WESLEYAN EVENS UP SERIES.

Defeats Trinity 3 to 0 in Seven Inning Contest.

In a seven inning game, played for the most part, in a drizzling rain, on Trinity Field last Saturday, Wesleyan shut out Trinity by a score of 3 to 0. When the drizzle became a downpour in the seventh inning, umpire Rorty called a halt. When, after an interval of half an hour, the rain had not abated, the arbiter announced that the game was called.

The contest was close and interesting, and, taking weather conditions into consideration, was decidedly fast as well. Ferris and Stanley indulged in a pretty pitchers' duel. In spite of the fact that Trinity was the loser, honors were almost even between the two twirlers, Ferris allowing three hits during his tenure of office, striking out five men, and issuing passes to three, while Stanley was touched for four singles, fanned seven batsmen, and gave no bases on balls. Swift, who started in the box for Trinity, passed Wright, the first man up, Persons then lined out a terrific drive for three bases, and Swift retired in favor of Ferris.

The fielding feature of the day was contributed by Brainerd. In the fourth inning, Trinity's heady right fielder backed up first base in perfect style, on Ferris' wild heave of Durling's grounder, and then made a magnificent throw to second, nailing the runner. Shelley, at second for Trinity, made some beautiful stops and throws, while Murray took care of the short-stop's job in his usual brilliant style. Persons of Wesleyan, in addition to finishing his three-ply wallop in the first, made four clever catches in left field during the game. Vizner, in left for Trinity, pulled down two difficult flies. Another fielding feature was the throwing to second of catcher Gilman of Wesleyan.

Wesleyan's first two runs came in the first inning, when Wright got his base on balls, Persons tripled, and Martin scored Persons with a long sacrifice fly to Brainerd. The Red and Black's third and last run came in the seventh. In this inning, Stanley singled, Wright walked, and Carpenter dropped a third strike on Persons, throwing to first, however, in time to get the runner out. Stanley made a dash for the plate on this play, and tallied when Gillooly, over-eager, dashed in front of Carpenter to take L'Heureux's throw, and dropped the ball.

Withington made Trinity's first hit in the opening inning, but was caught attempting to steal second, Gilman to Hayward. In the next inning, Gillooly knocked out a pretty single, but was also flagged at second, Gilman to Hayward. Trinity's best chance to score came in the fourth when, with two men out, Captain L'Heureux smashed out a rousing double, and took third on a passed ball. Gillooly, the next batter, gave the sphere a mighty

DR. LUTHER PREACHES.

Talks of Relation of Man to His Fellow Men.

Romans XIV: 7, "For none of us liveth to himself, and no man dieth to himself," was the text of Dr. Luther's sermon Sunday morning at the chapel service.

"Several days ago," said Dr. Luther in part, "A student left in my office a text-book of Physics, and in looking through it, I chanced upon a conjectural picture of the arrangement of the molecules in a magnetized and in an unmagnetized bar of iron. The picture brought out with clearness the fact that a uniform arrangement of the molecules was necessary to produce magnetization and that only by being correctly arranged with respect to the other molecules did any single molecule count for much. It is the same way with men. All mankind are related, no one can live or die to himself. There is a tendency among us to blame heredity for our shortcomings, but what we make of ourselves depends on our adjustment toward others with whom we work.

"The thought may come that it is an insignificant lot for us to be merely molecules in the great organization of things, but it is far better to be a molecule than a microbe. It is indeed splendid to be an infinitesimal part of the whole which God is building up.

"How shall we adjust ourselves correctly? By trying to organize for good works to help God arrange the molecules in this college. Our power for good and evil depends almost entirely on our relation with other men. Let the apostle's word sound through our lives. We are living to our parents, our classmates, our fraternity brothers, living to justify sacrifices made hundreds of years ago, for future generations, to others, and to God."

1916 Class Meeting.

At a special meeting of the Freshman class, probably the last one this year, two sets of freshman rules were drawn up for the guidance and benefit of 1917. After some discussion, the set drawn up by E. G. Schmitt was chosen and sent to the Senate for approval. The only change, save that of wording, is the introduction of a rule requiring the freshmen to wear a special toque or hood during the cold weather.

The election of a representative to the college Senate next called for the attention of the class. The contest finally narrowed down to F. B. Castator and C. F. Perkins. The final ballot showed the latter the winner.

Sacrifice hit, Persons; sacrifice fly, Martin; two base hit, L'Heureux; three base hit, Persons; hits, off Swift 1, off Ferris 3 in 7 innings; first base on balls, off Swift 1, off Ferris 3; hit by pitched ball, Gilman, Durling; struck out, by Ferris 5, by Stanley 7; left on bases, Trinity 3, Wesleyan 7; passed ball, Gilman 1; time, 1:15; umpire, Rorty; attendance 500.

DARTMOUTH WINS EASILY.

Scores 62 Points. Hudson Only Point Winner For Trinity.

Dartmouth cleaned up the annual New England Intercollegiate track and field meet held at the Harvard stadium on Saturday by the largest score ever made by one team. The Green scored in twelve out of fourteen events, scooping in 62 points in all. Brown, Holy Cross, Maine and Wesleyan had a pretty contest for second honors, coming out in the order named. Although slow time was to be expected on account of the wet track, three track records were lowered, and three weight records lifted. Trinity sent a squad of eight men to the meet, and four of them got through the preliminaries. One of them, Hudson, scored a point in the hammer throw.

Two records, the mile and half mile events, were broken by Captain Norman S. Taber of Brown. He bettered the former record in the mile by 5 4-5 seconds, bringing it down to 4 minutes, 18 3-5 seconds, and clipped off two seconds from the half mile record, making a new mark of 1 minute 57 3-5 seconds. R. W. Atwater of Tuft's chopped 30 seconds off of the association's two-mile record in what was undoubtedly the most remarkable race of the day. His time was 9 minutes, 35 3-5 seconds, and each of the first nine men in the field finished under the old record. Crehore of Trinity, who finished eighth, ran it under 9 minutes, 48 2-5 seconds. This is over twenty seconds faster than his new record made in the Wesleyan meet.

The three weight records were out-distanced, L. A. Whitney of Dartmouth heaved the shot 46 feet 3 1-8 inches, exceeding the former distance of 45 feet, 8 inches. Whitney of Dartmouth added over 6 feet to the record when he skimmed the discus 135 feet, 9 inches. The hammer record also fell before the onslaught, H. P. Bailey of Maine making a throw of 153.8 feet. Bailey outclassed his opponents in this event; no one else seemed to be in usual form. Hudson captured Trinity's only point with a throw of 132.8 feet, getting him fourth place. As the jumps and pole vault had to be held on turf instead of the cinder run warp, no records were challenged in these events.

Wendell of Wesleyan won both hurdle events. Hall of Trinity qualified in a fast trial heat, but had a bit of hard luck in the semi-final event. He tripped on the third hurdle and after sliding along the track as far as the next hurdle, picked himself up and finished, showing true Trinity spunk. Furnivall missed qualifying by inches, holding third place in his heat of the 440-yard dash until the last turn when he was hopelessly boxed and had to slacken his pace. He finished a very close fifth. Sage qualified in the high jump, but failed to score.

DARTMOUTH WINS EASILY.

Total points: Dartmouth 62; Brown 16; Holy Cross 13; Maine 12; Wesleyan 10; M. I. T., 9; Tufts 7; Williams 7; Colby 5; Bates 4 1-2; Worcester Poly 3; Amherst 2 1-2; Bowdoin 1; Trinity 1.

With the N. E. I. A. A. meet in Boston Saturday our track season came to a close. At first sight, glancing at the record, we would naturally be inclined to say that it has not been a success. It is true that as far as winning meets is concerned, the team did not show up very brilliantly, but winning meets is not the only thing to be considered. Was any progress made towards an increased interest in track? Was material developed for next year? To these questions we can certainly answer "yes." Captain Wessels and Coach Olmstead have done a great deal, both by developing the material on hand and by persuading new men to come out. Unless the unexpected happens, the whole track team, with the exception of two men, will return next year, and if the services of Mr. Olmstead can be obtained again, there is every reason to believe that we can go through a victorious season. Let us hope that the athletic advisory board or whatever body has charge of engaging coaches, will be far-seeing enough to make sure of Mr. Olmstead next spring. He is most efficient, and being a Trinity man himself, puts himself wholeheartedly into the work. Best of all, he is popular with the squad and every man will work hard for him.

We take this opportunity of reminding the students that there are still a number of Ivy's left on the business manager's hands, still unsold, and as there also enough undergraduates who ought to get a copy to greatly diminish the stock, all who do not own a book should communicate the sum of $2.00 just as soon as possible. After all, it is a college publication, and not strictly limited to the class which has charge of it, and as such it should be supported by the college body. "Support each year's Ivy as you would that your own should be supported."

To the alumni who are still undecided whether or not to indulge in the current edition, we wish to say that the book really deserves all the praise that is being given it, and you will not regret the purchase of it. To those alumni who, perchance through an oversight, have had no intention of making the purchase, we wish to give a gentle reminder that the book is really out, and ready not only to take you back to your own college days, but to give you an insight into the life of Trinity as it is at present.

JOHNSTONE WINS AGAIN.

Tennis Championship Still Claimed
By Amherst Man.

The New England Intercollegiate Tennis championships in the singles have been won by Johnstone of Amherst, and in the doubles by Bacon and Richards of Wesleyan, who defeated Johnstone and Cady of Amherst. This gives Amherst four points on the tennis cup, which goes to the college first winning seven points. Wesleyan now has one and one-half points and Dartmouth has half a point.

1915 Ivy Elections.

At a meeting of the sophomore class held Monday, officers for the 1915 Ivy board were elected. Thos. Cook Brown, of Jamestown, N. Y., athletic editor of the Tripod, was chosen editor-in-chief, with Bertram B. Bailey, of Yantic, Conn., as business manager. In accordance with the ruling passed by the senate last year, the editor-in-chief has appointative power in choosing the rest of the board.

Francis Bell Stites, of Louisville, Ky., was re-elected class representative on the college senate.

Hartford Club Dance.

An informal dance was given by the members of the Hartford Club to their friends at Grange Hall, Wethersfield, Thursday evening. Sixteen dances, each of which called forth two or more encores, were given, the music being rendered by the Tempo orchestra. The hall was artistically decorated with blue and gold streamers, and the walls were bedecked with college banners and pennants. Mr. Stratton was chairman of the committee on arrangements. The patronesses were: Mrs. D. J. Coyle, Mrs. C. F. Ludwig, Mrs. J. O. Stratton, and Mrs. E. R. Woodhouse. Among the dancers present were: the Misses R. Brown, A. Cannon, L. Treadwell, C. Glynn, A. Buckley, G. A. Allen, F. Coty, N.
