and Springfield Y. M. C. A.
Easily Taken Into Camp.

The Trinity tennis team took five matches to Brown's one in a tournament held Friday morning on the college courts. The games were played in a cold drizzle of rain which prevented very speedy playing. The summary:

Singles.

Burgwin (Trinity) defeated Greene (Brown), 6-2, 6-2. Ward (Trinity) defeated Beuhler (Brown), 6-4, 6-2. Edsall (Trinity) defeated Joslin (Brown), 6-4, 6-1. Barnett (Trinity) defeated Candler (Brown), 6-4, 6-2.

Doubles.

Burgwin and Ward (Trinity) defeated Beuhler and Greene (Brown), 6-3, 6-0. Guild and Joslin (Brown) defeated Barnett and Edsall (Trinity), 6-4, 5-7, 6-2.

The team was also successful, by the same score, on Saturday against the Springfield Y. M. C. A.

COMMUNICATION.

To the Editor of the Tripod:

As one of the few much interested in the success of the commencement exercises, permit me through the Tripod to make a suggestion which was more than seconded at the last commencement day. The suggestion is that the young men be allowed to read their papers. It is simply excruciating to listen to orations illy prepared and nervously delivered. And as for the orators themselves,—I speak from experience,—nothing is so trying as to commit such an oration so as to be absolutely sure of it. The late Professor E. E. Johnson would not allow us to pass except we could recite the oration verbatim. In his day nobody ever missed; one would go on reciting it unconsciously. But oh, how wearied with the everlasting dinning of it in the head! One could devoutly wish he had never attained the honor.

But a paper carefully prepared or an oration committed, if the speaker prefers, would save the audience the annoyance of hearing the prompter,—i. e., two speakers at the time; the impression would be much more pleasing, and the reputation of the college suffer no damage.

J. F. GEORGE, '77.

Third inning—Wright out, Ferris to L'Heureux. Persons singled and completed the circuit on Withington's error. Martin singled and stole second. Durling raised a foul fly to Carpenter. Shelley took care of Beeman's fly. One run.

Murray singled and took second on Withington's out to Durling. Carpenter singled, scoring Murray. L'Heureux was safe on a fielder's choice, Carpenter also being safe at second. Gillooly tripled, scoring both runners. Brainerd struck out. Holden dropped Shelley's Hospitality.

Criticism without some feasible suggestion for reform is poor policy. Most of us are inclined to be too generous with little pointers of a purely critical nature. But there are so many faults of so patent a character that it seems almost superfluous to mention them, much less the remedies for them.

We pride ourselves on many things here at Trinity. There is one thing, though, that we all cannot rightly regard as one of our possessions, and that is hospitality. Comparisons are always odious—to somebody, and when we compare our way of treating guests with the hospitality of other colleges, the comparison is not in our favor. As we said, this is almost too obvious to mention. The track team returned from its Maine trip, beaten, but with only the highest praise for the treatment accorded it by Bowdoin. Our Brunswick rivals did everything in their power to show each Trinity man a good time and to make things as comfortable for him as possible. Down here at Trinity do we put ourselves out to entertain guests? To a certain extent we do, and we are satisfied to let it go at that, but we need to take a lesson from Bowdoin in real hospitality. It is true that different conditions obtain in the two colleges. Hartford is a large city and offers many varieties of excuses for non-appearance around college, whereas the collegians in a small town have little to do off the campus. Nevertheless this fact, does not lessen our obligations to visitors, particularly visiting teams. The remedy is simple,—we must be willing to sacrifice a little of our own pleasure to make it pleasant for our guests.

Fourth inning—Holden struck out. Davidson did likewise. Gilman walked. Stanley fled to L'Heureux. No runs.

Ferris was out on a long fly to Persons. Murray doubled. Withington fanned, and Carpenter hit a terrific drive to Martin. No runs.

Fifth inning—Ferris threw out Wright at first. Persons fanned. Martin out, Murray to L'Heureux. No runs.

L'Heureux singled, but was forced at second by Gillooly. Ives, who had succeeded Brainerd in right field, grounded out, Wright to Durling. Shelley out, Stanley to Durling. No runs.

Sixth inning—Shelley gobbled Durling's fly. Beeman strolled and stole second. Holden also walked. Davidson whiffed. Gilman fled out to Withington. No runs.

Vizner singled, and Ferris was safe on Wright's error. Holden muffed Murray's fly and Vizner and Ferris scored. Murray also tallied on Carpenter's single. L'Heureux fled to Beeman. Three runs.

Seventh inning—Stanley cropped the breezes. Murray threw out Wright at first. Persons walked and took second on a wild pitch. Martin also walked, but Durling whiffed. No runs.

Gillooly strolled, and went all the way to third when Wright muffed a throw from Gilman. Ives fanned.

To Professional Men:

No class of men need life insurance more than do professional men. As a rule, the income of a professional man is largely, if not wholly, dependent on his brain, and when the activity of the mind ceases, his income ceases, or is at once greatly reduced.

The Connecticut Mutual Life Insurance Company offers to the professional man who desires to assure his wife and children for life, or for a specified term of years, the continuance of a substantial part, at least, of the income to which they were accustomed during his lifetime, a contract perfectly suited to these needs.
